ARTICLE I.

NAME

The name of the corporation is Colorado Early Colleges-Fort Collins Building Corporation.

ARTICLE II.

DURATION

The corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE III.

PURPOSES AND POWERS

Section 3.1 Purposes. The corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for educational purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. - (1) supporting high quality education in Colorado;
- (2) making high quality education facilities available to students of charter schools;
- (3) holding title to property and otherwise act to facilitate the operations of Colorado Springs Early Colleges, a Colorado nonprofit corporation and operator of Colorado charter schools; and
- (4) supporting other organizations, projects, and initiatives that are organized and operated for similar purposes.

Section 3.2 Powers. In furtherance of the foregoing purposes and objectives (but not otherwise) and subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 4.3, the corporation shall have and may exercise all of the powers now or hereafter conferred upon nonprofit corporations organized

In furtherance of the foregoing purposes and objectives (but not otherwise) and subject to the restrictions set forth in section (c) of this article, the corporation shall have and may exercise all of the powers now or hereafter conferred upon nonprofit corporations organized under the laws of Colorado and may do everything necessary or convenient for the accomplishment of any of the corporate purposes, either alone or in connection with other organizations, entities or individuals, and either as principal or agent, subject to such limitations as are or may be prescribed by law.

(a) No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to any director or officer of the corporation or any other individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the benefit of the corporation affecting one or more of its purposes), and no director or officer of the corporation or any other individual shall be entitled to share in any distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the corporation or otherwise.

(b) No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. However, if the corporation is an organization to which section 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code applies and the corporation has effectively elected to have such section apply, the corporation shall have power to carry on the activities permitted by such section, but only to the extent such activities shall not result in the denial of exemption under such section. The corporation shall not participate or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

(c) Upon dissolution of the corporation, all of the corporation's assets remaining after payment of or provision for all of its liabilities shall be paid over or transferred to Colorado Springs Early Colleges, if it is then a Colorado nonprofit or otherwise exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the code, or if it does not exist or fails to qualify as exempt from federal income tax, to and among one or more exempt organizations described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code. The organizations to receive such property, and their respective shares and interests, shall be designated by the board of directors.
