Executive Summary

Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC) is rooted in our vision to create a network of community-embedded schools that are led by Teacher Leaders, co-created with families and partners, and enable all children to cultivate their unique identities and gifts in pursuit of their fullest potential as individuals and contributors to a more just world.

To achieve this vision, WMPSC is creating an ecosystem of six intentionally small, teacher-led charter sites in Aurora where students grades PK-6, families, and teachers connect deeply and grow together through their school journey. Our mission is to provide families with child-centered, authentic Montessori education that bridges academic outcomes and social-emotional development through intimate learning communities deeply rooted in place, equity, and belonging.

WMPSC Aurora is part of the Wildflower state-wide charter ecosystem currently composed of two regions, Grand Valley and Aurora, where we are proposing multi-site charter schools. These regional charters are unique - they are wholly place-based and led by local Teacher Leaders who bring the Wildflower model to their communities. The WMPSC Aurora charter school nurtures each child's unique academic and social needs by providing high-quality Montessori learning environments that:
- Offer identity-affirming, differentiated learning opportunities for all students;
- Meet or exceed Colorado state performance management framework standards;
- Partner with Colorado Charter School Institute's (CSI) vision for hyper-local charter schools that meet the needs of their communities;
- Understand Aurora Public Schools (APS) 2026 Strategic Plan and APS Blueprint, and how these plans affect educational and community planning in Aurora;
- Consider Aurora's diversity as one of the area's greatest strengths and embrace Aurora's 2020-2030 Immigrant Integration Plan.

The Wildflower Schools model is a national movement of Montessori microschools across the country, in 14 states and holding charters in Minnesota, New York, and Washington DC. Wildflower began as an idea launched out of the MIT Media lab as a partnership between parents and teachers who envisioned a new, community-centric educational model. Wildflower was founded as a solution to the traditional U.S. education system that operates from a "factory model" of post-industrialism, which views individual schools as institutions, students as products moving through undifferentiated learning experiences, and teachers as using only tools to teach, rather than developing and sustaining relationships with students as the keystone of their work.[1]

Wildflower was also founded in response to public school systems that have historically and systematically oppressed people, especially those with marginalized identities, which leads to limited educational and career opportunities resulting, on average, in lower pay and professional respect.[2] These problems, in our schools and in our society, have been reinforced over the last two years during the pandemic. In Aurora, WMPSC is designed to be responsive to this unique place in Colorado, responsive to Aurora's status as the third largest city in Colorado and one of the most racially, ethnically, and socio-economically diverse communities in the United States. With 15 percent of the population living in poverty, 20 percent of its residents foreign-born, 57 percent of APS students identifying as Latino[3] and over 160 languages spoken,[4] WMPSC believes that our identity-affirming model is a valuable educational option in Aurora's landscape where large schools and suburban sprawl have isolated students, teachers, and families.

WMPSC schools connect services and create social networks that prioritize belonging, access, and relationships. Our small school sites make it easier for children to be seen as individuals and for all families to feel heard in their interactions with teachers, allowing for active classroom roles for parents, parent education on child development, and continuous communication between the whole community supporting each child's needs. WMPSC school sites draw on the assets of the neighborhoods they are rooted in, grounded in the belief that change comes from the community and that local communities are fully capable of solving the challenges they are closest to. We aspire to a two-generation approach to teaching and learning at every WMPSC site.

The Aurora community believes in us too. WMPSC received 177 Intent to Enroll forms from Aurora families for the 62 available spots for children who will enter Pre-K to 2nd grade when our first two microsites open in the 2023-24 school year. We also garnered seven letters of support from local education leaders and community supporters. In partnership with Aurora nonprofits, we are developing co-facilitation plans while connecting and amplifying our families' access to local services.

WMPSC Teacher Leaders are local change makers, laying the foundation for WMPSC to create the Aurora ecosystem of microsites that will be identity-affirming, joyful, and child-centered learning environments for 244 children. Teacher Leaders are experienced Montessorian, driven by the understanding that the Montessori Method is proven effective for all students, yet, too often the domain of homogeneous and largely elite populations.

Since March 2021, educators have been drawn to the Wildflower model, seeing the need to expand Montessori access to a socio-economically, racially, and culturally diverse population. Flame Lily, an independent Wildflower preschool in Aurora has inspired a Wildflower public charter school. Flame Lily is an equity-rooted, affordable learning environment, opening in co-location with a community center this fall 2022. This development spurred conversations to form a Colorado Wildflower Steering Committee – a team composed of local Teacher Leaders, Montessorians, parents, nonprofit, business and government professionals, and the Colorado Wildflower partner – to explore a network of state-wide charter sites. The result was the creation of Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC) and evolving the Steering Committee into a formal Board of Directors.

This collective effort to take a community and educators' dream, support it, and develop a vision, mission, and charter around it reflects the Wildflower approach. WMPSC is designed to be responsive to educators with a vision for Montessori microsites and communities who hear about Wildflower and want to work together to bring a Wildflower school to their neighborhoods. This is happening in Aurora.

The small size of WMPSC sites makes it easier for children to be seen as individuals and for all families to feel heard in their interactions with teachers, allowing for active classroom roles for parents, parent education on child development, and continuous communication between the whole community supporting each child's needs.

To meet our mission, live our vision, and add an innovative educational option for Aurora families, WMPSC will create six small Montessori charter sites, serving students in PK-6th grade. Each site enrolls only 20-45 students and is led by two Teacher Leaders. As the chart below shows, by 2027-2028, 244 students will be served across all six sites.

All Wildflower Teacher Leaders are social entrepreneurs, committed to the art and science of teaching and leading a Montessori classroom. Wildflower Teacher Leaders begin imagining their classroom during the School Startup Journey (SSJ), a systemized, holistic professional development program where entrepreneurial educators use their experience as Montessorians and equity-minded community leaders to develop their unique vision that meets the regulatory expectations of our authorizer, CSI, and the Colorado Department of Education (CDE). What emerges from the SSJ are inspiring, coherent school plans co-designed with the community. The relationships made during this process support recruitment efforts, andtranslate into a thriving school culture that reflects the assets and investment of local businesses and partners who have built and contributed to the neighborhood.

Teacher Leaders continue deep and frequent professional development trainings and equity-rooted coaching long after the SSJ, modeling continuous growth and innovation, motivated by the focus on their own well-being and leadership accountabilities. In Aurora, WMPSC Teacher Leaders are supported by charter-wide staff, including the Shared Services Partner, the equivalent of a traditional charter CEO, Student Services Coordinator, the equivalent of a Special Education Coordinator, and Finance Partner. Together, the staff and Teacher Leaders create the conditions for our community- to share the work and responsibilities of ensuring WMPSC schools operate to the highest standards.

Our governance and administrative approach is rooted in radical transparency and employs thoughtful processes for clarifying accountability, integrating multiple perspectives into decisions, and collaboratively resolving conflict. As a charter defined by 'freedom within limits,' the staff and Teacher Leaders are accountable to one another; the Board of Directors holds the Shared Services Partner accountable for charter-wide responsibilities and Teacher Leaders accountable for site-specific responsibilities, including student performance and well-being. The WMPSC Board of Directors is guided by our organizing policies that are the foundation of our work. WMPSC is carefully designed as a thriving, inclusive ecosystem, reflecting the interconnectedness of children, adults, and community to realize our vision and exceed the metrics outlined in our charter contract.

A. Vision and Mission

Vision Statement

We envision a diverse network of community-embedded schools that are led by Teacher Leaders, co-created with families and partners, and that enable all children to cultivate their unique identities and gifts in pursuit of their fullest potential as individuals and contributors to a more just world.

"Visualizamos una red diversa de escuelas integradas en la comunidad que están dirigidas por maestros líderes, que se crean conjuntamente con familias y compañeros, y que permiten a todos los niños cultivar sus identidades y dones únicos en la búsqueda de su máximo potencial como individuos y contribuyentes a un mundo más justo."

Mission Statement

The mission of Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC) is to provide families with child-centered, authentic Montessori education that bridges academic outcomes and social-emotional development through intimate learning communities deeply rooted in place, equity, and belonging.

La misión de Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC) es brindar una educación Montessori auténtica, que una los resultados académicos y el desarrollo socioemocional, en entornos de aprendizaje vibrantes y únicos profundamente arraigados en el lugar, la comunidad y el sentido de pertenencia.

WMPSC is a state-wide charter ecosystem currently composed of two locations, the Grand Valley and Aurora, where Wildflower has proposed opening multi-site charter schools that will ultimately serve 396 students in these two regions. These charters are unique: they are wholly place-based, led by local Teacher Leaders who leverage the Wildflower model to bring about their vision. In Aurora, WMPSC is a network of six intentionally small sites designed to provide an exemplary education to students in grades PK-6. The charter school sites in northwest and east Aurora nurture each child's unique academic and social needs by providing high-quality Montessori learning environments that meet or exceed Colorado state academic standards and offer identity-affirming, differentiated learning opportunities for all students.

Since 2010 when Aurora Public Schools (APS) were identified as a "Priority Improvement" school district by the Colorado Department of Education, APS has been working to "turn around" and eliminate systemic and structural inequities that these metrics show. To families, this has meant that access to high-quality schools is inconsistent[5] and unpredictable, and that solutions are driven by a top-down approach. In 2020, APS implemented a new strategic plan, APS 2020: Shaping the Future, "designed to foster disruptive innovation and move the strategic levers of readiness, talent and flexibility."[6] More recently, APS has begun to implement its Blueprint APS Master Plan and reorganize school boundaries and regional specializations, as well as close beloved elementary schools.[7] During the development of these plans, Aurora families have made their voice clear, in board meetings and participatory planning - families want more school choice, personalized learning, and to retain small community schools that have fostered children's and teachers' wellbeing, learning, and ability to be nimble in making student-centered decisions.

WMPSC has stayed apprised of the ongoing issues of the district. We believe that our vision and mission of creating access to public Montessori education within Aurora - one of the most racially, ethnically, and socio-economically diverse communities in the United States[8] - re-centers Montessori to its founding roots in equity and social justice. The Montessori Method individualizes learning, supporting each child's unique gifts and needs on the path to self-actualization and independence. Montessori is an ideal learning model and approach for children living in diverse but marginalized settings.[9]

The WMPSC Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging Agreement (Appendix A_DEIB Agreement) is a commitment that our community agrees to - from Teacher Leaders to board members to staff. This living document expresses a recursive cycle of learning, acting, and reflecting on our diversity and equity practices, modeling for students and families our approach to a more just world. We are intentional about putting tools in place to be inclusive and create environments where every person feels they belong. In this way, WMPSC is also helping CSI achieve its mission of fostering high-quality schools that serve all students.

Beyond our mission and vision, the Wildflower purpose, norms, values, and principles (see figure below) are guideposts for our charter. Our distinctly different model creates quality thriving sites in Aurora neighborhoods, intentionally small and community-embedded through deep family engagement, teacher-leadership, and sustained local partnerships that endure well after the microsites open.

B. Evidence of Need, Support, and Involvement

Target Student Population

B.1. WMPSC Growth Plan

The WMPSC Aurora growth plan is to open six microsites in Northwest and East Aurora by 2028. A Primary (PK) and one Lower Elementary site will open in 2023; WMPSC will add a second Primary and Lower Elementary site in Year 2 followed by two Upper Elementary sites in Year 4. The detailed growth plan is below:

Grade level	Year 1 (2023-24)	Year 2 (2024-25)	Year 3 (2025-26)	Year 4 (2026-27)	Year 5 (2027-28)
PK3	10	20	20	20	20
PK4	10	20	20	20	20
K	12	24	24	24	24
1	15	30	30	30	30
2	15	30	30	30	30
3	-	30	30	30	30
4	-	-	30	30	30
5	-	-	-	30	30
6	-	-	-	-	30
Total Aurora WMPSC Students	62	154	184	214	244
Primary Sites (PK-K)	1	2	2	2	2
Lower Elementary Sites (1-3)	1	2	2	2	2
Upper Elementary Sites (4-6)	-	-	-	2	2
Total WMPSC Sites	2	4	4	4	6

B.2. Projected Growth Plan Process

The WMPSC projected enrollment, growth, and matriculation plans were determined based on opening six microsites in Aurora across five years. The growth reflects:
- Montessori practices of a multi-age classroom;
- Wildflower microsites, averaging 45 students per site, led by two Teacher Leaders;
- Teacher Leaders' interest in opening a WMPSC microsite in Aurora and time to complete the School Startup Journey (Appendix B_Wildflower School Startup Journey Deck);
- Relationship building with community partners and holding a solid reputation with CSI and district families;
- The need in Aurora to increase PK availability and access;
- The need in Aurora for high-quality school options in Northwest and East Aurora;
- Fiscal balance to operate a high-quality micro-school ecosystem supported by charter-wide services.

During our community engagement efforts, we have heard from families about a desire for a small, intimate school community that fosters deep relationships among students and families. Our growth reflects our ability, fiscally and operationally, to offer the following qualities that have been voiced:

- Embracing all identities and teaching in culturally responsive ways;
- Individualized learning;
- Mixed-age;
- A diverse student body and staff;
- A safe, inclusive learning community;
- Hands-on learning opportunities;
- A small, intimate school community that fosters a strong sense of belonging.

B.3. Target Student Population

The WMPSC target student population is listed below, based on averages of proximal schools (Section B.5. below) and WMPSC's commitment to building access to Montessori for marginalized students. WMPSC plans to reflect the demographics of APS as a whole in our target population, while understanding that enrollment at WMPSC is open to all students:[10]

School	%BIPOC[11]	% Free or Reduced Lunch Eligible (FRLE)	% Special Education	% Multilingual Learner	% Gifted
WMPSC Anticipated Demographic	77.0	75.0	14.0	42.0	5.0
Demographic of Aurora Public Schools (APS)	86.6	75.0	14.0	42.0	5.0
Peoria Elementary	96.2	95.9	17.7	70.2	2.1
Vassar Elementary	77.6	60.3	15.7	28.0	2.8
Murphy Creek Elementary	59.3	40.3	12.6	11.8	6.5

B.4. Projected Student Demographic Process

The projected student demographics were determined by analyzing the demographics of APS as a whole and the schools most proximal to where we plan to locate (detailed in Section I). Additionally, WMPSC is co-creating our microsites in partnership with local families, parents, and residents and our Community Design Team liaison, Butterfly White. These voices have advised that our projected demographics for BIPOC, FRL, special education, and multilingual learners be on par with district-wide demographics, and averaged with the three proximal schools where we expect to locate. This projection correlates to our Wildflower principle of equity and our norm of unity. WMPSC is in Aurora to bring the Montessori Method to all students, especially to a demographic with historically less access to the Method and a population that can benefit from identity-affirming and culturally responsive education.[12]

Existing Performance & Educational Options

B.5. Proximal Schools

Included in the tables below are public and public charter schools closest to our proposed facilities in Northwest and East Aurora, our target areas, detailed in Section I. These schools have been analyzed based on their educational model, grade level, programmatic offerings, and cost. Public charter and independent schools are also listed because we are a unique 'alternative' Montessori model that few other proximal schools represent.

B.6. Proximal Schools Academic Performance

Included in this table are schools located in Northwest and East Aurora. Additionally, we researched the independent charter and in-district charter schools' 2019 Performance Frameworks Official Performance Ratings (CDE) to understand the options and performance of schools in proximity to our proposed locations.

B.7. WMPSC Educational Option

Aurora currently offers limited Montessori options for area families, and WMPSC will significantly increase access to an affordable Montessori education option for families in this region. There is only one existing public charter school (Montessori del Mundo Public Charter School) that enrolls approximately 338 students, has a waitlist for 2022-23, and is located in one central location. WMPSC will open access for families wishing to enroll their children in a public Montessori school across Aurora, especially those closer to Buckley Space Force in East Aurora, where there are limited options. Existing Primary Montessori options are detailed in the Pre-K Addendum.

The majority of elementary schools in the geographic area in which WMPSC proposes to open are not yet meeting academic performance or growth expectations, as defined by the Colorado Department of Education and CSI. Given the research outlined in Section E that supports the Montessori Method's effectiveness in academic achievement, particularly for economically disadvantaged students, WMPSC will offer an educational option for the target population that meets or exceeds the academic performance of the regional public and charter schools.

WMPSC also offers a unique opportunity because the Montessori model is inherently designed to support students on an individual and differentiated basis, a model made even more possible by the small size of our microsites. Our Teacher Leaders co-create their microsite with the community, offering individualized support for every student, especially multilingual learners, students with disabilities and mental health needs, and students identified as gifted and talented. WMPSC is targeting to support these subpopulations based on averages either the same as or above district-wide percentages and aligned with public elementary schools in our geographic area. There is a need in Aurora for additional spots for families seeking an educational model different from the traditional elementary options currently available in the area.

B.8. Community Engagement

Over the last several months, members of the WMPSC Board of Directors, including Teacher Leader Martha Briggs, Community Design Team Liaison Butterfly White, Board Chair Latia Henderson, and Interim Shared Services Partner Hannah Ewert-Krocker, have initiated an extensive community engagement process involving multiple critical stakeholders in the Aurora community, including local parents, area non-profit organizational partners, families and employees, and local community leaders.

Strategies in which our team has engaged these key stakeholders over the past eight months, virtually and in-person, include:
- Social media outreach on local parent groups and community message boards;
- One-on-one Discovery Interviews with prospective parents, community leaders, and community organizations;
- Outreach to community partners that serve prospective families.
- Virtual town halls to provide information on the Wildflower model and our charter plans and gather input from the community on WMPSC's mission and vision (Slide deck used during our virtual town hall is referenced as Appendix B_Virtual Town Hall Slideshow);

- Design, conduct, and debrief Discovery Interviews (Appendix B_Discovery Interview Framework), seeking open-ended feedback from families in the community about their goals and vision for education for their children and communities and aligning the vision of our charter network with the needs of the community;
- Ideate Town Hall events and ways for the community to be involved, knowing that our community engagement work and content evolves and can not be prescribed or fully anticipated without the voices of the Aurora community;
- Create and collect the required Intent to Enroll forms, authentically forming relationships and trust building during this solicitation;
- Generate and engage potential partner organizations through the community's existing relationship channels.

Rooted in Wildflower's principle that school is a seamless learning community, blurring the boundaries between home and school, WMPSC sites cannot thrive without community collaborators, nor can a student reach their potential without the engagement of the family. Our Steering Committee has initiated a community co-creation plan with strong community support for WMPSC that centers the perspectives of families furthest from opportunity.

Discovery interviews, partnership conversations, and informal connections with local families were intentionally open-ended, designed to solicit honest feedback about community members' visions for their children's education without expectation or agenda. Through these conversations, our Teacher Leaders learned that families want schools that address the following needs and themes:
- Parents are seen, heard, and involved in their children's education: they want opportunities to be in dialogue and collaborative partnership with their children's schools, including meaningful and intentional connections with teachers and staff;
- School is a place where children are seen for who they are as unique individuals and feel safe being themselves. They want their children to be known, and they want school staff to have a deep understanding of children's backgrounds and specific stories and situations so that their care for and response to children can be individualized;
- Schools are small, allowing for the inclusion of parents and the support for children on an individual level, as stated in the first two bullet points;
- Teachers are empathetic and care for the whole child above and beyond children's racial backgrounds or academic progress;
- Mixed-age classrooms and learning experiences, which allow for more time to follow students' individual learning pathways and for children to learn from and be empathetic to children of different ages.

Many of these desires expressed by community members in Aurora reflect WMPSC's vision for expanding access to individualized Montessori education in the public sector. Additionally, these desires have contributed to and helped to solidify WMPSC's plans for family involvement, including the vision for and development of our local Community Design Teams, which will be hyperlocal coalitions of families, organizational partners, and local community leaders. These Community Design Teams will be involved in and contribute to several key design aspects of the school microsites and will be mobilized once the charter is approved.

Additionally, conversations with local community organizations and leaders about the educational and programmatic needs of historically and educationally disadvantaged students contributed significantly to WMPSC's expected target population, our decision to locate our microsites in the Northwest and East Aurora areas (described in more detail in Section I), and our plans to ensure that our organization is more than adequately staffed to support the needs of students in this target population, specifically economically disadvantaged students, multilingual learners, and students with disabilities and mental health needs (described in more detail in Section D).

It continues to be our goal to prioritize connecting with community leaders and organizations that work directly with educationally disadvantaged students and their families and with whom relational trust has been established. For example, there are plans to engage families at the Buckley Air Force Base by offering a free Montessori class on or near the base.

WMPSC recognizes a language barrier, although our outreach and marketing materials (including social media) and forms have been translated into Spanish and Martha Briggs, a Teacher Leader has translated at events. In our search for a Shared Services Partner, a desired quality is local experience and Spanish-speaking. We plan to continue to engage with families served by these partner organizations throughout the fall. Strategies and details for our community engagement plans that will continue through 2022-2023 can be found in Appendix B Aurora Community Engagement Plan and are noted throughout our Planning Year Timeline, detailed in Appendix B_Planning Year Timeline.

B.9.10.11. Community Interest

Our Founding Board and Interim Shared Services Partner are using an interest form (Appendix B_LOI Form) to solicit interest in enrollment at outreach and canvassing opportunities that have thus far included:
- The Village Institute (1440 Elmira St. Aurora, CO 80010)
- African Leadership Group (10700 E Evans Ave, Aurora, CO 80014)
- Lava Island (452 Sable Blvd, Aurora, CO 80011)
- Skate City (15100 E. Girard Ave, Aurora, CO 80014)
- King Soopers (15250 E Mississippi Ave, Aurora, CO 80012)
- Sharing Our Blessings (15620 E. 6th Ave Aurora, CO 80011)

Through our comprehensive community engagement efforts, we have received 177 Interest Forms for 62 spots in Year 1, detailed in the table below. The following table reflects what we have received to date. We expect that by the end of September, we will exceed 180 letters.

Grade Level	Number of Students in Year 1	Interest Forms
PK	20	77
Kindergarten	12	38
1	15	30
2	15	32
Total	62	177

B.12. Community Support

Even at this early stage, Aurora families and community members are energized by the possibility of WMPSC being a viable choice for their child. The Steering Committee has developed relationships with multiple local and regional community organizations, and the work of expanding organizational partnerships is advancing each week. Below is a list of community organizations with whom we are currently partnering and from whom we have received letters of support:

- African Leadership Group (ALG): We are building a partnership with the leadership at ALG in order to connect with immigrant families who may be interested in joining our Community Design Teams, enrolling their children in our schools, and co-designing our neighborhood school sites. ALG has already connected us to many families in their community to share our vision for WMPSC, and, as a result, ALG families have filled out our Intent to Enroll forms and participated in our Town Halls. Our plan for an ongoing partnership is to continue collaborating with ALG to host at least one event (and attend others) where we can connect with ALG community members about their involvement in the development of our school sites. We anticipate that ALG members will join our Community Design Teams and participate in our inaugural lottery in February 2023, and we will seek advice from ALG leaders on several key school site design decisions.

- Project Worthmore: As co-location partners, Project Worthmore and Flame Lily Montessori, a Wildflower preschool program opening this summer, have joined forces to provide a unique and timely value-add to the development of "The Roots," a new community hub in Northwest Aurora. Founded by local BIPOC leaders, Flame Lily Montessori will add over 30 high-quality childcare spots for 3-6-year-olds to a neighborhood classified as a child care desert and serve as a feeder school for the Wildflower elementary program slated to open on or near the Anschutz Medical Campus. WMPSC has begun meeting with Aurora community and organizational leaders to identify local nonprofits, like Project Worthmore, that see the exponential value of WMPSC co-location for their communities, to share the uniqueness of WMPSC, listen to the needs and dreams that exist within Aurora, identify synergies and explore more areas to collaborate. In this way, Project Worthmore and Flame Lily are creating a blueprint for the proposed charter sites aiming to follow in Flame Lily's footsteps. As WMPSC opens its first sites, Project Worthmore will be uniquely positioned to provide advice on mutually beneficial co-location partnership strategies and share lessons learned.

- Empower Community High School: Empower school leaders have provided our Steering Committee with guidance and advice on the development of a community engagement plan and have worked to support us in establishing a timeline and vision for our Community Design Teams. Empower is not only an inspiration to us as a model for a school co-created with and by community members but has provided us with wisdom and support from the beginning of our community engagement outreach efforts. We will continue to learn from Empower's school leaders as we move into the next phase of co-creation with founding families and beyond, as Empower leadership will support us in building out Community Design Team agendas, community engagement strategies, and processes for maximizing community member decision-making and input. We also plan to connect with Empower families to share information about our school sites so that they can express interest in enrolling siblings or other family members in our micro-schools once the lottery opens.

- Early Childhood Partnership of Adams County (ECPAC): Wildflower and ECPAC have collaborated over the course of nearly three years to explore ideal locations for Wildflower's organic growth into the community and to support Flame Lily Montessori's co-founders with their NW Aurora preschool's startup efforts. ECPAC has been instrumental in both coaching our ECE founders along their pathway to licensure and helping our team understand and connect with the Aurora ECE landscape. We will continue to tap the expertise of ECPAC as a stakeholder and advice giver for our emerging work with Community Design Teams; ECPAC will continue to provide coaching and other resources for both Flame Lily Montessori as well as the proposed WMPSC primary program opening in Adams County. ECPAC and WMPSC may also continue to explore joint funding opportunities to support the expansion of Adams County Wildflower schools.

- Dr. Martha Urioste: A pioneer of public Montessori programs in the Denver region, Dr. Urioste has extensive experience navigating Montessori in the public sector. Dr. Urioste has been a champion of our work over the last few months, answering key questions about public Montessori practice and spreading the word among her network about our vision. We will continue to work with her as an advisor as we establish our school sites in Aurora, seeking advice specifically about the ways in which we communicate our vision to families furthest from opportunity and provide extensive opportunities for engagement from these families in the co-design and Montessori educational program implementation processes.

- The Montessori Institute of Denver (TMI): The Montessori Institute of Denver is an internationally accredited Montessori training center for early childhood and elementary Montessori certification. WMPSC anticipates sending Teacher Leaders to this training institute for Montessori certification or for ongoing professional development opportunities. We will also connect with teachers currently in their training programs to share information about Teacher Leader opportunities in the WMPSC network in the event that these teachers in training are looking for new communities in which to teach and lead. TMI has been a strong supporter of expanding Montessori into the public sector for decades, beginning with the establishment of Family Star Head Start programs. Their support for public Montessori in Denver and Aurora continues with our ongoing partnership.

- Montessori Education Center of the Rockies (MECR): MECR is a nationally accredited Montessori training center located just west of the Aurora border in east Denver. Several of our Steering Committee members attended Montessori certification programs at MECR, and MECR will likely be a certification site for future WMPSC Teacher Leaders. We will also connect with teachers currently in their training programs to share information about Teacher Leader opportunities in the WMPSC network in the event that these teachers in training are looking for new communities in which to teach and lead.

In addition to the organizations listed above, WMPSC Board members have begun conversations with the following organizations:

- Buckley Air Force Base: WMPSC has connected with Stephanie Iverson, Buckley's School Liaison, and Lorrie Heller, the Family Child Care Coordinator, to assess the need for additional options in both early childhood and elementary education in the Buckley community. These connections have revealed that there is a dire need for more options for Buckley families, particularly in early childhood. Both of the ECE programs located on the Buckley Space Force Base have lengthy waitlists that they are eager for Wildflower to help alleviate. We will continue to build a partnership with the education professionals at Buckley in the coming months by offering a free Montessori child care class to any interested Buckley families to provide exposure to these families about what Montessori looks and feels like and to build connections with prospective families who might ultimately choose to enroll in our school sites. Our vision is to build strong relationships with individual Buckley families who will join our Community Design Teams and choose to enroll their children in our Southeast or East Aurora school sites.

- Village Institute: Our partnership with The Village Institute, thus far, has provided us the opportunity to meet families who have enrolled their children in the Little Village School for Young Children, a new preschool program serving immigrant and refugee families in Northwest Aurora, some of whom have expressed interest in sending their children to our proposed elementary school. We will continue to engage Village Institute families one-on-one to include interested parents in our Community Design Teams by visiting the Little Village preschool program to connect with families and offering to co-host an event for Little Village families to provide them information about and exposure to Montessori philosophy and practice.

Our work to establish partnerships with community organizations has resulted in the submission of letters in support of this application, which can be found in Appendix B_Letters of Support. Community, organization, and facilities Letters of Support are below:

Opportunities for Parent/Community Involvement

B.13. WMPSC Parent and Community Input

The Montessori pedagogy is inherently child-focused and individualized. WMPSC parents and guardians will be provided frequent personalized student reports through the use of the Transparent Classroom record-keeping system, as well as attend conference cycles three times per year. Teacher Leaders will immediately and intentionally connect with and engage families in the learning process through home visits before the beginning of school and the initial conference cycle. We plan to create an opportunity for students to visit the classroom before the start of the school year for a 20-30 minutes session to participate in sample Montessori lessons. This early introduction to the school environment gives the children the opportunity to engage with the Teacher Leaders in the classroom, parents and guardians the chance to continue establishing a relationship with Teacher Leaders, and all adults time to observe the children's "work" as they become familiarized with the materials, guides and environment.

The multi-age classroom, wherein a student has the same Teacher Leader for a three-year cycle, is a Montessori element that provides consistency in teaching, learning, and family engagement. The microsite model is intentionally designed for direct and honest communication between home and school. In this model, Teacher Leaders know their students well and share proactively and swiftly on their academic and social-emotional progress.

Our microsites will engage in traditions, activities, and events that strengthen the school-family partnership. Teacher Leaders at each site develop these activities within the context of communities' culture and traditions.

WMPSC ensures that all families can access a Montessori education for their child, regardless of their availability to volunteer, and, as such, there is no requirement for parents to volunteer at the school. Our sites are not reliant on parent volunteer hours. Still, Teacher Leaders will provide a range of volunteer opportunities to meet parents' varying schedules, interests, and skill sets, and family involvement will be encouraged, depending on the capacity of the family. WMPSC will encourage parents to volunteer and keep an updated list of specific ways parents can support the site and their children's learning in person and at home.

Families will be integral members of our Community Design Teams and the School Accountability Committee. Our WMPSC Board of Directors will include parents/guardians. Per the Bylaws, the Board of Directors requires two parents/guardian representatives. As such, parents will be involved at all levels of school governance and advising. Teacher Leaders at each site will decide on additional parent/guardian volunteer roles, such as:

- Community liaison
- Activity support or lead (such as music/yoga)
- Field trip support
- Translator
- Advisory Council

We are sensitive to our founding families' linguistic, technological, and particular communication needs. In collaboration with families and in accordance with their needs, Teacher Leaders will make site-based decisions around using phone apps, hard copy information, and/or social media platforms to communicate.

During home visits and registration, Teacher Leaders will ask parents how they would like to receive information and communications. For non-urgent concerns or those who would like to schedule a future visit/appointment with the Teacher Leaders, email will typically be used (with policies giving Teacher Leaders a 24-48 hr time frame to respond Monday-Friday). Teacher Leaders may use Bloomz, Seesaw or other applications for urgent messages or concerns that can be solved quickly. This kind of medium can also help communicate things like snow days, school closures, and other things that need immediate attention. Alongside plans to leverage technology to support school communications, we will ultimately honor families' preferred vehicle to ensure they can each access school information and opportunities for involvement effectively and comfortably.

Like we have done in our current community engagement efforts, we will make every effort to ensure our family communications are available in English and Spanish at a minimum. We will prioritize translating our communications into the other languages our families speak to ensure that communication is accessible to all family members. Teacher Leaders may facilitate monthly family meetings to build community by communicating, educating, and informing parents. Example topics include: "What is Montessori?," "What are practical life skills children can practice at home?," and "How can we help our child develop independence?" Additionally, Teacher Leaders will seek and listen to ideas and concerns raised by parents and guardians. Teacher Leaders will make family events, discussion topics, and site-based schedule decisions through advice they receive from community members, emerging situations, and evolving conditions.

C. School Culture

C.1. WMPSC School Culture

Our sites in Aurora are part of the Colorado ecosystem of Wildflower Schools, a decentralized network of small Montessori microsites across fourteen states.[14] The first Wildflower School opened in Cambridge, Massachusetts, in 2014. That first school and the others that sprouted around it ignited interest from all over the world in creating teacher-led local microsites using the Wildflower model. Currently, Wildflower has charters in Minnesota, New York, and the District of Columbia.

Wildflower's purpose, values, norms, and principles, described in Section A, underpin our school culture to promote a positive academic environment and reinforce student intellectual and social development. These shared ideas are the roots from which our sites grow and flourish as nurturing and connected learning spaces for wholeness and healing - always leaning into high expectations for ourselves and one another. WMPSC microsites operationalize Wildflower's purpose, norms, values, and principles in the following ways to create a school culture that prioritizes the holistic growth of students, Teacher Leaders, staff, and families:

Wildflower School sites are small.
Typically, 2 Teacher Leaders co-lead and co-teach a microsite of 30-60 students in a one-room (or two-room) school. A multi-age classroom spans multiple years, starting with PK3-K, first through third grades, and fourth through sixth grades. Research shows that small schools engage students and teachers more completely.[15]

Wildflower School sites focus on diversity and community.
Wildflower designs schools to be both economically accessible and culturally sustaining. Teacher Leaders engage the community, select a facility, build partnerships that center students of the global majority, and deeply engage parents.

Wildflower teachers are social entrepreneurs.
Teacher Leaders lead the classroom and serve as microsite administrators. Handling these facets of a school develops inspiring leaders and conceptually consistent schools. Research shows that operating with a mix of autonomy and support leads to greater job satisfaction, higher retention rates, and greater happiness in the teaching profession.[16] Given the current wave of teachers leaving the education field following the pandemic, compared with the low turnover of Teacher Leaders in the Wildflower network in the past two years,[17] this model is more effective than ever in retaining top talent.

Wildflower School sites are authentic Montessori programs.
The classrooms are beautiful, culturally embedded, and prepared environments where teachers guide children to ensure they learn core concepts. The Montessori Method integrates academic and social-emotional objectives, emphasizing responsibility to self and others as well as a curriculum that demands care and concentration. This approach has a long-term impact on student wellbeing and achievement, with even a few years of early exposure to an authentic Montessori environment.[18]

Wildflower School sites are innovative.
Wildflower microsites serve as laboratories for child-centered learning informed by data. Montessori teachers rely on detailed observation protocols to gauge student progress and adjust the classroom environment to maximize learning. All Wildflower sites are built on research and insights from the fields of human development, learning science, and organizational theory to create schools with the capacity for transformation.

C.2. Creating School Culture

In our Montessori environments, Teacher Leaders design every element to help children develop self-regulation and conscious awareness of how their actions affect their individual freedoms and the greater good of the classroom community. From returning a classroom object to its correct place so everyone will be able to find it, to helping a younger child who is struggling with a math concept, to working together to create a class constitution, children develop a sense of agency and understand that they are responsible for themselves and the peaceful tone of the classroom.

To prepare children to thrive in school and life, Teacher Leaders create classroom conditions that allow children the freedom to make choices and experience real-life consequences, such as missing the beginning of an activity if a lunch table has not been cleaned or repairing harm with a peer when conflict escalates. Teacher Leaders emphasize prevention first. By creating a positive, connected, and peaceful learning environment and using positive behavioral intervention and restorative justice principles, Teacher Leaders foster an environment in which students can understand the impact of poor decisions and use these experiences as an opportunity to learn and make amends. This sort of conscious classroom approach resonates with our culturally responsive pedagogy model.

School culture at Wildflower sites ultimately reflects the "Montessori for Adults" philosophy. As Sep Kamvar, founder of the first Wildflower school and The Wildflower Foundation, wrote:

> ….as the school community settles into Wildflower structures and practices, it creates an ease and joy and growth process that mirrors that of a Montessori classroom. The social environment of the adults is thus prepared to allow for authentic Montessori to flourish, both in the classroom and in the home.
> My hope is that such structures will allow for the flourishing of our natural capacities as adults for kindness, for generosity of spirit, for open-mindedness and open-heartedness. My hope is that by unlocking the great power of these qualities, we may work gently together to make the world a more beautiful place.

From the moment a family is introduced to Wildflower during a community engagement event to when that same family enrolls their child at a WMPSC site, they are experiencing what the "Montessori for Adults" philosophy means. WMPSC microsites include families and elevate their voices; Teacher Leaders invite students and families to summer open-houses and complete home visits before the first day of school or if the child enrolls mid-year, pending public health safety standards.

Home visits catalyze authentic school-home relationships with families and are a tool for building cultural responsiveness and cultural bridges. Research shows that in addition to academic results, there are "documented outcomes to show the positive impact of home visits, outcomes related to school climate, family involvement, and school/family trust. In addition, anecdote after anecdote from participating teachers and families speaks to the power of the visit in increasing empathy and understanding on the part of both parties, as well as in forming the foundation of a relationship that allows information to be shared effectively."[19]

Likewise, students who enter WMPSC mid-year are brought into the school culture in a deliberate and welcoming way. Many strategies are used to help a new student transition into a more liberatory environment. Having them shadow an older student in the classroom will allow some social/emotional support as well show them first-hand how to navigate the work period successfully. The newfound independence can be overwhelming for some, so the Teacher Leader scaffolds their work plan by providing more support, such as modifying their follow up choices until they are able to drive their own learning. Montessori materials are used to assess where they are academically to determine where to place them within the scope and sequence. Additionally, lesson presentations are customized to meet the child's individual needs until they feel confident using the hands-on materials.

The staff and Board support Teacher Leaders so they can create and uphold these personalized and authentic connections. For example, the Shared Services Partner allocates time in their schedule to be available on-site when a Teacher Leader needs to attend community input events; and the Board expects that families and Teacher Leaders are present at Board meetings, both as members and as participants during open meetings.

Our school culture and "Montessori for Adults" philosophy at WMPSC show up in our school culture in specific stakeholder groups, such as:

- Teacher Leaders and Other WMPSC Employees: Building a strong school culture begins with the hiring process. Cultural fit will inform hiring decisions, as will completion of a Montessori training course (for Teacher Leaders) and relevant experience. In the Wildflower model of two Teacher Leaders sharing leadership of the environment, these Teacher Leaders must work well together. The School Startup Journey (Appendix B_Wildflower School Startup Journey Deck), detailed in Section H, is a process to determine how two Teacher Leaders who share a commitment to starting a school will work in partnership. Teacher Leaders and other staff will be introduced to the culture before school opening. Professional development days before the first day of school will allow staff to immerse themselves in preparing to practice, adopt, and deliver the culture of the microsite, including training on CD and RJ. As the year progresses, Teacher Leaders will engage in regular professional development, giving them ongoing opportunities to revisit or engage more deeply with CD, RJ practices, and classroom safety.

- Families: Families and students will be introduced to WMPSC culture at outreach efforts that take place in advance of the enrollment application process and continue through the summer before opening; at a pre-opening student and family orientation where the Teacher Leaders will teach families about the school's culture and systems through a series of simulations; at individual home visits with each family and student, as described above, and through the provision of the School and Family Handbook that will outline culture, expectations, and practices. Teacher Leaders will offer monthly family education opportunities throughout the year on topics that focus on specific family needs and will regularly organize family events (e.g., a game or movie night). Staff will also engage families in the school culture by promoting participation at school events, including culminating performances, rituals, and traditions.

- Students: Students acclimate to the school culture before the first day of school. Home visits occur before a student begins at WMPSC and new students are invited to their classroom a few days prior to returning students to support acclimation, especially since the Montessori environment may differ so significantly from their previous classroom. The first weeks intentionally guide students to the prepared environment, where they learn to enter classrooms and engage with Teacher Leaders about school-wide values and practices such as where items belong and how to manage their work cycle materials. They are introduced to daily community meetings, independent use of materials, how to attend to personal needs, get the attention of a teacher or classmate during the uninterrupted work cycle, work plans and choice, and movement in the classroom. As the year progresses, Teacher Leaders engage students in individualized conferences each week to discuss work plans and their social-emotional well-being. Routines and procedures emphasize responsibility to self and community; use of materials to encourage planning, collaboration and patience; grace and courtesy lessons that are determined from observations of the class culture with the whole class and small groups; and the "Peace Table" where children have the opportunity to dialogue through interpersonal challenges (with the support of an adult or older student, as needed). Teacher Leaders and the classroom community will reinforce these skills, values, and habits across lessons and interactions as students progress through the grades. School-wide rituals and routines will be established and put in place. Tools and practices will be displayed in written materials (e.g., family newsletters) and consistently used across classrooms and during whole-school activities to develop shared communication norms and unite all in the WMPSC mission.

C.3. Social-Emotional Learning

The Montessori classroom provides a safe (emotionally, physically, and ethically) and welcoming setting that provides the necessary academic, social, and emotional supports that all students need. The Montessori philosophy helps young children build emotional intelligence through relationships, interactions, and activities. Montessori education emphasizes teaching children to develop peaceful relationships with one another and with themselves and, as a result, is categorized as a mindfulness education among researchers.[20]

Our mission-aligned assessment, detailed in Section F, includes all students being administered the Minnesota Executive Function Scale (MEFS) and the Developmental Environment Rating Scale (DERS). These assessments detail and monitor aspects of our students' social-emotional learning, including child and adult behaviors, and environmental attributes, associated with developmental outcomes such as executive function, linguistic and cultural fluency, and social fluency and emotional flexibility. These measures inform how Teacher Leaders' prepare their classroom environment to meet student need and social-emotional learning growth, as well as inform their ongoing professional development.[21] These Montessori-specific metrics emphasize whole child development and underscore how Montessori is a proven approach to developing children's social-emotional learning, self-regulation, and executive functioning.[22] Montessori requires students to focus on one particular job for as long as they need. The WMPSC classrooms will present as minimalist, quiet, and calm spaces designed for the optimal learning environment.

In WMPSC's multi-age setting, teachers have deep knowledge of students' capacities and needs, and students experience consistency of teacher expectations (behavioral and academic) because of these long-term relationships. The multi-age classroom has a positive social-emotional impact on relationships, feelings of safety and belonging, and inclusivity. The classroom culture is one where everyone receives what they need without the pressure of "keeping up" or fostering competition. Over these three years a Teacher Leader is guiding the same students, Teacher Leaders support students' comfort and emotional health in the classroom and provide high levels of mutual care and concern. They know their students and families well. Furthermore, the multi-age classroom empowers older children to recognize the responsibility of modeling good behavior and reinforcing behavioral expectations, creating safer, more supportive learning environments for all students.[23]

At WMPSC, Teacher Leaders will be responsible for maintaining the social-emotional health of all students, beginning on day one and continuing over students' time in that Teachers Leader's classroom - this includes supporting the needs of students with special needs. Over that extended period, Teacher Leaders and WMPSC adults will build and maintain authentic relationships with students so that if they are experiencing any stress, family issues, or conflict with other students, WMPSC can address it promptly and thoroughly. "Studies show that students who have a strong alliance with their teacher perform better academically than those who have any sort of conflict. The key for teachers is to find a balance between maintaining strong student relationships and setting and maintaining class procedures and high expectations."[24]

The Teacher Leaders greet students to ensure they are ready for the day. Teacher Leaders establish a morning routine of greeting the children, observing them opening their backpacks, and communicating with them as they prepare for the day. This routine allows Teacher Leaders to assess that students do not have any objects that are prohibited at school and to understand their mental and social-emotional mindset as the day begins. Teacher Leaders rely heavily on carefully observing the class ecosystem to identify obstacles to its balance and cohesion and prepare appropriate interventions. Interventions include: addressing breaches one-on-one in the moment, bringing issues to the daily community meeting for discussion and problem solving, and preparing small- and whole-group grace and courtesy lessons where role-plays are leveraged to illustrate an issue and allow students to self-correct and practice an alternative behavior. Teacher Leaders respond to any problem or need that a student or students may have, including resolving conflicts through RJ practices. Additionally, WMPSC has a school psychologist on staff and will allocate fundraising income towards bringing on a social worker.

A physically safe learning environment includes well-developed rules and procedures that students understand. In Montessori settings, classroom ground rules are rules for human behavior that provide limits for the group and the individual. Classroom ground rules allow each child the freedom to choose, concentrate and create.[25] Teacher Leaders will expect to revisit and update these ground rules and procedures to meet students' changing needs and the classroom's changing environment. Teacher Leaders will communicate caring through daily actions that show students they belong and that the Teacher Leader is there to help them learn. For example, Teacher Leaders may provide positive feedback in recognition of a student's effort while also providing meaningful feedback needed to drive change (in behavior and/or academics).

C.4. Supporting All Students

Maria Montessori developed her method over 100 years ago based on observations and research in schools serving high-poverty communities and children with special needs. Driven by curiosity, social justice, and an equity mindset, Dr. Montessori was a scientist who applied her medical training to teaching and, in doing so, uncovered universal truths about child development. WMPSC is intentionally creating learning environments where Teacher Leaders are developing sites with a social justice, identity affirming, and inclusive classroom focus. The WMPSC Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging Agreement (Appendix A_DEIB Agreement) calls on the WMPSC community to support all individuals. It builds regular touch points, so the Agreement is a living document to uphold a school culture supportive of students with a variety of needs.

During the Planning Year, staff onboarding, and every Teacher Leader's School Start-up Journey, WMPSC designs for equity. We use the equityXdesign Framework (Appendix C_equityXdesign Framework) to design for the most marginalized students, including students receiving special education services, gifted students, Multilingual Learners, and students at risk of academic failure. Equity shows up in the way we communicate with families and welcome students to events before their first day of school; in the way our Teacher Leaders and staff lean into their own equity and bias work as a regular practice; how our physical spaces accommodate all individuals and how we strive, for not just social justice in our microsites, but environmental and climate justice. We recognize that the most marginalized students and families experience academic gaps - and have less access to resources to create wholeness in their lives.

WMPSC actively embodies a school culture where belonging is centered - and we live into systems where we hold ourselves and one another accountable, even when they are not part of performance management reports.

C.5. Typical WMPSC Student Day

A typical day in the life of a lower elementary child is one where they take ownership as soon as they walk into the building. They begin by greeting one another while they put away their personal items, then collect their work plan to see what their day consists of. The work plan is a tool to track the work they have completed, record their follow-up choices after a lesson, and set priorities in their work.

When the music stops, it informs everyone that it is time for the student-led community meeting. It is a time when both students and adults discuss problems affecting the whole group, leading to a discussion where everyone brainstorms solutions they can try. Some days a Teacher Leader might present a whole group lesson, or students will begin to work independently during the morning work cycle.

Throughout the cycle, students are given lessons both individually and in groups. They can move freely around the classroom and work at tables or on the floor. While students receive lessons, their classmates work independently throughout all areas of the classroom. Together they review each other's work, rely on each other for help, share materials, and work collaboratively on projects that interest them.

When it is time for lunch, students clean up by organizing and putting away their completed work. After lunch and recess, there is a read-aloud, a time to relax and refresh the mind before the afternoon work cycle. During the afternoon, the students return to their independent work or participate in special classes such as PE, Art, Creative Movement, and Music.

Once again, it is time to clean up and organize for the end of the day. Each child has a classroom job that they complete to get the space ready for the next day, teaching them responsibility for one's environment and community. Lastly, everyone gets their belongings prepared for dismissal. The schedules below detail the order of the day for both Primary and Elementary students. Teacher Leaders finalize this schedule during the School Startup stage, the final stage of the School Startup Journey.

Primary Students Schedule (Schedule may vary depending on average age of class)
8:15 - 8:30	Arrival
8:30 - 11:15	Classroom work period
11:15 - 11:30	Read Aloud
11:30 - 12:45	Lunch, clean-up, recess
12:45 - 3:15	Nap, afternoon work period, Specials, playtime
3:15	Prepare to go home
3:30	Dismissal
Student day = 7 hours Instructional considering naptime = 4 - 6 hours

Elementary Students Schedule (Schedule may vary depending on average age of class)
8:15 - 8:30	Arrival
8:30 - 11:45	Classroom work period
12:00 - 1:00	Lunch, clean-up, recess
1:00 - 1:20	Read aloud
1:20 - 3:15	Afternoon work period or Specials
3:15 - 3:30	Restore classroom and prepare to go home
3:30	Dismissal
Student day = 7 hours Instructional = 5.5 - 6 hours

C.6. Typical WMPSC Teacher Leader Day

The Teacher Leaders are both teachers and administrators; their schedule reflects how they manage time for these responsibilities. The schedule below is an example of a Teacher Leader's day though exact times will fluctuate based on site design and classroom level:

3:30 - 4:00	Prepare classroom for next day for students/perform administrative work/afternoon meetings	Prepare classroom for next day for students/perform administrative work/afternoon meetings

A Teacher Leader's day begins with an awareness of self well before the students enter the space. We must calm and center ourselves before connecting with our students with respect and peace. We must look at our values, beliefs, habits, strengths, and weaknesses so that we can move and grow with our students emotionally and educationally. Starting the day with a few deep breaths, journaling, silently repeating a simple inspirational phrase, or spending time in nature sets the tone for the day.

Next, the Teacher Leader prepares the physical environment that will serve the needs of their students. They will organize the physical environment to promote independence, self-regulation, and respect. Together with their co-teacher and assistant, they discuss the lesson plans for the day and any observations that might need to be addressed for the community to be successful.

The Teacher Leader greets each child as they enter the classroom, looking at them with a new lens, as each day is a new day to find something great. When everyone has arrived, Teacher Leaders give students a signal that the community meeting is about to begin. The meeting is a time for connection and community, providing a space to share problems while others listen. After the classroom community addresses all the agenda items, the Teacher Leader validates the concern and asks for ideas from the class that focuses on solutions. Depending on the day of the week, the last portion of the meeting is either a time for sharing, project planning, or presenting a whole group lesson.

As the students prepare for their day, choosing their work during the uninterrupted work period, the Teacher Leader observes the children and acts as part of the environment, not the focal point. As the work period unfolds, Teacher Leaders invite children to individual or small group lessons that fit the specific needs of each student. Between those lessons, they observe the room for concentration, discerning the difference between spontaneous, constructive and useless activity, then redirecting when needed.

The transition for lunch begins, a time where there is lots of movement. The adults in the space remain calm and purposeful in modeling the behavior expected of the students. Co-teachers either stay with the children for lunch, have planning time, or take their break. When students come in from recess, the Teacher Leader reads a book aloud to the class, focusing on comprehension, vocabulary, and modeling fluent reading of the text. It is the perfect opportunity to tap into the awe and wonder of the elementary child.

The afternoon work period allows the Teacher Leader to continue their observations, record progress, and finish presenting lessons. It is also when the students participate in specials given by the other co-teacher or assistant, providing time for administrative work or meetings. Observing without judgment is an integral and ongoing part of the Montessori educator's day. There are formal observations where the teacher watches each child or the group as a whole and takes lots of notes, and informal observations where the teacher gathers information in the moment throughout the school day. These scientifically applied observation skills allow them to assess the environment for a better understanding of what is needed, and look into the best way to support each child's needs. Then there is an opportunity to choose a course of action, observe its effect, and reflect upon the outcome.

As the children prepare the room for the next day, the Teacher Leader assists them with their job responsibilities and reflects on the day. After dismissal, she continues her work of preparing the space for the next day, communicating with parents, record keeping and planning, and meeting with the teaching team to assess the next steps. Teacher Leaders make site-specific decisions regarding abbreviated school days during the month to schedule professional development and administrative time. We expect that bi-monthly the school day ends shortly after lunch. Teacher Leaders are supported on-site to ensure that there is always an additional adult available at the site.

C.7. WMPSC Discipline Philosophy

At WMPSC, restorative practices are how Teacher Leaders, staff, and students build community and support learning. Discipline will not function to punish, marginalize, or harm students. Instead, all discipline policies and practices will serve to ensure that students, Teacher Leaders, and staff have the knowledge, skills, and dispositions to support their learning, contribute to the WMPSC community and our culture of reflection and growth, and that we all thrive in the world beyond school.

Montessori Culture of Discipline

Montessori-trained teachers create a classroom culture where each child feels seen as a unique individual with acknowledged strengths and weaknesses and is encouraged to soar in their areas of strength and to work hard at their areas of challenge. Children are never made to feel embarrassed or inadequate in their challenges because the teacher scaffolds the work so that the child is working at their academic edge without feeling overwhelmed and honors the unique differences that make them who they are and human.

The WMPSC model, with its emphasis on positive behavioral interventions, personalized learning, following the child, and an identity-affirming environment, will combat overreaching disciplinary practices and cultivate each student's sense of belonging. Montessori students enjoy the freedom to move around and work together, practices that align closely with many of the students we intend to engage, who may come from communal and collaborative home cultures.[26]

Montessori education may also help to reduce the overuse of exclusionary discipline (e.g., suspension and expulsion), especially for students whose identity makes them two to three times more likely to be suspended or expelled from school than their peers.[27] This disproportionate discipline is partially attributable to the spread of zero-tolerance policies and school cultures that emphasize uniformity and compliance and to a shortage of culturally sensitive teachers.[28]

At WMPSC, all sites and Teacher Leaders align with the same intervention policies and have some discretion to adapt them for their unique student population. The purpose of discipline is to maintain a safe environment for learning to take place. Consequently, a range of interventions is available in consideration of the nature, frequency, and effects of the offense. These interventions may include but not be limited to:

- Self-Fixes: Students will be taught strategies, such as de-escalation and calming techniques, for reflecting on behavior, and adults will give them the opportunity to adjust their behavior with guidance.

- Repairing Harm: Students always have the opportunity to address the harm they have caused, even if it appears only to affect themselves. Responsible community members understand that harming oneself harms the group. In a primary classroom, reparations would respond to a child that knocks down someone else's work. They would discuss with an adult or the aggrieved child how they could fix the situation. The focus is on problem-solving. What can we do to fix it? This approach focuses on what can be done instead of fixating on the emotions of what has already occurred and cannot be changed. Our Teacher Leaders support children in identifying various ways of solving the problem and choosing one solution. In this case, we would encourage the child to help the other child rebuild their work. If they destroy a material, the child may help the adult repair it. If a child verbally hurt another classmate, they could write a letter to the other child. The critical takeaway is that this is child-led. The Teacher Leader's role is to support the child in taking responsibility for their actions and to make sure the child understands it is their role to repair the harm done to the best of their abilities.

- Conflict Resolution and Mediation: WMPSC provides students with the time and space to resolve conflicts in productive manners using restorative justice practices, which may involve individuals or groups. Relevant students will engage in conflict resolution activities as an effective means to repair strains on relationships.

[28] Shedd, C. (2015). Unequal city: Race, schools, and perceptions of injustice. Russell Sage Foundation.

- Temporary Removal: WMPSC Teacher Leaders will, to the greatest extent possible, broadly avoid using suspension or expulsion as a means of discipline. Sites are designed and staffed to provide a range of support to address any misbehavior that might disrupt learning or create an unsafe environment. Teacher Leaders will play a primary role in addressing these behaviors, and the school culture will reinforce Conscious Discipline and Restorative Justice approaches. We prioritize these inclusive approaches in all discipline situations. Still, we recognize that there may arise problems that will require us to default to the CSI disciplinary policy, which includes suspension and expulsion as a last resort.

There is an expectation that everyone is always "doing their best work" because doing work that is self-chosen and feels meaningful and purposeful drives students—really, any individual. Our job as teachers and staff is to create conditions that allow students to do their best. Teacher Leaders provide students with the history of how humans created math and geometry to help them solve real-life problems and all of the fantastic creations and tools that have arisen from this creation—from architecture and astronomy to coding and space travel. They see themselves as part of this continuum of humans exploring math rather than as kids in a classroom doing math worksheets.

This classroom culture has deep respect between children and behavioral norms. A culture of kindness and support allows children to ask for help when needed and call out a child who is being unkind. In the best classrooms, when children see a friend struggling academically or socially, they step in to offer help. In this culture, children get comfortable rising to their best self— meeting their full potential—and become comfortable with risk-taking in their academic work, practical life, and social situations.[29]

WMPSC Discipline Policy and Procedures

WMPSC views behavior and discipline through the lens of trauma-sensitive approaches, healing-centered engagement, skill building, and approaching our student population in a culturally responsive way. WMPSC understands race and gender disparities in school discipline and believes that students do not commit infractions at school because they are bad or have problems.[30] WMPSC believes students misbehave when they lack the skills to manage their emotions and behaviors. As such, discipline at WMPSC starts with universal, school-wide prevention activities anchored in building structure, routines, and connection opportunities. The focus is on increasing students' capacity to manage their emotions and behaviors in alignment with WMPSC's student code of conduct that will be outlined in the Student and Family Handbook, to be developed once Teacher Leaders are hired in the Planning Year. Essential components of classroom culture at WMPSC root in Conscious Discipline (CD)[31] and Restorative Justice practices, outlined in Appendix C_Conscious Discipline and Appendix C_Restorative Justice.

Student Code of Conduct

WMPSC begins with the behavioral and academic student code of conduct outlined in the Student and Family Handbook, which will be developed in the Planning Year. The student code of conduct will clarify shared community values, norms, and expected codes of conduct; types of infractions; preventative, restorative, and punitive measures aligned to infractions; and staff and community roles in maintaining a positive community. Leadership at each site and the Board of Directors will review the code of conduct annually during summer professional development. This annual review will incorporate any areas of improvement based on a review of data or feedback from the previous year. Our Student Discipline Policy (Appendix C_Policy_Suspension Expulsion Discipline Draft) aligns with Colorado State Law to ensure that WMPSC complies with state code, including C.R.S 22-33-106.

Students and guardians will be asked to sign a verification that they agree with the WMPSC Code of Conduct at the time of registration. Student and Guardian signatures acknowledge that they have read, understood, and agreed to the expectations to build the WMPSC community and hold each other accountable. Unless there are clear mitigating circumstances, we hold that students are responsible and accountable for their actions. The Student and Family Handbook will outline behavioral and academic expectations and an overview of restorative practices. Students and parents/guardians sign the student code of conduct at registration.

Suspension

Though suspension is a widely used disciplinary technique in general and special education, research has raised serious questions about its effects. WMPSC recognizes that our students will largely come from prior education within Aurora Public Schools (APS); APS has been cited as a case study of how marginalized students– and specifically black students– have been more likely to be disciplined than their peers, and how this disparity has an effect on academic achievement.[32] APS has worked to shift suspension inequities and WMPSC will boldly continue this work to confront biases, heal inequities, and focus on academic achievement for all students.

WMPSC avoids suspensions to:
- Focus on behavior as a skill;
- Affirm messages to the child about their value as a person and member of the school community;
- Reflect our commitment to Restorative Justice as a learning tool;
- Use MTSS and tiered intervention with fidelity and to individualize supports for social-emotional, behavioral, and traditional academic needs.

Because of these reasons, in as many cases as possible, WMPSC will utilize in-school suspension (ISS) with students who need an opportunity away from the entire community to reflect, regroup, and determine how to restore, similar to the APS Student Discipline: District Conduct and Discipline, Code JK-1. The ISS space allows the student to reflect upon the choices made and consider, alongside supportive WMPSC staff, how to restore relationships and re-enter the class or school environment. Also, during ISS, students will engage with academic content through one-on-one or small group support from a team member within the school community.

Some offenses may require a different consequence, such as out-of-school suspension (OSS). A suspendable offense can result in up to 10 days away from school; however, in that time, WMPSC will work to ensure that students at least have assignments and access to support, if needed, to process through the work. Before returning to school, the student, with at least one family member or community support partner, will engage in a re-entry process, which will include an opportunity to determine the best next steps for returning to the classroom or other restorative efforts. WMPSC will have a maximum of 20 days suspension (no more than ten days per incident) for each student for the year to ensure the loss of in-class instruction is limited. We expect that it would be extremely rare for any student to reach this maximum, given the other preventative and restorative practices at WMPSC.

Parent/Guardian Notification

In both ISS and OSS instances, parents/guardians will be notified immediately of the infraction and the associated consequence via a phone call home or in-person conversation. Parents/guardians have the opportunity, alongside their student, to conference in person with Teacher Leaders to discuss the situation and determine how the WMPSC community can support the student to return to the school environment.

Ground for Suspension or Expulsion

Per Colorado Code 22-33-106,[33] the following may be grounds for suspension or expulsion of a child from a public school during a school year:
- Continued willful disobedience or open and persistent defiance of proper authority;
- Willful destruction or defacing of school property; Behavior on or off school property that is detrimental to the welfare or safety of other students or of school personnel, including behavior that creates a threat of physical harm to the child or other children;
- Declaration as a "habitually disruptive student" means a child who has caused a material and substantial disruption on school grounds, in a school vehicle, or at a school activity or sanctioned event three or more times during a school year. Any student who is enrolled in a public school may be subject to being declared a habitually disruptive student.
- Committing one of the following offenses on school grounds, in a school vehicle, or at a school activity or sanctioned event:
  - Possession of a dangerous weapon without the authorization of the school or the school district;
  - The use, possession, or sale of a drug or controlled substance as defined in section C.R.S. 18-18-102 (5); or
  - The commission of an act that, if committed by an adult, would be robbery pursuant to part 3 of article 4 of title 18, C.R.S, or assault pursuant to part 2 of article 3 of title 18, C.R.S. other than the commission of an act that would be third-degree assault under section C.R.S. 18-3-204.
- Repeated interference with a school's ability to provide educational opportunities to other students.
- Carrying, using, actively displaying, or threatening with the use of a firearm facsimile that could reasonably be mistaken for an actual firearm in a school building or in or on school property.
- Making a false accusation of criminal activity against an employee of an educational entity to law enforcement authorities, school district officials, or personnel.

Expulsion

Teacher Leaders will notify parents/guardians of students who are recommended for expulsion. Teacher Leaders will also notify CSI to ensure accountability of the process and be coordinated in terms of alternate options for the student should the expulsion move forward. An expelled student will be subject to due process under Colorado state law. At WMPSC, due process will be as follows (subject to Board of Directors validation):
- Teacher Leaders will follow Colorado state law disciplinary policies and procedures for investigating the facts, obtaining witness statements, and ensuring adherence to due process procedures.
- While the next steps are determined, the student will be suspended.
- If the behavior violates CDE's student code of conduct, the student will be expelled.

[33] "National Center on Safe Supportive Learning Environments." Home | National Center on Safe Supportive Learning Environments (NCSSLE), https://safesupportivelearning.ed.gov/.

- Teacher Leaders will work with the legal and policy team at CSI to determine the expulsion length and any additional steps required for the student to return to WMPSC.
- Teacher Leaders shall report any documentable or suspected incident involving illegal drugs, firearms, explosives, or other weapons to the Aurora Police Department as outlined in Colorado statutes.

There will be additional considerations when engaging with students with disabilities (see below for more information).

Appeal Process

Following the decision to expel, parents/guardians of the student in question may initiate an appeal process. Teacher Leaders will give written notice of the expulsion to the parent/guardian within 24 hours after making the decision. The parent/guardian can then appeal the decision. All appeals must be filed, orally or in writing, within five days after receipt of the notice of expulsion. Absent a timely request for appeal, the decision to expel will be final. The appeal will be filed with the Board of Directors. A hearing will be held no later than ten days after the beginning of the expulsion. Notice of the time and place of the hearing will be provided to the parent/guardian, the student, and Teacher Leaders. The Board of Directors may affirm the decision of Teacher Leaders or order removal of the expulsion unconditionally or upon such terms and conditions as it deems reasonable. The action of the Board of Directors is final.

If expulsion is the final decision, WMPSC understands its role in ensuring that expelled students have access to quality educational opportunities. The Shared Services Partner will work with APS or CSI to help connect the expelled students to another school in the Aurora school district, depending on the reason and circumstances around the expulsion. Teacher Leaders will conduct an administrative transfer in coordination with the appropriate school district to another school.

Parent/Guardian Communication

As stated above, upon student registration at WMPSC, parents/guardians and students will read and sign the student code of conduct and receive the Student and Family Handbook. This document states the individual, peer, and community behavioral expectations of WMPSC students and guides restorative practice. In addition, the Student and Family Handbook will include, but not be limited to, such items as the school academic and holiday calendar, student fees, student information system, technology policy, learning responsibilities, standardized assessments, and dress code. Teacher Leaders will also introduce families and students to the discipline policy and practices during orientation and individual home visits and communicate ongoing changes, updates, and relevant policy action.

Discipline and Special Education Students

Students with disabilities are neither immune from a school district's disciplinary process nor entitled to participate in programs when their behavior impairs the education of other students. Students with disabilities who engage in disruptive activities and/or actions dangerous to themselves or others will be disciplined in accordance with their IEP, any behavioral intervention plan, and this regulation.

After recommending suspension, removal from a program for more than ten days, or expulsion of a student with an IEP or 504, a Manifestation Determination Review (MDR) will be held to determine: whether the student's misconduct was a manifestation of their disability; whether the student was appropriately placed and receiving the appropriate services at the time of the misconduct; and/or whether behavior intervention strategies were in effect and consistent with the student's IEP or 504 Plan. If it is determined that the student's misconduct was not a manifestation of their disability, and the student was receiving appropriate services and intervention, then the recommended consequence (e.g.: suspension, temporary removal from a program or expulsion) can move forward. When such consequences for a student with a disability are deemed necessary, they shall be completed in accordance with the Procedural Safeguards, as defined in the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), the Exceptional Children's Education Act (ECEA) and/or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. However, if it is determined that the behavior was, in fact, a manifestation of the student's disability, the WMPSC team will convene to determine appropriate services and support moving forward.

However, when considering a student for suspension, removal from a program for ten or more days, or expulsion, WMPSC will always take the following factors into account before making a decision:

- The age of the student;
- The disciplinary history of the student;
- Whether the student has a disability;
- The seriousness of the violation committed by the student;
- Whether the violation committed by the student threatened the safety of any student or staff member;
- Whether a lesser intervention would adequately address the violation committed by the student.

Protections in IDEA will apply to any student who has been found eligible for special education services and to any student for whom the school is deemed to have knowledge that they might have a disability (i.e., a student who has not yet been found eligible—including if already referred for an initial evaluation—but the school had a basis of knowledge of a disability). Per 34 CFR § 300.354, should a disciplinary referral remove a student from the classroom, the school will provide free appropriate public education (FAPE) services during the removal period to allow participation in the general education curriculum and to progress towards IEP goals, even if in a different setting. WMPSC will ensure that alternative educational services are provided, to the extent required by law, to a child who has been suspended (in school or out of school) or expelled, enabling them to cover all class material, keep pace with other students, and master curriculum (e.g., additional instructions, phone assistance, home visits).

Implementation, Documentation, and Accountability

The WMPSC Teacher Leaders support both instructional and behavioral aspects within their sites. In terms of behavior, Teacher Leaders employ restorative practices regarding discipline expectations. Teacher Leaders will discuss the next steps with students and parents/guardians once a decision has been made, communicate with the district per discipline procedure guidelines, and communicate with law enforcement as needed. Once all details have been finalized, Teacher Leaders will ensure all information is recorded within three days of final consequences determination using Infinite Campus. At the end of each semester, Teacher Leaders will review student data to determine trends within particular student groups and consider if there is a disproportionate amount of offenses for traditionally marginalized students. This information will be used to proactively determine the best next steps for all identified students.

Data Collection, SPED and Minority Students

Teacher Leaders are responsible for implementing discipline policies and restorative practices to ensure they equitably and proportionally apply discipline actions across all demographic areas at the site. As stated above, Teacher Leaders oversee that discipline, and restorative practices are being implemented fairly and equitably at WMPSC. Teacher Leaders are responsible for entering discipline data, progress monitoring, analyzing data by demographic group (students of color, language learners, gifted and talented, students with disabilities, and at-risk students), and reporting. Teacher Leaders will review all student discipline data and share data on a biannual basis at Teacher Leader meetings and annually at the Board of Directors meeting to hold WMPSC accountable for having a positive school environment with a small number of discipline infractions. The Student Services Coordinator and Shared Services Partner are also integral to these reporting meetings.

D. Education Program

Curriculum

D.1. Educational Program and Curriculum

WMPSC uses the Montessori Method of instruction to educate PK-6th grade students in six intentionally small microsites. The Montessori Method is a perfect match for our school and our goals and aspirations for students because of its evidence-based outcomes; holistic, child-centered approach; and underlying philosophy focused on serving all children.

Dr. Maria Montessori was an Italian physician and educator who developed her method over 100 years ago based on observations and research in schools serving high-poverty communities and children with special needs. Driven by curiosity, social justice, and an equity mindset, Dr. Montessori applied her medical and scientific training to teaching and uncovered universal truths about child development that led to the creation and refinement of her methodology.

At the core of the Montessori Method is the belief in each child's innate curiosity and potential. Montessori nurtures students' social, emotional, cognitive, and physical growth, ensuring they are "treading always in the paths of joy and love."[34] It emphasizes academic learning and executive functioning, and students have ample opportunities to learn using multiple modalities driven by their curiosity. Through tangible, hands-on learning materials that are beautiful and child-friendly, students naturally develop their reasoning skills across multiple disciplines and apply and build on their learning in various contexts rather than rote learning. Dr. Montessori developed a complete pedagogy to facilitate the implementation of her method, including an integrated set of student materials and teacher training resources.

While developed a century ago, the Montessori Method is strikingly relevant even, and perhaps especially, today. Its focus on developing of the whole child and cultivating growth mindsets[35] is especially apt for 21st-century learning and living. We have also chosen the Montessori Method due to its proven success with children of different backgrounds and diverse learning styles and needs. We have intentionally designed our school for all students of Aurora, including students with disabilities and multilingual learners. The Montessori Method, with its roots in serving students with special needs and schools in high-poverty communities, aligns well with our commitment to all children.

A substantial body of research shows the Montessori Method, when delivered with fidelity, to be one of the very few educational models that makes a lasting academic and social impact on all children in ways that matter over the long term. A 2003 meta-analysis of 29 school models found Montessori among the top five in terms of student outcomes.[36] Research has also demonstrated that Montessori benefits children from low-income communities and under-represented backgrounds in terms of academic achievement, executive function, creativity, social skills, work habits, attendance, and behavior.[37] In one high-quality lottery-based study of authentic Montessori practice in a 'high-needs' public preschool, students assigned to a Montessori program had no income-based achievement gap by the end of preschool.[38] Dr. Angeline Lillard, Director of The Early Learning Lab at the University of Virginia, writes:[39]

> "Montessori education made substantial headway in reducing the income gap in achievement across the preschool years. Whereas lower income control children were performing a full standard deviation lower than higher income control children by the end of preschool, the difference in income groups in Montessori was just a third of a standard deviation. Statistically, the lower income Montessori children did not differ from the higher income children in either school group by the fourth time point. In keeping with this, the income-achievement correlation was significantly smaller for children in Montessori than for children in the control group. This is a very important and impressive finding in our national search for ways to better help children born at an economic disadvantage."

We are committed to serving diverse students with limited access to a Montessori education (the only other public Montessori school in Aurora, Montessori del Mundo, is in high demand). Research suggests that the Montessori Primary program may particularly benefit low-income Latino children, especially in building their language acquisition skills. A study at George Mason University examined 13,000 low-income Black and Latino students in the Miami-Dade school district enrolled in either a conventional Primary or Montessori Primary program. The study found that while all children showed improvements in language, motor, and cognitive skills by attending preschool, Latino children–most of whose primary language was Spanish–demonstrated significant gains relative to national benchmarks.[40]

Other research findings regarding the efficacy of the Montessori Method include the following:
1. A recent study of public Montessori schools in South Carolina revealed considerable evidence of a Montessori advantage on mitigating education inequalities using an authentic Montessori Method.[41]
2. This same study in South Carolina found, over five years, higher levels of growth in Montessori classrooms compared to traditional classrooms. These students were found to meet or exceed state standards, and the findings were consistent even when disaggregated by income, race, gender, and other variables.[42]
3. A study conducted in Hartford, Connecticut, showed significantly higher ELA standardized test scores for children in Montessori classrooms than those in non-Montessori classrooms across all three years of the analysis and controlling for student demographics and previous test scores.[43]
4. The Hartford study also showed a significant Montessori advantage in math and social studies in two of the three years.

5. Montessori students in both Hartford and South Carolina showed higher levels of executive functioning, were more persistent in the face of challenges, and reported liking school at higher rates.[44]
6. Low-income students in Hartford who spent three years in high-fidelity Montessori schools significantly closed the achievement gap with higher-income students.[45]
7. A longitudinal study of students in Milwaukee also associated Montessori with a significant and lasting impact in the areas of math and science performance long after preschool and elementary school.[46]

Together, this research provides rationale that Montessori is effective for students in general and is particularly promising for the target population we aim to serve in Aurora, with its diverse student population and strong Latino community. Despite the promise and proven success of the Montessori Method across multiple environments and student populations, there are not enough Montessori options for students east of Denver. We aim to change that with the creation of WMPSC.

Curriculum and Alignment

This is education, understood as a help to life; an education from birth, which feeds a peaceful revolution and unites all in a common aim, attracting them as to a single centre. Mothers, fathers, politicians: all must combine in their respect and help for this delicate work of formation, which the little child carries on in the depth of a profound psychological mystery, under the tutelage of an inner guide. This is the bright new hope for mankind.[47]

Although Montessori education was originally developed more than 100 years ago, Montessori pedagogy now has a firm foothold on the education landscape throughout the world because of its proven approach to building academic foundations for children and supporting the development of strong social-emotional learning, executive function skills, and qualities that align with 21st-century skills and state policy such as compliance with the READ Act. WMPSC sites differentiate themselves from other authentic Montessori schools because we are grounded in the Wildflower purpose, principles, and norms and our central commitments to liberatory learning and identity-affirming education.

Through Montessori's whole-child approach, WMPSC's student learning objectives include academic growth measures and social-emotional development. Montessori presumes that the natural state of all children is positive, peaceful, and intrinsically motivated to learn, including special education students. Teacher Leaders are in a role in the Montessori classroom to guide students in this time-tested curriculum and facilitate the growth of themselves and of every child. The curriculum objectives, content, and skills will be aligned horizontally and vertically, per the Montessori descriptions that follow.

Montessori Planes of Development and Standards
Dr. Maria Montessori designed her curriculum to reflect states of child development based on her observations and research as a doctor and educator. Across all sites, our Teacher Leaders follow the Montessori curriculum that emphasizes the four planes of human development, learning standards that are aligned with Common Core State Standards and other standardized measures, and our approach toward wholeness. The Montessori curriculum is fully aligned to the Common Core State Standards used broadly throughout CSI.

In 2013, over fifty Association Montessori International (AMI) professionals came together to create a curriculum map that aligns the Montessori math and language arts/literacy curriculum with the Common Core State Standards (CCSS). WMPSC relies on these alignments to ensure that the curriculum is consistent with CCSS requirements. Our Teacher Leaders understand and refer to this map (Appendix D_Language Arts Literacy Standards Map & Appendix D_Math Geometry Standards Map) to prepare our Kindergarten and elementary students to meet standards.[48] Additionally, WMPSC Teacher Leaders will use Transparent Classroom, the leading Montessori record-keeping system, which maps the entire Montessori elementary curriculum in alignment with CCSS, Next Generation Science Standards, and College, Career, and Civic Life (C3) Framework for Social Studies Standards.

The Planes of Development divide children's growth into four six-year cycles, ranging from birth to 24 years of age, which are divided into halves to create eight three-year stages. For the WMPSC application, the three relevant 3-year stages that reflect traditional Montessori student organization between three and 11 years of age are:

- PK-K (ages 3-6): The Primary Program
- Grades 1-3 (ages 6-9): Lower Elementary Program
- Grades 4-6 (ages 9-11): Upper Elementary Program

The Primary Program (PreK-Kindergarten)

The Primary Program integrates the following areas of learning:
- Language (oral language, writing, reading)
- Mathematics
- Practical Life
- Sensorial
- Cultural Studies (includes science and social studies)

Primary-age children are "sensorial explorers who manipulate concrete materials to understand ideas."[49] Given their strong desire to gain knowledge of their environment, function independently, and learn through observing and practicing, the 3-6-year-old child is often said to be in the "absorbent mind" stage. Learning standards for primary classrooms will be consistent with the 3-6-year-old child's sensitivity to experiences involving language, order, and movement, while we also measure their social-emotional and cognitive learning skills. We plan to use the following curriculum, aligned with the listed learning standards:

Primary Standards: PK-Kindergarten

Content Area	Selected Standards
Language/Literacy	Montessori Language Curriculum + Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts
Mathematics	Montessori Mathematics Curriculum + Common Core State Standards for Mathematics
Social-Emotional	Montessori Practical Life, Sensorial, Aesthetic & Personal Development Curriculum + Colorado Emotional and Social Wellness Standard
English Language Learning	WIDA Early English Language Learning Standards

The Elementary Program (Grades 1-6)

The curriculum for the Elementary Program includes materials and activities in the following subject areas:
- Language arts (including phonics, spelling, grammar, sentence analysis, foreign language, creative and expository writing, and literature)
- Mathematics (arithmetic, algebra, and geometry)
- Science (natural sciences, physical sciences, and environmental sciences)
- Social sciences (history, civics, economics, anthropology, sociology, and geography)
- Aesthetic development (music, drama, and visual arts)

Elementary children are developing toward intellectual discovery, examining "why" and "how" questions. At this stage, the "reasoning mind" is emerging. Hands-on experiences that apply skills to a wide range of projects and activities include:
- Classifying the world using knowledge systems derived from the educational disciplines;
- Understanding time and change;
- Building a sense of moral order.

The WMPSC Elementary Program will use the following curriculum and standards:

Elementary Standards: Grades 1-6

Content Area	Selected Standards
Language	Montessori Language Curriculum + Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts
Mathematics	Montessori Mathematics Curriculum + Common Core State Standards for Mathematics
Science + Technology	Montessori Cosmic Studies Curriculum + Common Core State Standards for Science + Next Generation Science Standards

Montessori Curriculum

WMPSC adheres to international standards of authentic Montessori as articulated in the Montessori National Curriculum,[50] developed through an international partnership between The Montessori Australia Foundation, The North American Montessori Teachers Association (NAMTA), and Association Montessori Internationale (AMI).

We will adapt and use the Montessori National Curriculum according to the Planes of Development, a structured pedagogical approach based on deep analysis and appreciation of individual children. Carefully designed materials, refined through decades of practice, are used to teach children and provide opportunities for exploration in which children teach themselves and their peers. In a given day, week or year, a teacher's presentations will be nuanced to emphasize different "points of interest" based on individual children's learning objectives and trajectory on a timeline customized for each child. While there is an overall scope and sequence to Montessori, it is linear only when there is a dependency between specific learning objectives. Beyond that, it is personalized for individual children.

There is tremendous consistency across authentic Montessori classrooms in that specific materials are used explicitly to support skill development. Further, lessons and themes are presented individually or in developmentally appropriate, multi-age groupings. All WMPSC Teacher Leaders must be Montessori certified by an approved teacher training program (AMI, AMS) and must use Montessori materials in implementing their instructional programs.

The Montessori National Curriculum, outlined on the following page, meets children's physical, intellectual, social, and emotional needs at progressive stages of maturity.[51] Students who complete the fully implemented Montessori primary and lower elementary curricula are positioned to meet or exceed standards for language, math, science, social studies and other subject areas, and the method uniquely situates its classrooms both to support and benefit from a push-in model of special education and MLL instruction.[52]

Instructional Strategies

WMPSC is committed to providing authentic Montessori environments for our students and keeping Dr. Montessori's commitment to social justice and scientific pedagogy alive at every Wildflower site. Because scientific observation is the foundation of the Montessori Method, Teacher Leaders continually use the concrete, experiential nature of the learning environment to customize their instructional approach. Wildflower sites' commitment to social justice is embodied through identity-affirming education and a mindset of wholeness and belonging for every being in our communities.

To deliver high caliber instruction and learning, sites are small enough to be nimble, and Teacher Leaders respond to feedback quickly and thoughtfully, informed and advised by student performance, affect, and family input.

High-quality instruction at WMPSC reflects this responsive approach within a unique site, designed and led by autonomous Teacher Leaders. Despite variances among microsites, our methods of instruction across sites are consistent in terms of:
1. The Montessori philosophy and prepared environment;
2. Focus on foundational and social-emotional skills;
3. Anti-bias, anti-racist, and identity-affirming education;
4. Welcoming all learning needs.

[1] Montessori Philosophy and Prepared Environment

Montessori philosophy believes that children learn through interacting with their environment with guidance from a specially prepared adult. A prepared environment includes not only physical aspects but the social and emotional context in which Teacher Leaders and students share the work of learning and growing.

Key factors of the prepared environment include:

Focus on concrete, hands-on learning: Montessori education is grounded in the exploration of concepts through hands-on learning, such as golden beads and the stamp game used to teach place value and computation. After using materials to learn value, a child will be guided to calculate using paper and pencil. They may then return to materials, as Montessori manipulatives are engineered to be self-correcting and to support the increasing complexity of concepts.

Scaffolded learning: The concrete materials provide passages to abstraction and introduce increasingly complex concepts, allowing students to pursue both memorization of facts and deep understanding. Our Teacher Leaders' role is to observe their students, present lessons at developmentally appropriate moments, and then step back to allow children to independently explore, test, and master the self-correcting materials without unnecessary adult interruption. In a lower elementary classroom, this would look like one Teacher Leader presenting "Dynamic Addition" to a child during the work period using the golden beads to conceptually understand place value and regrouping. On subsequent days, the child will have an assigned notecard to complete "Dynamic Addition" on their own, with the Teacher Leader observing the child as they work, intervening when the child needs guidance, and offering more challenging addition problems as the skill is mastered.

Enriched, orderly learning environment that promotes independence: Independence is a logical outcome of a highly-enriched, orderly environment supported by Teacher Leaders who invite students into deep engagement with meaningful work. Students exercise independence and responsibility as they choose their work, care for their classroom environment, and engage in teamwork with peers. Teacher Leaders carefully design lessons and the classroom environment to promote academic, physical, intellectual, and social-emotional independence. The example above illustrates how a Teacher Leader presents a lesson and then intentionally steps aside for the student to develop conceptual understanding and skill. The child builds confidence and independence while the Teacher Leader guides the progression of "Dynamic Addition."

Collaborative learning environment: Montessori encourages collaboration through mixed-age groupings, environments that accommodate free movement, and assessment that emphasizes mastery over competition.

Community classrooms: From the moment students enter their classroom, they understand that the classroom belongs to them. Materials are accessible, and children play an active role in maintaining the environment as if it were a home. Students feel valuable and respected, which enhances their learning and experience as part of the school community. Especially in the elementary classroom, children lead the distribution of work and solve problems together. For example, our Teacher Leaders will guide students in deciding on snacks, classroom jobs, and other tasks related to a cooperative learning environment.

[2] Focus on Foundational and Social-Emotional Skills
Every child deserves a strong start and a high-quality education. WMPSC seeks to meet the need as an additional provider of strong early childhood and elementary education in Aurora.

In our first year, we will open one Primary site and one Lower Elementary site, reaching students ages 3-8. We recognize that loving, whole-family environments and research-backed learning methods during these early years of social, emotional, and cognitive development are crucial to the child's development. Authentic Montessori principles inherently align with social-emotional learning (SEL), emphasizing executive functions and social cognition.

In our primary environment, children regularly experience lessons on how to engage respectfully with one another (referred to sometimes as "Grace and Courtesy"). In our elementary classroom, children identify and solve social problems together. For example, if one child feels left out or is mean to someone, it is not uncommon for the children to talk about the issue and get the teacher's support in figuring out how to resolve it.

[3] Identity Affirming and Liberatory Education
WMPSC is a Montessori learning environment that centers identity-affirming education for all students, families, and teachers. In the diverse environment of Aurora, our Teacher Leaders and future students have come to Wildflower to embrace the rich opportunity to learn about each other's differences and navigate discussions about diversity, equity, and justice; inviting children to be proud of themselves and their families; teaching students to respect and honor differences, recognize bias and speak up for what is right.

Our liberatory education model is a way of being rather than a curriculum at our sites. We promote an understanding of social problems that not only address race and ethnicity but also include gender, language, religious diversity, sexual orientation, physical and mental abilities, and socioeconomic status. We see education as a means towards freedom, rooted in a problem-solving approach that is integrated into all aspects of teaching and learning and our charter's healing and nurturing environment.

We integrate identity affirmation into the teaching and learning in every classroom. We value our students for who they are, both as individuals and as members of a particular group. Whether a student's identity stems from race, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, gender, and/or sexual orientation, we affirm that identity. We validate students by ensuring that we show respect for all of the identities students claim as their own. An example of how this would show up in an embedded way in the classroom is by teaching the stories, celebrations, and accomplishments of leaders and everyday individuals reflective of the cultural, linguistic, and racial backgrounds of our students or providing opportunities for students to share work in their home language.

During the School Startup Journey, Teacher Leaders delve into their own identity to design and cultivate a community of culturally responsive and identity-affirming adults and children. Teacher Leaders come to WMPSC primarily because of their inherent interest in designing and opening a Montessori classroom rooted in liberatory education and identity affirmation. During the School Startup Journey and operation of a site, Teacher Leaders receive additional professional development and growth and connectedness coaching around leadership, Montessori practice, diversity, equity, and inclusion, and/or other inter- and intra-personal skills self-identified as well as growth areas assessed during accountability cycles. The following excerpt from Montessori for Social Justice reflects our understanding of the challenges before us:

> We made a promise, as Montessorians, to "Follow the child." However, do we really follow the child and honor them when our biases get in the way? Can we effectively guide with respect, inclusivity, enthusiasm, and integrity when we are bound by systemic racism?
> Our reality check: Our Montessori programs are not inherently unbiased–the biggest reason why is because of us, the teachers, the administrators, and the parents. We carefully prepare our environments for our children and attempt to promote safe, inclusive schools and classrooms. We encourage no prejudice without actively practicing anti-bias education. We have pictures on the walls that reflect "diversity" and books about Rosa Parks and Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., but nothing more. We want multiculturalism without embracing an anti-racist mission. Education is liberatory; teachers are agents of change. As Montessorians, we can do more; we can do better.

By "doing more," Teacher Leaders at our Wildflower sites embody the value of wholeness themselves and teach students by:
- Nurturing each child's construction of a knowledgeable, confident self-concept and group identity; this occurs, for example, through student-led family/teacher conferences, in which students share with their family members and Teacher Leaders their work portfolios and highlight their individual contributions to the community.
- Promoting each child's comfortable, empathic interactions with people from diverse backgrounds; this occurs, for example, through frequent collaborative group work and explicitly taught and moderated conflict resolution procedures.
- Fostering each child's critical thinking about bias; as an example, an essential component of sharing lessons about history with children is to highlight the celebrations and accomplishments of diverse peoples with a particular focus on those of leaders of color and, at the same time, offer the real stories of how biases have prevented communities of color from equitable access to resources and opportunities.
- Cultivating each child's ability to stand up for themselves and for others in the face of bias; this occurs through, for example, the telling of stories of how leaders have stood up for the rights of others throughout history and providing opportunities for students to do the same in the current context (e.g., participating in or developing school celebrations or actions on International Women's Day or International Day of the Immigrant).

[4] Welcoming All Learning Needs

Teacher Leaders at Wildflower sites value all identities and affirm all learners, including diverse learning preferences and interests, cultural roots and languages, and learning profiles and disabilities. A central belief at WMPSC is that all children are competent and capable individuals who will learn and thrive in the right environments. We are radically inclusive and design our sites for the most marginalized students.

Our Teacher Leaders are supported by the Student Services Coordinator, School Psychologist, Special Education Teacher, and experts in learning science, SEL, and local regulatory practices. WMPSC will contract with Aurora-based therapists through staffing agencies, like Nextaff, and explore the possibility of contracting with therapists as part of a charter collaborative. We are eager to partner with CSI for Colorado charter-specific trainings and to explore Montessori-specific differentiated learning opportunities through National Center for Montessori in the Public Sector (NCMPS). We have currently partnered with the public Montessori READ Act Collaborative to empower ourselves and add skills to meet all students' learning needs, as described in Section E.

Structure and Supplemental Programming

At Wildflower sites, students learn math, language arts, culture, and science, along with art, movement, and music in morning and afternoon work blocks over the APS elementary academic calendar year of 170 days of school. WMPSC will operate according to a traditional schedule, August-June, with an average minimum of a 7-hour student day. Teacher Leaders design each site's specific program, including scheduling for:
- Before care and after care programming options;
- Clear instructional minutes for work cycles;
- Specials, such as music, yoga, and foreign language;
- Teacher Leader planning time;
- Non-instructional days for professional development and parent-teacher conferences;
- Possibility of summer programming.

During the day, students at Wildflower sites will have uninterrupted work time in the classroom where they choose work they have already had presentations on and repeat that work for as long as they desire during the work period. Students garden, eat lunch communally, care for their environment, and explore the outdoors together.

After School and Summer School Programming

Teacher Leaders will make decisions in collaboration with local Community Design Teams around after-school and summer programming based on their sites' community needs. This additional programming could include before- or after-school care aligned with families' work schedules or summer programs focusing on opportunities for students to be outside. In alignment with our social and environmental justice values, our summer programming might involve outdoor learning and partnerships with Morrison Nature Center and STEM-based learning at Wings Over the Rockies Air and Space Museum. Our charter budget currently shows no revenue or expenses for supplemental programming though this is a budgeting consideration that Teacher Leaders will make during their first year of operation.

Instruction

D.2. Montessori for All

The Montessori classroom is effective for students with diverse learning profiles or those not thriving in traditional settings. Our approach with all students is grounded in honoring the wholeness of the child and their inherent academic and social-emotional potential. The Method is highly personalized, and in a "Montessori environment, all children are already on their own informal IEP."

Students who enroll as an English learner (EL), and/or with identified developmental delays, language deficits, medically-fragile or any other learning challenge that inhibits expected progress will be served through a rigorous support process that begins with basic classroom modifications and may progress to more intensive interventions based on the child's needs and identification. We follow the Child Find process and the Child Study protocol developed by NCMPS (detailed in Section E), which addresses diverse learning and developmental needs with an emphasis on Montessori's natural links with special education.

Students who are performing below age level when they enroll in a Wildflower site may need the following classroom modifications:
- Teachers nearby for greater time periods during independent work
- Direct assistance with attention, focus, and concentration
- Structure for behavior
- Guidance in selecting and performing tasks
- Specific and direct oral language development
- Direct teaching of written language and/or math symbols
- Pre-writing and writing practice with a multi-sensorial technique
- Visual Picture System
- Limit choices
- Language presentations modified with specific techniques

Some modifications are naturally occurring components of the Montessori classroom. In the example of the child learning "Dynamic Addition," this child may grow in their independence at a slowed rate, with the Teacher Leader working aside the student to reteach the lesson after the introduction. Subsequent lessons may involve asking the child to explain the process, tapping into oral expression, and solidifying conceptual understanding. This child may also move away from golden beads as a tool more quickly than others if this manipulative stymies skill building and independence. The Teacher Leader may guide the student to mastering "Dynamic Addition" using pencil and paper (or another material) instead of golden beads.

Our Teacher Leaders employ these strategies daily to support children and differentiate instruction:

- Pacing: In Montessori, lessons to the guide's observations of the child's current skill level, not a prescribed idea of when lessons should take place. We encourage children to practice lessons for as long as needed, and since the focus is on preparing the environment, there are always materials/lessons that can be scaffolded up or down. Guides respond to the individual needs of the children instead of addressing the class as a whole.

- The principle of limitation: Materials are carefully curated, and shelves only contain what is necessary for the students. In this way, children are not overwhelmed with stimuli.

- Multi-age classroom: Older children are encouraged to help and support each other and their younger peers. This creates an atmosphere that is not competitive, as everyone has a turn in needing more help/assisting others.

- Physical/concrete materials to support abstract concepts: The environment is multi-sensory, and through beautiful materials, children practice gross and fine motor skills while also learning how to follow directions, concentrate and complete increasingly complex tasks that reflect daily life, such as handwashing and table washing.

Supplemental programs such as sign language, visual picture systems, and Applied Behavioral Analysis may also be implemented to complement the curriculum and support each child in developing their full potential. When a Teacher Leader has determined that the student is not making adequate or expected progress, they meet with the Child Study Team (CST) (described in Section E) and begin the Child Find process. For a child that enters WMPSC with an IEP, we follow the multi-tiered system of supports (MTSS).

All communication regarding a student's progress and educational concerns will be delivered in the home language of the student's family and/or a translator. Family translators are welcome to attend all meetings and assist with home-school communication. All sites will be ADA accessible, and students, regardless of physical and/or learning disability status, will take part in all school culture-building activities.

WMPSC functions in full accord with federal (IDEA), state (CDE), and local laws and regulations regarding children with special needs. Section E details how we provide fully for children identified with needs for special education and related services, providing services and space to meet IEPs, including specifications for pull-out instruction. When students leave WMPSC, Teacher Leaders, Special Education Teacher, Student Services Coordinator, and School Psychologist, as needed, work collaboratively to develop a transition plan.

Inclusivity in Montessori
Aligned with the values of CSI, all students benefit from an inclusive education where students of varying abilities learn together. The unique characteristics of the Montessori educational program lend themselves to providing this inclusive environment. All students will be included in all day-to-day functions of the school and extra-curricular activities unless stated in the child's IEP, and we will provide the full continuum of services necessary based on student needs. We prioritize a learning environment where special education and related services are integrated into our general education classroom as often as possible. Our Teacher Leaders work in partnership with one another and Teacher Leader Assistant roles, inclusive of contracted special education service providers, to increase capacity for inclusion.

The instructional methods inherent in the Montessori approach are appropriate for student populations with a wide range of learning needs. Students who are at risk for academic failure are a diverse group of individuals with a diverse set of needs, and so there is likely a combination of strategies that can help many at-risk students succeed and stay in school.

Educational researcher Jeanne Ormrod's recommendations guide our strategies to attend to Multilingual Learners, students with special needs, and any other at-risk students: differentiated instruction, individualized attention to each child, one-on-one and small group instruction, mixed-age groups, peer tutoring, extra time-on-task, repetition and re-teaching, using multiple modalities and multi-sensory lessons, and special concrete materials. Montessori Teacher Leaders employ these strategies routinely with all students, not only with MLLs and students with special needs.

Differentiated and personalized methods of instruction have the advantage of identifying the strengths of children with special needs and MLLs in Wildflower sites. We incorporate these strengths into the students' work plans to support development in other areas. One-on-one and small group instruction are basic strategies for differentiation embedded in the Montessori approach. Teacher Leaders use Infinite Classroom for authorizer and district reporting and Transparent Classroom, the leading Montessori learning management system, for observation record-keeping. A consistent assessment protocol, such as the Phonological Awareness and Literacy Kindergarten (PALS-K) screener and growth measures are used across all WMPSC sites.

Our Teacher Leaders preclude student comparisons, accommodate uneven development, and easily accommodate support and interventions for children who need them. They encourage students to feel successful in school and build self-concepts as competent persons. The entirely differentiated bent of Montessori education permits children to proceed at their own rate for mastery and accommodates as much repetition as the child requires. The specially designed Montessori manipulative materials assist in the conceptualization of abstractions and in automating math operations, and the routine multi-sensory approach ensures all channels of information are employed to maximize learning in all areas.

For all students, WMPSC will routinely employ Montessori-specific strategies designed to help children with disabilities. Teacher Leaders will teach specific procedures and techniques for training attention, which help children focus on completing tasks and learn perseverance and patience; a set procedure for selecting and performing all tasks, which aids in the development of executive function; and specific techniques for increasing gross-motor skill development, eye-hand coordination and fine-motor skill facility. Using the "Dynamic Addition" example, the lower elementary Teacher Leader intentionally introduces the golden beads with careful consideration by aligning the beads on a place value mat, thoughtfully grouping and moving each bead as she adds, and focusing on the student and materials as she completes the problem. This modeling is a means for the child to then replicate the practice independently.

Child Study and Multi-Tiered System of Supports

A multi-tiered system of supports (MTSS) process is in place to comply with IDEA Child Find protocol and serve students who enter WMPSC with an IEP. A Special Education Teacher is on staff to support Teacher Leaders beginning in Year 1, as well as contracted therapists and the WMPSC Student Services Coordinator. In the Montessori environment, the Child Study protocol, developed by NCMPS (Appendix D_Child Study Protocol), is a framework used to implement MTSS.

All sites use the same universal screeners to initiate this process for students in PK3-PK4 (Ages and Stages Questionnaire). MTSS also begins when Teacher Leaders determine that a student is unsuccessful with Tier 1 instruction - authentic, high-quality Montessori instruction in the general education classroom. The Teacher Leader then implements Tier 2 interventions in the classroom, such as an additional reading/math group or an alternate material (returning to golden beads or using pictorial representations instead of concrete materials). The intervention lasts for 4-6 weeks, and then data are reviewed by the Child Study team. If progress is made, the student continues to be monitored. If progress is not made, the student is referred for an educational evaluation and moved to a Tier 3 intervention comprising intensive instruction in a pullout session with a content and/or behavior specialist. Section E describes the MTSS process in detail.

We are prepared to enroll Tier 3 and 4 special education students and varying disability categories. The following examples are instructional scenarios that illustrate how our charter model accommodates students across the continuum, recognizing that our model is nimble to what the student needs:

- Ten-hour per week resource for a student as determined by the IEP team with mild disability: This child could receive specialized reading and or math instruction two hours per day with a Special Education and/or Teacher Leader outside the classroom while the second Teacher Leader remains in the classroom during the morning and afternoon work cycle to maximize inclusion. The student could receive related services throughout the day with a contracted specialist.

- Fifteen-hour per week pull-out for a student as determined by the IEP team with moderate disability: This child could receive daily 1-hour, 1-1 or small group pragmatic language and social-communication instruction by a contracted speech-language therapist; daily 1-1 instruction with a contracted occupational therapist in the classroom, in the small instruction room, and out of doors, as possible; and daily 1-1 instruction with a contracted behavior specialist in the classroom and in the small instruction room. We imagine that these specialized services would occur during both the morning and afternoon work cycles so the child has time to work with the Special Education Teacher on Montessori-specific lessons, as appropriate; we would also encourage specialists to meet with the student during lunch and recess so the student can generalize their skills and the Teacher Leaders would have an opportunity to work in collaboration with the specialist and student.

- Full-time pull-out for a student as determined by the IEP team with intensive disability: This child could enroll in one of our larger sites with multiple small instructional spaces. The Teacher Leader would greet the student daily, and we would include them in the morning circle. Then, the child could work with our Social Worker and/or a Montessori-oriented behavior specialist for the morning and afternoon work periods. The Special Education Teacher could prepare lessons and consult with the specialist to modify the curriculum for the student's needs and collaborate on positive reinforcement and restorative justice practices if ever needed. The Special Education Teacher could also rotate in with the student during the work periods. To ensure the least restrictive environment (LRE), the child could be included in lunch, recess, and specials. The goal for this scenario is for the child to feel part of the rhythm of the day and to form connections with their Teacher Leaders and classmates.

These examples reflect our preparedness to serve all students and demonstrate our commitment to serving all children along a continuum of impact. Individual service models for each child will vary based on the services needed and the severity of need. Teacher Leaders will also work with specialists toward our collective goal that students with disabilities be integrated into the classroom whenever appropriate; they will have the same access to the general education curriculum as their peers. We will provide accommodations to the student when appropriate, including standardized testing as specified in their IEP protocol. Teacher Leaders are supported throughout the MTSS process by the Special Education Teacher, Student Services Coordinator, and Shared Services Partner, as needed.

The Teacher Leaders will participate in annual training offered through NCMPS, and other organizations, such as the Shelton School, which leads Montessori special education trainings to hone their Child Study practices. We anticipate that Teacher Leaders may also aspire to be Orton-Gillingham trained to build their language instruction skills. Teacher Leaders will have time allotted in their schedule for acting as the Child Study Lead, collaborating with a child's special education team, and engaging in wisdom exchange with other Wildflower Teacher Leaders.

Multilingual Learners

Teacher Leaders approach Multilingual Learners (MLL) within a wider culturally responsive mindset; each student is viewed not "as a representative of their culture, but as an individual influenced by social and cultural forces within and beyond the classroom." Culturally Responsive Pedagogy (CRP) challenges our community to gain a deeper understanding of each MLL and their family and all our relationships. By grappling with this challenge, we realize the infinite diversity and intersections among what looks like homogeneous groups and how this awareness informs instruction and connections.

The Montessori Method combined with CRP is a powerful combination, ideal for MLL students. Montessori offers 1) individualized education through differentiation for every child; 2) collaboration among students, which fosters student conversation and authentic opportunities for developing language skills; and 3) the application of hands-on Montessori materials, bringing many lessons to life for emergent bilinguals. At the primary level, all presentations are made first without language, allowing students at all levels of English proficiency equal access to content. At the elementary level, language and gesture are closely tied. The child may attend visually and observe the materials presented. After she is successful at perceiving and comprehending the sensory information that is part of the presentation, language is attached to the object, functions, and attributes connected with the concept, thus scaffolding her language and content learning.

Modifications to the traditional Montessori approach (silent lessons) are sometimes necessitated for an MLL student, as oral expression is a component of language learning. WMPSC embraces district MLL support - both in training and on-site student support. Teacher Leaders respond to the diversity of students in their classroom, eager to understand how to best adapt or modify traditional Montessori approaches to best serve MLLs. As an example, a 7-year-old Amharic speaker will be taught the English alphabet using the Montessori Method's multiple materials as both an oral and silent lesson. As he progresses with English acquisition, the student may continue to receive language and math lessons using Montessori materials but may have modifications during a small group cultural lesson; a Teacher Leader could read text or create scaffolded sentence frames which build productive language skills and confidence. A push-in model for MLL instruction is always preferred unless a child's needs, determined through the MTSS process, suggest otherwise.

Our Teacher Leaders plan to complete the MLL training by the end of their second year at their site, beginning the CDE-mandated training during their School Startup Journey planning year. WMPSC Teacher Leaders attend NCMPS's English Learner Support in Montessori Classrooms course, support children with limited English skills in their classrooms, and support families - from completing the home survey in their language and/or providing an interpreter for the home survey completion to coordinating the WIDA assessment and communicating students' progress with translators, as needed. All Teacher Leaders are active in building their sites' culturally responsive mindset.

Students Below Grade Level

Montessori education is centered on individualized instruction and helps all children reach their fullest potential at their own unique pace, including children considered to be working "below grade level." Every Wildflower site is a mixed-age classroom. An advantage to the mixed age group is that a student may present as a 6-year-old "below grade level" in a lower elementary classroom and show marked academic and social-emotional growth as the older 9-year-old in the same classroom, no longer presenting "below grade level."

Grade level is assessed by Teacher Leaders at the end of each 3-year cycle during PK3-3rd grade, as opposed to at the end of every year. This is in keeping with the Montessori Planes of Development. However, Teacher Leaders make daily observations, keep careful records, and communicate frequently with parents and the instructional team. In grades 3-6, annual CMAS testing and relevant NAEP testing will occur to inform Teacher Leaders on student academic growth over time; comparing class observation and formative assessment with these standardized measures will provide Teacher Leaders with a more robust picture of a child's progress.

Using the MTSS approach discussed above, primary and elementary students will receive individual support and, if needed, the IEP accommodations and services they require to successfully complete the Montessori program. Intervention and remedial programs outside the Montessori Method, such as an evidence-based reading program like Orton-Gillingham, may be used when advised by the Student Services Coordinator and Special Education Teacher.

Students Above Grade Level

The whole-child approach of the Montessori curriculum integrates the development of self-reliance, independence, and respectfulness with academic work. As the child matures, they use personal and social skills to inform and evaluate their own work through individual and group self-assessment. Students are respected as both unique and competent, with an innate desire to learn. They are empowered to direct their own learning through the materials and projects they choose to work on, with the close guidance of the teacher and an understanding of their individual learning approaches. Each student has an individual learning plan, the design of which they take an increasingly active role in as they mature.

The mixed-age, highly enriched environment is well equipped to meet the needs of accelerated learners. Besides providing the opportunity for children to choose work that is well above grade level (chapter books, long division, and musical notation for five-year-olds; algebra, geometry, and advanced cultural study for elementary students), multi-age grouping allows each child to find their own pace without feeling "ahead" or "behind" their peers. This allows accelerated learners to serve as helpers for other students and to remain in classes with other members of their age groups while still being academically and intellectually challenged.

Staffing

D. 3. WMPSC Organizational Structure

What many educational models before us have attempted - creating autonomous school structures that value site-based decision-making—WMPSC implements with fidelity through a thoroughly crafted organizational and staffing model that reimagines teacher leadership, prioritizes decision—making closest to a felt need, and develops systems and operating norms for sustaining this decentralized structure.

At full scale, WMPSC will comprise six microsites with 12 Teacher Leaders and 244 students. The strength of multiple microsites is that it provides a network of support, accountability, and the opportunity to problem-solve and share resources, while maintaining our commitment to small, community-embedded learning environments. While Teacher Leaders operate as the school's "head of school," "teacher," and "school administrator," Teacher Leaders are deeply supported through the staff, specialized student support roles, and our service provider partnerships. The following anecdote is an excerpt by Erin McKay, a Wildflower Teacher Leader, explaining how this works in practice:

My co-head and I are the ones who make decisions about our school and community, but it's nice to know we're not alone on an island. We have a wealth of resources and support from The Wildflower Foundation and from the other Teacher Leaders in our region. It's amazing. This support system is made up of people who seem to be experts in every area, including local certification requirements, the Montessori Method, and equity issues. The Admissions and Finance utilities, developed by the Wildflower Foundation, are extremely helpful in reducing administrative burdens. It's amazing.

The decentralized network also ensures that teachers don't have to start from scratch when they want to start a Wildflower School. It's so much work to open a school—the Startup costs, the growing pains—but this way, we aren't reinventing the wheel every time. Wildflower offers a ton of streamlined open-source information for its schools. (We also provide it for anyone outside of the Wildflower network who's interested.) We truly want to bring Montessori to as many kids across all socioeconomic strata as possible. We're all separate and autonomous, but we rely on each other to hold ourselves accountable. Embracing non-hierarchy isn't easy, and it's not going to work if we don't all show up for each other. Even though it's not easy, it's exciting because it's a new way of handling operations and allows for more freedom in the end.

Our staffing, in the table below, reflects how the Teacher Leaders are supported at each site and across the charter:

| WMPSC Staff	Y0	Y1	Y2	Y3	Y4	Y5
Teacher Leaders	0	4.0	8.0	8.0	12.0	12.0
Teacher Leader Assistant	0	2.2	6.0	8.0	6.4	8.0
ECE + Elementary Special Education Teachers	0	.40	1	1.20	1.40	1.60
School Psychologist	0	.20	.60	.75	.85	1
Shared Services Partner	.38	.75	.75	1	1	1
Student Services Coordinator	.13	.25	.30	1	1	1
Finance Partner	0	0	.50	1	1	1

Teacher Leader	.53	.53	0	.53	0	0
Finance Contractors	The financial services provider and bookkeeper roles will be contracted annually, overlapping the onboarding of a Finance Partner in Year 3
Speech Language Pathologist	0		Budgeted contracted services
Occupational and Physical Therapists	0		Budgeted contracted services
Nurse			Budgeted contracted services
TOTAL Staff	1.04	8.33	17.15	21.48	23.65	25.60
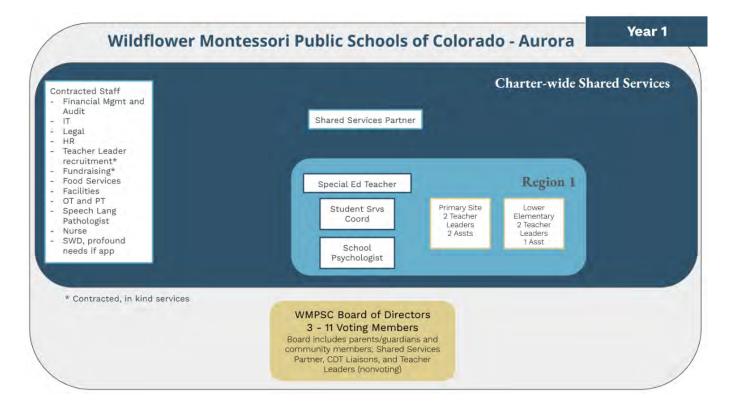

We designed our staffing plan to ensure that Teacher Leaders are supported on-site by Teacher Assistants (reflected in the chart below and in Appendix D_Org Chart). We maintain a ratio no greater than eight students for every adult in Primary (student/staff ratio 8:1) and an average of 15 students for every one adult in Lower and Upper Elementaries (student/staff ratio 15:1). Charter staff members and learning specialists will also work from sites and be available as an additional adult in the classroom; however, they are not explicitly calculated in the site ratios.
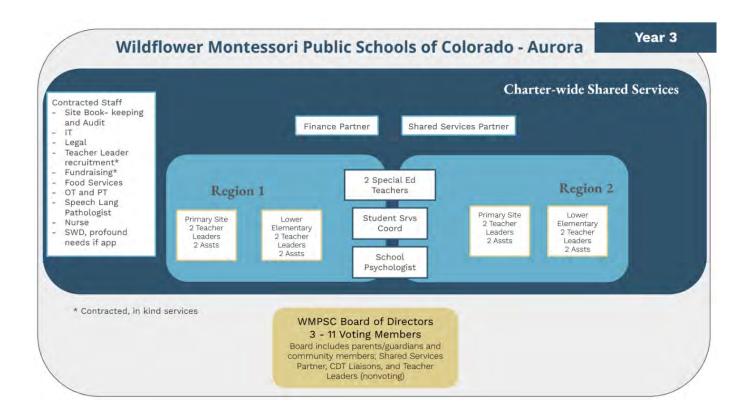

At the onset, WMPSC will initially establish a strong staff that supports excellence in teaching, learning, special education and MLL, compliance, and the growth and launch of new charter sites. We will use contracted finance and accounting expertise in our Planning Year and Year 1 (See Appendix D_Financial Services Scope of Work), and contractors for human resources support. As WMPSC sites grow throughout Aurora, the staff will expand to include a Finance Partner in Year 2, and the contractors that were hired to support the charter start-up will be phased out.
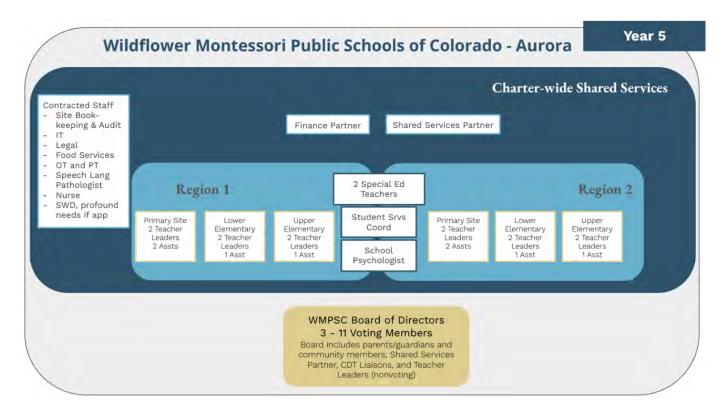

Our budget reflects how our staffing expenses will be balanced and how we are investing in creating a sound start-up process to ensure scalable and sustainable growth. WMPSC's formal job descriptions for staff can be found in the Appendices:

D.4. Staff Recruitment and Hiring

WMPSC follows a standardized process for recruitment and hiring to account for some biases that are common in hiring practices, such as "likeability bias." This process, adopted because of its success in other Wildflower regions, includes five stages, from creating a job description to closing communication with all candidates. The stages are outlined below:

Stage	Task
Create Hiring Resources	Create Job Description
	Create Job Posting
	Develop criteria for initial review
	Create Hiring Exercise
	Develop criteria for interviews/hiring decision
	Create interview conversation questions/template
Build Strong, Diverse Candidate Pool	Post job in a variety of paid and free advertising spaces (see Postings tab)
	Use social media to publicize opportunity, including asking networks to post to their social media (see Social Media tab)
	Use networks to reach out to professional connections, including networks of Teacher Leaders and families in existing schools - ask for references
	Evaluate candidate pool for depth and diversity before moving to Initial Review stage
Stage	Task
Initial Review	Use initial review criteria to make preliminary paper cuts--notify candidates
	Schedule and Conduct initial phone interviews
	Invite semifinalists to interview process
Interview Process	Assign Hiring Exercise to semifinalists
	Schedule group conversation with current entrepreneurs
	Conduct group conversations
	Schedule and conduct conversation with current Teacher Leaders or other stakeholders
	Schedule and conduct conversation with Matt
	Make hiring decision
Make Hire	Make offer to candidate
	After offer accepted, close out remaining candidates
	Complete HR processes

In Aurora, we are beginning to recruit for our first staff position, Shared Services Partner, as soon as we receive charter approval. We have drafted a job description (Appendix D_Shared Services Partner Job Description) and continue to build out the responsibilities of the role as our Founding Teacher Leaders and Interim Shared Services Partner fulfill their responsibilities and best define the scope of the position.

Because WMPSC is focused on a community-embedded model, we center our recruitment for staff positions on educational leaders from Adams-Arapahoe County. Recruitment begins with community engagement, directly communicating with our local partners about our staffing needs. We expand communication to our Wildflower network, posting on both our WMPSC and Colorado hub social media accounts. Our recruitment will also widen to include posting our job description to specific Denver-area organizations and Montessori networks, like the early childhood education and education departments and career services at the University of Denver; MSU Denver; Community College of Aurora; University of Colorado; Montessori Education Center of the Rockies; and The Montessori Institute.

The recruitment and hiring process for the Founding Shared Services Partner is managed by the Interim Shared Services Partner and hiring is finalized by the Board Chair. Subsequent recruitment and hiring processes are the responsibility of the Shared Services Partner, with the Board making the final hiring decision. To date, a recruitment process has not been necessary for Teacher Leaders, as they have been drawn to the Wildflower model through Montessori and teaching for social justice channels. However, we expect that recruitment may be necessary to bring eight Teacher Leaders to complete the School Startup Journey by Year 5. With this in mind, WMPSC is leveraging our partnerships with Montessori-specific organizations, specified in Section B, while also working to cultivate relationships with regional Montessori organizations, such as Keres Children's Learning Center, that amplify Montessori with place-based practice.

D.5. Professional Development

Teacher Leaders' professional development begins during the School Startup Journey before employment by WMPSC. At the forefront of their work at this stage is their Montessori training and training and coaching by 228 Accelerator, a coaching and consulting organization that "fuels the scaling of radical and transformative ideas in schools, organizations, and communities."[53] Teacher Leaders use the equity design framework (Appendix C_equityXdesign Framework) to design their site and build a foundation where every student, family, and Teacher Leader is part of an inclusive and equitable community. Teacher Leader professional development is individualized, reflecting growth areas that the Teacher Leader determines during advice sessions.

Teacher Leaders' professional development opportunities and our partnerships align with our charter mission and Teacher Leaders' core responsibilities:

Design and lead a diverse, inclusive, and equitable school community
Core Teacher-Leader Responsibilities:	Aligned Professional Development Opportunities:
- Develop authentic, enduring relationships with community members to inform site design and evolution - Cultivate a committed community of students, families, and stakeholders rooted in partnership - Lead with cultural humility and actively work to disrupt oppressive systems and practices	- School Startup Journey Exploration Albums - Ongoing training and coaching from 228 Accelerator and/or Embracing Equity - Annual Embracing Equity Educators Conference

Guide children in a Montessori environment

Core Teacher-Leader Responsibilities:

- Co-lead mixed aged groups Montessori classroom designed for diverse population
- Employ inclusive teaching practices that meet the needs of every child, including healing-centered instruction
- Support caregivers of students to adopt aligned practices at home as desired to create a seamless learning environment
- Support all learners, including struggling students and students with special needs

Aligned Professional Development Opportunities:

- Compliance and literacy specific training to meet READ Act, such as the Science of Reading
- Refine instructional practices to support the development of an inclusive and responsive classroom
- NCMPS coaching and classroom feedback for Child Study Protocol
- MLL training through a CDE-approved program and through NCMPS
- Understanding Interventions and Therapies in a Montessori Setting through Montessori for Inclusion
- Intervention program training, such as Orton-Gillingham reading instruction and Heggerty
- Personalized training identified during annual Accountability and Growth Cycles
- NWEA MAP, Dibels, Kindergarten Readiness, DERS, and MEFS Administration Training

Employ strong business and administrative practices

Core Teacher-Leader Responsibilities:

- Build and maintain a balanced budget and implement sound financial practices to ensure accountability and fiscal health
- Ensure accurate and complete records and stay in compliance with regulations at all times
- Operate with sound human resource and legal practices
- Maintain a healthy, well-functioning facility that meets the needs of students and licensing requirements
- Utilize leadership and administrative skills, such as time management, project planning, and systems development, to develop and execute the varied responsibilities of school leadership

Aligned Professional Development Opportunities:

- Wildflower Schools network annual Teacher Leader Gathering
- Regular WMPSC Community of Practice meetings
- Financial and operations self-guided modules and 1-1 support meetings
- Medication Administration
- Mandated Reporting Compliance
- CDE and CSI required PD
- School Site Safety Plan
- Suicide Prevention and Cyber Safety Trainings
- CO League of Charter Schools Conference

Teacher Leaders begin this co-creation during the School Startup Journey. In this systemized, holistic professional development program, entrepreneurial educators use their experience as Montessorians and equity-minded community leaders to develop their programmatic vision for a customized microsite that meets the regulatory expectations of CSI and the Colorado Department of Education. What emerges are inspiring, coherent school plans co-designed with and deeply connected to the community. Every microsite will become a valued member of its community through building relationships that go beyond the students and families we serve. These relationships will not only support recruitment efforts but also translate into a vibrant school community that reflects the assets and investment of local businesses, nonprofit organizations, and neighbors who have built and contributed to the neighborhood.

- The Montessori Institute of Denver (TMI): The Montessori Institute of Denver is an internationally accredited Montessori training center for early childhood and elementary Montessori certification. WMPSC anticipates sending Teacher Leaders to this training institute for Montessori certification or ongoing professional development opportunities. We will also connect with teachers currently in their training programs to share information about Teacher Leader opportunities in the WMPSC network if these teachers in training are looking for new communities in which to teach and lead. TMI has been a strong supporter of expanding Montessori into the public sector for decades, beginning with establishing Family Star Head Start programs.

- Montessori Education Center of the Rockies (MECR): MECR is a nationally accredited Montessori training center in east Denver. Several of our future Teacher Leaders attended Montessori certification programs at MECR, and MECR will likely be a certification site for future WMPSC Teacher Leaders. We will also connect with teachers currently in their training programs to share information about Teacher Leader opportunities in the WMPSC network if these teachers in training are looking for new communities in which to teach and lead.

- Moonshot EdVentures: Moonshot Edventures offers a 3-stage program that focuses on leadership development, designing and piloting learning environments alongside communities, and identifying and supporting connections between Fellows and their local and national networks. Two Wildflower Colorado Teacher Leaders have engaged in this year-long fellowship so far, and we anticipate Aurora Teacher Leaders to apply and attend within the first two years.

- National Center for Montessori in the Public Sector (NCMPS): NCMPS is a national organization that supports and sustains public Montessori schools, leaders, and teachers by providing professional development, education, and coaching opportunities. WMPSC Teacher Leaders will attend trainings through NCMPS that provide education specific to supporting equitable access to Montessori education in the public sector.

Teacher Leaders also participate in regular professional development, parent education events, and board meetings. The Shared Services Partner will support our Teacher Leaders to inform them of pertinent continuing education and the most recent changes in special education and general education regulations and policy. An annual retreat is a hallmark of Wildflower sites, where all Teacher Leaders join the Board of Directors and WMPSC employees. The Wildflower Foundation also holds an annual Wildflower Gathering, where Teacher Leaders across the country convene for a weekend of workshops and connection.

Teacher Leaders will have robust professional development tied to our values of Growth and Connectedness. With the input of the Shared Services Partner, who holds the responsibility for human resources, our Teacher Leaders will create a radically transparent process for coaching, observation, and feedback over the year and provide an external lens to ensure all students learn and grow across academic and social-emotional indicators through a culturally responsive Montessori pedagogy.

E. Student Services

WMPSC is committed to serving all students in Aurora who want to enroll, including those with physical disabilities, Individual Education Plans (IEPs), 504 plans, Multilingual Learners, Gifted and Talented, students with mental health needs, and educationally disadvantaged students. The WMPSC's vision, mission, core values and norms, and principles create a positive and collaborative learning environment for all students to be who they are within a scaffolded and caring learning community.

E.1. WMPSC Prevention Based Framework

WMPSC will use the MTSS framework and the RTI process as a prevention-based tool to identify and monitor student progress and intervention support as needed throughout the school year to ensure students are growing both academically and emotionally. This is used in combination with the Montessori Child Study Protocol, described in Section D and detailed in Appendix D_Child Study Protocol. The MTSS programming is designed to be a comprehensive system to support the needs of all students through evidence-based strategies, while the Child Study Protocol is a framework for facilitating the process of implementing MTSS, which includes structuring Child Study Team (CST) meetings, identifying the lagging skill that is impeding the child's academic or social-emotional development, generating a specific intervention to address that lagging skill, observing the child's progress and collecting data about the effectiveness of that intervention over an identified period, and then revisiting the progress based on the intervention.

Using the Child Study Team (CST) model, Teacher Leaders at each microsite work with the Special Education Teacher, Student Services Coordinator, contracted School Psychologist, Shared Services Partner, Teacher Leader Assistants as needed, and parents and guardians during the MTSS process. The site CST team, composed of the Teacher Leaders and Student Services Coordinator, meets every other week to discuss student data, which includes formative assessments, TL observations, TC record-keeping, behavioral data, and anecdotal data from families/parents. Teacher Leaders identify students of concern in their bi-weekly site-specific CST meetings, collect and collate data on those students, and bring them to the monthly CST gatherings, which both the Special Education Teacher and School Psychologist attend. That team then identifies and develops intervention strategies in collaboration with families and evaluates the efficacy of those interventions using anecdotal and quantitative data over subsequent meetings. We also rely on family input about how the child performs and their effect at home. Valuing a holistic view of students by acknowledging the importance of supporting them academically and social-emotionally is a top priority.

WMPSC's data-driven MTSS process, facilitated using the Child Study Protocol, ensures equal access to support systems for all students and aligns with the Montessori Model. The MTSS plan incorporates the Colorado Department of Education's (CDE) five essential components of the MTSS framework:
- Team-driven shared leadership;
- Data-based problem;-
- Solving and decision-making approaches;
- Family, school, and community partnering; layered continuum of supports;
- Evidence-based practices.
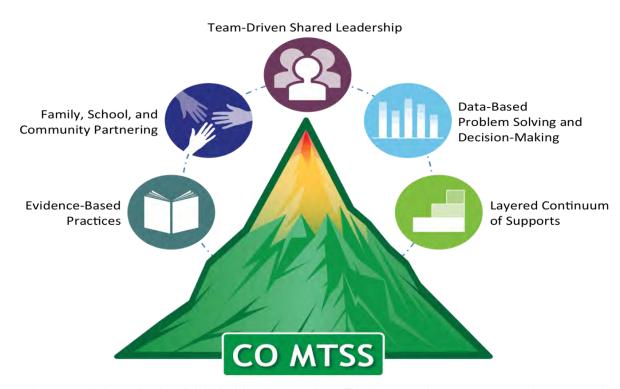

WMPSC will follow the MTSS process to identify students for intervention, needed support, and acceleration for all students (including English Learners, at-risk students, underperforming students, and gifted and talented students). WMPSC will follow the RTI process within the MTSS framework:

- Tier 1: (Universal Level): Approximately 80% of students fall into this level, and their needs are typically met in the mainstream classroom through WMPSC's delivery of the Montessori curriculum. WMPSC's curriculum is standards-based with differentiated instruction in a team-teaching model. As students undertake follow-up work in groups and individually, teachers can personalize instruction and adapt teaching strategies to address each student's learning style and educational needs. Those struggling to keep up with classes are placed in Tier 2 (Targeted Level).

- Tier 2 (Targeted Level): Approximately 5 to 15% of students fall into this level at any given time. Students at this level may need more targeted, specific interventions to find academic and behavioral success. Students needing intervention at this level are supported with interventions suggested by the CST. Interventions could include a variety of strategies such as modified assignments, copies of notes, or individual checks for understanding. If targeted interventions are not successful and the student continues to struggle to make sufficient academic progress, a more intensive intervention plan will be put in place.

- Tier 3 (Intensive Level): approximately 5% of students fall into this level and require the most intense interventions due to performance being significantly below expected benchmarks. The student may be moved back into Tier 2 support when learning objectives are met through intensive interventions. Students who remain unresponsive to Tier 3 interventions will be referred to the special education team for clinical evaluation to determine the presence of learning disabilities,or other possible factors including mental health, trauma or changes to home life.

The three tiers are designed to be fluid: Within all three tiers, Teacher Leaders are constantly re-assessing students to determine whether interventions are successful, whether new strategies should be used,or whether changes have emerged in a student's academic progress or mental health. This is reflected in the diagram above: the wheel at the center identifies the level with the cyclical tasks to analyze, implement, evaluate, and define.

E.2. WMPSC Student Services Support Program

The WMPSC student services support program is informed by Montessori practices of student-centered learning, and our charter is designed to create an inclusive learning environment and infuse a sense of belonging and identity affirmation for all students. WMPSC is committed to providing a continuum of services in the least restrictive environment, underscored by the Montessori Method, which benefits students with and without support needs and views inclusion as natural and necessary.[54]

WMPSC sees our student services support program as fully integrated into our teaching and learning, led by Teacher Leaders who receive professional training that meets state literacy and MLL requirements, as well as follow their own Growth and Connectedness Plan to build their expertise in student services delivery. Teacher Leaders' Professional Development opportunities are described in Section D: Educational Programming. The Teacher Leaders are supported by a Student Services Coordinator (SSC) and robust school-based staff (Special Education Teacher, Teacher Leader Assistants) and contractors (School Psychologist, Licensed Occupational Therapist, Speech-Language Therapist, etc.). These contractors are selected and onboarded to integrate them into the school culture and meet WMPSC's strong hiring process, reflected in the Teacher Leader School Startup Journey (Appendix B_Wildflower School Startup Journey Deck). Contractors follow a process that includes training in Wildflower Ways of Working (Appendix E_Wildflower Self-Management Ways of Working); Montessori Method; and equityXDesign. Contractors are required to shadow a Teacher Leader prior to employment and, as part of the onboarding process, attend a CST meeting and commit to the DEIB Agreement (Appendix A_DEIB Agreement).

The onboarding process highlights our Wildflower microsite model and the Montessori classroom culture where all students receive maximum differentiation and are affirmed in their identities, including different learning approaches. The small group and individualized instruction of the Montessori classroom ensure that every child is working on concepts specifically geared toward their level of mastery of that concept. Teacher Leaders work with each student or small group to monitor and adjust the instruction to address the needs of the individual or small group. Then – once the student is on track and working toward their next goal – the teacher moves on and addresses the next student or group of students at the same personalized level. Montessori Observation protocol and assessment and reporting procedures inform this teaching.

Additionally, the microsite model and multi-age classroom give Teacher Leaders and students the opportunity to be seen and learn from one another in a community that centers student needs in a nimble way. For example, a student requiring accelerated instruction reading might join the older students in the classroom for reading activities, while the same student, finding math more challenging, might stay with his peers or even work with some of the younger students in a class for math-related activities. With the constant shifting of small group activities on an as-needed basis, students avoid being pigeon-holed into ability groups or always working with the same students considered to be on the same academic level as them. Instead, they move fluidly to the group or activity which is most individually appropriate for their level of mastery at that specific moment in time, guided by the Teacher Leader and the Montessori progress monitoring tools.

Budgeting for the Student Services Support Program

Our fiscal plan fully takes into account how WMPSC will support historically underserved students with special needs, gifted abilities, multilingual learners, and students with mental health and other health needs. The Standardized Budget Template, detailed in Section G, reflects an understanding of all funding sources used to serve student subgroups, including students with IEPs.

[54] Implementing Montessori Education in the Public Sector, 1990 p.273.

WMPSC will hire one certified Special Education Teacher to work with our Teacher Leaders, Montessorians trained in the Child Study Process, Orton-Gillingham, and meeting READ Act 'Science of Learning' and MLL requirements. The Student Services Coordinator supports the assessment and reporting of students and the creation and delivery of academic and social-emotional support for students, with a keen focus on students with IEPs or 504 Plans.

We believe that our current staffing plan will meet the needs of our anticipated special education population. If WMPSC ends up with a higher than expected special education population or students with more severe needs than expected, then WMPSC will confer with CSI and will adjust our expenses accordingly to support students with severe disabilities.

Our staffing currently follows a student services staffing allocation formula recommended by CSI. Our budget and Planning Year processes, however, depend on conference with CSI to finalize alignment with charter contract and CDE recommendations. The formula for staff-to-student ratio based on identified student needs is currently slated per below:

Student Services Staff Position	FTE Staff: Student Ratio
Special Education Teacher	1:150
School Psychologist	1:250
Nurse	1:750
Contracted therapists, such as S-L	1:400

Additionally, our expenses include staffing, curriculum and materials, and professional development. We have created our budget to reflect how these expenses grow according to enrollment, site growth, and projected student needs. In Year 0, we are working to secure a working relationship and minimum contract with an occupational therapist, speech and language pathologist, and nurse. WMPSC is prepared to contract for visually impaired, deaf/hard of hearing, audiology, and vision/hearing screenings and services as necessary for an hourly rate. Fundraising is specifically targeted to elevate our special education resources, including staffing a Social Worker by Year 5.

Projected Required Resources for Student Services Support Program:

Staffing	Projected Salary Expense
Role	Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	Year 4	Year 5
Student Services Support Coordinator	$15,300	$18,727	$63,672	$64,946	$66,245
Special Education Teacher	$20,000	$50,800	$62,016	$73,660	$85,745
School Psychologist	$13,600	$41,616	$53,060	$61,338	$73,605
Nurse	$3,000	$5,000	$5,000	$9,000	$9,000
Contracted therapists, such as S-L	$10,000	$20,000	$24,000	$30,000	$36,000

Curriculum and Materials	Projected Expense
Student Population	Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	Year 4	Year 5
Students with Special Needs	$3,000	$6,120	$6,242	$9,551	$9,742
Students with Mental Health Needs	$260	$530	$541	$828	$844

WMPSC is prepared to use curriculum beyond Montessori and has budgeted curriculum and training to meet these needs. To meet READ Act requirements, WMPSC plans to use Amplify as our assessment tool, Wonder Works and Orton-Gillingham as our intensive curriculum, and The Writing Road to Reading as our supplemental program. Additional curriculum Teacher Leaders will consider to meet the unique learning needs of their students include Zones of Regulation, Social Thinking; Step up to Writing; and Fundations.

To meet the ongoing training of Teacher Leaders, we have allocated $4000/year for professional development per Teacher Leader. WMPSC anticipates a special education population at or below 15%. This would likely represent a maximum of fourteen students in Year 1 (PK-2). To inform the potential IEP services that WMPSC will be prepared to provide its enrolled students, we will seek shared data on the current level of services for both PreK and Elementary students from other charters in Aurora and directly from APS as possible.

Each December, a count of eligible IEP students enrolled in the school will be taken. WMPSC will receive funding during the following school year to assist with the services required for those students. As listed in the Budget Assumptions in Section G, state-wide estimates for the 2023-2024 school year put these funding levels at $1,600/IEP student from IDEA and $1,232/IEP student from ECEA.

WMPSC looks to consult with CSI and consider ongoing special education insurance models and special education funds to be used with the IDEA and ECEA funds.

E.3. Students Who Have Been Historically Underserved
WMPSC will serve all students who want to enroll in the school. This includes students who are considered historically underserved due to academic, economic, or social-emotional risk factors and educationally disadvantaged, defined by C.R.S. 22-30.5-106(q)) as students in danger of not graduating, being promoted, or meeting other education-related goals. Risk factors may include but are not limited to socioeconomic status; academic background; behavior, cognitive, or physical problems; mental health; family or community environment; and school capacity to meet student needs.

Montessori's belief in the inherent goodness and potential of every child serves as a foil to bias and provides an environment in which all students can discover and build upon those strengths at their own pace. The Montessori model truly personalizes an educational approach for each student that especially benefits educationally disadvantaged students, ensuring students will not be able to fall through the cracks. On the contrary, the Montessori model, coupled with WMPSC practices, has the following supports and interventions built in for all students:
- NWEA MAP testing is administered twice a year to identify areas of growth as well as areas in need of further support;
- Presentations of Learning showcase students' areas of challenges and accomplishments;
- Three-year cycles with Teacher Leaders and peers that allows students and adults to know each other well; and
- The development of elementary portfolios over six years to identify personal, academic, and emotional goals and accomplishments of students;

- Individualized standards-aligned observations, record keeping, and reporting in Transparent Classroom.

All historically underserved and educationally disadvantaged students will follow the same procedures described in the above sections as they pertain to their unique needs and circumstances, including students with special needs, those on 504 Plans, those experiencing homelessness, and students in foster care. These procedures include working to address a child's housing needs more directly and students' transportation challenges inherent in their fluid living arrangements so that WMPSC can be a source of continuity and stability in their lives. Our SSC works directly with families and community social services agencies to help prevent our foster and homeless student population from needing to switch schools and curricula mid-year, which would further educationally disadvantage them. Instead, they will have a chance to engage more deeply in their classwork, develop important relationships with their teachers, and benefit from all the academic and social-emotional supports WMPSC offers.

Additionally, WMPSC is prepared to serve all Aurora students regardless of their physical disability. Our sites will meet all ADA requirements and will contract with service providers to provide therapy and adapted education to students directly. We expect that our Teacher Leaders and staff will receive additional training to meet the needs of students with physical disabilities and will integrate this into WMPSC's annual professional development plans and calendar, to be finalized during the Planning Year.

E.4. Students with Special Needs

WMPSC operates in full compliance with federal laws, including the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, and the Americans with Disabilities Act. We also understand the requirements of Colorado's Exceptional Children's Education Act. As such, and in alignment with the Montessori Method, WMPSC is committed to providing a continuum of services in the least restrictive environment appropriate to the individual student's needs. This means that students are in class as much as possible. Special Education providers, such as the Special Education Teacher and contracted licensed therapists, work with Teacher Leaders to know how to meet IEP minutes and support effective student accommodations and modifications. The Special Education Teacher might join a lesson with the Teacher Leader for inclusion support. Some students may require pull-out support; in these situations, the student works with the Special Education provider individually or in a small group. Pull-out support with the Special Education Teacher might occur as an individualized or small group lesson in the classroom. These lessons would be consistent with the classroom culture of individualized or small group lessons for all students. In other cases, the Special Education Teacher might conduct pull-out support in a separate environment. WMPSC will manage IEPs and progress monitoring through Infinite Campus. We are confident that this system facilitates efficient and easy communication with district personnel on special education issues.

The WMPSC budget aligns with the required resources to support students with special needs by allocating funding to employ a certified Special Education Teacher and contracted therapists, such as a certified Speech-Language Pathologist; purchase materials and curriculum for pull-out interventions; subscribe to Infinite Campus, which we will use to monitor all students with special needs students; and support all Teacher Leaders in completing focused professional development to understand and teach a student with special needs.

Several accommodations often present in IEPs and 504s are naturally supported by the Montessori approach to learning, especially given the prevalent use of concrete materials in lessons and independent work. In math, for example, concrete manipulative materials are used to teach nearly all math concepts and can be utilized by children for follow-up work at any point in the child's learning. It is customary in Montessori classrooms for guides to continue integrating concrete manipulatives in students' learning throughout the elementary years. Given that Montessori pedagogy is an individualized approach to student learning, integrating accommodations and modifications set forth in IEP and 504 plans is common and fluid, and coordination of this work between the Teacher Leader and Special Education Teacher will ensure that each individual student is receiving instruction, scaffolding, and support as appropriate, according to their individual needs and learning profiles.

The IEP and Infinite Campus will be used to track progress toward goals and the effectiveness of various accommodations and modifications. We also will employ a Montessori-based platform, Transparent Classroom, to manage Teacher Leader observations. The SSC is responsible for integrating WMPSC with existing CSI systems for ease of compliance and reporting procedures.

Our assessment plan, detailed in Section F, is based on collecting the broadest base of data possible to ensure that our students are understood acutely and as accurately as possible. The frequency of progress monitoring will vary by the student's Tier level per below:

1. Tier 1: Benchmarking – Assess all students two times per year for universal screening (early identification) and general education progress monitoring.

2. Tier 2: Strategic Monitoring – Monitor at-risk students monthly and evaluate the effectiveness of instructional changes.

3. Tier 3: Intensive Progress Monitoring – Write individualized annual goals, but monitor progress data much more frequently (ex., bi-weekly or even weekly, depending on the student). The frequent monitoring will take place by the CST via regularly scheduled meetings.

All students with IEPs have a formal annual meeting (which includes the parents/guardians, Special Education Teacher, Teacher Leaders, and SSC). The student's IEP is reviewed at the annual meeting to ensure that the student is meeting the IEP goals or making appropriate progress. Strategies may be refined or modified based on the student's progress. A parent/guardian can submit a special request to have a student's IEP reviewed or modified before the annual evaluation is scheduled. In addition, any time a change is made to an IEP, the special education team must call a formal meeting that involves the student's parents/guardians and Teacher Leaders.

The annual IEP meetings are when a student's progress data is evaluated and discussed to determine if they are ready to continue in the general education program without special modifications or accommodations. If it is determined that the student is ready based on progress data cited in IEP, as well as from qualitative observations from the Teacher Leader and the Special Education Teacher, then the team will prepare a transition plan to ensure a successful transition into the general education program without modifications. This will be discussed at an IEP exit meeting. Parents and guardians are part of this determination. Students who exit the special education program will still be monitored to ensure continued success.

Identification of Students with Individualized Education Plans (IEPs) and 504 Plans WMPSC anticipates that some students with special education needs will have been already identified prior to enrolling in the school and will have an IEP in place. However, WMPSC also recognized that some students, because of their young age, may not have been identified as needing additional support. As such, we recognize our obligation to ensure that WMPSC has a strong process in place for identifying students who might be in need of additional services.

The CST, described in Section E.1., helps manage this process. If a student is flagged during screening assessment and/or observed to be struggling and the Teacher Leader has already tried a number of Tier 3 interventions that have not been successful, then the Teacher Leader assembles the CST. The CST discusses the challenges the student is having, along with the different interventions that have been tried and the impact of those interventions. Parents and guardians are notified of this process and are invited to attend a meeting at the onset, per Child Study protocol. The Special Education Teacher spends time observing the student in class, working with the Teacher Leaders, recommending additional interventions, and then monitoring the implementation of those interventions for 30 to 45 days.

The CST implements between three to five interventions during the observation and progress monitoring period. At the end of the observation period, the student is referred for special education testing if the interventions have still not proven effective. Families will have been involved in the CST's intervention work, understand their child's successes, and be informed of the testing if it reaches that point. At that time, the Special Education Teacher, Teacher Leaders, and other specialized therapists conduct their own observations and begin testing. To determine eligibility, the special education team must evaluate the child in all areas of the suspected disability. The type of testing and who administers the tests depends on the student's needs. The testing process is based on collecting the broadest base of data possible to ensure that any diagnosis is as accurate as possible.

IEP Development

If the body of evidence indicates that the student has a disability that is having an adverse effect on their educational progress, then the student is eligible for special education services. At this time, the student's family and the special education team meet to review the testing results and begin the development of an IEP for the student. The IEP will be developed and implemented as soon as possible following the determination of eligibility for special education services. When developing an IEP, the team considers the strengths of the student; the concerns of the parents/guardians for the student's education; the results of the evaluation; and the academic, developmental, and functional needs of the student. The IEP will include the following:

- The student's present levels of academic achievement and functional performance, describing how the student is currently doing in school and how the student's disability affects their involvement and progress in the general curriculum;
- Annual goals for the student that can reasonably be accomplished in a year;
- The special education and related services to be provided to the student, including supplementary aids and services (such as a communication device);
- How (and if) the student is to participate in state and district-wide assessments, including what modifications to tests the student needs;
- Service delivery details, such as when services and modifications will begin, how and how often they will be provided, how long they will last; and,
- How school personnel will measure the student's progress toward the annual goals.

Once the IEP has been fully developed, Teacher Leaders, parents, and students (when appropriate) will be included in IEP meetings. IEPs are reviewed annually and are thoroughly re-evaluated triennially.

504 Plan Development

At times, a student is not identified upon enrollment as needing an IEP or 504 plan, but WMPSC staff observes any condition that significantly limits daily activities. When this occurs, Teacher Leaders and the special education teacher will begin the Child Study protocol, request a testing referral, and draft a 504 plan if testing results indicate a need for a 504 plan. Note the distinction between a 504 plan and IEP is that a 504 plan typically addresses the need for "accommodations" (such as extended time for testing for a student diagnosed as having ADHD) rather than learning "modifications" (such as a modified curriculum or instruction).[55]

E.5. Students with Gifted Abilities

WMPSC believes that all students should be treated like they are gifted and talented (GT). This is evident in the scaffolding and choice in the Montessori curriculum that gives students opportunities for deep learning, high quality of work standards, access to multiple levels of curricula, and a personalized curriculum that allows them to create their own pathway to learning and work to their fullest potential.

If a student enters WMPSC designated as GT, the student and their Teacher Leaders will maintain the student's Advanced Learning Plan (ALP). The WMPSC Teacher Leaders and students work collaboratively to develop ALP goals that support student interests and goals. One Teacher Leader at each site will attend CDE training or complete the CDE ALP Webinar Series to support the development of ALPs. Advanced learning projects aligned to a student's ALP will take place throughout the year. The WMPSC budget aligns with the required resources to support GT students by allocating funding to purchase curriculum and materials for GT enrichment and ALP completion; subscribe to Infinite Campus, which we will use to progress monitor all GT students; and support all Teacher Leaders in completing GT training, as needed.

If a student enters WMPSC without GT identification, Teacher Leaders will refer students for possible gifted identification based on a body of evidence collected during the year, beginning in Kindergarten. Teacher Leaders meet with parents and reference the CDE Gifted Identification Guidance Handbook[56] before evaluation. The body of evidence will be both quantitative (ex., norm-referenced and criterion-referenced tests) and qualitative (ex., performance tasks graded on a rubric, observations, parent input, interviews). Students may be identified as gifted in the following areas: general or specific intellectual ability; creative or productive thinking; leadership abilities; specific academic aptitude in reading, writing, math, social studies, science, or world language; specific talent aptitude in visual arts, performing arts, musical dance, or psychomotor abilities.[57] Teacher Leaders will be responsible for developing qualifying students' ALPs and managing the overall gifted and talented program. Our Teacher Leaders are aware and keep attentive of MLL GT students, given that these students oftentimes are not identified. We do this by observing rates of progress, memory, and attention, as well as non-language-specific learning common in the Montessori classroom, such as using manipulatives to understand math concepts.

E.6. Multilingual Learners

Based on demographic data of Aurora students, WMPSC anticipates serving approximately 42% of students that will qualify for Multilingual Learner (MLL) services. The WMPSC budget aligns with the required resources to support MLL students by allocating funding to purchase MLD curriculum for the MLD pull-out interventions; subscribe to Infinite Campus, which we will use to progress monitor all MLL students; and support all Teacher Leaders in completing the CDE recommended 45 hours of training for MLL instruction. We imagine that many of our Teacher Leaders may be Spanish-speaking, like Martha Briggs, an Aurora Teacher Leader and WMPSC non-voting Board Member. She has deep experience teaching MLL locally. Teacher Leaders will attend ongoing MLL training and meetings to respond to current research and practice, such as the NCMPS English Learner Support in Montessori Classrooms course.

Identification of English Learners

WMPSC requires that every student's parent/guardian completes a student language data form/parent home language questionnaire as part of the enrollment process. This form identifies students whose primary or home language is one other than English. If a student's first language is not English or if the language regularly used by the student's parent/guardian is not English, then the Teacher Leader gives that student the WIDA-Screener to determine appropriate placement. The WIDA Screener is administered within ten days of the student starting school. When a student qualifies for MLL services, WMPSC sends a letter home to the family (in both English and the native language) notifying them that the student will be receiving MLD services. The student's score on the WIDA Screener determines the level of services and the specific strategies in the MLD Plan. The student's MLD Plan will be developed and shared with the student's family within 30 days of the start of the school year.

Students who are identified as not English proficient receive the most intense level of services: one hour of pull-out instruction four days a week. The pull-out instruction will be provided by the MLD teacher. Students who are identified as limited English proficient will receive one hour of pull-out instruction twice a week. Regardless of the student's MLD level, the MLD teacher works with the Teacher Leaders to support the student. All strategies and support services must begin within 30 days of the student's start date at the school.

Once a student has been designated an MLL, they will be assessed annually (using WIDA Screener) to assess growth and to ensure that they are still receiving the appropriate level of services for their language needs. The MLD teacher identifies the appropriate ACCESS for MLLs assessment based on the student's language skills (Tier A for beginning; Tier B for intermediate; and Tier C for advanced). The specific strategies are discussed in the next section. All strategies and support services must begin within 30 days of the student's start date at the school.

Instructional Programs and Practices for Multilingual Learners

In all MLD instruction, whether in the classroom or pulled out with the MLD teacher, the following essential components of MLD instruction are followed:
- Explicit language objectives are provided during instruction that incorporate listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills that are appropriate for each student's language proficiency level.
- Instruction incorporates appropriate school-adopted texts and materials as well as specific supplemental resources.
- Instruction and strategies are interactive and provide an open environment that allows ELLs to feel safe to experiment with English.
- Instruction provides ample practice and reinforcement activities that are appropriate for each student's proficiency level.
- Student instructional needs are determined by ongoing formative assessments, common formative assessments, and analysis of student writing, reading, and speaking samples.

- Differentiated instruction is evidenced by teaching strategies as well as questioning strategies that are based on students' proficiency levels.
- Differentiated instruction is evidenced by the intentional grouping of students according to proficiency levels as appropriate for the activity (homogeneous/heterogeneous grouping).
- Presentation of Learning assignments and direct instruction assignments are differentiated based on students' language proficiency levels.
- Vocabulary instruction and practice are part of ongoing classroom language objectives assessed by comprehension checks (both oral and written).

WMPSC uses sheltered instruction with MLL during pull-out or in the mainstream classroom. This means that the school uses teaching objectives, instruction, and strategies that are determined by the student's English literacy proficiency and that are designed to develop content understanding and access to the core curriculum. Sheltered instruction focuses on teaching so that content and skills are accessible for all students. It focuses on effective teaching strategies for MLL in all content areas. The rationale behind sheltered instruction is that it provides students with opportunities to learn academic content while simultaneously providing learning opportunities with language, literacy, and social interaction skills. In addition, when comprehensible input and social interaction opportunities are combined, learning tends to be deeper, and students retain more information. For teachers, sheltered instruction requires planning that involves content objectives, a focus on language, and social objectives.

In the Planning Year, all WMPSC Teacher Leaders will receive training in sheltered instruction strategies. Teacher Leaders learn the following essentials of sheltered instruction:
1. Tap students' prior knowledge and build background knowledge.
    - Evaluate students' current knowledge.
    - Build a knowledge base that prepares students for instruction.
    - Use both homogeneous and heterogeneous grouping for instruction.
2. Use flexible grouping and cooperative learning strategies.
    - Group students to facilitate cooperation, exploration, practice, and demonstration of both language and content skills and understanding.
3. Use active participation and interactive learning strategies throughout instruction.
    - Give students opportunities to observe, experiment with, build, assemble, disassemble, and manipulate physical objects while developing language skills and content understanding.
    - Move from the concrete to the abstract when presenting lessons.
4. Differentiate instruction by addressing diverse learning styles and developing multiple intelligences.
5. Develop the intellectual capacity of all students.
    - Modify your teaching style to match students' learning styles. If students are not learning the way you teach, then teach the way that students learn.
6. Address listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills throughout instruction; give students multiple opportunities to take risks with language by providing multiple opportunities for oral expression.
7. Provide access to texts.
    - Adapt the text to match student language acquisition levels.
8. Address students' language acquisition levels through instruction and assessment.
    - Identify the language levels of students.
    - Differentiate instruction based on the language acquisition levels in the class.
9. Create a safe learning environment.
    - Provide students with environments and situations that are non-threatening.

- Lower the affective filter in order to provide students with a safe environment in which to think and learn.
10. Connect with students' home languages and cultures.
- Strengthen ties between the home and school.
- Connect the student's home language and culture with school.
- Maintain high expectations and then help students reach them.

As needed by a student's MLD Plan, the contracted MLD support specialist will provide support to all WMPSC Teacher Leaders on how to best differentiate instruction for MLL students. This MLD teacher will meet with Teacher Leaders during weekly meetings and professional development sessions.

Assessment and Monitoring the Progress of MLL Students

WMPSC creates an MLD plan for each MLL at the school if one is not already in place. If a student enters with an MLD, WMPSC will follow the existing requirements of the existing MLD plan. The MLD plan includes annual goals and benchmarks for the student, as well as strategies for pull-out support and instructional techniques that will be used in the regular classroom. These plans are developed in collaboration with the families and Teacher Leaders. Once an MLD plan is in place, the contracted MLD teacher also develops and maintains a portfolio of each MLL's work. The portfolio includes examples of student work that offer evidence of learning; the portfolio becomes an effective tool for communicating with parents/guardians on the student's progress. The portfolio also includes the student's assessment results from other testing that happens during the school year, including the NWEA MAP in Math, ELA, and science, portfolio work, and Presentation of Learning assessments.

These assessment results, along with WIDA ACCESS results and other examples of student work, provide a comprehensive picture of the student's progress in developing English language skills. If an MLL is struggling to meet benchmarks, the MLD teacher and the student's advisor will collaboratively discuss additional interventions that can be used to support the student's learning. When a student reaches proficiency (Composite = level 6) on WIDA, and all other assessment data indicates strong English language skills, then the student will be considered Fluent English Proficient (FEP) and no longer receive services through the school's MLD program.

Per the CDE's guidelines, once the student is identified as FEP, however, the school will continue to monitor the student's linguistic and academic progress for two years. If the student is not advancing as expected, the school will consider re-evaluating the student to determine if they should re-enter the MLD program. If this occurs, WMPSC will document the rationale for why and notify the parents/guardians of the student to obtain their consent to resume MLD services. Once a student shows progress for two full years of monitoring, they will be moved to exit status in the Colorado Data Pipeline. [58]

E.7. Students Performing Below Grade Level

Identifying and meeting the needs of students who are performing below grade level happens on an ongoing basis through several interrelated processes: all age-appropriate students will be tested using NWEA MAPS in math, ELA, reading, and science within ten days of the beginning of the school year and each spring to identify areas of growth. Teacher Leaders are continuously observing students as part of the Montessori Method, evaluating student data and drawing conclusions that inform how they can best meet students' needs. Strategies will vary based on the students' learning challenge and the lesson learning objectives. Once a student has been identified as performing below grade level, the student enters the MTSS process described in E.1, and all Teacher Leaders will be trained in the NCMPS Child Study protocol by Year 1. The WMPSC budget aligns with the required resources to support students performing below grade level by allocating funding to: employ Teacher Assistants that can provide additional support; subscribe to Infinite Campus, which we will use to progress monitor students; and support all Teacher Leaders in completing training to understand and intervene using Montessori approaches and other research-based support.

E.8. Student Mental Health

WMPSC centers wholeness and healing engaged pedagogy. We recognize the tremendous mental health needs of students, especially aggravated in the last two years by the pandemic and racial injustice - and we believe that a Montessori education has a positive life-long effect on mental health[59]. We see school as a place where students can feel safe in their identity, relationships, and growth. As such, WMPSC prioritizes mental health. Teacher Leaders and a contracted School Psychologist hold the responsibility to identify and meet the needs of students who are experiencing acute and chronic mental health distress. Our budget aligns to provide Teacher Leaders ongoing training in suicide prevention as recommended by CSI and CDE and to stay professionally astute to understand and recognize how stress, trauma, anxiety, and depression manifest in learning and behavior. Social-emotional learning strategies, such as stress management and growth mindset, are ways in which Teacher Leaders integrate instruction for all students, including those with specific mental health needs. The WMPSC budget reflects funds to hire a contracted School Psychologist and, as mentioned earlier, it is a goal for WMPSC to allocate philanthropic funds to staff a Social Worker by Year 5 when the charter is fully enrolled. The development of the WMPSC Safety Plan (I.6) will include integrating a cognitive-based staff training program in threat assessment and school crises.

E.9. Student Health

WMPSC will support and address student health, including the process and procedures for immunizations, record keeping, vision and hearing screenings, health care plans, medication administration, and student illnesses, by contracting with a licensed school nurse. We will finalize systems to manage student health data during the Planning Year and work with families during the enrollment process to receive information related to student health. Designated WMPSC staff members will be trained to administer medication and first aid. The development of our Safety Plan (I.6) will include consultation with CSI and the Tri-County Health Department, as needed. We recognize that environmental health issues, from area wildfires to heat waves to indoor air quality, affect learning and well-being. The WMPSC budget aligns with staffing a nurse, basing these services based on average costs across Aurora charter schools, but allocates training for Teacher Leaders to reflect and sustain their commitment to whole child education, which is rooted in healthy children and places.

F. Goals, Objectives, and Pupil Evaluation

WMPSC believes that student observation and data inform instruction and curriculum and that assessments drive accountability toward each student's learning and growth. To invest in this accountability and growth, WMPSC will administer a multi-faceted assessment plan that measures each student's progress toward meeting the Colorado Academic Standards and developing as a self-actualized, self-driven learner.

We are committed to integrating equity into the design of our assessments plan and every aspect of the testing process so that assessment is valuable rather than harmful to our Teacher Leaders' work and our students' identity and learning. Because WMPSC centers students who are too often at the margins of opportunity, we employ intentional, scientific observation and equitable measurement focused on vulnerable populations: students whose first language is not English, students with learning differences and disabilities, and students who live below the poverty line.[60] This approach is the heart of the Montessori Method (See Appendix F_Observing Work Engagement).

This approach requires multiple assessment forms and an understanding that different children excel in various forms of assessment. Teacher Leaders also are deeply committed to observation,[61] record keeping, and observation-informed decision-making about all aspects of the classroom environment and the student experience – a practice known as the Montessori Observation and Record-Keeping Protocol. Teachers gauge student understanding "by the way they use materials, accuracy of written work, ability to transfer concepts to new situations and showing mastery through one child teaching a concept to another."[62]

At the same time, we believe there is much we can do to help tie the Montessori Observation and Record-Keeping Protocol to external standards used more broadly across the district, state, and nation. We also aim to increase the objectivity of observation data and integrate academic and non-academic assessments that are aligned with the Montessori Method. WMPSC is wholly focused on performance and achievement outcomes at all levels, including academically, non-academically, site-based and charter-wide.

To that end, our culture embraces high expectations for results and accountability, driven first and foremost by the Teacher Leaders who lead each site and are closest to the needs and achievements of their students. Embedded in our mission is a commitment to provide "authentic Montessori education that bridges academic outcomes and social-emotional development." Our Founding Teacher Leaders developed our achievement and growth goals with a lens to close opportunity gaps over time between subgroups. This focus on inclusivity and whole child outcomes supports our ability to exceed CSI and CDE accountability metrics and SEL and executive function benchmarks. To ensure that CSI and CDE receive all required data, our charter staff includes a Shared Services Partner and Student Services Coordinator to steward the process of consistently gathering and promptly submitting accurate data.

F.1. School Goals and Progress Monitoring Strategies

WMPSC has formulated SMART goals that are specific, measurable, attainable, and relevant to our mission. The goals include organizational, community and family satisfaction, and academic goals - all designed to measure variables that inform Teacher Leaders, staff, and the Board about how we live into our vision and mission.

Organizational Goals

WMPSC strives to demonstrate exceptional fiduciary and financial responsibility and employee well-being. We will measure these goals through continuous feedback, both formally and informally.

WMPSC Goal	Measure	Timeline
Balanced Budget: Annual budgets demonstrate effective and sustainable allocation of financial resources as measured by balanced budgets submitted to CSI.	Board of Directors Finance Committee budget review	Monthly
Financial Solvency: EYO annual audit reports demonstrate that WMPSC meets or exceeds professional accounting standards.	WMPSC Audit	Annual
Financial Health: Financial indicators demonstrate financial solvency.	Cash on hand Total margin TABOR min Fund balance Debt-asset ratio	At minimum, annual
Employee well-being: At least 95% of our staff, including Teacher Leaders, Teacher Leader Assistants, staff and contracted staff rate their experience at WMPSC and the embodiment of our vision and mission as 4 out of 5 or better.	Reflection Surveys	Bi-Annual

Community and Family Satisfaction Goals

WMPSC will measure school culture annually through a Net Promoter score and re-enrollment statistics. Every year, WMPSC will provide all stakeholders in our community, including parents and guardians, school partners, and community designers, an anonymous survey. Essential stakeholder groups will participate in the creation of this survey and will advise on its development, implementation, and analysis.

WMPSC Goal	Measure	Timeline
Net Promoter Score:[63] >75; This score will be revisited during the Planning Year in coordination with CSI, the Shared Services Partner, and Teacher Leaders	Anonymous survey	Annual

[63] The NPS numerical score is the percentage of promoters minus the percentage of detractors. The survey is based on a scale of 0-10 and groups responders based on their score: if a respondent provided a score of 9-10, they are considered promoters; 7-8 are passives; and 0-6 are detractors. NPS is a score that has a scale of -100 to 100. According to Bain, above 0 is good, above 20 is favorable, above 50 is excellent, and above 80 is world class.

Re-enrollment: At least 85% of the students enrolled at WMPSC for at least six months in the 2023-2024 school year who remain age eligible will re-enroll at WMPSC for the 2024-2025 school year.	Re-enrollment rate	Annual

Additional District Accountability Goals

WMPSC will receive its first Performance Framework in 2025 (after the second administration of state exams). To ensure we demonstrate authorizer accountability, we have set a goal in our charter to perform above the other elementary schools in the target area(s), as defined with CSI during the Planning Year. WMPSC seeks high attendance and believes that our microsite model, where families and students have a heightened sense of belonging, will promote our attendance score and family retention. Additionally, WMPSC is interested in measuring students' perception of belonging and will explore the possibility of using the Panorama student survey, which is being used in the WMPSC Grand Valley charter.

WMPSC Goal	Measure	Timeline
Performance Framework: On the 2025 Performance Framework, WMPSC will earn 5% more of the possible points than the average percentage earned by other elementary schools in the target area.	CDE Performance Framework, relative to other elementary schools in District	Annual
Attendance: Average student attendance will be 90% for K-2nd grade during our first year of operation.	Daily attendance	Annual WMPSC will write an annual Unified Improvement Plan (UIP) as part of CDE's accountability process. The UIP will include the school's demographic information, achievement and growth data, growth and achievement gap analyses, performance reflections, trend analysis, identification of root causes, and action steps for improvement. We will share our UIP annually with all stakeholders along with achievement data which we will report at a minimum, quarterly to CSI and bi-annually at Board of Directors meetings.

F.2. Student Performance Targets

WMPSC has set goals for student growth and achievement by analyzing the Colorado UIP 2019 and 2022 Outcomes of Adams-Arapahoe 28J (0180) Performance Framework and understanding the APS 2026 Faces of the Future Strategic Plan. The WMPSC goals amplify the district's emphasis on increasing and building consistency of academic growth and achievement across schools and comply with the Colorado Department of Education Standards of Accreditation Requirements as detailed in the Colorado Charter Schools Act and the Education Accountability Act of 2009 (22-11-101 et seq., C.R.S.).[3] While our performance targets were ascertained from analysis of past performance reporting, WMPSC believes that our educational program will build student achievement and growth. District-wide achievement is rated widely as "Does Not Meet" and WMPSC is looking to shift the ratings towards "Meets" and "Exceeds" as quickly as possible. Additionally,

WMPSC is seeking to bring alignment to subgroups when creating our Plan - specifically to align reported "Minority Students" with "All Students" performance targets.

We will seek partnership with CSI to finalize our goals, performance targets, and assessment. However, we are currently planning and budgeting to use the following tools:

- NWEA MAP will be our tool for assessing literacy and mathematics progress and achievement for our grade K-6 students. Public Montessori schools across the country use this assessment tool widely. Writing rubrics adopted from CMAS and revised to fit the Montessori curriculum by Teacher Leaders will also assess Writing Proficiency;
- Colorado Measures of Academic Success (CMAS) assessments and any relative progress monitoring assessments as required by CSI, will serve as our achievement measure for all students beginning in grade 3;
- The Minnesota Executive Function Scale (MEFS) will be our direct behavioral measure of executive functions. The test assesses working memory, inhibitory control, and cognitive flexibility;
- The Developmental Environmental Rating Scale (DERS) will be our measure for child and adult behaviors and environmental attributes associated with developmental outcomes such as executive function, linguistic and cultural fluency, social fluency, and emotional flexibility.

Both the MEFS and DERS are used widely in Montessori learning environments, and outcomes on these tests correlate with higher fidelity implementation of Montessori pedagogy, making it a valuable tool for continuous school improvement, standard observation, mentoring self-study, and accountability assessment.[64]

The Mission Specific, Academic Achievement, and Academic Growth goals follow. The Shared Services Partner and Teacher Leaders will use the Planning Year to finalize and seek advice from CSI regarding our academic and non-academic assessments. The table below shows our preliminary annual performance targets for Years 1 and 2:

F.3. WMPSC Assessment Matrix

WMPSC's assessment takes place in all grades and across subjects. Student assessment may include, but is not limited to:

- Baseline and Summative Assessments to measure student growth;
- Montessori coursework and student portfolios to provide an ongoing record of student work that ensures mastery, based on Montessori lesson rubrics and checklists;
- Formative Assessments to measure achievement on an ongoing basis, including language development, developmental reading, and writing assessments, along with common core standards-based assessments in literacy and math;
- State assessments, as required by CDE and CSI.

In consultation with national leaders on educational assessment and research, such as Wildflower Partner Ted Quinn and peers leading Wildflower Montessori charters in New York and Minnesota, WMPSC has identified a suite of assessments we will employ to measure each child's academic and social-emotional growth, development and attainment. The WMPSC Academic Assessment Schedule for the first two years of operations includes:

Name	Content Areas (ex: Math, Early Literacy)	Purpose (Rationale for selection & alignment with curriculum and instruction)	Type (Diagnostic, Interim, Summative)	Frequency (ex: Annual, 2/year)	Administration Calendar (ex: Jan-Feb)
W-APT	English	Identify language proficiency of K students with a home language other than English	Diagnostic	Upon enrollment	Within 30 days of enrollment
WIDA Screener	English	Identify language proficiency of 1st-6th students with a home language other than English	Diagnostic	Upon enrollment	Within 30 days of enrollment
ACCESS for ELLs	English	State-wide assessment measuring language proficiency and Growth	Summative	Annually	CDE Testing Window

Formative Writing Rubric	Language, Writing mechanics, Written expression	Measure writing growth	WMPSC Criterion based	Bi-annually	September, April

F.4. Corrective Action

The WMPSC MTSS and Montessori Child Study Protocol (Appendix D_Child Study Protocol) is a prevention model. Full implementation of the MTSS procedures in place will allow for ongoing monitoring of progress to goals and system-wide analysis. Our MTSS model enables us to identify and quantify students' gaps in academic achievement, provide appropriate intervention promptly, and assess students' response to intervention. The data gleaned from our MTSS model also informs Teacher Leader instruction, professional development, and growth and accountability processes.

Even with these plans in place, pupil performance could fall below the goals and objectives. The Montessori Method emphasis on student observation, reporting, and nimble instruction is our first line to identify that a student is at risk of not meeting pupil performance targets. The Child Study Steam will use the Montessori Child Study protocol to create a corrective action plan with a timeline. Child Study recognizes the student's needs from a holistic perspective, and Child Study is implemented before a Special Education referral unless a student enters their program level with an already established IEP or 504 plan.

Typical members of a Child Study Team include family members, Teacher Leaders, specialized service providers, and Student Services Coordinator. After observation, implementation of strategies, and interventions, the team comes together to decide on pursuing an Individualized Education Plan (IEP). Whether the child is referred for special education services or not, the Child Study Team will continue working with the special education teacher(s) and the school psychologist to best support the child.

The Shared Services Partner communicates with the Board of Directors and CSI on this corrective action plan during monthly reporting. The School Accountability Committee of the Board monitors the Teacher Leaders, Student Services Coordinator, and Shared Services Partner during the implementation of the plan. These are touchpoints during the annual Growth and Accountability Cycle (Section H).

As described in Section H and Section E (PD), Teacher Leaders' professional development plan is informed by MTSS, Child Study, and Growth and Accountability processes. Teacher Leaders hold bi-monthly pod meetings to analyze trends in their observation,record-keeping, and assessment data, which informs WMPSC-wide growth areas and professional development training.

Teacher Leaders will also meet weekly to discuss quantitative and observational data for students at their site. These data meetings will include the discussion of trends in the formal assessments outlined above, disaggregated by population (e.g., FRL students, MLLs, students on IEPs, etc.), deep dives into individual student work samples in order to inform best instructional practices and analysis of observational data on student work culture and dynamics. These meetings are also set in place for students who may not be identified as needing special support but are underperforming. Weekly meetings will prioritize time for Teacher Leaders to evolve their instructional practices to best meet the needs of the individual students in the program. Teacher Leaders will bring data, trends, and observations from their site-level discussions to the bi-monthly charter-wide pod meetings outlined above. As Teacher Leaders and staff committing to the DEIB Agreement (Appendix A_DEIB Agreement), we are also routinely checking our biases, knowing that improving student performance for all children requires ongoing equity work at the educator-level.

G. Budget and Finance

Our charter school budget reflects our core values and mission. As such, WMPSC manages its spending in a way that reinforces its priorities for teacher-led microsites, that are community-embedded authentic Montessori learning environments and that center the whole child in pursuit of a more just world. To do this, we must operate with high fidelity to our core values, and CSI and stakeholder expectations.

G.1. Budget

The WMPSC Budget, found as the CSI Budget Template is found HERE. It can also be found as Appendix G_5-Year Budget. These documents are our numeric story.

Our budgets are balanced each year, based on realistic assumptions for revenue and reflective of local cost of living and target area demographics for expenditures. WMPSC includes reasonable and adequate costs for all staff, services, supplies, equipment, and facilities included in the application and essential to our six microsites implementing our model with excellence. Our 5-Year Budget Summary, along with a planning year, is below:

5 - Year Budget Summary

	Y0	Y1	Y2	Y3	Y4	Y5
Total Revenues	$290,000	$956,329	$2,004,778	$2,715,707	$2,976,311	$3,476,075

G.2. WMPSC Budget Development Process

The WMPSC budget was developed by Kaycee Gerhart, finance consultant and Steering Committee member, before the Founding Board was formed and she transitioned to a volunteer position as Board Treasurer. Non-voting board members and Teacher Leaders, Martha Briggs and Emma Reicks (from WMPSC Grand Valley); Interim Shared Services Partner Hannah Ewert-Krocker; and Wildflower Partners Rachel Kelley-Cohn and Katie Piehl, who holds experience as a former charter school authorizer, were advisors during the budget development process. The budget was reviewed by Isabelle Parker, Wildflower CFO, and the full WMPSC Board of Directors.

This collective effort reflects how WMPSC prioritizes co-creation and our Advice Process (Appendix E_Wildflower Self-Management Ways of Working). In the development of our budget, our mission is our throughline. We have prioritized expenses to provide families with child-centered, authentic Montessori education that bridges academic outcomes and social-emotional development through intimate learning communities deeply rooted in place, equity and belonging. The WMPSC microsite and organizational structure - and our emphasis on Teachers as leaders - guided how we allocated funds to professional development, materials and curriculum, and facilities.

The budget development process was iterative and reviewed frequently by the team; as place- and equity-specific variables were understood, the budget was updated, bringing fiscal balance and mission to center. As an example, our growth model responded to the community context of school closures in northwest Aurora and development in east Aurora. This real-time change in the landscape affected our budget model, making adjustments in facility and staffing expenses.

In the Planning Year, the Shared Services Partner (SSP) holds the responsibilities to develop the charter budget, advised by Founding Teacher Leaders and integrating their site-specific budget. The SSP receives support from a contracted finance consultant and the Board Treasurer. The scope of work of the Financial Services Provider is found in Appendix D_Financial Services Scope of Work. Because Kaycee Gerhart was involved in the creation of the budget, she will have first-hand experience to be an ongoing advisor and understand levers to ensure fiscal health and sustainability.

G.3. Financial Best Practices

WMPSC will employ a combination of personnel, policies, and procedures to ensure adherence to financial best practices. The roles most critical to the integrity of the learning model are direct employees of WMPSC, while contractors are utilized to meet compliance standards and to fill temporary roles as the shared services staff grows. This blended staffing approach to meeting the needs of the organization allows WMPSC to launch and scale sustainably in the initial years of the charter. Financial Policies and Procedures (Appendix G_Policy_ Finance) will provide operating parameters to ensure that all staff and contractors' Roles and Responsibilities are properly delineated to ensure internal controls standards are met.

In the Planning Year, the Shared Services Partner and Student Services Coordinator will be the only charter-wide employees. These individuals will select the contractors or vendors who will provide core business services during the initial years of the charter, including: financial management and bookkeeping, audit, internal systems setup, IT support, legal services and counsel, Teacher Leader recruitment, human resources support, fundraising and grant writing, and facilities guidance.

As WMPSC matures into its third operational year, Year 2, we will begin to transition certain key functions to charter-wide shared services employees. A Finance Partner will be hired to take on financial management and strategy. By Year 4, the Shared Services Partner will be responsible for human resources, fundraising and Teacher Leader recruitment. The tables below summarizes charter enrollment, site, and staffing growth for Years 0 through 5:

G.4. WMPSC Budget Assumptions

The following table summarizes the assumptions and drivers behind each line item in the full 5-year budget, based on information available as of August 23, 2022:

Revenue and Expense inflation	A standard assumption of 2% annual expense growth is included. Growth assumptions in revenue vary by funding stream and are noted below.
Revenues
Contributions and Donations	Secured funds only. Includes a grant received from Wend Collective totaling $100,000 ($70,000 in Year 0 and $30,000 in Year 1).
Financing	$110,000 loan per site, in site planning years for each site. Offered by the Sunlight Fund with terms of 3% interest and 7-year repayment, to begin in year 3 of site's operations.
Preschool Tuition Revenue	Tuition: $12,500 per qualifying pupil, 3 and 4-year-olds, per year. Tuition will be set on a sliding scale based on family ability to pay. Assumes 20% of families will pay full-rate tuition, and 80% of families will pay a reduced rate. Partial rate payees may also qualify for CCAP to subsidize the cost. Tuition rate increases by 2.5% annually, in line with assumptions made for PPR growth.
Food Service Revenue	Breakfast and lunch rate: $4.50/day, in line with Aurora Public Schools school lunch rate Assumes 50% of non-FRL students will participate in the paid lunch program. Rate kept flat for purposes of budgeting.
Capital Construction	$300 per funded pupil, K-6th grade. Decreases by 1% annually. Cost driver provided by CSI.
Exceptional Children's Ed Act (ECEA)	$1,232 per qualifying pupil. Assumes 14% of students K-6th grade qualify, in alignment with Aurora Public Schools district average. No annual growth. Cost driver provided by CSI.
(ELPA) English Language Proficiency Act	$365 per qualifying pupil, beginning in Year 2. Assumes 42% of students K-6th grade qualify, in alignment with Aurora Public Schools district average. Decreases by 2% annually. Cost driver provided by CSI.
Gifted and Talented	$500 per qualifying pupil. Assumes 5% of students K-6th grade qualify, in alignment with Aurora Public Schools district average. No annual growth. Cost driver provided by CSI.
READ Act	$497.06 per qualifying pupil, beginning in Year 2. Assumes 46% of students K-3rd grade qualify, in alignment with Aurora Public Schools district averages. No annual growth. Cost driver provided by CSI.
Mill Levy Equalization Funds	$800 per funded pupil, K-6th grade. No annual growth. Cost driver provided by CSI.

Title I	$373 per qualifying pupil. Assumes 75% of students K-6th grade qualify, in alignment with Aurora Public Schools district average. No annual growth. Cost driver provided by CSI.
Special Ed (IDEA)	$1,600 per qualifying pupil. Assumes 14% of students K-6th grade qualify, in alignment with Aurora Public Schools district average. No annual growth. Cost driver provided by CSI.
Title III	$130 per qualifying pupil, beginning in Year 2. Assumes 42% of students K-6th grade qualify, in alignment with Aurora Public Schools district average. Decreases by 2% annually. Cost driver provided by CSI.
Title II	$1,500 annually. No annual growth. Cost driver provided by CSI.
Federal Lunch Reimbursement	Free and reduced lunch rate: $5.63/day Paid lunch rate: $0.35/day Assumes 75% of students K-6th grade qualify for the free and reduced lunch rate and 12.5% of students qualify for the paid lunch rate. Rate kept flat for purposes of budgeting.
Per Pupil Funding (PPR)	$10,552.10 per funded pupil, K-6th grade. Based on estimated Aurora Public Schools PPR rate for 2022-23 school year. Increases by 2.5% annually, in line with typical PPR yearly growth.
Colorado Preschool Program (CPP) Funding	$5,276.05 per qualifying pupil, 3 and 4-year-olds. Preschool opens in Year 1 of charter, CPP eligibility assumed to begin in Year 2. Based on half-day (50%) of estimated 2022-23 Aurora Public Schools PPR rate. Assumes 75% of 3 and 4-year-olds qualify for a CPP and slot. Increases by 2.5% annually, in line with typical PPR yearly growth.
Expenses
Salaries of Regular Employees	Teacher Leaders: average $60,000 per FTE Teacher Leader Assistant: average $32,500 per FTE Shared Services Partner: $85,000 Student Services Coordinator: $60,000 Finance Partner: $78,000 Special Education Teacher: average $50,000 per FTE School Psychologist: $68,000 FTE allocations by year can be found in Section G
Salaries of Temporary Employees - Subs	Substitutes at $160/day. Assumes 5 days per instructor (Teacher Leaders and Teacher Leader Assistant) per year. Includes contracted time for Teacher Leaders (TLs) in site planning year. Assumes 80% FTE for 2 TLs for 2 months.
Medicare	Calculated as 1.45% of total payroll, including both regular and temporary employees.
Social Security	Calculated as 6.2% of total payroll, including both regular and temporary employees. Year 0 only.
PERA Expense	20.4% of total payroll, beginning in Year 1. Rate increase of 0.25% annually to address the unfunded pension obligation. Cost driver based on state-wide expense data.

Health Insurance	$5,000 per employee per year. Assumes single premium coverage with 80% of employees eligible/participating.
Dental Insurance	$360 per employee per year. Assumes single premium coverage with 80% of employees eligible/participating.
Prof Services - Food Service	$4.50 for breakfast and lunch per student per day. Assumes 87.5% of students will participate in school provided meals.
Banking and Payroll Service Fees	$120 per employee per year.
Professional Education Services	Professional development and contracted staff to provide student support. Professional development: $4,000 per TL/year and $1,500 per TL Assistant, Special Educator and non-instructional staff member/year Student Supports School Psychologist: $6,500, starting in Year 1 Physical Therapist: $2,500, starting in Year 1 Occupational Therapist: $2,500, starting in Year 1 Speech Language Pathologist: $5,000, starting in Year 1 Consulting Nurse: $3,000, starting in Year 1 Investment in Student Supports professional development grows in proportion to projected student enrollment each year.
Other Services - Assessments	Annual purchase of NWEA MAPS licenses and other priorities determined during Planning Year.
Legal Services	$5,000 for start-up needs in Year 0 and $3,000 in Year 1 and forward.
Audit and Accounting Services	Average of $10,000 per year budgeted for independent annual audit. Contracted financial management and accounting services budgeted in first years of charter (Y0-Y2). Financial management will transition to in-house Finance Partner starting Y3.
Consultant Services	$10,000 in Year 0 for Facilities and HR support. Restricted totals in Year 1-Year 5 are set-aside funds to support students who qualify for special services to meet their unique needs. These set-asides are funded with Title I and IDEA funds.
Technical Services	$1,500 per site in planning years. $500 per site annually ongoing.
Utility Services	Average of $400 per site per month for water, sewage, gas, and electric.
Repairs and Maintenance Service	5% of annual rent costs

Rental of Land and Buildings	Calculated per site based on an average of 30 sq ft/student at a cost of $25/sq ft. Cost per square foot is based on the high-end of the range of available commercial space in the targeted regional area.
Rental of Equipment	$500 per site per year.
Insurance	Liability/Building/Theft/Fidelity with growth in alignment to increased enrollment and number of facilities. Based on quote obtained for the purposes of budget planning.
Unemployment Insurance	Calculated as 0.3% of total payroll. Cost driver provided by CSI.
Workers' Comp Insurance	Calculated as $2.00 per $100 of payroll. Cost driver provided by CSI.
Advertising, Marketing and Recruiting	$5,000 budgeted in Year 0. $3,000 budgeted annually beginning in Year 1 and forward.
CSI Admin Expense	3% of PPR. Cost driver provided by CSI.
CDE Admin Expense	1% of PPR. Cost driver provided by CSI.
General Supplies	Instructional materials and curriculum. Assumes $15,000 one-time expense per site for suite of Montessori materials and $2,000 per site for special education and social-emotional support curriculum. Average of $5,000 per site allocated for annual materials replenishment.
Food and Meeting Expenses	$4,000 in Year 0 and $2,000 annually in future years for Board support and development.
Leasehold Improvements	$40,000 per site for renovations in planning year. Renovation costs for sites opening in Year 2 of the charter are distributed across Year 1 and Year 2 of the budget (totaling $40,000 per site).
Furniture and Fixtures	$10,000 per site in planning year. Average of 10% budgeted annually for repairs and replacement.
Dues and Fees	Average of $2,000 per year.
Contingency	Annual set-aside for unanticipated expenses or cost increases. Grows as the number of sites and student enrollment increases.

Miscellaneous Expenditures	Wildflower School Contribution is costs associated with training, coaching, and brand use specific to Wildflower model. Expense begins in the first year of site operations. Additional information on the benefits received from Wildflower are detailed in Appendix G_Wildflower Network Membership in Action and Appendix G_Wildflower Network Membership Agreement.
Interest Expense	3% annual, based on balance of Sunlight Fund
Redemption of Principle	7-year repayment of loans ($110,000 per site). Repayment begins in the third year of site operations.

In addition to the expenses captured above, WMPSC will receive in-kind services from The Wildflower Foundation in Years 0, 1 and 2. Specifically, the Wildflower Foundation is prepared to support the growth and development of WMPSC Aurora by providing fundraising and Teacher Leader Recruitment services during the charter's first three years. Though currently planned as in-kind services, if WMPSC receives the CCSP grant these services will be provided as a fee for service established through the Service Agreement.

The ultimate financial goal for the 5-year budget plan is to ensure a positive operating income and both short- and long-term financial solvency. WMPSC understands the need to manage cash very tightly in the first three years, and has built a budget that allows surplus funds to be set aside beyond the TABOR reserve as enrollment increases.

G.5.6. Financial Reporting & Accountability Processes

WMPSC recognizes the importance of sound fiscal management, and especially in our decentralized structure where each site has the autonomy to make budgetary decisions that impact their community, we will establish financial procedures to ensure smooth financial management practices.

WMPSC will establish a charter-wide Finance Committee consisting of the Board Treasurer, Shared Services Partner, Teacher Leader representatives from each regional charter, and contracted financial management provider(s). This committee will meet monthly and process monthly close out reports, hold each other accountable for site financial operations by reviewing monthly bank statements, budget vs. actual and balance sheet reports, and establish a sound financial structure documented in detailed procedures that outline Roles and Responsibilities across the WMPSC community. With the Finance Committee spearheading efforts, WMPSC is committed to meeting state and authorizer transparency requirements and will adopt a budget annually, including forecasting beyond the fiscal year. The WMPSC will maintain a balanced budget each year through monthly monitoring of financial statements by the full Board of Directors.

During the Planning Year, WMPSC will finalize and activate the Financial Policies and Procedures, currently in draft (Appendix G_Policy_Finance). These procedures will include processes for payroll, including a salary schedule and compensation policies. WMPSC is committed to implementing a sustainable yet innovative model of decentralized operations that reinforces teacher leadership while also meeting all CSI and state reporting requirements. We view these as inseparable - and will report on all expected financial metrics at least annually and submit annual tax 990 forms. The Shared Services and Finance Partners will report on these metrics to the Board of Directors regularly, so that there is transparency in financial operations and to equip all stakeholders with the information they need to be active advice givers. As demonstrated in our proposed budget and contingency budget, we are committed to meeting and maintaining TABOR and Special Education minimum balance requirements. We intend to finalize financial reporting metrics with CSI during the Planning Year; below is a list of metrics and expectations we are prepared to report on:

Draft Financial Reporting Metrics

WMPSC Goal	Measure	Timeline
Balanced Budget: Annual budgets demonstrate effective and sustainable allocation of financial resources as measured by balanced budgets submitted to CSI.	Board of Director Finance Committee budget review Presented to the Board monthly	Monthly
Financial Solvency: EYO annual audit reports demonstrate the WMPSC meets or exceeds professional accounting standards	WMPSC Audit	Annual
Financial Health: Financial indicators demonstrate financial solvency.	Cash on hand Total margin TABOR min Fund balance Debt-asset ratio	At minimum, annual; monitored monthly by Finance Committee

WMPSC understands that, per charter requirements, we will be required to conduct thorough audits of finances and operations annually. A certified public accountant will be contracted annually to perform a financial audit and report findings to the Board of Directors, independent of the consultant or provider conducting financial management for the charter throughout the year. The specific process for identifying and selecting the contracted auditor is detailed in Appendix G_Policy_Finance.

WMPSC is requesting the following waivers from the state to ensure that our decentralized financial management structure remains true to our organizational mission and supports financial operations and decision-making closest to the felt impact, most often with the microsites and Teacher Leaders:
- C.R.S. §22-32-110(1)(y) Accepting Gifts, Donations, and Grants
- C.R.S. §22-32-109(1)(b) Local Board Duties Concerning Competitive Bidding

WMPSC will comply with all requirements of the Colorado Financial Transparency Act (C.R.S. § 22- 44-301 et seq.) by posting all required documents on the charter's website following the timeline established by CDE. These postings will follow the most recent template for charters per CDE. WMPSC is prepared to provide the transparency necessary to the WMPSC Board of Directors, CSI, and CDE. Appendix G_ Board Development Plan outlines financial management and oversight as a core priority and includes policy development, training, and reporting practices for the ongoing board moving through planning and operations.

G.7. Restricted Grant Funding Expenditures

Our budget does not assume any unsecured philanthropic revenue. However, WMPSC is preparing to apply for a Colorado Charter School Program (CCSP) Grant and other private philanthropy. The CCSP Grant will be used to help seed WMPSC's initial growth and startup capital for the charter school in its first three years. Funds will be used to support allowable expenses within the Year 0-Year 2 budgets, including: staffing, materials and supplies, and technology.

We will prioritize any additional restricted grant funding to support Planning Year expenses to build strong systems for success and then to allocate fundraising to special education, mental health, and MLL services. Specifically, we are prepared to increase the FTE for the Student Services Coordinator and School Psychologist, as well as hire a social worker and MLL teacher with additional philanthropic revenue (non-CCSP). Our student population and Teacher Leader and family advice will guide these decisions. We also expect to use grant funding towards facilities' renovations and training that will extend our inclusive Montessori model. As an example, the Montessori "peace corner" may need to be a larger calm space for students with sensory needs.

Wildflower Colorado has a track record of securing substantial philanthropic funding to support current and emerging local schools. During WMPSC's period of community building, stakeholder engagement and planning, we have heard ample interest from funders in continuing to support the growth of Montessori microsites in Colorado. We are confident that partnering with CSI to increase accessibility for PK-6th grade students via the charter model will only accelerate philanthropic support from current and emerging local and national funders.

Wildflower Colorado's demonstrated track record of philanthropic support includes raising over $1,500,000 from the following sources over the past four years:
- Wend Collective: $900,000 (over 6 years)
- Gary Community Ventures: $320,000 in PRI loan funds
- Constellation Philanthropy: $61,500
- The Buell Foundation: $25,000
- The Donnell-Kay Foundation: $25,000
- Gates Family Foundation: $80,000
- Walton Family Foundation: $50,000
- The Telluray Foundation: $65,500
- State of Colorado CIRCLE Grant Fund: $50,000

We are also actively pursuing grants from the following local and national philanthropic sources to support WMPSC:
- The Daniels Fund: $100,000
- Charter School Growth Fund Entrepreneur in Residence (EIR) Seed Grant: $250,000
- Gates Family Foundation: $100,000-$150,000
- Louis Calder Foundation: $100,000
- The Buell Foundation: $75,000
- Transcend Education: $400,000
- The Denver Foundation: $50,000
- State of Colorado Emerging and Expanding Child Care Grant: $100,000

G.8. Cash Flow During Planning Year

As is typical for Wildflower charter schools, the largest expenses are facilities and staff. WMPSC is planning for a lean year during the Planning Year, staffing only a part-time Shared Services Partner and contractors to set up foundational systems and processes required to create a successful new charter. Teacher Leaders will be completing their School Startup Journey and become contracted employees of WMPSC on May 1, 2023.

WMPSC is seeking the Colorado Charter School Program (CCSP) grant. To plan for funding prior to receiving the CCSP funds, The Wildflower Foundation will play a role in providing cash flow since CCSP is a reimbursable grant (see Appendix G_Letter of Support Wildflower Loan). WMPSC will also apply for a CSI line of credit.

WMPSC and The Wildflower Foundation

WMPSC is a member of The Wildflower Foundation (TWF). In addition to the Sunlight Fund (an option loan program), the Membership Agreement (previously referred to as the Affiliation Agreement) and the Services Agreement serve as two critical, yet separate agreements. The Membership Agreement is an agreement signed by every school in the Wildflower Network that defines the expectations for schools that are part of the Wildflower Network, as well as the benefits of membership. In order to operate as a "Wildflower School," WMPSC must have a signed Membership Agreement (Appendix G_Wildflower Network Membership Agreement). The Wildflower Network Membership in Action (Appendix G_Wildflower Network Membership in Action) provides concrete examples of how Wildflower-affiliated schools may fulfill the commitments of their membership to the Network.

Agreement	Parties	Summary
Membership Agreement	The Wildflower Foundation and Charter Board	- Defines the relationship between The Wildflower Foundation and the charter organization / board; - Teacher Leaders sign a commitment and acknowledgement; - This agreement holds as long as the organization is "A Wildflower School;" - Includes a School Contribution fee of 2-4% of total revenue, once operational.

Additionally, WMPSC may choose to engage TWF for more direct, tailored support to help fulfill its mission in a Wildflower charter setting by entering into a Services Agreement (Appendix G_TWF Service Agreement Template). The Board of Directors may contract with TWF on an annual basis and can continue or dissolve this contractual relationship at any time. It is an at-will relationship, and no Wildflower Foundation staff person will serve as a voting member on the Board of Directors. The Board and TWF will discuss WMPSC needs during the Planning Year, and TWF is prepared to support WMPSC with a Services Agreement. WMPSC anticipates establishing a Services Agreement with TWF in the first four years of the charter, starting with immediate support to set up key operating systems and hiring, recruit Teacher Leaders, and fundraise on behalf of WMPSC. The Services Agreement will be revisited each year to determine additional charter-specific WPSC support wishes to contract for.

Agreement	Parties	Summary
Services Agreement	The Wildflower Foundation and Charter Board	- Optional agreement for additional supports to operate as charter; - Defines the work TWF may take on in the Charter Entity, including any additional payment for service; - Not a condition of membership; - Revisited as roles evolve; - This agreement tends to phase out as the charter becomes more established; - The charter may use portions of its CCSP grant to fund this work, particularly in startup.

WMPSC and TWF are ready to re-imagine charter school governance that truly prioritizes Teacher Leader decisions and centers the child's needs. The WMPSC Board of Directors will be able to learn from the experiences of operating Wildflower charters in Minnesota, New York City, and soon-to-open Washington, D.C. and participate in a network of fellow board members operating decentralized charter schools across the country. Together, this gathering of the communities provides the mentorship and professional learning community needed to bolster WMPSC's board operations and development and position this Board of Directors to be a leader of innovative charter organizational design and governance.

G.9. Contingency Planning

WMPSC is prepared to preserve the credibility of our model and still meet our organizational mission, even at a lower-than-expected enrollment or increased expenditures. In the event that a contingency budget is necessary, these adjustments allow WMPSC to remain authentic to its learning model and in compliance with CSI requirements. In contingency planning for less than expected enrollment, we are able to sustain at 90% enrollment in the first five years while still implementing the proposed program with fidelity. Adjustments to our budget include decreasing the Student Services Coordinator role FTE by 0., decreasing Teacher Leader Assistant staffing, slight decreases to professional development budgets in Years 1 and 2, and adjustments to general expenses based on a per pupil cost. Even with our contingency plan, we are still able to maintain a maximum instructor-to-student ratio of 1:8 in our primary sites and 1:18 in our elementary sites.

The WMPSC 3-Year Contingency Budget tells the story of a more lean operating structure, where we work to preserve the integrity of the model while also focusing resources where they are most critical - at the microsites. Through this exercise, we plan for 90% enrollment leading to a decrease of $57,180 in Year 1 revenues. To account for the decline in enrollment, we arrive at a balanced budget by making the following adjustments to save $46,639 in spending in Year 1:

Year 1, Adjustments to Budget at 90 Percent Enrollment

	Full Enrollment Budget	Contingency Budget (90 percent enrollment)	Notes on Reductions
Enrollment	62	56	Reflects 10% reduction
Teacher Leader Assistant	Primary: 2 Lower Elem: 0.2	Primary: 1.8 Lower Elem: 0	Reduce FTEs of site-based staff in alignment with smaller student enrollment
Charter-wide Services FTE	Shared Services: 0.75 Student Srvs Coord: 0.25 Sp Ed: 0.4	Shared Services: 0.75 Student Srvs Coord: 0.15 Sp Ed: 0.4	Reduce Student Services Coordinator FTE in alignment with smaller student enrollment
Sites	2	2	In Year 1, maintain 2 sites even with lower enrollment
Total Revenue	$933,479	$876,299	Reflects 10% enrollment reduction
Total Expenses	$911,566	$864,927	Cost reductions reflect necessary adjustments without cutting key program expenses
Total Fund Balance	$34,100	$31,654	The charter is able to remain solvent and meet TABOR requirements and WMPSC mission.

These decisions will balance the budget while allowing us to maintain the number one promise to families, which is the teacher to student ratio and our focus on providing services that encourage our students' deep sense of belonging and identity affirmation.

A balanced contingency budget for 90% enrollment was modeled through Year 5 and is available in Appendix G_3-Year Contingency Budget. Should WMPSC continue to see student enrollment at 90% of projections, the following additional modifications will be made:
- Additional reduction of FTEs for site-based staff in alignment with smaller student enrollment
  - Teacher Leader Assistants in Primary from 2.0 FTEs to 1.75 FTEs per site in Y2-Y5
  - Teacher Leader Assistant in Lower Elementary from 1.0 FTE to 0.2 FTE in Y2, Y4 and Y5 and from 2.0 FTE to 1.0 FTE in Y3 per site
- Additional reduction of charter wide services expenses, reducing FTEs of:
  - Student Services Coordinator from 0.3 FTE to 0.2 FTE in Y2 and from 1.0 FTE to 0.9 FTE in Y3-Y5
  - Special Educators from 1.0 FTE to 0.95 FTE in Y2, from 1.2 FTE to 1.15 FTE in Y3, from 1.4 FTE to 1.25 FTE in Y4, and from 1.6 FTE to 1.5 FTE in Y5. These adjustments maintain the same overall special education instructor-to-student ratios as the baseline budget, but reflect changes due to lower enrollment.

- ○ School Psychologist from 0.85 FTE to 0.75 FTE in Y4 and from 1.0 FTE to 0.90 FTE in Y5. These adjustments maintain the same overall special education instructor-to-student ratios as the baseline budget, but reflect changes due to lower enrollment.
- Slight reduction in the amount budgeted per employee for professional development in the early years of the charter:
  - ○ Annual professional development budget for Teacher Leaders from $4,000 per TL to $3,000 per TL.
  - ○ Annual professional development budget for Teacher Leader Assistants, Special Educators and School Psychologist from $1,500 per individual to $1,000 per individual.
- Moderate cuts to technical services, equipment rental, office supplies and contingency budgets to reflect lower usage resulting from lower enrollment.
- All expenses based on per pupil drivers reduced to reflect continued lower enrollment.

In the event of lower enrollment, these adjustments allow WMPSC to remain authentic to its learning model and in compliance with authorizer requirements. The decreases in staffing and site plans, as well as other student-based expenses, are in line with the lowered enrollment numbers. Static expenses such as facilities leases, renovations, site furniture, instructional materials and other basic operational expenses are sustained in the contingency budget to best preserve the charter mission and educational experience.

Incorporated into the baseline and contingency budget plans, Teacher Leaders from each site have a site budget that they developed with advice from the Board, Shared Services and Finance Partners, and local experts, including Wildflower Partner Isabelle Parker, who supports Teacher Leaders across the country as they set up their local site budgets.

H. Governance

Governance

WMPSC will employ self-management tools and practices with strong leadership from the Board of Directors. Aligned to our "Montessori for Adults" philosophy,[66] we believe creating an environment that empowers educators and increases their ownership cultivates an environment for adults to be grounded in their purpose and live into their full potential as educators and leaders. In alignment with Wildflower principles, norms, and values (Section A), WMPSC will follow a decentralized decision-making structure and use self-management practices to organize itself, make decisions, engage in discourse when disagreements inevitably arise, and always strive toward radical transparency.

Wildflower's self-management practices are defined as Ways of Working. These four integrated practices (see figure below) are used together as the tools for self-management: (Appendix E_Wildflower Self-Management Ways of Working):

- Roles and Responsibilities: A decentralized role creation and evolution process, which makes it possible for an organization's roles and responsibilities to change organically as the organization's needs change;
- Advice Process: A decision-making process that ensures individual stakeholder voices are not lost and that every individual has the power to block any action that will set WMPSC and/or any site back;
- Conflict Resolution: A process that neutralizes power dynamics and allows any person to make their voice heard, even over the objections of others;
- Radical Transparency: An approach to access to information so that everyone has exposure to all information needed to do their work and provides unsolicited advice to others.

These operating strategies have proven successful in other non-hierarchical organizations and have been implemented in Wildflower public charter systems in Minnesota, New York City, and Washington, D.C.[67] By using self-management practices in this construct, WMPSC centers Teacher Leader autonomy and maintains clear accountability to stakeholders, both internal and external.

WMPSC Board of Directors

WMPSC is governed by a Board of Directors that is committed to our mission. It holds the accountabilities of the charter entrusted to it by the public, and it fulfills those accountabilities by establishing a policy environment that supports bringing the charter to life. The Board of Directors is a critical stakeholder for decisions the Shared Services Partner, and Teacher Leaders are making in service of WMPSC. The Board of Directors establishes this environment within the construct of the charter, laws, and its governing Bylaws and other organizing policies (Appendix H_ Bylaws).

The Board of Directors has clear roles and responsibilities. The Board is ultimately accountable to CSI for meeting the metrics in the charter and holds the following responsibilities:
- Uphold fiduciary responsibilities;
- Maintain compliance with all applicable laws and policies, WMPSC charter, and other legal requirements;
- Hire the Shared Services Partner and Teacher Leaders, and facilitate the annual leadership review that results in reflection of accountabilities against the purpose and performance of the charter;
- Review and discuss Teacher Leader(s) annual performance reviews;
- Validate the annual charter budget;
- Review, revise and renew service provider and major contractor partnerships;
- Review Wildflower Network Membership (Appendix G_Wildflower Network Membership Agreement) every two years;
- Evaluate each site through the membership reflection process, charter performance metrics, and Teacher Leader performance reviews;
- Validate organizational policies to reinforce Teacher Leader autonomy in alignment with accountabilities and laws;
- Maintain Teacher Leader autonomy by resisting making decisions that the Board is not closest to, and that would lead to less ownership of those decisions by people closer to the work.

To activate these responsibilities, each board member signed a WMPSC Board Commitment Agreement that established clarity of expectations and how the Board of Directors will carry out its responsibilities (Appendix H_Board Commitments). The Board will fulfill its responsibilities through a committee structure (detailed below), policy development timeline, and dashboard of reporting accountability.

H.1. Founding Board Member Matrix

The composition of the WMPSC Board is state-wide, with members residing proximal to the Grand Valley and Aurora regions. The Founding WMPSC Board embodies the charter-wide cultural and linguistic diversity, history, and knowledge of the unique communities our sites intend to serve, as well as the areas of expertise required to fulfill the Board's obligations to our nonprofit organization. The WMPSC Board is composed of voting members and non-voting members. The non-voting members include the (Interim) Shared Services Partner and two Teacher Leader Board representatives, each from a region where WMPSC holds a charter. The Teacher Leader Board representative self-nominates to hold the responsibility for a two year term, and the Shared Services Provider confirms the TL Representative (TL Rep) through an advice process.

Currently, the WMPSC Board, including voting and non-voting members, holds expertise in the following areas:

- Legal
- Finance
- Real estate
- Marketing/communications

- Mental health
- Multilingual learning
- Special Education
- Montessori in the Public Sector

H.2. Founding Board Development

The WMPSC Founding Board was formed in July 2022, transitioning from the Founding Steering Committee, which formed in Fall 2021. The cultivation of a Steering Committee began by Rachel Kelley-Cohn, Wildflower Regional Site Entrepreneur, as a response to Teacher Leader interest in creating Wildflower charter schools in Grand Valley and Aurora. This Teacher Leader interest paralleled family interest to access identity-affirming microsites rooted in Montessori pedagogy.

Since the fall of 2021, this community of visionary leaders has met in person and virtually 17 times.This application reflects only part of the expansive range of broad and detailed thinking required to move an idea to impact. WMPSC has had an intentional approach to governance development, working to center relationship building, relevancy within the community, prioritizing Teacher Leaders, and committing to self-reflection and growth. The Board, through this focus, has been building an identity that manifested itself in the organization's mission and vision. The Founding Board reflects the community and students the sites intend to serve by modeling Wildflower's purpose, values, and norms and also being a group of diverse individuals carrying out anti-bias and anti-racist education. Full bios of the Founding WMPSC Board can be found in Appendix H_WMPSC Bios. As the Board develops, it will further be representative of the communities we serve, comprising founding families and parents, voices not yet heard.

H.3. Board Recruitment

We acknowledge that our model requires consistent and deep engagement from our Board of Directors, a collaborative spirit to work in partnership with Teacher Leaders and the Shared Services Partner and, ultimately, the responsibility to ensure that every microsite thrives.

Our effort to attract strong candidates balances WMPSC's need for critical areas of expertise with a bottom's up, relationship-centered approach to board development that prioritizes hyper-local representation from the landscapes our schools intend to serve. As defined in our Bylaws, the Governance Committee stewards the board member nomination and recommendation process. The Committee establishes values and priorities for board member recruitment and discussion of our governance philosophy. This committee continuously reviews the Skill Matrix to ensure the necessary board member expertise and experience while also holding a commitment to membership centered in and from the communities our schools serve. Presently, the Board has identified the skill areas currently needed to round out expertise, which includes real estate development, ECE, and law; the Board also seeks to widen socioeconomic representation on the Founding Board.

To fulfill these skill and diversity needs, Rachel Kelley-Cohn, the WMPSC Founding Board, and Teacher Leaders are actively cultivating relationships with communities and identifying possible board members. Shared Services Partners will eventually lead this networking in each charter location and continuously present as charter sites open, and increased hyper-local relationships are generated. Ultimately, the committee will bring forward recommendations of new board members and follow the process outlined in the board's succession plan (Appendix H_Board Succession Plan Draft). Board members will be asked to sign the Board Commitment and the Conflict of Interest Agreement within 14 days of being seated on the Board (Appendix H_ Board Commitments).

H.4. Governance Structure

WMPSC will fulfill its responsibilities by creating and sustaining a policy environment that supports the charter and the work of the Teacher Leaders and WMPSC staff. The Board will be organized to support this policy environment as defined in the WMPSC Bylaws. The Bylaws state that the Board will be composed of between three and eleven voting members, in addition to non-voting Teacher Leader(s) and Community Design Team Board Representatives, as well as administrative leadership. Aligning with our commitment to the local communities we serve, guardians of enrolled students and community members will be included among the Board's voting members.

The Board of Directors will include a Chair, Treasurer, and Secretary. The Board Chair will work with Board members to appoint committee chairs. The Board Chair will preside at all board meetings. The Secretary will perform duties of the Board Chair in their absence, including presiding at any board meetings where the Chair is not present. The Treasurer will be the lead fiscal officer of WMPSC, and the Secretary will keep minutes of the board meetings and retreats.

The Board will use a committee structure to organize its work and responsibilities. The Board of Directors will create standing committees with the following charges:

- School Accountability Committee: Our students' identity is affirmed, and they are prepared to transform their world. The School Accountability Committee is responsible for making recommendations to Teacher Leaders and charter-wide staff concerning priorities for spending school funds, the preparation of and adherence to the school's Performance, Improvement, Priority Improvement, or Turnaround plan, and fidelity to our mission and to WMPSC's contract with CSI.
- Equity and People: Our community reflects our mission and is strengthened by our presence. The Equity and People Committee ensures that all WMPSC stakeholders are living into WMPSC's values, purpose, and norms and that our staff, Board, and student populations are representative of the diversity in our communities.
- Finance and Facilities: Our organization and our microsites are financially sound. The Finance Committee is charged with ensuring that WMPSC and all of our microsites have balanced budgets, appropriate reserves, and sound, compliant facilities.
- Governance: We maintain a policy environment that meets the needs of the school and our community. The Governance Committee ensures that our policies and procedures adhere to Holacracy and that our Board of Directors represents the diversity of our local communities and includes the breadth of expertise necessary to fulfill our mission and vision through sound succession planning processes.

In addition to the Board committees, WMPSC includes advisory committees that are unique to our model. Community Design Teams are hyper-local committees proximal to microsites with the purpose of facilitating our participatory processes of co-designing charter sites with Teacher Leaders and community members; and Teacher Leader pod structures, which are regional groups of Teacher Leaders that provide peer support and accountability for site performance, Wildflower's ways of working, and leadership development of one another as educators and Montessorians, modeling wholeness, growth, and connectedness.

H.5.6. Board Training and Onboarding

To date, the Board has engaged in Wildflower's Self-Management Learning Series that supports our self-managed organizational structure and carries out key governance responsibilities using the practices of roles and responsibilities, advice, conflict resolution, and radical transparency (Appendix E_Wildflower Self-Management Ways of Working). The Board has also engaged in equityXdesign training by 228 Accelerator (Appendix C_equityXdesign Framework) that supported the development of the DEIB Agreement.

Board members will continue to participate in similar workshops and specific governance workshops held by local and national organizations, such as the Colorado League of Charter Schools and The Wildflower Foundation. In particular, WMPSC plans to seek training to support self-management governance, employment matters, financial management and oversight, and responsible monitoring and evaluation of school and pupil performance - especially supporting serving students with special needs. The Board's succession plan demonstrates how WMPSC will recruit and onboard new members and stagger terms, pulling in specific regional and skill set expertise (Appendix H_Board Succession Plan Draft). The staggered terms of the Founding Board members are identified in Section H.1.

WMPSC has also created a Board Development Plan (Appendix G_Board Development Plan) that specifies board training, capacity building, self-evaluation, and succession planning. The annual budget allocated to board training is $4,000 during the Planning Year and $2,000 each following year. The onboarding of board members includes reviewing an overview of WMPSC and a clear outline of expectations included in the organizing policies, Board Commitment, and DEIB and Conflict of interest policies. Members will be oriented to the WMPSC charter contract, have opportunities to meet Teacher Leaders and visit sites, and engage in the Wildflower self-management and liberatory Montessori learning series. The Board's committees will facilitate support for this learning plan and coordinate resources from the wider Wildflower network.

H.7. Open Meeting Law, C.O.R.A., and FERPA

Community members–including all Teacher Leaders, staff, parents, and families–will be invited and encouraged to attend all open sessions of board meetings. All board meetings will be open to the public, only those matters allowed for a closed session under Colorado Open Meetings Act will be held in closed session; and any official action of the Board taken in a closed meeting will be reported on in the following open session. Our board meeting schedule will be posted on our website. The Board of Directors will operate according to the Colorado Open Meetings Act, per Article III. Section I of the WMPSC Bylaws:

Section 1. Meetings. The Board of Directors will meet at least ten (10) times per year to discuss WMPSC operations, to hear reports and updates from the charter community, and to discuss business related to the responsibilities outlined in these bylaws. The Board shall be subject to and hold meetings in accordance with the Colorado Open Meetings Act. The Board shall be subject to and hold meetings in accordance with the Colorado Open Meetings Act.

Directors may meet in-person or electronically (virtually) so long as all Directors participating and the public can all hear each other during the meeting, and technology is in place to ensure such. Directors attending virtually shall be counted as present for all purposes, and virtual attendance shall count toward a quorum. Should any Director plan to attend a board meeting virtually, they will make that known to the Board Secretary at least 24 hours in advance of the scheduled Board meeting. The Board Secretary shall then provide for virtual access to the meeting to Directors and members of the public.

The Open Records Act creates a general presumption in favor of public access to government documents. The WMPSC Board of Directors understands the importance of staying in compliance with this law, including the following:

- The Board Secretary shall record Board meeting minutes;
- The School Accountability Committee shall record School Accountability meeting minutes;
- All Minutes will be posted on the school website in a timely manner;
- All Minutes will be preserved in paper and electronic forms;
- The Board will make every effort to respond to CORA requests within three working days;
- The Board will file an extension for extenuating circumstances.

The WMPSC Board will work to develop a policy surrounding CORA requests so that it does not become a financial burden on the school. As soon as the charter application is approved, the WMPSC Board will be in full compliance with the law. Additionally, WMPSC will meet the requirements of FERPA (Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act), which addresses the privacy of students' educational records. Board meetings are scheduled to train Board members about their legal obligations with regard to the Open Meetings Act, Colorado Public Records Act, and FERPA. The first training will take place in October 2022. There will be training held at the Board retreat before the end of the 2022-23 fiscal year and throughout 2023. Directors commit to building awareness and maintaining compliance with legal requirements per the WMPSC Board Commitments (H_Board Commitments).

Leadership

As described in Section D, WMPSC unapologetically centers the Teacher Leader as the staff member best positioned to bring the dream of schooling that creates safe, affirming, just Montessori learning environments to life. Teacher Leaders have a critical role with a broad responsibility. WMPSC believes that teachers who have autonomy with support and are also leaders making decisions in the best interest of their students and school community have great job satisfaction.[68]

In the WMPSC organizational structure, leadership is distributed. Individuals or roles are not accountable to just one person; they are accountable to the full community. However, to foster growth and meet external reporting requirements, roles do have points of accountability. For instance, the Shared Services Partner is held accountable by the Board of Directors through facilitation of their hiring and evaluation processes and in serving as the staff liaison to the Board of Directors. However, the Shared Services Partner is also accountable to peer staff and Teacher Leaders to fulfill their roles and responsibilities.

Teacher Leaders also practice shared accountability to the community and are hired by the Board of Directors during the Startup stage of the School Startup Journey (Appendix B_Wildflower School Startup Journey Deck). When making hiring decisions, the Board must get advice from the Shared Services Partner, peer Teacher Leaders, and other staff before inviting Wildflower Network Membership and making hiring decisions that would affect the WMPSC community. Teacher Leaders and Teacher Leader Assistant roles are site-specific roles.

H.9. School Leadership

Teacher Leaders are our most critical staff members, and the 9-18-month School Startup Journey is the process where qualified teachers become Teacher Leaders at WMPSC. Our charter-wide staffing is designed to support a minimum of two Teacher Leaders co-leading each site (and up to four Teacher Leaders in the case of the co-location of two sites) to reach their maximum potential in educating students, centering family engagement, and modeling wholeness in an identity-affirming education model. The charter staff–Special Education Teacher, Teacher Leader Assistants, Student Services Coordinator, Finance Partner, and contracted providers work in service of the network of WMPSC sites and students and with Teacher Leaders to support the operation and compliance of individual sites and the charter.

Teacher Leaders

A WMPSC Teacher Leader is a Montessori teacher with an entrepreneurial spirit, a passion for social justice, and characteristics that allow them to evolve as an educator, co-teacher, and human being through the School Startup Journey. The Teacher Leader holds the responsibility to be the general education teacher and the academic leader, balancing administrative work and educator capacity at the site level.

Teacher Leaders embody our Wildflower principles, norms, and values by possessing:
- A commitment to authentic Montessori;
- Entrepreneurial leadership;
- A commitment to serving diverse communities
- A generosity of spirit;
- A willingness to work hard;
- A desire to learn and grow.

Shared Services Partner

The charter-wide role of the Shared Services Partner is to build systems and lines of communication for charter staff and Teacher Leaders to do their best work in service of students, families, and communities while ensuring sites have the autonomy and flexibility to be responsive and adaptive to the unique needs of each school community. This role is also the default for any responsibility not captured in another role and activates all staff roles to keep an eye on charter-wide metrics and overall school performance.

The Shared Services Partner is the direct contact between the Board of Directors and the other staff. Primary responsibilities currently include strategic growth, back office operations, and facilitating reflection and learning of peers, including Teacher Leaders. The Shared Services Partner collaborates with Teacher Leaders to ensure that site-level activities are synthesized with charter-level activities and are communicated with public education stakeholders such as CSI and CDE. The Shared Services Partner also collaborates with Teacher Leaders to ensure that site-level activities are aggregated to monitor performance metrics and performance goals set forth in the charter. The Shared Services Partner serves as the first point of contact for key stakeholders such as the Board of Directors, CSI, and other federal and local agencies.

Job descriptions of the Teacher Leader and Shared Services Partner are in Appendix D_Teacher Leader Job Description and Appendix D_Shared Services Partner Job Description.

H.10. Leadership Recruitment

Our key leadership roles, the Shared Services Partner and Teacher Leaders, are held accountable by the Board of Directors and also hired by the Board. However, the process of being hired is different for each of these roles.

Currently, Hannah Ewert-Krocker is the Interim Shared Services Partner until the charter is approved and WMPSC initiates a hiring process for the role (Appendix H_Resume_Ewert-KrockerHannah). Hannah

Ewert-Krocker was drawn to Wildflower as a steeped public Montessorian with expertise in public school development and operations. Once the charter is approved, the Founding Board will launch a formal search for a permanent Shared Services Partner in November 2022, to be hired in January 2023.

The process to recruit and hire the Shared Services Partner (SSP) is detailed in Section D.4. Our process, adopted because of its success in other Wildflower regions, includes five stages, from creating a job description to closing communication with all candidates. In Aurora, we are beginning to recruit for our first staff position, our SSP, and plan to hire a leader for this role as soon as we receive charter approval.

We have drafted a job description (Appendix D_Shared Services Partner Job Description) and continue to build out the responsibilities of the role as our Founding Teacher Leaders and Interim Shared Services Partner fulfill their responsibilities. In our recruitment for an SSP, we will prioritize local experience and community commitment, bilingualism, and a collaborative spirit who both understands systems of accountability and educational innovation, including Wildflower's non-hierarchical structure.

Subsequent recruitment and hiring processes are the responsibility of the Shared Services Partner, with the Board making the final hiring decision.
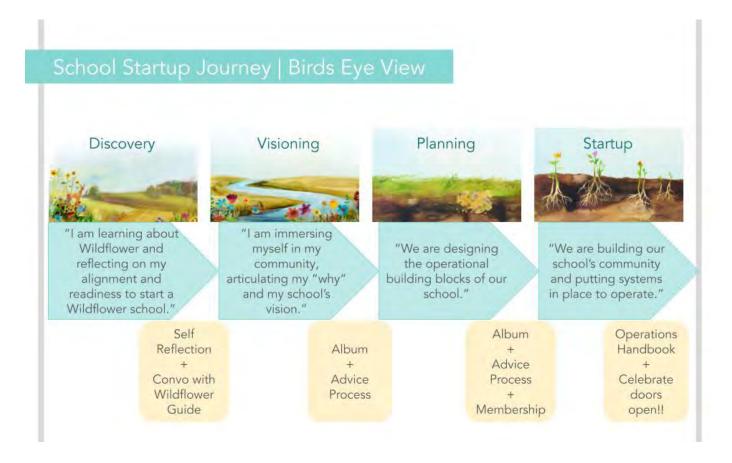

All Wildflower Teacher Leaders engage in a 9-18 month School Startup Journey (SSJ) that is intense and self-selecting with the expectation that at least one of two Teacher Leaders at each school will have a minimum of three years of "in-field" teaching experience. Teacher Leaders who have successfully moved through the SSJ and meet charter requirements are considered highly qualified for their positions, as they have engaged in the rigorous visioning and planning process that includes two intense and purposeful Advice Process sessions demonstrating an astute vision of their site, fiscal health and sustainability data, community input, and operationalizing details.

The School Startup Journey

WMPSC Teacher Leaders' journeys with Wildflower often start as a response to an open invitation instead of a recruitment and hiring process. Every WMPSC site begins as an idea during the School Startup Journey (Appendix B_Wildflower School Startup Journey Deck) and is realized through self-reflection, community participation, the guidance of the Wildflower network, and Shared Services Partner, and the support of all WMPSC staff and The Wildflower Foundation.

Teacher Leaders not only need to possess an authentic Montessori background and hold experience with running a school or other non-profit business but also be committed to operating within the Wildflower model of self-management and designing and sustaining a culturally responsive school that meets (or exceeds) our charter goals and aligns with the WMPSC commitment to equity and identity affirmation. The School Startup Journey also affirms a commitment to or experience with running a school or other non-profit business to meet the necessary administrative responsibilities of teacher leadership. Teacher Leaders also begin required MLL training through a CDE-approved program if they do not possess it prior to entering the SSJ.

The School Startup Journey includes a developmental framework organized into four phases: Discovery, Visioning, Planning, and Startup. In each stage, Teacher Leaders focus on developing their school plan around core guiding questions (see figure below). Through engagement in learning opportunities and school Startup activities, Teacher Leaders will form their own point of view on these core guiding questions and will create a portfolio of work that supports and demonstrates their point of view.

School Startup Journey | Birds Eye View

Discovery	Visioning	Planning	Startup
"I am learning about Wildflower and reflecting on my alignment and readiness to start a Wildflower school."	"I am immersing myself in my community, articulating my "why" and my school's vision."	"We are designing the operational building blocks of our school."	"We are building our school's community and putting systems in place to operate."
Self Reflection + Convo with Wildflower Guide	Album + Advice Process	Album + Advice Process + Membership	Operations Handbook + Celebrate doors open!!

We describe this framework as developmental because the work of the early stages never really ends. Instead, transitioning into a new phase is representative of a shift in focus and a welcoming of greater detail and complexity into the work. For example, every person in the Wildflower ecosystem begins their journey in Discovery - learning about Wildflower and about what it means to be a Wildflower school. This work of deepening our understanding and continually growing is foundational to the way that all members of the Wildflower ecosystem work, an expression of our core values and norms. In Visioning, Teacher Leaders learn more about themselves and the vision for their microsite, identifying their priorities for growth as individuals. Similarly, the core work of the Planning stage is focused on thinking through the details of bringing a site to life and developing a strategy; though the shift into the Startup stage indicates a shift in focus toward implementation, Teacher Leaders will continually refine and rebuild their plans as they learn.

The end of the Planning stage is a critical point of a Teacher Leader's SSJ, at which the team is now activated to implement the plan they devised. At the end of the Planning stage, Teacher Leaders become employees of WMPSC. This transition is a step-by-step process whereby Teacher Leaders share the detailed work they have completed throughout the Visioning and Planning stages and request that they be recommended to the Board of Directors by the Shared Services Partner to:
1. Become a WMPSC employee;
2. Deepen neighborhood-specific community engagement;
3. Begin the Startup stage, which includes facility acquisition;
4. Enroll and open a new WMPSC site;
5. Receive financial support.

Teacher Leaders in WMPSC are supported by the staff once they complete the Planning stage of the SSJ and begin onboarding to become employees of WMPSC. We expect our Founding Teacher Leaders to move from the Planning to Startup stages in spring 2023, at which time they will work with the permanent Shared Services Partner to continue the planning year activities.

H.11. School Leadership Evaluation

While our school accountability processes rely on largely the same inputs and have the same aims as traditional systems, the internal mechanics of the WMPSC system are very different. We believe most people are intrinsically motivated to do good work and have the deepest insight into their own performance. We see the most important aspect of accountability as being accountable to oneself. Relatedly, we think of the most impacted stakeholders in retention or compensation decisions as being the individuals themselves. For these reasons, all of our accountability processes center on the individual, who gathers input into their own performance (both absolute and relative), considers goals, results, and context, and determines any next steps. The same self-management tools we use for other decisions - the right of stakeholders to object to harmful decisions through the Conflict Resolution Process and Radical Transparency - provide important guardrails to ensure that decisions are made in the service of WMPSC's mission and vision.

The Growth and Accountability Cycle, outlined below, is an evaluative process that culminates in an annual Summative Self Reflection and meets the intentions of Colorado SB 10-191. The Summative Self Reflection is an annual document created by every staff member and submitted to the Board in April. Teacher Leaders use tools to create a thorough reflection document, which involves the input of every WMPSC stakeholder. The Shared Services Partner stewards the process for Teacher Leaders, and charter-wide staff decide annually who will steward the process for one another. This process supports staff to receive the feedback he/she needs from specific stakeholders according to the established timeline, and this Self Reflection is a tool for evaluation.

The responsibility of the School Accountability Committee is to work closely with Teacher Leaders and the Shared Services Partner to collect, review, report, and evaluate the goals outlined in Section F: Goals, Objective & Pupil Performance Standards. The Annual Leadership Growth and Accountability Cycle is our process to exceed compliance requirements and performance standards while including varied WMPSC stakeholders' voices in the process:

Annual Growth and Accountability Cycle: Overview

Tools to Support Self-Management	Timeline	Stakeholders Involved in Feedback
Annual Goal and Reflection	Goal advice provided in August; Reflection advice provided in February	Teacher Leader partner, Shared Services Partner; 2 other Montessori/Academic leaders identified by the Teacher Leader; 1 additional Board member
Instructional Coaching / Professional Development	August - May	Montessori Instructional Coach (Teacher Leaders) or Growth and

		Connectedness Coach (Shared Services Partner)
WMPSC Site Review Process	January - April	Board Officer, Shared Services Partner, Student Services Coordinator or Finance Partner, Community Design Team Member
DEIB Agreement Reflection	February-April	Community Design Team Member, Teacher Leader
Annual Community Site Survey / Net Promoter Score	March	Anonymous survey for all stakeholders in the community
Annual Summative Self-Reflection	Submitted to Board in May	Teacher Leader partner, Teacher Leader Board Liaison

Growth and Accountability Cycle: Shared Services Partner

The School Accountability Committee will also define and steward an annual Growth and Accountability Cycle for the Shared Services Partner. The purpose of this process is to support the year-long cycle, designed to hold school leadership accountable through frequent touchpoints looking at the following elements:
- Charter-wide progress on each element of WMPSC's established charter goals;
- Progress towards mission-related goals, such as:
  - Community engagement in microsite neighborhoods;
  - Belonging and identity-affirming site culture;
  - Equity approach and modeling;
- Ability to activate the Advice Process and Conflict Resolution Process with staff, Teacher Leaders, and Board;
- Fiscal health of WMPSC;
- Staff satisfaction and retention;
- Student attendance and retention.

Growth and Accountability Cycle: Teacher Leaders

For a Teacher Leader, this would start with the collection of family and peer input and incorporation of student achievement results and other results, all facilitated by processes supported by WMPSC staff. If the Shared Services Partner or board members have direct exposure to the Teacher Leader's work, they may provide input at this stage as well. Once an individual has considered all of the input and integrated it with their own perspectives to form an opinion on whether they should continue in their role, what they should focus on developmentally, and what, if anything, should happen to their compensation, the Shared Services Partner and the School Accountability Committee of the Board have the formal opportunity to offer advice – for example, to suggest that an individual overweighed one aspect of input vs. another or underappreciated the value or consequence of some aspect of the individual's work, or even that they came to the tense decision on whether they should continue in their role. Next, the individual considers advice and may refine their determination and next steps. At this point, the Shared Services Partner and the School Accountability Committee receive the evaluations and can object to any decisions they identify as harmful.

Outside the formal processes described above, school accountability happens on an ongoing basis through the functioning of strong self-management processes and a focus on growth and connectedness. In operating self-management, if one Teacher Leader believes that their partner should leave WMPSC, the Conflict Resolution Process gives clear guidance for what to do with that thought to take action. The process can result in a Teacher Leader's departure. If a Teacher Leader at one site believes that another site in the charter is not meeting charter goals and mission, they would also use the Conflict Resolution Process, which could result in changes to that site. The hallmark of this system is that it gives individuals and the Board access to a tremendous amount of information along the way. These stakeholders can step in when they think things are headed in the wrong direction, but it makes explicit something that good managers do in traditional arrangements: it leaves individuals in charge of the most important decisions that impact their work and career except in the unusual case where an individual demonstrates an inability to handle that responsibility.

Site Review Process

Because our charter is made up of multiple sites, each site is held accountable for charter-wide performance and meeting charter goals. The Site Review Process is the annual process used by WMPSC stakeholders to review every site under the charter (Appendix D_Staff Evaluation and Growth and Accountability Cycle). Stakeholders included in this process are the site Teacher Leaders, a Board Officer, Shared Services Partner, Finance Partner, and parents/guardians. During the Site Review Process, stakeholders use defined criteria to provide Teacher Leaders advice on the site's operation and alignment with the WMPSC mission.

Beyond this annual routine practice, the Teacher Leaders will provide the Board with regular updates on site progress and performance, and the Shared Services Partner will report on charter-wide performance. During the Planning Year, we will seek to refine these processes with the advice from stakeholders close to the decision-making, including Teacher Leaders, parents, families, Community Design Team, and Shared Services Partner.

I. Operations

I.1. WMPSC Reporting

Teacher Leaders and charter-wide staff will use Infinite Campus as the primary student information system. Infinite Campus will house student demographic information, attendance, behavior, annual academic performance data (such as CMAS or ACCESS), and information about students with special needs, such as IEP and 504 designations and accommodations. The Shared Services Partner and Student Services Coordinator will work together to maintain student data in Infinite Campus and provide reports, as necessary, to CSI and CDE. WMPSC will contract for in-depth training for both the Shared Services Partner and the Student Services Coordinator during the Planning Year to ensure seamless setup of this system before the beginning of the school year. Staff level data will be maintained by the Shared Services Provider who holds HR responsibilities; we anticipate a simple data system that is both secure and cost-effective.

Teacher Leaders at WMPSC will also use Transparent Classroom, the leading online Montessori record keeping system, to record student academic progress, including lessons received and skills mastered, for each individual student. Transparent Classroom aligns Montessori curriculum lessons with the Common Core State Standards, Next Generation Science Standards, and College, Career, and Civic Life Framework for Social Studies. Teacher Leaders will use Transparent Classroom to provide individualized reports for each student, demonstrating student mastery of standards. Teacher Leaders will be responsible for entering student-specific data into Transparent Classroom. These two data platforms will be part of onboarding for all Teacher Leaders and staff.

During spring 2023 (Appendix B_Planning Year Timeline), we will finalize these reporting systems.

I.2. WMPSC Policies

Our governance and administrative approach is rooted in radical transparency, and employs thoughtful processes for clarifying accountability, integrating multiple perspectives into decisions and collaboratively resolving conflict. The following organizing draft policies, developed by the WMPSC Board of Directors, embody this approach. WMPSC will be in full compliance with federal, state, and local law and is committed to the Wildflower Ways of Working (Appendix E_Wildflower Self-Management Ways of Working).

Facilities

WMPSC sites are intentionally small and embedded in neighborhoods that traditionally have not had access to Montessori programs. Each microsite seeks to be connected directly to the public life of its community, both visually and physically. In newer suburban communities like Aurora, co-location partnerships with other schools or nonprofit organizations work well provided the facility gets foot traffic, has windows that allow children to see out and passersby to see in, and is separated by walls from the space the co-location partner occupies.

Our network of six sites throughout northwest and east Aurora (see image below) create an interdependent ecosystem - a continuum of PK-6th grade learning for students and families and a regional hub where Montessori Teacher Leaders support one another. This ecosystem strengthens the neighborhoods, brings community together, and informs how Teacher Leaders evolve and adapt the identity-affirming learning environments. At the same time, each microsite is its own thriving community. Each unique site is designed with the needs and preferences of families in mind and is no smaller than 1,800 SF, based on Colorado Department of Education requirements, calculating a minimum of 30 SF needed per student and a peak enrollment of 60 students.[69] Cost, opportunity for co-location partnership, and each microsite vision will also drive specific site locations.

As community-embedded learning spaces, WMPSC sites aim to partner with local nonprofits to ensure that each child is healthy, safe, engaged, and supported, and that families are linked with a variety of services. As Section B describes, WMPSC in Aurora is building relationships with local organizations such as the African Leadership Group to amplify their work and find locations that best serve the needs of families. We believe that our co-location approach provides the opportunity to more fully activate the vision and mission of the organization where we will co-locate.

This type of 2 generation approach to teaching and learning already has a proof point: Flame Lily Montessori, a Wildflower preschool in Aurora and Project Worthmore, an Aurora nonprofit that provides wrap-around programming to increase quality of life among local refugees, are co-locating to offer education and skill building to parents while their children receive a high-quality early childhood education. Project Worthmore started in 2011 as a grassroots effort to address the lack of services for refugees in Aurora and recently purchased an old Aurora Mental Health building at 16th and Elmira that offers more space than the organization needs. The neighborhood where Project Worthmore opened its first community hub is a largely African immigrant neighborhood where Flame Lily's founders were also looking to locate their early childhood program.

The value of Flame Lily's co-location and partnership with Project Worthmore in Aurora is described below:
> Project Worthmore has a food-sharing program that delivers 160 packages of fresh food from their community farm to refugee families, a community navigation program where staff and volunteers conduct home visits and a dental clinic that provides screenings at apartment complexes where the majority of refugee communities are resettled. Deliveries of essential services are critical to supporting resettlement, but what they don't offer is the gift of time and community support to help recent refugees get their bearings and find careers. That is where Flame Lily Montessori provides a unique and timely value-add to the development of "The Roots" in Northwest Aurora. Led by local BIPOC leaders, Flame Lily will open in October, adding over 30 high-quality childcare spots for 3-6-year-olds to a community hub already entrusted by families furthest from opportunity and serving as a feeder program for WMPSC's NW elementary school proposed to open near the Anschutz Medical Campus in the fall of 2023.

I.3. Facility Assessment

WMPSC will open with 2 microschool sites and grow to 6 microschool sites by Year 5. In the first year, we will open one Lower Elementary site and one Primary site. We plan to add an additional Primary and Lower Elementary site in Year 2, and add the upper elementary sites in Year 4 when we enroll 5th grade students. These microsites are situated in two regions of Aurora, and we aspire to then have two clusters made up of Primary, Lower and Upper Elementary sites in northwest and east Aurora.

The Charter Site and Enrollment Growth chart below shows our projected enrollment and site growth in Years 1-5, and the Regions are undefined, as we have not yet finalized which region will open at which time.

Given our vision of community-embedded, intentionally small sites in Aurora, we have developed the following criteria for identifying viable spaces:

- Along primary commuting routes and public transportation;
- Neighborhood characterized by diversity representative of Adams and Arapahoe Counties;
- Size of facility reflects the need for at least 30 SF per student at full enrollment of 60 students;
- Total size of at least 2000 SF;
- $25 rental cost per SF;
- Close proximity to community parks, green spaces and civic spaces;
- Flexibility to create capacity for 1-2 classrooms and 1-2 small group instruction and/or assessment space;
- Space for a kitchen, student medicine administration, on-site storage and Teacher Leader and staff administrative workspace;
- Restroom facilities meeting CDE child care licensing regulations for before/after care;
- Meets accessibility requirements/ADA compliant;
- Parking is available as needed for ease of family drop off/pick up;
- Sites are by-right from a zoning perspective;
- Option to sign a 5-10 year lease agreement.

In addition to these broad criteria, the Walkthrough Worksheet (Appendix I_Facilities Walkthrough Worksheet) is an identification tool used by Wildflower's Teacher Leaders to support the facility search. Teacher Leaders will work with county planning departments to ensure our facilities meet zoning compliance. They will also collaborate with the hyper-local Community Design Teams to determine the ideal locations for their microsites, informed by local data including enrollment trends at nearby neighborhood schools; child care desert areas; transportation considerations; co-location opportunities with community collaborators; proximal business and organizational partnerships; and family interest. The site identification process is done as part of the School Startup Journey, explained in Section E, and is supported by a team of local advice givers most impacted by the Teacher Leaders' location decisions.

Cosmos Montessori in Minneapolis, Minnesota is an example below of the small-scale facility we seek. Specific attention is paid to the site's reflection of the Wildflower principles and to the presence of a culturally responsive space that makes every community member feel welcome and safe.

The WMPSC facility search is currently led by commercial broker Eliza Pfeifer. During our preliminary search, we identified several sites that meet WMPSC's search criteria. Specifications are below.

I.4. Facility Location

Our microschool sites will be concentrated in two clusters of the Aurora School District: 1) the northwest area bounded by 70 and west of 225; and 2) the east area bounded by 6th Avenue, Buckley Road, Hampden Avenue, and east to encompass Ward II. These areas are within zip codes 80010 and 80011, both cited in the bottom quartile of Colorado household incomes for zip code areas of the state according to census data.[70] The northwest cluster is near Anschutz Medical Center and Flame Lily Montessori School, described above, and a feeder school to our proposed northwest elementary site. The east cluster is near Buckley Space Force base and proximal to the burgeoning housing and commercial developments east of E-470.

Our growth plan reflects that new sites will be added to the WMPSC network in Aurora during our first, second, and fourth years of operation. As such, we are actively seeking co-location partners and small-scale facilities that will house our microsites now and see this as an enduring workstream through Year 4. Our options to date are below. See Appendix I_Facility Options Specifications for more detail on the below options:

Northwest Cluster Options

1) 10660 E. Colfax Ave.: The available space in this building is a 6400 square foot unit on the 1st floor. Built originally in the 1960s as the main office of a local bank, the building is now owned by the Urban Land Conservancy (ULC), a nonprofit dedicated to preserving community assets by using real estate to benefit urban communities in the Denver area. This site, called the Center for Social Good, would provide a viable option for 2-3 of our northwest area micro-school sites. The first floor is currently wide open with significant natural sunlight, and there is ample outdoor space both in the front and back of the building upon which we could build a child playground and outdoor area. There are already small rooms, formerly offices, that could serve as Teacher Leader office space, pull-out or small group work areas, or storage. The ULC has shared that they are interested in housing our schools and would be willing to accommodate our outdoor play needs. It is located on Colfax Ave., right on the 15 RTD bus route. We have received verbal confirmation from the broker that the landlord is interested in housing our schools at this property. A letter of support from the Director of Property Assets at this location is attached in Appendix B_Letters of Support.

2) 2246-2260 Dayton St.: There are three available units in this building, which is currently a gray shell open space with garage doors. The smallest of these units is 3,500 square feet, which would provide ample room for our Lower Elementary (grades 1-3) program to open in Year 1. There is a parking lot in the back that could be easily converted into an outdoor play space. While not right next to additional outdoor space, this facility is within ½ mile of Westerly Creek Park and just a little further from several other parks. This location is along both the 15 and the 20 RTD bus routes. A letter of support from the landlord at this location is attached in Appendix B_Letters of Support.

Southeast and East Cluster Options

1) 18511-18757 E. Hampden Ave.: There are three available spaces in this shopping center ranging from 1700-2400 square feet that would provide ample space for our Primary (Pre-K through Kindergarten) program. There is available parking in the back of each space that could be transformed into an outdoor play space, and there is plenty of parking and drop-off in the front entrance areas. It is along the 133 RTD bus route. A letter of support from the landlord at this location is attached in Appendix B_Letters of Support.

2) Addis Kidan Church (2220 S. Chambers Rd.): Addis Kidan Church has agreed to lease available classroom spaces for our school in Year 1. Inside this church are multiple classrooms on two separate floors that would provide ample room for both our Primary and Lower Elementary sites at full build-out. This leasing option is representative of a modified version of our ideal co-location situation: embedding our schools into street-facing, community-based organizations or community gathering spaces. While our preference is to find community organizations with whom we can co-locate each site separately, we are open to co-locating our Primary and Lower Elementary sites within one partner organization, which would work well in this church facility. This facility is along the 133 RTD bus route. A letter of support from the pastor for this leasing arrangement is attached in Appendix B_Letters of Support.

3) 16784 E. Iliff Ave.: This facility is in a shopping complex on E. Iliff Ave., and the available space is 4,800 square feet. It would provide space for us to co-locate both our Primary and Lower Elementary sites in one location in Year 1. Previously used as a mosque, the available space is next door to a dog grooming business and two churches. This shopping center is unique in that it lies behind several other street-facing businesses which maximizes accessibility while minimizing traffic, so, it would work very well for pick-up/drop-off. There is available space in the parking lot and a small courtyard that we could convert into outdoor play areas for children. This facility is along the 130 RTD bus route. A letter of support from the landlord at this location is attached in Appendix B_Letters of Support.

I.5. Facility Timeline

We understand that securing a facility is a difficult and time-consuming effort, so we are already building a team to support this endeavor. We believe an approved charter expedites the facility search process, and we have made inroads and are building relationships with key partners so we can take action on facilities quickly once we obtain authorizer approval. Additionally, the small scale of our sites provides a significant advantage not feasible for more traditional, larger schools. As described above, we have already identified five viable facility options that meet criteria for the WMPSC initial site and align with our mission and vision.

In order to search for and secure a site, Founding Teacher Leaders follow the VAMPS facility timeline, which centers the needs of the community and Teacher Leaders who are closest to the community and can best understand strategies for facility location and design that are aligned with individual school and community needs. The timeline for our first four microsites is below:

Safety

I.6. WMPSC Safety Plan

WMPSC will form a charter-wide Aurora emergency management team comprised of the Shared Services Partner, two Teacher Leaders, and two parents or guardians of children attending WMPSC. The team will develop an Aurora Safety, Readiness and Incidence Management Plan (also known as the Emergency Operations Plan) in coordination with local first responders and guided by the Colorado Safety Schools Act requirements and CSI.

The Shared Services Partner holds the responsibility for the charter to be in compliance of:
- Colorado Safe Schools Act (C.R.S. 22-32-109.1)
- Claire Davis School Safety Act
- Emergency Operations Planning
- Threat Assessments
- Site Assessments

Our safety plan will include annual training for all WMPSC employees. Teacher Leaders at each site will also create and maintain a site-based Safety, Readiness and Incidence Management Plan in collaboration with the Shared Services Partner and in alignment with and to supplement the charter-wide plan. Teacher Leaders will hold responsibility for site-specific compliance and teaching students and staff proper procedures in the event of an emergency or crisis.

Transportation

I.7. WMPSC Transportation Plan

WMPSC does not plan to provide free bus transportation during our first five years of operation because of fiscal constraint. Our community-embedded sites will be situated along commuting and public transportation lines to ease getting to and from WMPSC. To support students for whom transportation is challenging, we have allocated funds for local subsidized bus passes (to cover an estimated 35% of students for 10 months annually).

Ultimately, our aim is to provide busing to all families, which we believe will be helpful for our families, encourage enrollment and attendance, and be cost-effective. We have not included this expense in our first five years' budget in order to be conservative during our startup years and because much will depend upon the location of our sites. We have investigated transportation insurance and our planned policy through Epic Brokers and Philadelphia Insurance Companies (Appendix I_Insurance and Liability) does not include transportation.

We have built flexibility into our morning schedule to accommodate all families, regardless of transportation method, and to facilitate carpooling. Most students will arrive at 8:15 a.m. for the start of school, but parents may elect to have their child arrive earlier for breakfast and/or early care hours, to be decided on a site-by-site basis. This will help parents who have limited means to transport their child to school and/or who use the same vehicle to go to work.

For all parents, regardless of the time their child starts school, the doors of the school will open at 7:30 a.m. and close at 3:30 p.m. (later, if after care hours are established at the site). Again, this will help with carpooling and provide parents with more options for dropping off and picking up their children. We will work closely with the needs of our students with IEPs and 504s, and students qualifying for free/reduced lunch who need to arrive 30 minutes prior to the start of the school day. This will be part of our contract negotiations with CSI once we receive authorization.

Experiential learning and field trips are a core component of our model, and Teacher Leaders will determine how to best integrate these into their program to reinforce and expand on student learning and growth. We will carefully select and contract with a private transportation company to provide transportation for field trips and, as possible, seek to use the immediate community within walking distance for outings. We will only contract with a company that meets all regulatory requirements for transporting children and has a strong safety record. We will seek funding and/or adjust site budgets to incorporate these transportation costs along with the other costs associated with these crucial off-site learning experiences. Teacher Leaders may also choose to offer parents the opportunity to volunteer as chaperones for such outings and will comply with all District regulations for parents chaperoning students. WMPSC will offer limited extra-curricular activities and, as such, we are not planning for after-school transportation.

Food Services

I.8. WMPSC Food Services Plan

Our sites will participate in the National School Lunch Program (NSLP) and designate CSI as its School Food Authority and food service provider. By participating in NSLP, we will ensure our food service program is compliant with both Federal USDA guidelines and food safety and facility regulations. Partnering with CSI to provide meals and manage reimbursements will ensure consistent quality of meals and reduce administrative complexity during our startup years.

Families will be strongly encouraged to complete the Free and Reduced Lunch Form annually. We will closely follow policies regarding federal and state free lunch programs as they might continue to evolve to ensure that no student goes without breakfast or lunch, including during closures and summer break. As per current policy, students who meet qualification guidelines will receive their meals free or at a reduced price.

While we plan to start with CSI as our School Food Authority, we will explore other food sourcing options once we are fully operational. Food, nutrition, and sustainability are very much a part of WMPSC's holistic approach to children's education and wellbeing. Our community in the northwest sector of Aurora has been deemed a food desert by the US Department of Agriculture,[71] and we are committed to ensuring that our children and their families have access to better food, including by potentially growing and producing our own. As such, we have begun to research options such as adopting the 'Building a Healthy School' toolkit from the Colorado League of Charter Schools, partnering with Colorado Children's Healthy Children initiatives and Healthy Roots Garden, and learning from Denver Urban Gardens, the largest independent network of food-producing community gardens in the country, comprising 190 community and school-based gardens across metro Denver.

Pre-school Addendum

PA.1. Student Enrollment

The enrollment table for Years 1-5 follows:

Grade level	Year 1 (2023-24)	Year 2 (2024-25)	Year 3 (2025-26)	Year 4 (2026-27)	Year 5 (2027-28)
PK3	10	20	20	20	20
PK4	10	20	20	20	20
K	12	24	24	24	24

This growth plan reflects the plan to open one preschool (Primary) microsite in 2023 and a second microsite in 2024, serving 64 students at full growth.The WMPSC target student population is listed below, based on averages of proximal schools (see table below) and WMPSC's commitment to building access to Montessori for marginalized students. WMPSC plans to reflect the demographics of APS as a whole in our target population, given our enrollment policy (Appendix I_Policy Enrollment Draft):[72]

School	%BIPOC[73]	% Free or Reduced Lunch Eligible (FRLE)	% Special Education	% Multilingual Learner	% Gifted
WMPSC Anticipated Demographic	77	75	14	42	5
Demographic of Aurora Public Schools (APS)	86.6	74.2	13.1	42	3.4

This projection correlates to our Wildflower principle of equity and our norm of unity. WMPSC is in Aurora to bring the Montessori Method to all students, especially to a demographic with historically less access to the Method and a population that can benefit from identity-affirming and culturally responsive education.[74] We intentionally created a tuition model that supports this commitment, which is detailed further in section PA.7 Recruitment and Enrollment Process.

[73] 'BIPOC' refers to 'minority' in publicly available data, defined as all non-White federal race categories: American Indian or Alaska Native, Asian, Black or African America, Hispanic or Latino, and Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander.

PA.2. PK Evidence

The Founding Board is using an interest form (Appendix B_LOI Form) to solicit interest in enrollment at outreach and canvassing opportunities that have thus far included:

- The Village Institute (1440 Elmira St. Aurora, CO 80010)
- African Leadership Group (10700 E Evans Ave, Aurora, CO 80014)
- Lava Island (452 Sable Blvd, Aurora, CO 80011)
- Skate City (15100 E. Girard Ave, Aurora, CO 80014)
- King Soopers (15250 E Mississippi Ave, Aurora, CO 80012)
- Sharing Our Blessings (15620 E. 6th Ave Aurora, CO 80011)

Through our comprehensive community engagement efforts, we have received 115 Interest Forms for % & openings in Year 1, detailed in the table below. The following table reflects what we have received to date. We expect that by the end of September, we will exceed 120 Interest Forms.

Grade Level	Number of Students in Year 1	Interest Forms
PK	20	77
Kindergarten	12	38

PA.3. Community Need

During our community engagement efforts, we have heard from families about a desire for a small, intimate school community that fosters deep relationships among students and families. Our growth reflects our ability, fiscally and operationally, to offer the following qualities that have been voiced:

- Embracing all identities and teaching in culturally responsive ways;
- Individualized learning;
- Mixed-age;
- A diverse student body and staff;
- A safe, inclusive learning community;
- Hands-on learning opportunities;
- A small, intimate school community that fosters a strong sense of belonging.

WMPSC will open access for families wishing to enroll their children in a public Montessori school across Aurora, especially those closer to Buckley Space Force in southeast and east Aurora where there are limited options. While there are existing independent Montessori schools in the area, they do not offer a micro school environment steeped in the Wildflower principle of equity, and tuition can often be unaffordable for the target population WMPSC seeks to serve. Montessori School of Aurora, an independent Montessori school in southwest Aurora, has recently closed due to the sale of the business to Kindercare, leaving several families looking for a small-scale Montessori option. Guidepost Montessori, a large independent Primary-focused school opened its doors recently, also in southwest Aurora.

WMPSC also offers a unique opportunity because the Wildflower Montessori model is inherently designed to support students on an individual and differentiated basis, a model made even more possible by the small size of our microsites - proximal to areas of Aurora where Montessori does not exist. Our Teacher Leaders co-create their microsite with the community, offering individualized support for every student, especially multilingual learners, students with disabilities and mental health needs, and students identified as gifted and talented.

PA.4. Family Engagement

The Montessori pedagogy is inherently child-focused and individualized. WMPSC parents and guardians will be provided frequent personalized student reports through the use of the Transparent Classroom record-keeping system, as well as attend conference cycles three times per year. Teacher Leaders will immediately and intentionally connect with and engage families in the learning process through home visits before the beginning of school and the initial conference cycle. We plan to create an opportunity for students to visit the classroom before the start of the school year for a 20-30 minutes session to participate in sample Montessori lessons. This early introduction to the school environment gives the children the opportunity to engage with the Teacher Leaders in the classroom, parents and guardians the chance to continue establishing a relationship with Teacher Leaders, and all adults time to observe the children's "work" as they become familiarized with the materials, guides and environment.

The multi-age classroom, wherein a student has the same Teacher Leader for a three-year cycle, is a Montessori element that provides consistency in teaching, learning, and family engagement. The microsite model is intentionally designed for direct and honest communication between home and school. In this model, Teacher Leaders know their students well and share proactively and swiftly on their academic and social-emotional progress.

Our microsites will engage in traditions, activities, and events that strengthen the school-family partnership. Teacher Leaders at each site develop these activities within the context of communities' culture and traditions. WMPSC ensures that all families can access a Montessori education for their child, regardless of their availability to volunteer, and, as such, there is no requirement for parents to volunteer at the school. Our sites are not reliant on parent volunteer hours. Still, Teacher Leaders will provide a range of volunteer opportunities to meet parents' varying schedules, interests, and skill sets, and family involvement will be encouraged, depending on the capacity of the family. WMPSC will encourage parents to volunteer and keep an updated list of specific ways parents can support the site and their children's learning, both in person and at home.

Families will be integral members of our Community Design Teams and the School Accountability Committee. Our WMPSC Board of Directors will include parents/guardians. Per the Bylaws, the Board of Directors requires two parents/guardian representatives. As such, parents will be involved at all levels of school governance and advising. Teacher Leaders at each site will decide on additional parent/guardian volunteer roles, such as:

- Community liaison
- Activity support or lead (such as music/yoga)
- Field trip support
- Translator
- Advisory Council

We are sensitive to our founding families' linguistic, technological, and particular communication needs. In collaboration with families and in accordance with their needs, Teacher Leaders will make site-based decisions around using phone apps, hard copy information, and/or social media platforms to communicate.

During home visits and registration, Teacher Leaders will ask parents how they would like to receive information and communications. For non-urgent concerns or those who would like to schedule a future visit/appointment with the Teacher Leaders, email will typically be used (with policies giving Teacher Leaders a 24-48 hr time frame to respond Monday-Friday). Teacher Leaders may use Bloomz, Seesaw or other applications for urgent messages or concerns that can be solved quickly. This kind of medium can also help communicate things like snow days, school closures, and other things that need immediate attention. Alongside plans to leverage technology to support school communications, we will ultimately honor families' preferred vehicle to ensure they can each access school information and opportunities for involvement effectively and comfortably.

Like we have done in our current community engagement efforts, we will make every effort to ensure our family communications are communicated in English and Spanish, at a minimum. We will prioritize translating our communications into the other languages our families speak to ensure that communication is accessible to all family members; we recognize the need to also communicate in Korean, Vietnamese, Amharic and securing translation services is part of our Planning Year calendar. Teacher Leaders may facilitate monthly family meetings to build community by communicating, educating, and informing parents. Example topics include: "What is Montessori?," "What are practical life skills children can practice at home?," and "How can we help our child develop independence?" Additionally, Teacher Leaders will seek and listen to ideas and concerns raised by parents and guardians. Teacher Leaders will make family events, discussion topics, and site-based schedule decisions through advice they receive from community members, emerging situations, and evolving conditions.

PA.5. Childcare Licensing

As of October 2022, Wildflower will have opened two local preschools, one in Denver and one in Adams County/NW Aurora. We have built relationships with both the Office of Early Childhood, which awarded Wildflower with a planning grant for the proposed Aurora charter school, and the Early Childhood Council in Adams County, ECPAC, a critical partner in helping community providers like Wildflower navigate the local licensing landscape. One example of this collaboration is partnering with local councils like ECPAC and Arapahoe Early Childhood Council to understand licensing viability and budgeting implications for facilities of interest to Wildflower through pre-licensing consultations often conducted in advance of lease negotiations.

Last year, Wildflower was invited by EPIC to participate in a working group with OEC and the Governor's Office to rewrite ECE licensing rules and regulations. The specific purpose was to propose revisions that would make it easier for ECE providers to identify and obtain ECE licenses for facilities located in densely populated areas, such as the ECE deserts WMPSC aims to serve in Aurora. The outcome of this working group was a "location hardship" designation that enables providers in urban/suburban settings to consider facilities that do not have 1500 sq feet of adjacent outdoor space as well as spaces that are not on the ground floor without pursuing time intensive waiver processes.

Once Teacher Leaders confirm a site's zip code and begin LOI discussions with prospective landlords, they immediately contact the school's licensing agent accessible on the OEC website to begin building a relationship and tapping into licensing expertise for planning. Teacher Leaders engage licensing agents as early as possible in the process and allow several weeks to clear health and fire inspections following renovations knowing that ECE licensing won't conduct its initial visit until these other agencies have completed their evaluations and certificate of occupancy has been received.

PA.6. Community Engagement

WMPSC centers community engagement in every phase of inception, startup, and operation. Section B.12. details our approach. The Primary (PK) sites are not expansions and follow the same community engagement approach as the elementary sites.

PA.7. Recruitment and Enrollment Process

We implement the following strategies to recruit PreK students:
- Research the community events happening throughout the spring and summer and be as present as possible in the community;
- Introduce ourselves to shops, restaurants, businesses, in the area that potential families may frequent;
- Use printed materials such as big and small flyers, signs, and banners to spread the word;
- Create social media content to promote ourselves;
- Cultivate relationships with various community organizations already providing direct services to families;
- Facilitate opportunities for founding families to be school ambassadors and utilizing our personal connections in the Montessori community to achieve our enrollment goals.

The preschool tuition structure is intentionally designed to be accessible to families in the immediate area of our preschool sites. We conducted an analysis of tuition at similar preschool programs in the Aurora and Metro Denver areas and set the full-pay annual tuition rate at $12,500, the median point for similar schools. This rate is projected to grow by 2.5% annually, similar to the assumed rate of growth for PPR, and less than the state-wide average annual preschool tuition rate increase (5%).

Keeping APS student demographics in mind, where 75% of students qualify for free or reduced lunch, our preschools will also offer discounted tuition for income-qualifying families. The following table summarizes the tuition rate assumptions made in our budget:

Tuition Rate	Tuition Amount, per year	% of Families Paying Rate
Full-pay, 100% of tuition	$12,500	20%
80% of tuition	$10,000	5%
50% of tuition	$6,250	75%

In addition to offering discounted tuition rates, we will also seek qualification as a Colorado Childcare Assistance Program (CCAP) provider. In doing so, families will be eligible to apply public subsidies toward childcare expenses, minimizing out-of-pocket costs. Based on our internal projections, through a combination of discounted tuition and CCAP subsidies, families who qualify for free or reduced lunch can expect to pay between $1,250 and $6,250 per year. With these projected subsidies, average tuition for all preschoolers is $7,688 annually.

With the recent passage of universal preschool legislation in our state, we acknowledge that several changes to the state funding and tuition structures are on the horizon. We remain committed to leveraging public resources to their full extent to enhance accessibility to WMPSC preschools and minimize costs to families. We will continue to incorporate new funding information into our budget projections and plans as it becomes available. The application reflects our best approach to preschool funding and tuition structures based on the information known at this time.

This WMPSC preschool structure is aligned with the successful Wildflower charter model in Minnesota and we will continually evaluate the efficacy of the model, in terms of equity, fiscal health, and meeting all charter goals.

PA.8. Teacher Leader Qualifications

The Primary sites will be led by Teacher Leaders with necessary qualifications and appropriate knowledge in early childhood curriculum content, assessment, and instruction. Teacher Leaders need to:
- Possess an authentic Montessori background and certification;
- Hold an experience with running a school or other non-profit business;
- Committed to operating within the Wildflower model of self-management;
- Desire for ongoing growth and professional development to meet federal and state compliance as well as meet dynamic student educational and social-emotional learning needs;
- Passion for designing and sustaining a culturally responsive school that meets (or exceeds) our charter goals and aligns with the WMPSC commitment to equity and identity affirmation.

The Teacher Leader job description is found in Appendix D_Teacher Leader Job Description.

To reach these requirements, Wildflower Teacher Leaders engage in a 9-18 month School Startup Journey (SSJ) that is intense and self-selecting with the expectation that at least one of two Teacher Leaders at each school will have a minimum of three years of "in-field" teaching experience. Teacher Leaders who have successfully moved through the SSJ and meet charter requirements are considered highly qualified for their positions, as they have engaged in the rigorous visioning and planning process that includes two intense and purposeful Advice Process sessions demonstrating an astute vision of their site, fiscal health and sustainability data, community input, and operationalizing details. Every WMPSC site begins as an idea during the School Startup Journey (Appendix B_Wildflower School Startup Journey Deck) and is realized through self-reflection, community participation, the guidance of the Wildflower network and Shared Services Partner, and the support of all WMPSC staff and The Wildflower Foundation.

The School Startup Journey also affirms a commitment to or experience with running a school or other non-profit business to meet the necessary administrative responsibilities of teacher leadership. Teacher Leaders also begin required MLL training through a CDE-approved program if they do not possess it prior to entering the SSJ.

The School Startup Journey includes a developmental framework organized into four phases: Discovery, Visioning, Planning and Startup. In each stage, Teacher Leaders focus on developing their school plan around core guiding questions (see figure below and detailed in Section H.9.).

School Startup Journey | Birds Eye View

Discovery	Visioning	Planning	Startup

PA.9. Student Referrals

If our Teacher Leaders have evidence of a delay or believe that a child may benefit from specialized services, from observation, universal screener measures, and/or incoming reporting, they take the following steps to coordinate services:

- Raise the concern with charter-wide support staff, such as our Student Services Coordinator or ECE Special Education Teacher and ask an expert to observe the child;
- If the charter-wide contact shares the Teacher Leaders' perspective, the Teacher Leaders will schedule an in person meeting with the family;
- Teacher Leaders will bring their observations to the family without judgment or labeling;
- At that time, the parents decide if they want an evaluation for their child;
- WMPSC will provide parents with resources and connections depending on their child's needs and work with Arapahoe and Adams County Early Childhood Councils to identify key partners for engaging in a coordinated referral process.

During our Planning Year, we will solidify relationships with a diverse range of community organizations to support our families and students. To date, we have formed relationships with Nexstaff and ENRICH Early Intervention Services.

PA.10. Special Education Program

WMPSC is committed to serving all students in Aurora who want to enroll, including those with physical disabilities, Individual Education Plans (IEPs), 504 plans, Multilingual Learners, Gifted and Talented, students with mental health needs, and educationally disadvantaged students. The WMPSC's vision, mission, core values and norms, and principles create a positive and collaborative learning environment for all students to be who they are within a scaffolded and caring learning community. As such, the WMPSC early childhood special education program includes comprehensive identification procedures, service provision, staffing, special education materials, progress monitoring, and program evaluation.

WMPSC will use the MTSS framework and the RTI process as a prevention-based tool to identify and monitor student progress and intervention support as needed throughout the school year to ensure students are growing both academically and emotionally. This is used in combination with the Montessori Child Study Protocol, described in Section D and detailed in Appendix D_Child Study Protocol. The MTSS programming is designed to be a comprehensive system to support the needs of all students through evidence-based strategies, while the Child Study Protocol is a framework for facilitating the process of implementing MTSS, which includes structuring Child Study Team (CST) meetings, identifying the lagging skill that is impeding the child's academic or social-emotional development, generating a specific intervention to address that lagging skill, observing the child's progress and collecting data about the effectiveness of that intervention over an identified period, and then revisiting the progress based on the intervention.

PA.11. Staffing Plan

A ratio of 1 instructor per 8 students is maintained at all times. Each preschool site will be staffed by two full-time Teacher Leaders and two full-time Teacher Leader Assistants. ECE Special Education Teacher and a School Psychologist are also available to support preschool students as needed and are not included in the 8:1 student-to-instructor ratios. The ECE Special Education Teacher is maintained at a 1:150 ratio. Specialists, such as Speech-Language therapists, will be contracted, detailed in Section E. Other, charter-wide staff, such as the Shared Services Partner and Student Services Coordinator, support the preschool sites and Teacher Leaders.

The WMPSC organizational chart references how our preschool (Primary) sites are part of the WMPSC ecosystem (Appendix D_Org Chart).

PA.12. Pre-School Enrollment Policy

WMPSC will conduct a lottery for all 3 and 4 year old spots if there are more Intent to Enroll forms than available spaces in the preschool program. The full enrollment policy for the preschool program can be found in Appendix I_Policy_Enrollment Draft.

PA.13. Facility Plan

We understand that securing a facility is a difficult and time-consuming effort so we are already building a team to support this endeavor for all our sites, and specifically the Primary sites that will be located in the northwest and east regions of Aurora. We believe an approved charter expedites the facility search process, and we have made inroads and are building relationships with key partners so we can take action on facilities quickly once we obtain authorizer approval. Additionally, the small scale of our sites provides a significant advantage not feasible for more traditional, larger schools. As described above, we have already identified viable facility options that meet criteria for the initial WMPSC Primary (PK) site and align with our mission and vision.

In order to search and secure a site, Founding Teacher Leaders follow a facility timeline that centers the needs of the community and Teacher Leaders. The timeline for our two microsites is below:

	Description	Responsible	Timing
Site 1 Engage Community Design Teams	Explore different options and engage with potential co-location partners	TLs Interim SSP Realtor Advisor: Alex King, pro bono	Winter 2022-23

PA.14. Pre-School Budget

The table below summarizes the key revenue and expense drivers related to our preschool program. Because the primary site is inclusive of preschool and kindergarten aged students, most expenses are shared across both groups of students. Expenses are proportionately charged against preschool revenues, based on the number of preschoolers enrolled compared to the overall total number of primary students, to ensure appropriate alignment with preschool revenues and preschool expenses.

Revenue and Expense inflation	A standard assumption of 2% annual expense growth is included. Growth assumptions in revenue vary by funding stream and are noted below.

Revenues
Contributions and Donations	Secured funds only. Includes a grant received from Wend Collective totaling $100,000 ($70,000 in Year 0 and $30,000 in Year 1). Amount of funds to go toward preschool expenses to be prorated based on enrollment
Financing	$110,000 loan per site, in site planning years for each site. Offered by the Sunlight Fund with terms of 3% interest and 7-year repayment, to begin in year 3 of site's operations. Amount of funds to go toward preschool expenses to be prorated based on enrollment
Preschool Tuition Revenue	Tuition: $12,500 per qualifying pupil, 3 and 4 year olds, per year Tuition will be set on a sliding scale based on family ability to pay. Assumes 20% of families will pay full-rate tuition, and 80% of families will pay a reduced rate. Partial rate payees may also qualify for CCAP to subsidize the cost. Tuition rate increases by 2.5% annually, in line with assumptions made for PPR growth.

Colorado Preschool Program (CPP) Funding	$5,276.05 per qualifying pupil, 3 and 4 year olds. Preschool opens in Year 1 of charter, CPP eligibility assumed to begin in Year 2. Based on half-day (50%) of estimated 2022-23 Aurora Public Schools PPR rate. Assumes 75% of 3 and 4 year olds qualify for a CPP and slot. Increases by 2.5% annually, in line with typical PPR yearly growth.

Expenses

Note: Site-specific expenses will be shared based on the proportion of preschoolers enrolled at the site. Charter-wide expenses will be shared based on the proportion of preschoolers enrolled in the charter.

Salaries of Regular Employees	Teacher Leaders: average $60,000 per FTE Teacher Leader Assistant: average $32,500 per FTE Shared Services Partner: $85,000 Student Services Coordinator: $60,000 Finance Partner: $78,000 Special Education Teacher: average $50,000 per FTE School Psychologist: $68,000 FTE allocations by year can be found in Section G
Salaries of Temporary Employees - Subs	Substitutes at $160/day. Assumes 5 days per instructor (Teacher Leaders and Teacher Leader Assistant) per year. Includes contracted time for Teacher Leaders (TLs) in site planning year. Assumes 80% FTE for 2 TLs for 2 months.
Medicare	Calculated as 1.45% of total payroll, including both regular and temporary employees.
Social Security	Calculated as 6.2% of total payroll, including both regular and temporary employees. Year 0 only.
PERA Expense	20.4% of total payroll, beginning in Year 1. Rate increase of 0.25% annually to address the unfunded pension obligation. Cost driver based on state-wide expense data.
Health Insurance	$5,000 per employee per year. Assumes single premium coverage with 80% of employees eligible/participating.
Dental Insurance	$360 per employee per year. Assumes single premium coverage with 80% of employees eligible/participating.
Banking and Payroll Service Fees	$120 per employee per year.
Professional Education Services	Professional development and contracted staff to provide student support. Professional development: $4,000 per TL/year and $1,500 per TL Assistant, Special Educator and non-instructional staff member/year Student Supports School Psychologist: $6,500, starting in Year 1 Physical Therapist: $2,500, starting in Year 1

Occupational Therapist: $2,500, starting in Year 1
Speech Language Pathologist: $5,000, starting in Year 1
Consulting Nurse: $3,000, starting in Year 1
Investment in Student Supports professional development grows in proportion to projected student enrollment each year.

Legal Services	$5,000 for start-up needs in Year 0 and $3,000 in Year 1 and forward.
Audit and Accounting Services	Average of $10,000 per year budgeted for independent annual audit. Contracted financial management and accounting services budgeted in first years of charter (Y0-Y2). Financial management will transition to in-house Finance Partner starting Y3.
Consultant Services	$10,000 in Year 0 for Facilities and HR support. Restricted totals in Year 1-Year 5 are set-aside funds to support students who qualify for special services to meet their unique needs. These set-asides are funded with Title I and IDEA funds.
Technical Services	$1,500 per site in planning years. $500 per site annually ongoing.
Utility Services	Average of $400 per site per month for water, sewage, gas and electric.
Repairs and Maintenance Service	5% of annual rent costs
Rental of Land and Buildings	Calculated per site based on an average of 30 sq ft/student at a cost of $25/sq ft. Cost per square foot is based on the high-end of the range of available commercial space in the targeted regional area.
Rental of Equipment	$500 per site per year.
Insurance	Liability/Building/Theft/Fidelity with growth in alignment to increased enrollment and number of facilities. Based on quote obtained for the purposes of budget planning.
Unemployment Insurance	Calculated as 0.3% of total payroll. Cost driver provided by CSI.
Workers' Comp Insurance	Calculated as $2.00 per $100 of payroll. Cost driver provided by CSI.
Advertising, Marketing and Recruiting	$5,000 budgeted in Year 0. $3,000 budgeted annually beginning in Year 1 and forward.

General Supplies	Instructional materials and curriculum. Assumes $15,000 one-time expense per site for suite of Montessori materials and $2,000 per site for special education and social-emotional support curriculum. Average of $5,000 per site allocated for annual materials replenishment.
Food and Meeting Expenses	$4,000 in Year 0 and $2,000 annually in future years for Board support and development.
Leasehold Improvements	$40,000 per site for renovations in planning year. Renovation costs for sites opening in Year 2 of the charter are distributed across Year 1 and Year 2 of the budget (totaling $40,000 per site).
Furniture and Fixtures	$10,000 per site in planning year. Average of 10% budgeted annually for repairs and replacement.
Dues and Fees	Average of $2,000 per year.
Contingency	Annual set-aside for unanticipated expenses or cost increases. Grows as number of sites and student enrollment increases.
Miscellaneous Expenditures	Wildflower School Contribution are costs associated with training, coaching, and brand use specific to Wildflower model. Expense begins in the first year of site operations. Additional information on the benefits received from Wildflower are detailed in Appendix G_Wildflower Network Membership in Action and Appendix G_Wildflower Membership Agreement.
Interest Expense	3% annual, based on balance of Sunlight Fund
Redemption of Principle	7-year repayment of loans ($110,000 per site). Repayment begins in the third year of site operations.

Re: Notice of New School Charter Application to CSI

Dear Aurora Public Schools Board of Directors and District Accountability Committee,

On or before August 23, 2022, Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC) will submit a new school application to CSI to authorize a multi-site Montessori charter school in Aurora.

Upon determining it has received a complete application, CSI will make WMPSC's complete application available on the CSI website. CSI will also post on its website the schedule by which the application will be evaluated and voted on, the details of the community meeting, instructions regarding how the school may request additional information, and an invitation of the local board to send any concerns regarding any portion of the application. The Board of Education and District Accountability Committee may each comment on the application, amendment, or supplement to CSI, in writing, within 30 days of receiving notice from CSI of the submission.

Please acknowledge that this notification was received by sending an email to Rachel.kelley-cohn@wildflowerschools.org no later than August 17, 2022.

Thank you,
Rachel Kelley-Cohn

ADAMS-ARAPAHOE 28J SCHOOL DISTRICT

RESOLUTION
Authorizing Wildflower Montessori to Apply to the Charter School Institute

WHEREAS, pursuant to C.R.S. § 22-30.5-504, the Board of Education ("Board") of Adams-Arapahoe 28J School District (the "District"), is a local board of education that has exclusive chartering authority to authorize charter schools within its geographic boundaries; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to C.R.S. § 22-30.5-504(8), without affecting its exclusive chartering authority, the Board may permit the establishment of one or more Charter School Institute ("CSI") schools within the geographic boundary of the District by adopting a favorable resolution and submitting the resolution to the State Board; and

WHEREAS, the Board would be the authorizer of Wildflower Montessori were it to become a District charter school; and

WHEREAS, Wildflower Montessori applied to become a District charter school commencing in the 2022-2023 school year; and

WHEREAS, on May 13, 2022, Wildflower Montessori submitted a written request to the District Superintendent that Wildflower Montessori be allowed to apply to CSI to become a CSI school; and

WHEREAS, the District Superintendent has recommended that the Board approve Wildflower Montessori's request to apply to CSI because there are programmatic advantages to Wildflower Montessori by being chartered with CSI; and

WHEREAS, the Board and Wildflower Montessori believe that it would be in their respective best interests to allow Wildflower Montessori to apply to the CSI to become a CSI school; and

WHEREAS, the Board is willing to allow Wildflower Montessori to apply to CSI subject to Wildflower Montessori's compliance with the Rules for Administration of the State Charter School Institute (1 CCR 302-1) and other applicable law.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Education as follows:

1.   The Board hereby authorizes Wildflower Montessori to apply to become a CSI school in accordance with C.R.S. § 22-30.5-504(8).

2. The Board's authority granted in this resolution is limited to Wildflower Montessori's proposed application to CSI and shall not be construed in any manner as a voluntary relinquishment of the Board's exclusive chartering authority, which exclusive chartering authority the Board hereby expressly reserves and retains.

Approved and adopted this 17 day of May 2022.

Public Schools of Colorado

Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, & Belonging Agreement

The mission of Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC) is to provide families with child-centered, authentic Montessori education that bridges academic outcomes and social-emotional development through intimate learning communities deeply rooted in place, equity and belonging.

WMPSC centers our collective commitment to diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging; all employees and voting and nonvoting board members will sign this agreement. We name below our definitions of these terms so we all have a common understanding of what must be true within WMPSC to embark on our mission. We outline a path to learning and growing together and as individuals so that we can design the future we envision for our children.

Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC) is committed to diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging across our charter and all stakeholders.

- Diversity: Encompassing a wide range of identities, including race, ethnicity, gender, age, national origin, religion, ability / disability, sexuality, socioeconomic status, education, marital status, language, veteran status, physical appearance, political ideology, life experiences, etc.
- Equity: Access, opportunity, and advancement that ensures all people have what they need to be successful, while acknowledging that there are historically underserved and underrepresented populations and striving to identify and eliminate barriers that have prevented the full participation of some groups.
- Inclusion: An environment in which any individual or group can be and feel welcomed, respected, supported, and valued as a fully participating member; one that embraces differences and respects all people.
- Belonging: The feeling that an individual is an important member of a group; that one readily identifies as a member of the group and feels a sense of connection, security, and affinity within it.[1]

[1] University of Washington, Office of DEIB

We believe that working and modeling DEIB requires a shared agreement; tools and supports; and recursive embedded reflection to iterate on our practice and keep our agreement dynamic and alive.

As a member of the WMPSC community, we share an agreement to:
1. Decenter whiteness and White Supremacy Cultural Norms
2. Engage in individual and community DEIB professional and personal development, such as Equity X Design
3. Take action to counter structures and systems of white supremacy that impact our community directly and indirectly
4. Commit to interrogating and actively countering Domination Culture with tools like, "Brene Brown on Power and Leadership" and Design for Belonging

We are supported to grow in our practice of DEIB using the following tools and supports to take action:
1. Pedro Noguera's Excellence in Equity framework to align with the Colorado landscape
2. Montessori peace practices cultivated through Montessori for Social Justice and other Montessori-based ABAR organizations and resources.
3. Independent self-driven activities or tools that support action.

We are held accountable to embed DEIB in all facets of WMPSC - governance, operations, enrollment, internal relationships, community-engagement, teaching and learning – by engaging in recursive, embedded reflection to iterate on our practice:
1. Equity Roadmap used during board development and organizational design
2. Application of Equity X Design principles to school and organizational design
3. Center DEIB reflections in all staff self-reflection and evaluation practices
4. Equity Report meeting and improvement planning process no less than annually with resources like the Education Board Partners Equity Toolkit

The School Startup Journey

The School Startup Journey is the process through which an Emerging Teacher Leader opens their Wildflower school.

The journey is divided into four phases: Discovery, Visioning, Planning and Startup. While every journey is unique, Wildflower has noted that many teachers take between 15 - 18 months to open their school.

DISCOVERY

"I am learning about Wildflower and reflecting on my alignment and readiness to start a Wildflower school."

VISIONING

"I am immersing myself in my community, articulating my "why" and my school's vision."

PLANNING

"We are designing the operational building blocks of our school."

STARTUP

Discovery | overview & milestones

Purpose

The Discovery phase is an opportunity to learn about:
- Wildflower schools and Teacher Leaders
- The Wildflower Foundation
- Wildflower's purpose and how we work together

Time
- This phase is self-guided and self-paced. We estimate that it may take 3-6 weeks to engage fully with the content and self-assessment, but we understand that each teacher's journey is unique.

Milestones

- Complete the self-assessment
- Engage in a conversation with a Wildflower Operations Guide or partner to decide whether to begin the journey of opening a Wildflower school.

Overview   Discovery

Preview the Self-Assessment

At the end of Discovery we invite you to take a brief self-assessment to reflect on your interest and readiness to open a Wildflower school.

If you'd like to take a sneak peek at the self-assessment now, you're welcome to.

Once you have completed the assessment at the end of this phase, we invite you to share your self-assessment with your local Wildflower contact and schedule a follow-up conversation to discuss your reflections and next steps.

Personal Reflection

As you begin this phase, take a few minutes to ground yourself in why you are here by reflecting on these questions:

- What intrigues me about Wildflower?
- What am I hoping to learn by completing this phase?

You can reflect on these questions, discuss them with a friend or partner, or write down your responses in a journal. Your answers are your own and are only meant to serve you.

Learning Objectives

- Engage with your community to assess their needs
- Articulate your "why"
- Articulate your school's vision
- Learn about Wildflower's advice process and conflict resolution process

Time

- This phase generally takes 1-3 months, 12-18 months before opening your school
- This phase can be done individually or as a team

Milestones

- Complete a Visioning Album
- Collect advice from an advice panel of Wildflower teacher leaders and school community members to decide whether to continue the journey of opening a Wildflower school

Overview   Visioning

Visioning Checklist

During Visioning, these are some of the main things you will do:

- ❏ Engage with learning resources
- ❏ Attend Wildflower community events, like the Teacher Leader Stories series and local hub events
- ❏ Complete a Visioning Album
- ❏ Learn about the Wildflower Advice Process and Conflict Resolution
- ❏ Select an advice panel
- ❏ Complete the advice process on your album
- ❏ Decide whether to continue along the School Startup Journey

It takes a community of support to move through the SSJ!
Your Operations Guide will be your first line of support with the activities on this list.

Visioning Album

Your Visioning Album is a workbook where you will start crafting your school vision, explore your community's needs and articulate your personal "why."

Click here to open your album in English or Spanish

The learning resources on the following slides can support you as you create your album.

Album Examples

There are many ways to complete your School Startup Album. The most common is by writing your album, but some teams have experimented with using audio, video and visuals to bring their vision to life.

Click here to see several examples of Visioning Albums (previously called Exploration Albums)

WF Community & Culture | building relationships

Visioning is a great time to begin making connections with members of the Wildflower community!

If you are located in a hub with existing Wildflower schools: you may want to schedule a time to visit a school and speak with the Teacher Leaders.

If you are not located in a hub or are the first school in your region: you may want to schedule a phone call or Zoom meeting with Teacher Leaders to learn about their lived experience. Your Ops Guide can help you to make these connections.

Your Story | inspiration

Your story is the anchor for why the school exists. As you build relationships in your community and invite others to join you in bringing your school to life, it will be important to return to your "why."

Listen to Stacy Abrams for some guidance and inspiration. Then, head to your album and complete the "Your Story" exercise.

3 Questions to Ask Yourself About Everything You Do <12 min>

Corina Velazquez, Founder and Teacher Leader of The Rose School, South Bronx, NYC

"My why— why open my own school, why Wildflower, why Rose—is to invest in underserved communities like the communities where I come from here in New York City. The core of my work is investing in Black, Indigenous, and People of Color and providing liberatory education. Living into that investment as a Teacher Leader has been an incredible journey."

Overview   Visioning

Family & Community Engagement | place and community

It is never too early to begin thinking about the ways in which your school will exist at the intersection of people and place.

Watch Bryan Stevenson's video We Need to Talk about an Injustice for an inspiring call to work in proximity with your community.

Next, head to your album and complete the "Place & Community" and "Engagement & Partnerships" sections.

Planning | overview & milestones

Learning Objectives
- Develop the operational plans for your school (e.g., budget, facility, marketing)
- Expand school leadership skills
- Formally affiliate with the Wildflower Network

Time
- This phase typically takes 3-6 months, 9-12 months before opening your school
- This phase is typically completed as a team. If you do not yet have a partner, you may want to discuss your timeline with your Operations Guide as partnership can impact both timeline and access to funding.

Milestones
- Complete your Planning Album
- Collect advice from an advice panel of Wildflower teacher leaders and community members
- With your board, decide whether to affiliate the school with Wildflower

Overview   Planning

Planning Checklist

During Planning, these are some of the main things you will do:

- ❏ Identify a co-leader partner
- ❏ Refine your school's vision
- ❏ Complete your Planning album
- ❏ Engage your local community and build relationships within Wildflower
- ❏ Select your school's name using the Wildflower name selection process
- ❏ Legally incorporate the business
- ❏ Form the school's board
- ❏ Hold first board meeting; adopt board governance bylaws and policies
- ❏ Develop the school's operating budget
- ❏ Conduct facilities search
- ❏ Assemble a facilities team
- ❏ Complete the advice process on your Planning album
- ❏ Decide with the board whether to affiliate the school with Wildflower

Overview   Planning

Project Management | timeline and dependencies

As you enter the Planning phase, the number of tasks can begin to feel a bit overwhelming.

To help you organize the work, Wildflower offers this project management tool aligned with the School Startup Journey.

As you organize your work, and plan your timeline, please note that Affiliation is a prerequisite for the following actions in the next phase:

- Applying for and receiving Wildflower funding (grants & loans)
- Applying for nonprofit status using the Wildflower Group Exemption
- Requesting a school logo
- Publishing your school website

For this reason, we recommend that schools complete the Planning phase and affiliate at least 6 months prior to school opening.

Overview   Planning

Planning Album

Your Planning Album is a place to start creating the operational building blocks of your school, including your first budget model, community engagement plans and facility research.

Planning Advice Process

At the end of this phase you will share your album with your advice panel, just as you did in Visioning.

Once again, this advice panel will help you look at your album from different vantage points.

After integrating their advice, you'll decide whether you would like to continue with your journey and affiliate your school with the Wildflower Network.

Watch this 5 minute video to refresh your memory on the advice process!

Overview   Planning

WF Community & Culture | connection opportunities

There are many opportunities to engage with the Wildflower community as you move through the SSJ!

Hub/Pod Meetings
Join regular hub/pod meetings in your region to get to know your local teacher leader network.

Teacher Leader Stories Series
Join a space held for emerging teacher leaders, as current teacher leaders share their experience of opening and running a Wildflower school.

Affinity Spaces
Wildflower's racial affinity groups support racial identity development in the context of Wildflower's purpose, norms, and values. We currently have a black affinity space and a PoC (People of Color) affinity space that meet regularly.

Planning advice process

When your planning album is complete, and you feel prepared to move ahead with the process, it is time to lead your Planning advice session.

Once again, you will:
1. Invite your advice givers
2. Share your album in advance (we recommend giving at least 1 week of time for your advice givers to engage with your album)
3. Convene your advice panel
4. Synthesize the advice you receive
5. Close the loop by sharing your summary and decision

Milestone | Wildflower affiliation

Once you have completed the Advice Process, you and your partner will decide whether to affiliate the school with Wildflower.

Startup | overview & milestones

Learning Objectives
- Learn how to use common school operations tools and platforms (such as Quickbooks Online, Gusto and Transparent Classroom)
- Put your school operational plans into action
- Learn how to oversee complex projects; such as building renovations and licensing applications

Time
- This phase generally takes 6 - 9 months but can be heavily impacted by admissions timelines, funding constraints and facilities/construction processes.
- Regular timeline check-ins are common
- This phase is typically completed as a team.

Milestones
- Open the school to children and families!

Overview   Startup

Startup Checklist

- ❏ Sign a lease for your facility
- ❏ Apply for nonprofit status
- ❏ Apply for & receive Wildflower startup funding
- ❏ Publish school website
- ❏ Design logo
- ❏ Oversee your facility renovations
- ❏ Set tuition
- ❏ Licensing paperwork and approval
- ❏ Set up payroll and bookkeeping systems
- ❏ Select and set up staff benefits
- ❏ Hire staff
- ❏ Prepare classroom plans and schedules
- ❏ Enroll children
- ❏ Host family events
- ❏ Open doors and celebrate!

Startup Operations Handbook

Your Startup Operations Handbook is a place to store key information and plans related to your school operations. The hope is that this handbook continues to be useful to you after school opening.

Finance

Finance | finalize your budget

As you make more decisions regarding your enrollment, staffing, tuition, facility, rent and renovations, it is important to continually update your budget.

We recommend that you work with your Operations Coach to finalize your budget using these updated costs.

In the course of finalizing your budget you will also finalize your tuition - an important step prior to publishing your tuition on your website and enrolling families.

Facilities | purchasing classroom materials

We recommend reviewing this list of vendors for Montessori materials and furniture.

Community & Family Engagement | marketing resources

Once your school has affiliated with Wildflower, you have access to Wildflower's marketing and branding resources.

As you create your school's marketing materials, we encourage you to explore this Wildflower Marketing Starter Kit. Embedded in this kit are four key links to Wildflower marketing assets:

1. Professional Wildflower school photos: taken of some of the first Wildflower schools
2. Wildflower Illustrations: created by Wildflower graphic designer Kim Smith
3. Wildflower Style Guide: includes suggested colors, fonts, and images to use to market your school.
4. Montessori Quotes: compiled by Wildflower Teacher Leaders over the years

Community & Family Engagement | create & publish school website

Once your school has affiliated, you are welcome to publish the school's website. If your content is ready to go, this should be a fairly quick process! Wildflower currently offers two website options:

Use Wildflower's Wordpress Template

Benefits: easy setup; Wildflower editing support

Drawbacks: challenging interface; limited customization options

Example: Wildwood Montessori

Design your own website

Many schools use Wix or Squarespace

Benefits: flexibility and greater customization

Drawbacks: limited Wildflower support with setup or editing

Example: Roxbury Roots Montessori

Small Group Check-In

"Most dark suffering does not make the nightly news or our social media posts. If we are honest, most dark suffering goes unnoticed by too many Americans, but America's educational history is overrun with dark suffering... I call this the educational survival complex, in which students are left learning to merely survive, learning how schools mimic the world they live in, thus making schools a training site for a life of exhaustion."

"Freedom dreaming gives teachers a collective space to methodically tear down the educational survival complex and collectively rebuild a school system that truly loves all children and sees schools as children's home places, where students are encouraged to give this world hell."

-- From We Want To Do More Than Survive: Abolitionist Teaching and The Pursuit of Educational Freedom by Dr. Bettina Love

Grupos pequeños

"La mayoría del sufrimiento oscuro no aparece en las noticias nocturnas ni en nuestras publicaciones en las redes sociales. Si somos honestos, la mayoría de los sufrimientos oscuros pasan desapercibidos para demasiados estadounidenses, pero la historia educativa de Estados Unidos está plagada de sufrimientos oscuros... Yo llamo a esto el complejo educativo de supervivencia, en el que los estudiantes se quedan aprendiendo a simplemente sobrevivir, aprendiendo cómo las escuelas imitan el mundo en el que viven, haciendo así de las escuelas un lugar de entrenamiento para una vida de agotamiento".

"Freedom dreaming brinda a los maestros un espacio colectivo para derribar metódicamente el complejo educativo de supervivencia y re-construir colectivamente un sistema escolar que realmente ame a todos los niños y vea a las escuelas como lugares de origen para los niños, donde se alienta a los estudiantes a hacer que este mundo sea un infierno".

-- De Queremos hacer más que sobrevivir: Enseñanza abolicionista y la búsqueda de la libertad educativa por la Dra. Bettina Love

Small Group Check-In

Imagine yourself as a student. Free yourself of all you know and have experienced within public education up to this point. Imagine a universe in which anything is possible in education and dream your ideal school. Pick an age/grade level. Write a journal entry that describes your day. Write in first person, but don't feel the need to write like a student, instead use your adult writing capacities.

What was your day like? What did you do? What did you see and hear? What excited you about the day? What challenges came up and how were they handled?

Seguimiento en grupos pequeños

Imagínate a ti mismo como un estudiante. Libérate de todo lo que sabes y has experimentado dentro de la educación pública hasta este momento. Imagina un universo en el que todo es posible en educación y sueña tu colegio ideal. Elija una edad/nivel de grado. Escribe una entrada de diario que describa tu día. Escribe en primera persona, pero no sientas la necesidad de escribir como un estudiante, en su lugar usa tus capacidades de escritura adulta.

Small Group Check-In

- Move into groups.
- Select one person in your group to identify common themes and key elements of each person's vision.
- Then, have each group member share/read their journal entry to the group.
- Return to whole group: one person in each group will share the common themes and key elements.

Seguimiento en grupos pequeños

- Integrarse a sus grupos.
- Seleccione una persona en su grupo para identificar temas comunes y elementos clave de la visión de cada persona.
- Luego, haga que cada miembro del grupo comparta/lea su entrada de diario al grupo.
- Regrese a el grupo general: una persona en cada grupo compartirá los temas comunes y los elementos clave.

Co-Creating Schools with the Community

- Each Wildflower school site will be co-created with the Teacher Leaders and a Community Design Team: within Wildflower's principles, how do we ensure that schools are representative of what the community wants and needs?
- Visions/feedback we are hearing from the community:
  - Choice: students making choices about what they want to learn.
  - Community-Embeddedness — mentors from outside the school, local businesses, community festivals and gardens, etc.
  - Beauty: beautiful environments with quality materials.
  - Nature: access to nature and outdoor space.
  - Liberation: being accepted for exactly who you as an individual are.
  - Whole Child: learning that centers our hearts.
  - Inclusivity

Co-Creating Schools with the Community

- Cada ubicación escolar de Wildflower se creará conjuntamente con los maestros líderes y un equipo de diseño comunitario: dentro de los principios de Wildflower, ¿cómo nos aseguramos de que las escuelas representen lo que la comunidad quiere y necesita?
- Visiones/retroalimentación que estamos escuchando de la comunidad:
  - Elección: estudiantes que toman decisiones sobre lo que quieren aprender.
  - Integración en la comunidad: mentores de fuera de la escuela, negocios locales, festivales y jardines comunitarios, etc.
  - Belleza: hermosos ambientes con materiales de calidad.
  - Naturaleza: acceso a la naturaleza y al espacio exterior.
  - Liberación: ser aceptado exactamente por lo que eres como individuo.
  - Niño completo: aprendizaje que centra nuestros corazones.
  - Inclusión

WMPSC Vision + Mission

Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado cultivates beautiful ecosystems of wildflowers - vibrant, one of a kind learning environments that are open-hearted, liberating, strongly rooted in place and community, and deeply connected to one another and to the natural world.

WMPSC's mission is to provide an exemplary Montessori education that centers children and integrates rigorous academic standards with social emotional learning outcomes. Our small, neighborhood-nested schools are co-created with community and across lines of racial and socio-economic difference; they honor our unique identities and cultivate a transformative sense of belonging.

How Can You Get Involved?

- Fill out an interest form
  - Let us know that you are interested in sending your child to a Wildflower charter school, serving children pre-K to 6th grade in the Aurora School District. This form is used to demonstrate an interest in having your child(ren) enroll but does not obligate the student to attend nor does it guarantee admission.
- Mark your calendars to attend the APS board meeting: May 17
- Stay in touch! Fill out this survey so we can add you to our listserv and get your feedback on our work!

¿Cómo te puedes involucrar?

- Complete un formulario de interés
  Háganos saber que está interesado en enviar a su hijo a una escuela chárter Wildflower, que atiende a niños de preescolar a octavo grado en el distrito escolar de Aurora. Este formulario se utiliza para demostrar interés en que su(s) hijo(s) se inscriba(n), pero no obliga al estudiante a asistir ni garantiza la admisión.

- Cuéntale a tu familia y amigos sobre nuestras próximas juntas:
  - Sábado, 12 de febrero a las 10:00 a.m.
  - Miércoles 23 de febrero a las 17:30
  - Sábado, 5 de marzo a las 10:00 a.m.

- Marque sus calendarios para asistir a la reunión de la junta de APS: 17 de mayo

WMPSC Discovery Interview Framework

Key Outcomes:

- ☐ Building relational trust and creating space for deep listening, intimacy, new perspectives, and genuine learning.
- ☐ Learning more about the people most impacted by, and involved in, the educational issues you seek to offer an alternative to through launching WF.

Pre-Interview

Connect with 10+ families who live/attend schools within their target neighborhood and set up one-on-one, in-person interviews (~30 min each). Ideally these interviews happen in-person. Identify a time and space that feels safe (home visit, coffee shop) and convenient for the student/family participating.

These interviews shouldn't feel transactional. Walk into them completely open to the possibility that these students and families may not join the design team and may not enroll at a WF school. Maintain the stance of a learner and listener who is not trying to "solve" anything.

Interview

- Introduction
  - Based on your relationship with this student/family, pause to introduce yourself. Who are you? Where do you come from? What brought you to this moment?
  - Describe why you are conducting the interviews and how you will use the data.
  - State that each question is voluntary.
- Interview
  - Ask for stories, not solutions.
  - Make sure questions are free of acronyms and jargon.
  - Stay neutral and ensure you aren't asking questions that suggest a right answer.
  - Include questions about experiences in a range of contexts for a broad picture. For example, when asking about a sense of belonging in school, ask about belonging in other settings as well.
  - Ask open-ended, story-based questions. Remix or start with the ones below:
    - What are your needs/hopes/dreams for your child's educational experience?
      - What does that ideal educational experience look like/sound like/feel like for you and your child?
    - What have been your best/worst experiences with school?
      - Follow-up: Can you share a story that would help me understand more about...?
    - Tell me about a time when you felt connectedness within a larger community.
    - What kind of role do you want to play in your students' educational experience/school?

Questions for Families

- Tell me about your child, especially as a learner.
- What kind of environments/situations does your child thrive in?
- What has your child's school experience been to date?
- What type of person do you want your child to be in the future? How do you want their school to prepare them for their future?
- As a parent how do you feel connected and heard ?
- What unique strengths do you see in your child(ren)? How are they or aren't they supported in their current (school) communities?
  - What do you see as your child's unique power (for good) in the world and how do you envision that being nurtured by those who support your child and your family in an ideal world?
- What do you want your child(ren) to know/feel/learn as they move through their elementary years?
- Tell me about your hopes and dreams for … in elementary
- Where do you plan to enroll your child for school and why?
- Have you explored the various education models that are available to you based on where you live?
- What are some things that are challenging about where your child currently goes to school? What are some things that are going well at your child's current school?
- Is there anything I haven't asked you that you'd like to share to help me understand your experience?
- As we move forward with our Community Design Team for families to get involved in the co-creation of this school, what's the best for us to spread the word about that? Are you interested in joining these meetings?
  - If so, what is your general availability/preference for a monthly meeting?

Questions for Partner Organizations

- What are the stories you've heard about experiences in education in this area from families with whom you work?
  - Where do they look for schools?
  - What are they looking for in a school?
  - What challenges do they face in the educational system here?
- What, in your experience, might invite a family's interest in exploring a new school as an option? Or in contributing to that school's vision?
- Are there families to whom you could connect us who might be interested in sharing their children's educational experiences or curious to learn about new options?
- What are some assets/strengths you see in your community, especially those that are emerging (vs. thoroughly established)?
- What are some needs of families in your community that currently lack adequate support?
- What questions do you think we should ask partner organizations?
- What is the mission of your organization?
- What does it look like to implement your mission?
- Do you interact with families as part of your mission?
- Let me tell you about Wildflower… Based on my description is there anything I said that is a great fit between our organizations? Any opportunities to collaborate?

What makes our Wildflower charter school different?

- We have clear values and principles that we stick to, including ABAR, equity, home/family connection. We live our principles at Wildflower and hold them front and center.
- SIZE -- these children are going to be seen, known, and safe, particularly important during a time of violence in schools, pandemic learning loss, etc. The size makes it possible to foster and build real community.
- Focus on the whole child -- what's inside the child is just as important as academics.
- Teacher Leaders are empowered to represent and collaborate alongside their communities. There is real collaboration between teachers and families in the community, especially in the school design and decision-making process.
- Teachers have to be themselves -- authentic.
- Targeting BIPOC and low-income communities.

Wildflower Schools - Community Engagement Plan
August-December 2022

Month	Overarching Aim(s)	Key Outcomes
August/ September	Create opportunities for sharing of vision and information with the community about Wildflower and community educational goals.	- Plan and host monthly in-person events with prospective families to build community, provide information about school, and expand outreach. - Continue partner organization meetings and outreach.
October 2022	Expand reach in the community.	- Plan and host monthly in-person events with prospective families to build community, provide information about school, and expand outreach. - Table in the local community to spread the word about WMPSC and solicit intent-to-enroll forms. - Follow up one-on-one with contacts from interest forms. - Continue partner organization meetings and outreach. - Offer a free Montessori class to parents in Aurora community, possibly at Buckley Air Force Base.

Re: Letter of Support for Wildflower Schools

Dear CSI Board,

I am pleased to submit a letter of support for Aurora Wildflower Charter Public Montessori Schools. As public charters, this network of teacher-led Montessori micro-schools will provide an accessible choice for families in the Southeast and Northwest Aurora areas, emphasizing families of the global majority.

The Montessori Education Center of the Rockies (MECR) has trained teachers for over 40 years in Colorado. We firmly believe that the Montessori pedagogy is transformational for educators, families, and most importantly, the world's children. We applaud Wildflower School's vision of liberatory learning environments that center students of the global majority.

MECR looks forward to partnering with interested adult learners to become educators in these community-embedded charter sites. Also, parents and community members who wish to learn more about the Montessori pedagogy are welcome to attend workshops hosted at our training center on the Clayton Early Learning Campus in Denver.

Thank you for considering Wildflower's charter application.

Sincerely,

Laura Alexander

PROJECT WORTHMORE | WORTHMORE CLINIC

RESTORING WORTH TO REFUGEES

Dear CSI's Board of Directors,

I am proud to send this letter of support on behalf of PWM (Project Worthmore) for WildFlower Montessori Public Schools in Aurora. Project Worthmore has been working in the immigrant and refugee community since 2011 and we strategically picked our location to be along the east colfax corridor as this is where most newly arrived refugees begin their new life. This area is the most diverse area in the state.

At Project Worthmore our programs have been built by listening to the community and eliminating the barriers that our clients face. Through this approach we have been able to serve on average 4500 clients annually through our Dental Clinic, Case Management/Community Navigation, English/Citizenship classes, Fresh Food Program, Farming Program, and Family Support Program.

In March of 2021 we purchased the building we are now in at 1666 Elmira in Aurora which sits right in the heart of the community we serve. After purchasing this building we began talking with our clients and asked them what services we were missing and what they would like to see in our building. They responded with Legal Services, Medical, and ECE. Since purchasing the building we have developed a partnership with an immigration law firm, who now office's out of our building, we have hired a medical consultant to help us add a medical clinic to our services. Then we were approached by Wildflower about our building possibly being a location for them to offer Montessori to refugees and immigrants. I could not believe that the three things our community said we were missing were all now on the table for us to offer in our new building. On February 25th 2022 Flame Lilly which is part of the Wildflower Family signed a 10 year lease with PWM . Adding an ECE Montessori to our building was a no brainer for me as I have watched my daughter thrive now as a 16 year old at East Highschool, due to her early foundation in Montessori. Over the many years of working in this community, I have often wondered why our clients did not have access to this type of education. I am a strong supporter of the Wildflower model and am very excited to see this type of education being offered in our area.

Re: Letter of Support for Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC)

Dear Terry Croy and Lewis and CSI's Board of Directors,

On behalf of the African Leadership Group (ALG), I am pleased to submit a letter of support for WMPSC's Aurora charter application. ALG was first introduced to Wildflower two years ago through one of our members, a trained Montessori educator originally from Zimbabwe and co-founder of Aurora's Flame Lily Montessori School, Tatenda Blessing Muchiriri. Tatenda describes Montessori as the story of our people – an approach to teaching and learning that reflects how children are raised in African villages. Since learning about Wildflower and its approach to co-creating child-focused, microsites with families from the school communities, we have collaborated with WMPSC to bring more schools, like Flame Lily Montessori, to communities across Aurora.

At Wildflower, families and community members co-create each micro-school with the site's teacher leaders. Starting with discovery interviews during the charter development phase, ALG members had opportunities to share their hopes and dreams for their children's education and envision beautiful, community-embedded schools for their neighborhoods, schools that personalize learning, uphold rigorous academic standards, prioritize social emotional well-being, and affirm students' cultural identities. This collaboration with Wildflower will continue in the coming months as ALG families join community design teams to help teacher leaders create road maps for how proposed sites in NW and SE Aurora will center the unique needs and assets of our communities.

By intentionally blurring the lines between home and school from day one, Wildflower teacher leaders honor where our children come from and empower parents to play prominent roles in their children's learning journeys. By hybridizing teaching and administrative responsibilities, Wildflower ensures that school policies are designed and implemented by those closest to the stakeholders most impacted by their decisions, which again centers parent voice, builds trust and facilitates collaboration. The nimbleness of the micro-school model also allows teacher leaders to easily adjust course and be responsive to feedback when something isn't working for their community.

On the heels of the global pandemic, demand for micro-school models continues to grow in Aurora and across the state. Increasingly, we see parents opting for small, safe learning environments where they can build authentic relationships with other families and where children's unique identities are affirmed. Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado meets this moment, and ALG enthusiastically supports the organization's decision to partner with CSI on the creation of these innovative learning environments for Aurora communities.

Thank you for your consideration of Wildflower's charter application.

Sincerely,

Papa Dia
Executive Director, African Leadership Group

Re: Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC) Aurora charter application

Dear Terry Croy Lewis and CSI Board of Directors,

Sharing Our Blessings Food Pantry and Ivan's Crib are delighted to write this letter in support of Wildflower Montessori Public Schools' Aurora charter application.

Sharing Our Blessings's mission is to provide food and educational resources to those facing hunger and living below the poverty line. We are also dedicated to fostering self-sufficiency within our diverse immigrant and refugee communities in Colorado. Flame Lily Montessori, Aurora's first Wildflower school, has demonstrated a shared commitment to our refugee community by co-locating with Project Worthmore to bring a high quality, preschool program to families resettling in Northwest Aurora.

I am also the founder of Ivan's Crib, a non-profit baby boutique that offers diapers, formula, baby car seats and essential items for low-income babies. We partner with several nonprofits, including Village Exchange Center, to reach nearly 900 families across Aurora. We're excited to collaborate with WMPSC because the organization intentionally locates beautiful, Montessori micro-schools in historically under-resourced communities and designs their schools in partnership with families furthest from opportunity.

While our food pantry and baby essentials help low-income Aurora families ensure that basic needs are met in the short-term, WMPSC offers our children an exemplary education, creating a path to liberation. I have had the pleasure of getting to know two members of WMPSC's applicant team and providing strategy support and connections for their community engagement efforts. This team will create transformative learning experiences that center the voices, needs, and experiences of marginalized families and students in Aurora. It is both timely and necessary for our students to be served by a child-focused, highly personalized learning environment that blurs the lines between home and school and where parents, teachers and students all thrive.

Your consideration and approval of WMPSC's Aurora charter application is deeply appreciated.

Sincerely,

Norma Jean Herrera

Colorado Charter School Institute Board

Dear Colorado Charter School Institute Board,

As the Executive Director of The Montessori Institute (TMI), I enthusiastically support the charter application of Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC). I am excited about how this unique school model will expand access to Montessori education to families east of Denver and also about Wildflower's specific efforts to make Montessori more accessible to families of the global majority.

The Montessori Training Center is located near downtown Denver and we provide Montessori Teacher Training for prospective early childhood and elementary teachers. We are accredited by the Association Montessori International (AMI), which is well known for its rigorous and thorough approach to Montessori teacher training. We at TMI believe in the mission of Wildflower Schools, and we look forward to providing the opportunity for both Montessori training and professional development to the Wildflower staff as they are identified and hired.

I celebrate the intentional design of these public Montessori charter schools and especially its commitment to providing authentic Montessori programming to the most marginalized students. At TMI, we share Wildflower's commitment to equity and social justice and increased access to Montessori education - both at the school level and at the teacher training level. I also commend WMPSC's commitment to involving the communities where they hope to place their schools through their community co-creation plan. I personally know three of the four members of the application team, and can attest to the experience, dedication and strength of this team. This proposed network of WMPSC Montessori charter schools would be a tremendous asset to The Charter School Institute's portfolio of schools.

Dear Colorado Charter School Institute Board.

It is with great enthusiasm that I support a charter application to be submitted to CSI in August.

Specifically, this charter application will be to recommend Wildflower Schools and its vision to open teacher-led, micro-Montessori schools in areas of high demand for Montessori Education which would include Aurora, Colorado.

I have been a Denver Public School Montessori employee and administrator for 45 years, and during that time, a Montessori principal for twenty-five years; retired as of 2,003.

In the late 80s, I was assigned to desegregate Mitchell School in Northeast Denver, and I chose to launch Montessori Education there. The school was renamed as Mitchell Montessori Citywide Magnet School with students enrolling there from the entire city. After nine years at Mitchell Montessori Citywide Magnet School, the enrollment there had increased from 18% to 44 percent % and had the second highest test scores in the school district.

Since then, D.P.S. now has four Montessori elementary schools and a D.P.S. Montessori Jr. Sr. High School which is considered an innovation model.

Aurora will have an opportunity to have a cutting-edge Montessori Education approach and implementation which is teacher-led, community-based with opportunities for equity and outreach for the students who will benefit from the implementation of the following principles: authentic teacher-led Montessori environment with beauty and nature and seamless learning community with equity and a decentralized network.

Equity for Latino, African American, Spanish-speaking immigrant, and bilingual refugee students who are enrolled at Wildflower Schools is crucial to the quality of Montessori Education, and its curriculum is what parents desire and choose for their children and students. Therefore, parents and their children in the Aurora community will have access to the unique Montessori curriculum which has its focuses on the human potential of every child.

Because Montessori Education and the well-established Wildflower Schools approach and implementation are so well known and successful nationally, it is, therefore, the reason that I endorse and support this current and new educational endeavor.

Please feel free to contact me if you would like to continue in conversation about Montessori Education and especially this new opportunity for children Aurora. I can be reached at 303-489-0475.

I am looking forward to hearing from you in anticipation of your favorable decision to move forward with the Wildflower Schools implementation.

Sincerely,

Dr. Martha M. Urioste

ECPAC
PARTNERSHIP
OF ADAMS COUNTY

Colorado Charter School Institute (CSI)

Re: Letter of Support for Wildflower Montessori Public Schools

August 12, 2022

Dear CSI's Board of Directors,

On behalf of the Early Childhood Partnership of Adams County (ECPAC), I am submitting this Letter of Support and Consideration for Wildflower Montessori Public Schools in Aurora. As the Early Childhood Council in Adams County, ECPAC has collaborated with Wildflower Schools for over a year to consider ideal locations to bring forth their proven model. ECPAC believes Aurora is a perfect area.

In consideration of the proposal from Wildflower Montessori Public Schools, ECPAC supports the building of capacity to offer equitable access to high-quality childcare and preschool in Adams County. Per our report in 2019, we know that in Adams County there are only enough slots to support 30% of children on a full time basis and 50% for those who have all parents in the workforce. We also know that Universal Preschool is coming in the Fall of 2023 to provide 10 hours of free preschool for every 4-year-old. In order to address the already low availability, as well as the new need for Universal Preschool capacity, ECPAC supports bringing more high-quality programs to Aurora.

The model in which Wildflower follows to engage the community in co-designing schools as well as finding local leaders to own and operate the school is very impressive. ECPAC believes strongly in both community engagement as well as in building the ECE workforce and supporting overall career development. The Wildflower model embraces these concepts in addition to the commitment to provide high quality early education, which can have positive lifelong impacts for children, especially those whose families have lower incomes, a population Wildflower is committed to serve.

We appreciate your consideration of helping to build the capacity to offer equitable access to high-quality preschool in Aurora and would welcome further discussion if desired.

Sincerely,

Lisa Jansen Thompson
ECPAC Executive Director

CSI Board of Directors,

It is my pleasure to provide a letter of support on behalf of Wildflower Schools' to open six public micro-Montessori schools to serve students in Colorado by providing high quality, student-centered programming.

Wildflower Schools operates high-quality early education through personalized and experiential learning. They provide the metro area's most underserved students with high-quality educational services while also training and upskilling its current and future workforce. The set expectations and get out of the way by giving their teacher leaders maximum autonomy in how they achieve them. They empower local learning providers by distributing leadership and decision-making, ensuring those closest to the student are the ones making the decisions that affect them. I'm especially excited about their ability to:

- o serve a diverse community of students and families,
- o focus on community improvement through education, and
- o center and empower educator retention and growth.

Over the last two years, we watched students from all corners of the country struggle given the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. Schools have been forced to adapt on the fly with varying degrees of success. Micro-schools and personalized learning demands increased and are seemingly here to stay. Because of Wildflower Schools unique model, they offer the ability meet these demands head on.

Lastly, because Wildflower Schools are intentionally small, they can avoid obstacles to success, including facility shortages or administrative burdens; their non-hierarchical working approach puts decision-making closest to those impacted to ensure that educators are responsible for the decisions that impact their schools and that there is an active role for students and parents in each school community. Because of their agile model, they can operate in response to community interest as independent by intentionally partnering with community-based organizations to ensure children and families thrive.

For these reasons, I strongly recommend the CSI Charter Board of Directors approve and support Wildflower Schools application to operate six micro-schools in your community.

Thank you for your consideration,

Re: Letter of Support for Wildflower Schools

Dear Terry Croy Lewis and CSI's Board of Directors,

On behalf of the Gates Family Foundation, I write in enthusiastic support of the Aurora Wildflower Charter Public Montessori Schools charter application.

Aurora Wildflower Charter Public Montessori Schools is a unique model that is teacher-led, co-created with the community, and embedded in the microschool, Montessori model. In a district that is the home of diverse students in a variety of school models, Wildflower will offer yet another model to support and connect with students through social-emotional support and alongside rigorous standards. With roots in equity and social justice, Wildflower's Aurora charter school will implement an identity-affirming curriculum in a high-quality learning school culture and will be deeply connected to the communities in which they are embedded.

Aurora Wildflower Charter Public Montessori Schools is aligned with the Gates Family Foundation vision of equity across Colorado so that all students regardless of race or socioeconomic status have access to educational opportunities that support their long-term success. As an education advocate and program officer at Gates Family Foundation, I strongly support the mission and vision of Aurora Wildflower Charter Public Montessori Schools.

If you have any questions, please feel free to connect with me.

Take care,

Ana Soler

Re: Letter of support for Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado - Aurora

Dear CSI Board of Directors,

There has never been a greater need for imaginative ideas and inclusive, collaborative leadership in education. While education is crucial to individual and family well-being and building thriving and equitable societies, too often our current systems reproduce inequities and create barriers to learning. As a global philanthropic investment firm, Imaginable Futures invests in people and ideas that drive holistic learning and generate more equitable and healthy systems that give everyone the opportunity to thrive. We work hand in hand with partners to co-create solutions – just as Wildflower teachers do alongside local parents, community leaders, businesses and fellow nonprofits.

As a Venture Partner at Imaginable Futures, I focus on our U.S. education strategy and investments, in partnership with an experienced team across the public, private and social sectors. We work together to make catalytic investments, and we have been thrilled to partner with and invest in Wildflower Schools over the past five years because they put power in the hands of their teacher leaders, with a focus on one of our key priorities – improving access and quality in early childhood education.

Wildflower's innovative model can offer more children access to holistic, equitable, community-embedded Montessori schools while providing educators the opportunity to lead and flourish as social entrepreneurs, surrounded by a proven network of support.

While Imaginable Futures does not commit to future support beyond existing agreements, we are excited to help Wildflower grow their footprint, including their expanding work in Colorado. I hope you will look favorably upon their charter school application on behalf of families and children in the Aurora community.

Re: Letter of Support for Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC)

Dear CSI Board of Directors,
We are pleased to submit a letter of support for Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC).

At RootED we believe that public education should be centered around families, students and community. Through the WMPSC mission and vision, WMPSC will co-create with our local community to build unique schools that center in Montessori education that bridges academic outcomes and social emotional development. We believe this approach will create unique learning environments that will transform the worlds of the young learners served by their Montessori trained Teacher Leaders.

We applaud Wildflower for this approach and look forward to seeing the academic outcomes for students in Aurora. RootED is passionately committed to ensuring every child has the opportunity and support to achieve success in school, college and their chosen career. We support WMPSC with leading this work in Aurora.

We appreciate your consideration of helping to build high-quality schools that recognizes and values individual and community strengths and cultural differences, enabling students to attain academic achievement, personal growth, and college and career success.

Sincerely,

Patrick Donovan

Re: Letter of Support for Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC)

Dear Colorado Charter School Institute,

It is with great pleasure that I share this letter of support for Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC) and for the thoughtfully constructed and dedicated WMPSC Founding Board that is working to found beautiful teacher-led, Montessori learning environments in Aurora.

The leadership of Rachel Kelley-Cohn demonstrates how deeply prepared this team is to bring this school and organization into fruition.

Wildflower is a community of people and schools committed to the liberation of every human being, every community, and the human spirit, so that we may all live in harmony with our individual purpose and the world around us, free from oppression and able to follow life's unfolding journey.

We look forward to supporting WMPSC in the same ways we support and facilitate connection between all schools in our network. Some examples of support include:
- School start-up grants and loans, including funds for renovations for new school build-outs similar to those provided to Wildflower charters in Minnesota (up to $130,000 per school), New York (up to $150,000 per school), and Washington D.C. (up to $150,000 per school);
- Tools, templates, and coaching/guidance for starting a school, for the charter overall and for individual sites;
- Cohort network of leaders navigating start-up together through the School Startup Journey;
- Gatherings - virtual and in person- to support professional learning, deepen connection, and exchange wisdom across a national network of teacher leaders and Wildflower partners.

We already see strong indications of the demand for this school model in both the energetic and enthusiastic responses of community members across Aurora as well as from local educators exploring teacher leader roles in the proposed network. The Wildflower Foundation looks forward to partnering with WMPSC to bring their vision for community-embedded Montessori micro-schools to life in your community.

WMPSC has our strong support and commitment to ongoing engagement and we look forward to collaborating with them into the future.

Sincerely,

Colorado Charter School Institute Board

Dear CSI Board,

I am pleased to submit this letter of support for the application of Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC). WMPSC is pursuing a location for their charter school program at the Addis Kidan church at 2220 S. Chambers Rd. We are very interested in leasing our available classrooms to Wildflower for their charter school. Co-location of Wildflower's charter school would bring a valuable asset to our church community, and we would be pleased to lease available space to WMPSC for the purpose of opening one of their charter school sites.

Thank you for your consideration.

Dear Superintendent Munn and the Aurora Public Schools Board,

We are pleased to submit this letter of support for the application of Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC). WMPSC is pursuing a location for one of their micro-school sites in our center located at 18511-18883 E. Hampden Avenue in Aurora, which is commonly known as Seven Hills Plaza. We are very interested in discussing leasing one of our available spaces at the center for the purposes of a charter school. A charter school in our facility would be an excellent fit with the existing tenant mix and would bring regular foot traffic, business, and diversity to the center.

Thank you for your consideration.

FROM: Dayana Sanchez
Esteemed Members of the Board,

I am writing in support of the Wildflower Charter Schools. As a mother and Montessori teacher who has served in the Aurora community, I can say without a doubt there is a definite need for the model they are proposing.

One of the biggest strengths of the model is the micro aspect. There is such a bureaucracy in large schools that it impedes change and progress. Smaller schools would allow more say from the community and the teachers and allow for quick decisions and response to the needs of the children.

Another important aspect is the Montessori method. Children need to learn to be innovative, creative and confident. Montessori focuses on the child's needs and encourages the child to express their needs. It also allows for deeper learning of concepts instead of computations and as such the child can take ownership of their learning.

There are so few realistic and accessible choices for families interested in Montessori. These schools are needed and I urge you to approve their application.

Best Regards,
Dayana Sanchez

Dear Colorado Charter School Institute Board:

My name is Diana Madriz. I am the proud mother of a 2.5-year-old named Luca, and educator and a resident of Aurora, Colorado. I am excited to share my support of WMPSC's charter application.

My son Luca is a pandemic baby. Amidst the global distressI, like many others, had to navigate being a first-time mother and an educator in the most uncertain of times. I am thankful that I was able to spend 1.5 years with Luca before returning to in person work, but that time feels a little bit like a blur, or in reality like trauma. Despite early planning my husband and I were unable to find daycare. Even with a two household income, access to quality daycare was not financially plausible. The few locations we visited were far too expensive or not representative of the diversity that exists in Aurora. I really want to ensure that Luca is able to interact with students and families from diverse backgrounds and resources to maximize his and others' education.

This is where I learned about Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado. I was immediately drawn to the mission of expanding access to free, high quality Montessori education in Aurora. As an educator I know that if our community who has the highest need thrives, we all thrive. Most importantly when that community gets a say in what is offered, that's key. I want Luca and other children to receive wrap around supports and learn at their pace. I want the micro-school, multi-age classroom where teachers follow their class for a span of three years. Especially during the most important developmental years of a child's education. I want Luca to be amongst the first children to be able to access these amazing supports.

I am an involved parent and I love that Wildflower seeks to engage parents and community members in co-designing their child's education. For these reasons and more, I encourage you to vote in support of approving Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado to co-create this unique model with the Aurora community.

Thank you for your consideration!

Sincerely,

Diana Madriz

Dear Colorado Charter School Institute Board,

I am pleased to submit this letter of support for Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado's charter application. I am a parent of 2 pre-school aged children and am excited about the prospect of a Montessori micro-school opening in the Aurora area. I first learned about WMPSC through an educational Master's program since I am also a Montessori educator.

I am eager to share with you my support for the charter application for Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado. I am very supportive of Wildflower's vision to expand access to free, high-quality Montessori education in the Aurora community, and I look forward to being among the first to enroll my child in one of their micro-schools in 2023. Montessori education will be a great fit for my children as the Montessori approach prioritizes supporting each individual child to learn according to their own needs and at their own pace. Additionally, Montessori education sees children as whole beings, full of potential to learn and achieve their individual goals. I want my child to excel in academic studies, but also to be cared for as a social-emotional, collaborative, and yet individual young person.

Additionally, I am very excited about the idea of sending my child to a micro-school. Particularly in this post-pandemic time, I want my child to be seen and recognized for her whole self. The structure and size of a micro-school and the Montessori model of a multi-age classroom spanning three years will offer my child the opportunity to be known deeply by her peers and teachers for a significant length of time during some of her most pivotal developmental years.

I am eager and ready to participate in the co-design process of these schools by joining Wildflower's Community Design Team. Their vision to include parents and community members in the vision and development of each individual school is important to me because I want to contribute to my child's education. I want my child's school to be a respected and valuable part of the community.

For these reasons (and more), I encourage you to vote in support of approving Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado to co-create this unique model with the Aurora community in the form of a new charter school.

Thank you for your consideration of Wildflower's charter application.

Dear CSI Board Members and Staff,

My name is Chris Herter and I am writing to express my support for Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado as a prospective parent. As parents, my wife and I always strive to keep our world small and support our community. We live in Denver near the Aurora border, and my wife works at the Anschutz campus. It has always been a hope of ours that our children would be able to go to school on campus, but have not found options that achieve several other educational goals that we have. We believe that WMPSC is a great option to support our family in reaching those goals, specifically - a micro school setting where we know our children will receive more one on one attention, a diverse setting where our children will learn with children from a range of backgrounds, the ability for us as parents to be involved in the school community, and most importantly to have all of this set on the foundation of a Montessori education. We believe strongly in the multi-age classroom philosophy that Montessori is based on, and the idea that our children would be self guided in their education with the support of highly trained Montessori Educators.

Thank you for your time and consideration of my comments.

Regards,
Chris Herter

Dear Colorado Charter School Institute Board,

I am pleased to submit this letter of support for WMPSC's charter application. I am an Aurora parent of three children. I first learned about WMPSC through a Facebook parenting group.

I am eager to share with you my support for the charter application for Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado. I am very supportive of Wildflower's vision to expand access to free, high-quality Montessori education in the Aurora community, and I look forward to being among the first to enroll my youngest child in one of their micro-schools in 2023. My eldest child was very fortunate to be able to attend a Montessori preschool and I saw first-hand the level of confidence and independence that he developed at an early age. The small class sizes and child-led approach really allowed my son to blossom and enjoy learning. The skills and independence that he learned during his Montessori preschool years have been fundamental in his approach to learning and life. Having this option available, regardless of means, will enable children from all socio-economic backgrounds to have access to a Montessori education which sees children as whole beings, allowing them to excel in academic studies but also to be cared for as a social-emotional, collaborative, and yet individual young person.

Additionally, I am very excited about the idea of sending my youngest child to a micro-school. Particularly in this immediate post-pandemic time, I need my child to be seen and recognized for his whole self. A PRACTICE FOR

Caroline Hill
Michelle Molitor
Christine Ortiz

EQUITY X DESIGN

COLLABORATIVE

RACISM AND INEQUALITY ARE PRODUCTS OF DESIGN.
THEY CAN BE REDESIGNED.

We are a country founded on the genocide of one people and the enslavement of another. We have yet to reconcile the impact of this inheritance on us all.

The experiment of America is 240 years old. In these 240 years, systems were designed that isolate and separate us, that empower a chosen few with the privilege of invention, innovation, and creativity, that lay the groundwork for misunderstanding, fear, and ultimately hate.

Racism and inequality are products of design. They can be redesigned.

We believe that in community, with thoughtful and deliberate action, we can design the obsolescence of those systems. We offer equityXdesign, a practice that organizations, teams, and individuals can use to mitigate the impact of racism and sexism in design practices.

As a collaborative, this work is our voice—an offering to the legacy of liberation, truth, and democracy. We collectively leverage the magic of relationships across difference to design right-fit solutions. Christine empowers people to reimagine themselves as school designers and founders. Michelle helps people find their own voices as anti racist leaders for equity. Caroline activates the voices of the marginalized to strengthen relationships, particularly those across lines of difference. Given who we are and what we know, we feel uniquely positioned to contribute to this fight, in this way—at the intersection of equity and design. We know it is not the only thing that needs to be done. It is no silver bullet, but it is where we think our energy has the greatest return.

As leaders from the racial equity and design and innovation spaces, we offer equityXdesign—a new way to think about and approach achieving equity. equityXdesign creates the conditions and relationships for inclusive innovation. A process for anti-racist and equitable design, it is guided by three central beliefs: innovation's need for inclusion and intentional design, the indistinguishable relationship between the past and the present, and our moral imperative to live in the future we desire to create.

equityXdesign is a practice that merges the consciousness of racial equity work with the methodology of design thinking. We believe that designing for the most affected and marginalized, letting their voices and experiences lead, and acknowledging the barriers to engagement are critical for this new process. Most importantly, we believe this design work must happen across racial difference. All people have the capacity for innovation. We believe it is this multiplicity of entry points that will create the conditions for new invention and innovations for equity. This practice is for teams of educators, designers, advocates, and agitators committed to building internal capacity and confidence designing for equity. It is reserved for those who believe we are stronger together and have the bold imagination to cultivate new ideas, invent equitable institutions, and reform biased policies.

MOVING EQUITY WORK TOWARD ACTION

American history has created a segregated world where white people are rarely in community with others. The isolation creates myths, stories, and beliefs that go unchallenged, and people of color are not immune. The work of acknowledgement, the telling of truths, and the opportunities for community and reflection are necessary before we can move forward. If we remain unwilling to do serious individual, institutional, and structural work as a people, our path toward a truly equitable future will stagnate.

Helping us see and understand our history, bringing us in community with one another in ways that allow us to hear each other, the raising of voices traditionally lost in the white noise of hegemonic discourse—this is the power of equity work.

From large government agencies to schools, tech startups, nonprofits, and philanthropic groups, the education ecosystem has a very narrow definition of inequity and how it manifests, often focusing only on explicit and intentional racism. But racism today looks different than it did in our Jim Crow past. Overwhelmingly, individuals no longer believe in the biological inferiority of black and brown people; however, while we may all claim egalitarian values, and while it is no longer socially acceptable to treat others differently because of the color of their skin, most of us hold implicit biases that impact our behavior and allow for structural and systemic inequality to remain.

We are living in a "colorblind" society that often recognizes racism as anomalous, individual acts of aggression or the mere acknowledgment of difference, not the silent structures that continue to divide."[1] The victories of the civil rights movement, and now the Obama presidency, have reinforced the notion that we are a post-racial society. However, the lived experiences of millions of people of color reveal otherwise. Racism and other forms of discrimination have simply shifted from explicit and interpersonal to structural and less overt manifestations. The rise of identity-based aggression cannot distract us from recognizing anchoring systems of oppression and how they manifest in the lives of people.

> Most of us hold implicit biases that impact our behavior and allow for structural and systemic inequality to remain.

Our individual actions can cumulatively serve to maintain existing forms of inequity—or they can serve to dismantle systems of oppression.

Historically, we have put the expectations of this change entirely on individuals, requiring each of us to maintain a fully developed relationship with our own racial identity, an intimate knowledge of the history of oppression and current manifestations of inequality, and the personal comfort and initiative to see, call out, and actively fight hegemonic systems. The focus of equity work for most organizations leans toward the having of courageous conversations about race and power and on individual racial identity development work. While this approach is necessary, it will not, alone, end individual, institutional, and systemic inequality.

Identity development work takes time and is never complete. Individuals can engage in such work without ever taking action to dismantle systems of oppression—particularly those that benefit from status quo systems or from being seen having such courageous conversations. Additionally, personal work can only progress when individuals first understand and then commit to doing deeper and often painful work. For many, this personal work is often seen as unnecessary.

We must start with individuals, but we cannot stop there.

Equity work helps us understand where we are and how we got here, but it is missing the tools for building a different reality. It is here that design thinking can lead the way.

Institutions are the sum of the people within them, and they create the systems and structures we live in. The work of racial equity is to create safe spaces for people, to connect them, and then to move from merely understanding the role of the individual to understanding the role individuals play in institutions and systems. Only then can we move to action.

Our current paradigms and tools for truth, reconciliation, and anti-racist action are insufficient for the magnitude of the challenge we face. Racial equity work engages people in meaningful and authentic conversation, sparking individual transformation but not preparing people to create long-term systemic change. Organizations that engage in racial equity work may create space for individuals to find themselves personally awakened to their role and identity in society, ready to change their institutions for the better, but without the tools to take such action. Consultancies and protocols are not equipped for the complexities of racism's manifestations within individuals, institutions, and societal structures.

Some say talk is cheap. We disagree. Talk is deeply important, but it is simply not enough. We need to move toward new designs. For many, talking about racism and our long history of oppression feels paralyzing. The complexity of racism on individual, institutional, and structural levels feels insurmountable. Equity work helps us understand where we are and how we got here, but it is missing the tools for building a different reality. It is here that design thinking can lead the way.

DESIGN THINKING: IN NEED OF AN EQUITY RETROFIT

In recent years, design thinking has left its roots as a tool used for product design and emerged as a powerful problem-solving methodology across fields and sectors. This shift in how design thinking is used has come in concert with a societal shift in the way we identify problems and understand solutions. Our current charge is to solve problems where there is no one solution, where more data and information doesn't necessarily make things more clear, where the problem is hard to even define. For instance, we know that solving issues of terrorism is less about building better weapons and more about interrupting radical group recruitment strategies. We know that issues of environmental degradation are no longer about technologies for clean energy; they are about incentivizing corporate and consumer behavior changes. We know how the brain learns, but we can't figure out how to create school environments that are socioeconomically and racially integrated.

Problem-solving is no longer about inventing things; it is about recreating systems. And in a world that continues to increase in complexity and technology, design thinking can simplify, humanize, and order this chaos.

TRADITIONAL DESIGN THINKING PROCESS

This shift in the way we define problems necessitates a shift in the tools and mindsets we use to solve them. Design thinking provides a framework for complex, iterative, and targeted solutions: It emphasizes the need to define the problem well and build sooner to get better feedback, and it has fundamentally changed the relationship between designers and those they are designing for. This focus on the end user is so central that design thinking is often simply referred to as user- or human-centered design.

While elevating the user in the design process has been the key to its success, it is also the reason why our current approach to design thinking needs to be retrofitted. If we believe design thinking is the right tool to use to redesign products, systems, and institutions to be more equitable, then we must redesign the design thinking process, mindsets and tools themselves to ensure they mitigate for the causes of inequity—the prejudices of the human designers in the process, both their explicit and implicit personal biases, and the power of mostly invisible status quo systems of oppression.

The role of implicit bias is particularly distressing as we consider the design thinking process. In its current state, it may be doing as much harm as it is good. While engaging with end users, many forms of design thinking still see the designer as separate from the user and grant the designer the power in the relationship—the power to decide with whom to do empathy work, the power to interpret the results, the power to decide the framing of the problem, and the power to pick the best solution.

Many forms of design thinking grant the designer the power in the relationship.

It stands to reason that any problem definition or solution created by biased individuals—which we all are—will perpetuate inequity if the process does not actively acknowledge and combat bias. A process that is itself colorblind will be blind to the effects of color in both problem and solution.

We see this regularly in our work facilitating design challenges with organizations. An example: The well-intentioned, usually white, educated, and middle- to upper-middle-class designers working with low-income urban (code for black and brown) schools to help design new programs know it is important to engage in empathy work, so they ask the principal to give them access to some parents to interview. The principal emails the PTA for volunteers, which are often not representative of the general student body. After a few interviews, the designers go back to their conference room to decide what the parents and students need. They brainstorm options, narrowing to those that fit within the existing structure of the school. In the best-case scenario, the program is something the school community can in fact benefit from—but it is unlikely to be designed to serve students and families most in need or to question status quo systems or structures. But these are essential when designing for equity.

There are many failings in this illustration, some of which can be attributed to a lack of rigor in using true design methodologies. However, even when pure design is applied, issues of power and bias have powerful sway. We can do better.

AN ALTERNATE PATHWAY

Two of the greatest hindrances to fighting inequality are literally hiding in plain sight: our implicit biases and the prevalent narrative of "colorblindness." If we don't even know we're doing something wrong, how can we be expected to change it?

We can enhance the design thinking process with tools frameworks that account for and make visible our individual biases; push us past the individual to the institutional, systemic, and historic inequality at play; and fight against hegemonic ideologies.

equityXdesign is a framework that reimagines all of us as designers, adjusts for our implicit biases, and minimizes the scale and amplification of a dominant identity throughout.

Instead of asking individuals to think their way into a new way of behaving, relying on their individual levels of awareness around issues of inequity, we can provide them with a framework that embeds that awareness. We can make design thinking, an already widely accepted and valued process for innovation and problem-solving, into a process that provides individuals with experiences that elevate their understanding of inequality while also providing tools to dismantle systems of inequality.

This is equityXdesign: an additional layer of checks, tools, and activities that, when laid on top of traditional design thinking methodologies, will illuminate racism and inequality—individual, structural, and institutional—that exists in the individuals involved in the design team and potentially shapes the way problems are framed and solutions are proposed.

Design thinking is an ideal starting point. When merged with the power of equity work, we believe it can be used to tackle our most urgent equity-based problems.

EQUITYXDESIGN: DESIGN THINKING'S RETROFIT

equityXdesign intentionally convenes people across difference and builds a common language for system-wide change. It is a framework that reimagines all of us as designers, adjusts for our implicit biases, and minimizes the scale and amplification of a dominant identity throughout. It creates guardrails and checkpoints that nudge design teams to identify problems through a lens of equity, brainstorm transformative possibilities, and prototype and test these possibilities in low-cost, low-resolution, inclusive, and participatory environments.

CENTERING BELIEFS

Pastored by the spirit of inclusive invention, the process engages designers in their own identities and the identities and experiences of their co-designers in order to seed collaborative, inclusive innovation and invention. The centering ethos—see, be seen, and foresee—overlays the three beliefs we believe are preconditions for equitable design. These beliefs lead us to the five design principles that guide our actions.

THE EQUITYXDESIGN FRAMEWORK

LEARNING TO SEE: HISTORICAL CONTEXT MATTERS
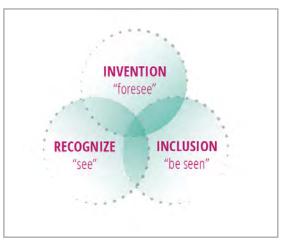

Evolutionary science tells us that the most beneficial traits survive; we are the recipients of the genetic legacy of our parents, grandparents, and great-grandparents. And social inheritance mimics this genetic inheritance: We inherit the traits and characteristics of legacies of privilege and oppression. We must see both who we were (our historical selves) and who we are (our current selves). In order to understand the present time and space we occupy, we must understand the inherited legacy surrounding the thing we are designing, the place we are designing in, and the community we are designing with.

equityXdesign is intentional about bringing diverse stakeholders together across race, role, gender, and socioeconomic status to build relationships and lay the groundwork for community. Inclusion is not merely the absence of exclusion: Radical inclusion requires going further—identifying barriers that exclude and eliminating them; welcoming different people, stories, and experiences to the innovation conversation; creating spaces where everyone can truly bring their full selves and be equally valued. Radical inclusion is not simply about reducing hate or respecting difference; it is about truly loving others.

Process dictates product. In order to design for equity, we must design equitably. The practice of equitable design requires that we are mindful how we achieve equity. Inclusive design practices raise the voices of the marginalized, strengthen relationships across difference, shift positions, and recharge our democracy. Because exclusion feeds inequity, we can no longer argue that there is not enough time to include the community. We must make time for the magic of human connection, especially across difference.

These core beliefs, and the manifestations thereof, lead us to the following design principles:

DESIGN PRINCIPLE 1:
DESIGN AT THE MARGINS

Our current innovation conversation is exclusive, accessible only to the powerful and privileged. This erodes the innate creative agency and leadership in the marginalized, reduces the experience of incredibly complex people, and often leads to the allocation of resources to symptoms while neglecting the existence, permanence, and resilience of root causes.

The current social order blames the marginalized for their experience without acknowledging or attempting to redesign oppressive historical structures. equityXdesign expects the privileged to trust and listen to the voices on the margins to identify the root causes of inequity and the ways they manifest. It positions the marginalized as leaders in the design process and experts in their experience, arming them with a process to solve their own problems. Designing at the margin means that those in privileged positions do not solve for those experiencing oppression; rather, in true community, both the privileged and marginalized build collective responsibility and truly innovative solutions for our most intractable problems. Even the use of the word marginalized linguistically parallels the exclusion of individuals. The definition of a group simply by their relationship to the dominant culture is a problem that continues to persist.

DESIGN PRINCIPLE 2:
START WITH YOURSELF

Our identities (race, gender, upbringing, social status, home language, etc.) create our lens for the world and how we make sense of it. We must be aware of this lens when engaging in design. When we design for people without understanding the impact of their historical stories, our understanding slips into paternalism. When we design for people without accounting for our own biases, our understanding slips into stereotypes. We must raise our awareness of our own identities and how bias impacts our thoughts, choices, conclusions, and assumptions in order to truly co-create with others.

DESIGN PRINCIPLE 3:
CEDE POWER

Equity requires a nonviolent, action-oriented spirit of co-creation and co-invention, necessitating an inversion of legacy power structures. Expertise cannot be quantified in degrees, and the designer-end user dichotomy is no longer useful. We must acknowledge the power dynamics that allow some votes to count more than others. Equitable design demands that practices change and evolve—that we redefine roles, revalue ways of knowing, and reassess the ways we reach decision. We recognize the potential for cede power to reinforce the hegemonic view of power as a zero-sum game—more for you must mean less for me. This is not the case. We believe that shared power is in the interest of everyone and does not require a growth in the ranks of the powerless. And yet, this work still requires each of us, who hold power in some ways, to deeply question its inheritance and its locus and to cede it when necessary.

DESIGN PRINCIPLE 4:
MAKE THE INVISIBLE VISIBLE

The relationships between people and problems are often governed by sets of heuristics—techniques that allow problems to be solved with speed, agility, and economy. However, these preexisting schemas can perpetuate exclusionary assumptions and biased practices, manifesting as implicit bias, power dynamics, and hegemonic practices that govern relationships with people in our organizations, schools, and governments. By making them visible, we can assess their impact and create a space for reflection and repair.

DESIGN PRINCIPLE 5:
SPEAK TO THE FUTURE

Because an equitable reality has never existed, we cannot look to our past to learn how to create an equitable future. With no guide, we must speak this reality into existence. In order to write a different story, we have to use different language. We must replace our current discourse.

Discourse 1 is our current, and hegemonic, discourse—the language typically used to talk about, question, and plan the work of reform. This dialogue supports and maintains the status quo without appearing unresponsive to outside demands for improvement. Discourse 2, the discourse of transformation, is the language that tends to be about uncomfortable, unequal, ineffective, prejudicial conditions and relationships. This discourse creates space for ambiguity, change, and the opportunity to be a part of a purposeful structure.[2]
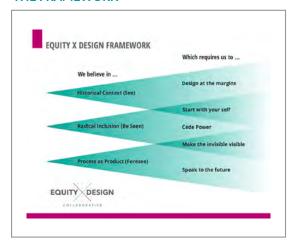

There is an often-overlooked power in language and discourse to influence and control ideas, beliefs, actions, and ultimately culture. When we notice how hegemony dominates our conceptual understanding of problems and how they impact others who are different, we have a powerful opportunity to see the end users' historical selves and how that self manifests in the present.

When we take control of our language, when we speak to the future, we lay the groundwork to create something new—together.

There is an often-overlooked power in language and discourse to influence and control ideas, beliefs, actions, and ultimately culture.

EQUITYXDESIGN IN ACTION

Equity Design Collaborative believes change will come from the intersection of equity, design and collaboration. We harbor no false beliefs that any exclusive group of individuals is capable of creating the tools society needs to dismantle systemic inequity. Our hope is to create a network of collaborators, inventors, and designers who prioritize equity. At the connections, nodes of opportunity create space where radical inclusion strengthens our individual and collective humanities.

The following modes and adaptations to the design process represent the some of the latest retrofits for the stages of the invention practice. They are currently in the pilot phase of development.

Transformational Empathy

Mode 1: Meta-Empathy Maps

The design thinking process begins with empathy to build an understanding of another's experience. equityXdesign transforms empathy into a tool that helps people recognize how implicit bias and identity can impact their understanding of others. At the center of transformative empathy is listening to understand while also understanding how we listen. Through the use of a modified empathy map and three essential empathy questions, we facilitate this awareness and support the synthesis of the empathy experience.

- Individual: How does my identity impact how I understand my user's experiences?
- Institutional: What are the important customs and practices at play in my user's experience?
- Structural: What are the ways customs and practices work together to include or exclude your user?

Mode 2: Notice and Reflect[3]

Adding additional modes to the design thinking process revealed more ways of connecting with others during the empathy stage—notice and reflect. The essence of these modes is captured in a pre-empathy identity reflection activity, which asks individuals to start by articulating some of their core values, emanating from their heart, followed by how they define their own identities. They then reflect on how they are feeling in that moment, biases that might be at play, and finally, any noticings the reflection process created about the empathy work that is about to be done.

Equity Pauses

A sense of urgency can mask hegemonic strategy. Our common discourse of urgency and business-as-usual creates little time for reflection; our pace of life eclipses our awareness. Strategic equity pauses stop the clock to reflect on our language, ideas, and hunches in the context of a discourse of transformation. Without this moment to think, our brains default to the familiar and the known, making a repeat of past practice likely. Incorporating these discourse checks and pauses after each stage ensures that our ideas remain on the path of achieving equity.

Brainstorming and Transformation Cards

One of the fundamental rules of brainstorming is to build on the ideas of others. Alex Osborn, considered as the originator of classical brainstorming, created a checklist that can help transform existing ideas by prompting users to modify, rearrange, substitute, and magnify. We have built on those core prompts with a suite of equity transformations, asking users to move more to the margin, adjust their discourse, and invert power.

Defining and Solving the Right Problems in the Right Way

Adopting others' perspectives through a lens of equity requires acknowledgement of the ways privilege and oppression work to include some and exclude others. The following form positions the needs of a person opposite societal obstructions and institutional inhibitors:

A person needs a way to (insert the needs of another) because (insert the values, beliefs, and morals of the person). Surprisingly, (state a fact that demonstrates the intent to meet the need) but (insert an institutional inhibitor or societal obstruction).

Invention with an equity lens requires teams to identify and test the riskiest assumptions about how we understand and know other people. Risky assumptions without an equity lens are racist assumptions. This is especially true when we are designing at the margins. Because our implicit biases frame our assumptions about ourselves and other people, their experiences, and the best ways to solve their problems, awareness of our biases at this stage is necessary to reverse hegemonic invention.

A TECHNICAL TOOL FOR MORAL WORK

As a culture, we currently have limited courage, will, and skill to talk candidly about race and inequity. The current discourse around equity exists in one of two opposing extremes: morality and linear reasoning and logic.

Morality: Driven by our emotions, we talk and evaluate the degree of goodness. We talk about good people and bad people. We learn about microaggressions and reflect on our moral responsibility to be better. This inspires the motivated and engaged to remain critical of relationships, language, and assumed cultural norms, alienating those without the skill or will for engagement.

Linear reasoning and logic: This technical discourse prefers to quantify equity and reduce it numbers, strategy, and outcomes. This conversation leaves little room for the real experience of people—the meaning, magic, surprise, and possibility.

Our current equity discourse is either a moral conversation or a technical conversation. It is not often both.

The complex work of achieving equity requires a dialogue bold and sophisticated enough to hold both moral and technical ways of thinking, acting, and designing. This integration requires tools that can marry the head and heart while allowing a truly diverse set of thinkers—technologists, freedom fighters, and everyone in between—to create and design in service of reconciliation.

> Our current equity discourse is either a moral conversation or a technical conversation. It is not often both.

Equity—the integral sum of inclusive practices and that obstruct, threaten, and dismantle systems of oppression and amplify, privilege, and promote the voices of the most marginalized and most affected—is the work of our time. It demands enhancements, retrofits, and retooling of our current toolkits to meet this pressing need. Simply put, work across difference that privileges the voices and perspectives of the most affected "bends the moral arc of universe towards justice."[4]

We do not have the answers, but we are committed to solving this problem. We do believe that disciplined processes that support the transformation of all of us and our inventions keeps us moving toward realizing the American dream for all people.

Join us to solve it.

WMPSC and Conscious Discipline

Conscious Discipline (CD) is a research-supported comprehensive classroom management program and social-emotional curriculum based on current brain research, child development information, and developmentally appropriate practices.[1] The CD approach at WMPSC encourages teachers and children to modify their behavior to build a school and classroom culture of safety, connection, and problem-solving instead of external rewards and punishment. CD consists of a philosophy, common language, and set of behavior management strategies and positive discipline techniques that help adults manage their thoughts, feelings, and actions in the face of daily stressors, as well as teach these skills to students. CD is infused throughout everyday interactions and routines and tools throughout the school day and year. CD supports Teacher Leaders in setting behavioral expectations, building classroom connectedness, and scaffolding social and emotional skill development during daily teachable moments. Teacher Leaders learn and model these skills in their classrooms with teacher training, self-study, and ongoing coaching and support.

Because CD organizes educational environments around the concept of a School Family,[2] it marries well with the Montessori philosophy and our values and principles. It has been specifically designed to make changes in the lives of adults first. The adults, in turn, change the lives of children. Each member of the students' community—both adult and child—learns the skills needed to successfully manage life tasks such as learning, forming relationships, communicating effectively, being sensitive to others' needs, and getting along with others. The seven essential skills of Conscious Discipline are:

1. Composure - Becoming the person you want your children to be
2. Encouragement - Building a School Family
3. Assertiveness - Respectfully setting limits
4. Choices - Building self-esteem and willpower
5. Positive Intent - Creating teachable moments, turning conflict into cooperation
6. Empathy - Handling the fussing and the fits
7. Consequences - Helping children learn from their mistakes

When adults adopt these skills, their response to conflict facilitates the development of the frontal lobes in children, the area of the brain that controls executive function. Through CD Powers and Skills, adults stay in control of themselves and in charge of children. As adults change their attitudes and behaviors, so do the children in their care. CD is unique because it offers tools for assessing positive changes in adult behaviors and skills. WMPSC is committed to this tool and embedding it within our school culture at every microsite.

WMPSC and Restorative Justice

WMPSC sees Restorative Justice (RJ, also called Restorative Practice) practices as complementing CD and aligning with our equity commitment. RJ supports children to learn from their mistakes in a positive manner that respects their dignity and is not simply the giving of a punishment that has no meaning or relevance. RJ views misconduct as a violation against people that damages relationships and affects both individuals and the larger school community. RJ focuses on problem-solving through the expression of feelings and strategies to address problems in the future. The RJ model defines accountability as understanding the impact of actions, taking responsibility for choices, and suggesting ways to repair harm to others and the community.

WMPSC's model—with two Teacher Leaders in each classroom and the Montessori work cycles—is an ideal setting for successful RJ implementation. Montessori for Social Justice is raising Montessori educators' skills in implementing RJ practices, recognizing the philosophical alignment between Restorative Justice practices—such as the Peacemaking Circle process—and Montessori philosophy.[1] At WMPSC, RJ practices include:

- Developing trusting and caring relationships between adults and students; creating a sense of community with a commitment to equity;
- Fostering skills in conflict resolution, such as listening, empathy, critical thinking, and self-control;
- Maximizing student involvement in deciding how to resolve problems, which may include asking questions and listening to answers, exploring different responses, reflecting on motives, and allowing for disagreement;
- Assisting students in considering ways to make amends for misbehavior, such as replacing, repairing, cleaning, or apologizing;
- Following up to determine whether the individuals involved solved the problem or need to do more work;
- Encouraging reflection to consider different actions in the future;
- Allowing flexibility for different students, needs, and situations within a culturally responsive setting; celebrating diversity; fostering inclusivity; and considering the unique opportunities and challenges facing every child;
- Minimizing the punitive impact when control is necessary to repair the relationship and address underlying issues.

Restorative practices in schools are based on RJ principles instead of punishment. They aim first to build classroom communities that are supported by clear agreements, authentic communication, and specific tools to bring issues and conflicts forward in a helpful way. They provide specific pathways to repair harm by bringing together those affected by misbehavior in a dialogue to address concerns, achieve understanding, and come to an agreement about setting things right. In addition to serving the cause of fairness and justice, restorative approaches make safer schools, build positive school culture, decrease suspension rates, and contribute to social and emotional learning, especially for marginalized students.[2]

Ted Wachtel, the founder of The International Institute of Restorative Practice, states that restorative practices enable people "... to have more voice and more choice in the things that matter to them in everyday life in exchange for taking more responsibility." According to the National Education Association and the Schott Foundation's joint report, schools can directly influence restorative practices within the classroom, the campus, and the community. Within those spheres, educators promote and implement actions aligned with the Four P's: Person, Place, Practice, and Plan. The paradigms and practices in the Montessori pedagogy help Teacher Leaders implement the Four P's across their spheres of influence. WMPSC will implement the Four P's across the classroom, the campus, and the community through PD training in Year 1, during summer institute before school opening, and every summer for new staff of WMPSC. Below is a summary of the Four P's across WMPSC's spheres of influence at each classroom, campus, and community.

Person	Place	Practice	Plan
Teacher Leaders model and directly teach interpersonal skills and intentionally work to build trusting relationships with their students. Students learn and apply the habits of interpersonal effectiveness through practices like: ● Collaborative learning ● Project management ● Peer accountability partnership	The trust developed at school is essential to implementing restorative practices school-wide. Teacher Leaders and students work toward shared expectations of behavior and sustain a positive learning environment by practicing and modeling positive behaviors.	Teacher Leaders know a student's behavior at school largely functions on how well their needs are met (both within the school and at home). Instead of punishing and isolating a student that acts out, teachers and advisors work within a growth mindset to help the child see their potential.	Teacher Leaders work to build a feeling of community, establish a shared vision, and build trust through regular events like advisory, all school meetings, and Presentations of Learning.

WMPSC will address problems and concerns with a student, unless it is an emergency, in a one-on-one conversation discreetly. All staff members will guide and address a student with equal respect. Teacher Leaders will engage another staff member for assistance if an issue escalates.

WMPSC School Discipline Policy and Procedures

Overview

Every WMPSC student has a right to be educated in a safe and supportive learning environment and to be treated in a manner that is respectful, culturally responsive, centered on healing, and free from disparate or discriminatory discipline. Every staff member has a right to be provided with the support, training, and resources to meet the needs of students struggling with social, emotional, and/or behavioral challenges and to work in a school environment that provides a structure for teaching and supporting positive behaviors.

WMPSC aligns with the Colorado Board of Education's that effective learning and teaching takes place in a safe, secure and welcoming environment and that safe schools contribute to improved attendance, increased student achievement and community support. WMPSC will partner with Mesa County Valley School District 51, reviewing their published Student-Parent Handbook and consider alignment with their Conduct and Discipline Code. WMPSC follows the following safe school standards:

1. Procedures that address the supervision and security of school buildings and grounds.
2. Procedures that address the safety and supervision of students during school hours and school sponsored activities.
3. Procedures that address persons visiting school buildings and attending school-sponsored activities.
4. Training programs for staff in crisis prevention and management.
5. Training programs for staff in emergency response procedures that include practice drills.
6. Training programs for staff and students in how to recognize and respond to behavior or other information that may indicate impending violence or other safety problems.
7. Procedures for safe, confidential reporting of security and safety concerns at each school.
8. Procedures for regular assessments by school security/safety professionals and law enforcement officers to evaluate the security needs of each school building and to provide recommendations for improvements if necessary.
9. Procedures to provide for regular communications between district officials, law enforcement officers, fire department officials, city and county officials and local medical personnel to discuss crisis prevention and management strategies, including involvement by these parties in the development and revision of crisis prevention and management plans.
10. Training programs for staff in safety precautions and procedures related to fire prevention, natural disaster response, accident prevention, public health, traffic, bicycle and pedestrian safety, environmental hazards, civil defense, classroom and occupational safety, and special hazards associated with athletics and other extracurricular activities.
11. Procedures for the reporting of criminal activity to law enforcement.

12. Each site Teacher Leader shall be responsible for the supervision and implementation of the safe school program at his or her school. The Shared Services Partner shall submit annually, in the manner and by the date specified by the State Board of Education, a written report to the Board of Education concerning the learning environment in the school during that school year. The report shall contain, at a minimum, the information required by law. The annual safety reports from every school in the district shall be compiled and submitted to the state department of education in a format specified by the State Board of Education. The report shall be made available to the public.
13. Procedures for notifying parents of an employee's criminal charges when such notification is required by state law.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to ensure all WMPSC students, families, and staff have access to an equitable, safe, and supportive learning environment.

Centering on Wildflower Ways of Working

WMPSC is committed to practicing Wildflower's Ways of Working, including Self-Management practices of Roles and Responsibilities, Radical Transparency, Advice Process, and Conflict Resolution. We honor Teacher Leader autonomy to solve challenges within the school community wherever possible and commit to seeking advice actively to support collective problem solving and conflict resolution.

Self-Discipline and Positive Behavior Guidance[1]

Discipline in a Montessori environment is not imposed on the child but, rather, is created in the child when there is a beautiful balance between freedom and structure. Maintaining this delicate balance is one of the foundations of the Montessori environment. It is on this foundation of freedom and structure that the child builds executive function and self-regulation, which in turn allows for discipline and self-efficacy to develop through a positive environment of practice and modeling. Freedom is not often associated with discipline. Usually, people assume that since the child is offered freedom—to move, to communicate, to choose, and to repeat—there is no structure to the environment.

Freedom, however, does not mean one can do whatever one wants. Responsibility to oneself and one's community are essential components of freedom. We offer freedoms, but within limitations that facilitate the development of responsibility and an internal sense of control. We support students in building skills to respond to challenges.

The development of self-discipline in this manner allows the individual to choose the right behavior because it is right for him or herself, and for the community. Inner discipline is not something automatically present within the child, but rather evolves under the right care and in the proper environment. As adults in the child's life, we need to model and guide while supporting the child through the process of developing self-discipline. We begin by offering limited freedoms based on the child's abilities to make appropriate choices at that particular time. As the child's ability to make choices and follow rules improves, more freedom is offered.

[1] Based on guidance developed by Cosmos Montessori Teacher Leaders, Veronica Vital and Laura Cefalu

WMPSC is committed to understanding individual needs, following the child, and practicing redirection and interventions without impacting student autonomy, and to support with experiences that will help children build skills to respond to challenges. WMPSC will model these expectations by treating children with dignity and respect and providing them with challenging and absorbing activities. WMPSC will also practice positive behavior guidance by establishing clear and realistic limits that are developmentally appropriate and are enforced firmly and consistently.

Positive behavior guidance techniques include:
- Clear and consistent school and classroom expectations
- Explicit discussions of freedoms and responsibilities in the classroom, hallways, lunch area, playground, bathrooms, and other locations
- Encouraging and acknowledging children when they make positive choices
- Noticing behaviors and correcting without criticism
- Anticipation of problems before they occur and teaching children how to anticipate challenging situations
- Redirection from conflicts toward constructive activity
- Offering children alternatives to aggressive behavior, such as walking away, acknowledging their emotions, or talking through a problem
- Modeling and teaching children conflict resolution and mediation techniques

School Commitments

WMPSC will develop structures that ensure families are included and vital partners on issues affecting their children's education, explicitly shaping the school environment to support a blending of home and school and responding to the needs of children and families. With an emphasis on growth and learning, this policy and [school name's] practices are meant to evolve. WMPSC is committed to:
- Creating a welcoming environment for children and families that fosters caring and reciprocal relationships based on trust.
- Using Wildflower's Ways of Working to develop strategies that reinforce Wildflower values, to resolve conflicts that may arise, and use the advice process early and often to support positive discipline practices.
- Including families in the decision-making process when reviewing and/or updating this policy and accompanying practices and guidance.
- Being intentional about having family and community representation in school positive self-discipline and equitable school discipline discussions.
- Providing all families with school policies and procedures.
- Informing families of their children's positive behavior progress and learning, and if any challenges arise, the family will be engaged as a stakeholder and partner

- Gaining perspective from the child's community: seeking advice from family and other key stakeholders in the child's life to inform perspective on strategies, discuss interventions, and develop a plan for additional supports.
- Providing a pathway for resolving conflicts related to discipline strategies and practices for families (See Community Conflict Resolution Policy for more information).

Positive Behavior Interventions and Non-Exclusionary Practices

Positive approaches to discipline can improve student engagement, academic performance, and teacher satisfaction, while also reducing violence and disciplinary incidents in schools.[2]

WMPSC will determine the positive intervention and non-exclusionary practices based on incidents, circumstances, impact on the learning environment, and considering the health and safety of the child and community. WMPSC will use interventions and based on the different levels of behavior exhibited in the chart below. This is not meant to be exhaustive, but rather to guide appropriate interventions and supports to build executive function and positive self-discipline already present within the child. At all levels Teacher Leaders are encouraged to seek advice within the Wildflower community and engage stakeholders in informing decisions of strategies to employ. WMPSC will document all Level 2 and higher interventions and align documentation with data privacy policies.

The positive disciplinary practices outlined below should not be used to exclude students from school or otherwise deprive them of such an education, unless it is essential to preserving the safety of students and staff.

Level	Examples of Demonstrated Behavior	Examples of Positive Interventions / Non-Exclusionary Practices
1	Minor infraction with no prior incidents or pattern of behaviors. Other interventions have not been put in place.	Take a break and redirection: children take a short break from activities in the classroom to regain their self-control and/or engage in healing practices that regulate, calm, and/or respond to a child's need (e.g. movement).
		Practice reparations as a natural consequence: For example, children may be called to replace, clean, or fix damaged property and/or assist to make up for lost learning time.
		Conflict resolution process: guided prompts for building understanding and to learn about actions

| 2 | Pattern of minor infractions, especially interrupting learning for self and those around them. Breaking of classroom norms regarding respect for self, others, and the environment. Interventions for minor disruptions have not been successful. | Social Conference: Invite the child to discuss the issue with staff and possibly family, express needs, build awareness of impact of behavior on learning and the environment (gain perspective from the child)

Consult with family and other key stakeholders in the child's life: Gain perspective on strategies, discuss interventions, develop a plan for additional supports (gain perspective from the community) |
| 3 | Significant emotional distress and/or physical behavior that places child or others in the environment at physical/emotional risk. Interventions for level two behavior have not been successful. | Behavior Plan: A plan developed with family and key stakeholders with detailed actions and supports needed to fully participate in the environment. Engage community for plan development and advice including social worker, behavioral specialist, and/or psychologist. Determine resourced supports needed to aid the child's path to self-discipline.

Restitution planning as appropriate

Temporary separation: Timebound, less than one day break from the environment appropriate to the child's age and maturity level. Separation will be communicated to the family the same day.

Seeking advice: Teacher Leaders are committed to seeking advice for supporting children and engaging the Wildflower network and key stakeholders to support positive discipline strategies. |
| 4 | Major or repeated infractions including but not limited to assault, weapons, threatening behavior, attempt or willful bodily | Consultancy: Seeking advice within the Wildflower community to support WMPSC strategies and/or revisiting advice offered. Seek understanding of patterns of behavior, environmental influences (adult relationships, other children, etc) and | reflections of possible biases impacting behaviors and supports.

Restitution planning as appropriate

Providing a referral for needed support services, including parenting education, home visits, other supportive education interventions, or, where appropriate, an evaluation to determine if the child is eligible for special education services or section 504 services.

Suspension: Applicable only for children Kindergarten and older. Suspension must include an alternative education plan to not disrupt the child's learning during this period and cannot last more than five school days. Suspension may be in-school or out of school suspension. WMPSC will actively seek advice regarding suspensions as outlined below.

Expulsion Recommendation: Applicable only for children Kindergarten and older. WMPSC will actively seek advice regarding expulsions as outlined below. WMPSC must bring the expulsion decision to the WMPSC board for validation.

Seeking Advice for Positive Discipline Decisions, Including Suspensions and Expulsions

While protecting the child's identity, WMPSC will use the advice process frequently when assessing the child's needs and that of the environment. The purpose of using the advice process for decisions related to discipline and interventions is to proactively seek feedback on options, reflect on individuals' identities and potential biases, bring awareness to strategies employed, and surface opportunities for continued growth and learning.

Stakeholders

Consistent with the Wildflower advice process, Teacher Leaders, as the decision-makers, will determine the stakeholders to engage in advice. Stakeholders include those who are most impacted by the decision, whose accountabilities are activated, and who may have the most relevant lived experience and expertise. Stakeholders may include children (if they are old enough), families, WMPSC , and whomever might have to vouch for the decision to outside stakeholders. Teacher Leaders will engage in the advice process in the following ways:

- Reflecting on and naming individual identities that may influence perspectives, internal biases, and needs
- Engaging the charter community, especially peer Teacher Leaders, to surface strategies, opportunities for growth, and reflecting on and learning from practices
- Seeking opportunities for additional supports including but not limited to coaching and professional development.

Reporting Suspensions and Expulsion Decisions

WMPSC will follow the processes for reporting suspensions and expulsion decisions required by CDE and D51.

Suspension
 WMPSC will proactively seek advice with stakeholders any suspension lasting more than five consecutive school days and will clearly state the reason for extended suspension, inviting opportunity for continued engagement through the advice process.

A child will be provided an alternative education plan and materials to work in an area designated by school leadership on site, or will be suspended out of school. Materials may be provided prior to the suspension period, or when the child returns.

Expulsion Recommendations
Any decision to expel a child must first be brought to the WMPSC Board for validation. This can be processed through a special board meeting, and following Open Meetings Law, may be closed.

WMPSC will only engage in expulsion proceedings after all other options have been exhausted and/or the child engages in behaviors identified in Level 4 above. Prior to presenting an expulsion recommendation to the WMPSC board, WMPSC will use the advice process with the WMPSC Charter Circle outlined above. While protecting the child's identity, WMPSC will use the advice process before determining whether expulsion is the only option available.

Math Cluster Overview Chart

Domain	Cluster Objectives	K	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Counting and Cardinality	Know number names and the count sequence.	x
	Count to tell the number of objects.	x
	Compare numbers.	x
Operations and Algebraic Thinking	Understand addition as putting together and adding to, and understand subtraction as taking apart and taking from.	x
	Represent and solve problems involving addition and subtraction.		x	x
	Understand and apply properties of operations and the relationship between addition and subtraction.		x
	Add and subtract within 20.		x	x
	Work with addition and subtraction equations.		x
	Work with equal groups of objects to gain foundations for multiplication.			x
	Represent and solve problems involving multiplication and division.				x
	Understand properties of multiplication and the relationship between multiplication and division.				x
	Multiply and divide within 100.				x
	Solve problems involving the four operations, and identify and explain patterns in arithmetic.				x
	Use the four operations with whole numbers to solve problems.					x
	Gain familiarity with factors and multiples.					x
	Generate and analyze patterns.					x
	Write and interpret numerical expressions.						x
	Analyze patterns and relationships.						x
Number and Operations in Base 10	Work with numbers 11–19 to gain foundations for place value.	x
	Extend the counting sequence.		x
	Understand place value.		x	x
	Use place value understanding and properties of operations to add and subtract		x	x
	Use place value understanding and properties of operations to perform multi-digit arithmetic.				x	x
	Generalize place value understanding for multi-digit whole numbers.					x
	Understand the place value system.						x
	Perform operations with multi-digit whole numbers and with decimals to hundredths.						x
Measurement and Data	Describe and compare measurable attributes.	x
	Classify objects and count the number of objects in each category.	x
	Measure lengths indirectly and by iterating length units.		x
	Tell and write time.		x
	Represent and interpret data.		x	x	x	x	x
	Measure and estimate lengths in standard units.			x
	Relate addition and subtraction to length.			x
	Work with time and money.			x
	Solve problems involving measurement and estimation of intervals of time, liquid volumes, and masses of objects.				x
	Geometric measurement: understand concepts of area and relate area to multiplication and to addition.				x
	Geometric measurement: recognize perimeter as an attribute of plane figures and distinguish between linear and area measures.				x
	Solve problems involving measurement and conversion of measurements from a larger unit to a smaller unit.					x
	Geometric measurement: understand concepts of angle and measure angles.					x
	Convert like measurement units within a given measurement system.						x
	Geometric measurement: understand concepts of volume and relate volume to multiplication and to addition.						x
Geometry	Identify and describe shapes (squares, circles, triangles, rectangles, hexagons, cubes, cones, cylinders, and spheres).	x
	Analyze, compare, create, and compose shapes.	x
	Reason with shapes and their attributes.		x	x	x
	Draw and identify lines and angles, and classify shapes by properties of their lines and angles.					x
	Graph points on the coordinate plane to solve real-world and mathematical problems.						x
	Classify two-dimensional figures into categories based on their properties.						x
	Solve real-world and mathematical problems involving area, surface area, and volume.							x
	Draw, construct, and describe geometrical figures and describe the relationships between them.								x
	Solve real-life and mathematical problems involving angle measure, area, surface area, and volume.								x
	Understand congruence and similarity using physical models, transparencies, or geometry software.									x
	Understand and apply the Pythagorean Theorem.									x
	Solve real-world and mathematical problems involving volume of cylinders, cones, and spheres.									x
Number and Operations--Fractions	Develop understanding of fractions as numbers.				x
	Extend understanding of fraction equivalence and ordering.					x
	Build fractions from unit fractions by applying and extending previous understandings of operations on whole numbers.					x
	Understand decimal notation for fractions, and compare decimal fractions.					x
	Use equivalent fractions as a strategy to add and subtract fractions.						x
	Apply and extend previous understandings of multiplication and division to multiply and divide fractions.						x
Ratios and Proportional Relationships	Understand ratio concepts and use ratio reasoning to solve problems.							x
	Analyze proportional relationships and use them to solve real-world and mathematical problems.								x
The Number System	Apply and extend previous understandings of multiplication and division to divide fractions by fractions.							x
	Compute fluently with multi-digit numbers and find common factors and multiples.							x
	Apply and extend previous understandings of numbers to the system of rational numbers.							x
	Apply and extend previous understandings of operations with fractions to add, subtract, multiply, and divide rational numbers.								x
	Know that there are numbers that are not rational, and approximate them by rational numbers.									x
Expressions and Equations	Apply and extend previous understandings of arithmetic to algebraic expressions.							x
	Reason about and solve one-variable equations and inequalities.							x
	Represent and analyze quantitative relationships between dependent and independent variables.							x
	Use properties of operations to generate equivalent expressions.								x
	Solve real-life and mathematical problems using numerical and algebraic expressions and equations.								x
	Work with radicals and integer exponents.									x
	Understand the connections between proportional relationships, lines, and linear equations.									x
	Analyze and solve linear equations and pairs of simultaneous linear equations.									x
Statistics and Probability	Develop understanding of statistical variability.							x
	Summarize and describe distributions.							x
	Use random sampling to draw inferences about a population.								x
	Draw informal comparative inferences about two populations.								x
	Investigate chance processes and develop, use, and evaluate probability models.								x
	Investigate patterns of association in bivariate data.									x
Functions	Define, evaluate, and compare functions.									x
	Use functions to model relationships between quantities.									x

	Great story of mathematics/history
40001		Charts/story	The story of our numerals
40002			Making charts/making models
40003			Making timelines
40004			Research: number systems, cultural history, decimal system
	The decimal system, categories and place value
40008		Golden beads & presentation tray	Introduce decimal/whole number categories
40009		Golden beads & decimal cards	Association of symbol & quantity 1, 10, 100, 1000's
40010		Decimal cards	Understanding zero
40011		Golden beads & trays	Forming numbers using concrete quantities of beads
40012		Golden beads & decimal cards	Forming numbers w/decimal cards, hiding zeroes
40013		Golden beads, decimal cards & trays	Creating quantities w/symbols up to 9,999
40015		Wooden hierarchical material	Introduction to quantity & language, up to million
40016			Geometric shape and families to millions
40017		Number cards 1, 10, 100… 1,000,000	Introduction to symbol to millions
40018		Whm & number cards	Symbol and quantity into millions
40019		Golden beads, decimal cards	Expanded notation/decomposing numbers
40020		Sbf/lbf & sbf/lbf paper	Expanded notation/decomposing numbers
40021		Bank game	Expanded notation (along w/multiplication)
	Quantity & symbol: whole numbers: numeration
40024		Spindle boxes (0 - 9), bead stair (1 - 9)	Introduce/review numbers 1 - 10
40025		Snake game (1-10), memory games	Introduce/review numbers 1 - 10
40026		Cards & counters	Introduce odd/even numbers
40027		Golden beads	Counting and numbers 1 – 10
40028		Golden beads	Exchange/change game across categories
40029		Teen boards, bead bars	Introduce/review counting 11 - 20
40030		Ten boards & bead bars	Introduce/review counting 1 - 100
40031		Golden beads, base board	Decimal system (numbers to thousands using base board in base 10)
40032		Small bead frame	Counting to 1000
40033		Hundred & thousand chain & labels	Counting to 1000
40034		Short/square bead chains & labels	Linear & skip counting
40035		Long/cube bead chains & labels	Linear & skip counting
40036		Large bead frame	Counting to millions
40037		Sbf/lbf and sbf/lbf paper	Presentation of symbol up to millions
	Whole numbers: addition
40041		Golden beads	Concept of static addition with whole numbers
40042		Golden beads & decimal cards	Static addition (no carrying)
40043		Large bead frame	Static addition (no carrying)
40044		Stamp game	Static addition (no carrying)
40045		Stamp game w/square paper	Static addition w/recording
40046		Golden beads & decimal cards	Dynamic addition (w/carrying)
40047		Large bead frame	Dynamic addition (w/carrying)
40048		Dot game	Dynamic addition (w/carrying)
40049		Stamp game	Dynamic addition (w/carrying)
40050		Lbf and lbf paper	Dynamic addition w/recording
40051		Stamp game w/square paper	Dynamic addition w/recording
40052		Golden beads & decimal cards	Special cases, using zero in all terms of equation
40053		Lbf, stamp game w/paper	Introduce/consolidate algorithm
40054		Golden beads	Addition word problems, problem solving
40055		Bead bar material and pencil/paper	Addition word problems, problem solving
40056		Bead bar material and pencil/paper	Commutative law of addition
40057		Bead bar material and pencil/paper	Associative property of addition

Activity ID	Content Strand	Material	Presentations/Activities
40059	Memorization of addition facts	Addition strip board	Addition math facts, memorization
40060		Addition practice/finger charts	Addition math facts, memorization
40061		Addition snake game	Addition math facts, memorization
40062		Bead bar material and pencil/paper	Memorization of facts (addition)
40064	Whole numbers: subtraction

	Represent and solve problems involving addition and subtraction	1.OA.A.1 Use addition and subtraction within 20 to solve word problems involving situations of adding to, taking from, putting together, taking apart, and comparing, with unknowns in all positions, e.g., by using objects, drawings, and equations with a symbol for the unknown number to represent the problem.	40041/40065 Golden Beads /Static Addition and Subtraction 40042/40066 Golden Beads & Decimal Cards/Static Addition and Subtraction 40043/40067 Large Bead Frame/Static Addition and Subtraction 40044/40068 Stamp Game/Static Addition and Subtraction 40045/40069 Stamp Game w/square paper/writing using symbolic representation 40051 Stamp Game with Squared Paper	Golden Bead Material Large Bead Frame Stamp Game	C	Attention should be given to some problems with missing addends. (8+?= 10) Some problems that show missing minuends and subtrahends. (10 - what number = 6)
		1.OA.A.2. Solve word problems that call for addition of three whole numbers whose sum is less than or equal to 20, e.g., by using objects, drawings, and equations with a symbol for the unknown number to represent the problem.	40054/40078 Word Problems Golden Beads Addition and Subtraction 40055/40079 Bead Bar Addition and Subtraction 40051 Stamp Game with Squared Paper	Stamp Game Golden Bead Material Bead Bars Symbols for operations, and solving for the unknown in an equation	C	Lessons should include a variety of ways to solve for the unknown and balance equations
		2.OA.A.1. Use addition and subtraction within 100 to solve one- and two-step word problems involving situations of adding to, taking from, putting together, taking apart, and comparing, with unknowns in all positions, e.g., by using drawings and equations with a symbol for the unknown number to represent the problem.	40054/40078 Golden Beads/Addition and Subtraction Word Problems 40055/40079 Bead Bars/Addition and Subtraction Word Problems	Golden Bead Material Bead Bars	C	Lessons should include a variety of ways to solve for the unknown and balance equations. Word problems should include the language "adding to, taking from, putting together, taking apart, and compare"
	Understand and apply properties of operations and the relationship between addition and subtraction.	1.OA.B.3. Apply properties of operations as strategies to add and subtract. Examples: If 8 + 3 = 11 is known, then 3 + 8 = 11 is also known. (Commutative property of addition.) To add 2 + 6 + 4, the second two numbers can be added to make a ten, so 2 + 6 + 4 = 2 + 10 = 12. (Associative property of addition.)	40056 Bead Bar/Commutative Property of Addition 40061 Snake Game (Associative Property)	Bead Bars	C	Acknowledge the Commutative and Associative Properties apparent in these lessons. Add vocabulary of "Unknown Quantity". IMPORTANT: AMI math curriculum includes math problems beyond 20 and introduces both Static and Dynamic Addition and Subtraction. These concepts are presented early and supported by materials which include quantity and symbol. (40046 ,40047, 40048, 40049 for addition and 40070 ,40071, 40072, 40073 for subtraction)
		1.OA.B.4. Understand subtraction as an unknown-addend problem. For example, subtract 10 – 8 by finding the number that makes 10 when added to 8.	40083 Snake Game Subtraction	Subtraction Snake Game	C
	Add and subtract within 20.	1.OA.C.5. Relate counting to addition and subtraction (e.g., by counting on 2 to add 2).	40091 Bead Chains 40034/40044 Review of Skip Counting 40036 Large Bead Frame	Short and Long Bead Chains	C	The intention of this standard is to help a child understand how to 'count up' from the known quantity: if you add 5 and three, you begin with 5 and count up: "6, 7, 8."
		1.OA.C.6. Add and subtract within 20, demonstrating fluency for addition and subtraction within 10. Use strategies such as counting on; making ten (e.g., 8 + 6 = 8 + 2 + 4 = 10 + 4 = 14); decomposing a number leading to a ten (e.g., 13 – 4 = 13 – 3 – 1 = 10 – 1 = 9); using the relationship between addition and subtraction (e.g., knowing that 8 + 4 = 12, one knows 12 – 8 = 4); and creating equivalent but easier or known sums (e.g., adding 6 + 7 by creating the known equivalent 6 + 6 + 1 = 12 + 1 = 13).	40061/40083 Snake Game 40059 Addition Strip Board 40060 Addition Finger Charts 40081 Subtraction Strip Board 40082 Subtraction Finger Charts	Bead Bars Addition Strip Board and Finger Charts Subtraction Strip Board and Finger Charts	C	These materials continue to support the concepts of missing number and unknown quantity found in algebra. Previous knowledge of decomposition of numbers with golden beads is needed. The purpose of this standard is for children to be able to create equivalent sums and for this they need to know that different added can create a sum to build tens for mental addition and subtraction
		2.OA.B.2. Fluently add and subtract within 20 using mental strategies. By end of Grade 2, know from memory all sums of two one-digit numbers.	40059 Addition Strip Board 40060 Addition Finger Charts 40061 Addition Snake Game 40081 Subtraction Strip Board 40082 Subtraction Finger Charts 40083 Subtraction Snake Game 40027 Golden Beads 40047/40071 Large Bead Frame	Addition Strip Board and Finger Charts Subtraction Strip Board and Finger Charts Bead Bars Golden Beads Large and Small Bead Frame Boxes of tickets with equations and answers for all four operations	C	Flash cards can help here as well
	Work with addition and subtraction equations	1.OA.D.7. Understand the meaning of the equal sign, and determine if equations involving addition and subtraction are true or false. For example, which of the following equations are true and which are false? 6 = 6, 7 = 8 – 1, 5 + 2 = 2 + 5, 4 + 1 = 5 + 2. OA: Operations and Algebraic Thinking	Work with equal groups of objects to gain foundations for multiplication.	2.OA.C.3. Determine whether a group of objects (up to 20) has an odd or even number of members, e.g., by pairing objects or counting them by 2s; write an equation to express an even number as a sum of two equal addends.	40087 Golden Beads/Intro. To Multiplication 40088 Concept of Simple Multiplication 40091 Skip Counting	Cards and counters	C	The concept of odd and even would have been practiced in the primary, but this material could be borrowed for a review in elementary
		2.OA.C.4. Use addition to find the total number of objects arranged in rectangular arrays with up to 5 rows and up to 5 columns; write an equation to express the total as a sum of equal addends.	40107 Introduction of Checkerboard 40108 Multiplication by a One-Digit Multiplier 40109 Multiplication by a Multi-Digit Multiplier (Using Bead Bars, No Facts)	Bead bars/number tickets Checkerboard	C	Graph the multiplication equation on graph paper to visually see the array
	Represent and solve problems involving multiplication and division.	3.OA.A.1. Interpret products of whole numbers, e.g., interpret 5 x 7 as the total number of objects in 5 groups of 7 objects each. For example, describe a context in which a total number of objects can be expressed as 5 x 7.	40089 Decanomial w/bead bars	Bead bar box (decanomial)	C	Emphasis on additional language as extension. Array Graph the array on graph paper so that the child can visually see the array
		3.OA.A.2. Interpret whole-number quotients of whole numbers, e.g., interpret 56 ÷ 8 as the number of objects in each share when 56 objects are partitioned equally into 8 shares, or as a number of shares when 56 objects are partitioned into equal shares of 8 objects each. For example, describe a context in which a number of shares or a number of groups can be expressed as 56 ÷ 8.	40051 Stamp Game with Squared Paper 40134 Racks and Tubes/Division by a One-Digit Divisor	Stamp game Racks and tubes	C	Reminder to use CCSS language as it applies to work in division (divisor, dividend, quotient)
		3.OA.A.3. Use multiplication and division within 100 to solve word problems in situations involving equal groups, arrays, and measurement quantities, e.g., by using drawings and equations with a symbol for the unknown number to represent the problem.	40131 Multiplication Word Problems 40143 Division Word Problems 40442 ff. Area Work		C	Practicing with instruments of measurement (metric and standard), graphing, gaining the concept and practice measuring perimeter, area, and practice with hand made and oral word problems would all help with this standard
		3.OA.A.4. Determine the unknown whole number in a multiplication or division equation relating three whole numbers. For example, determine the unknown number that makes the equation true in each of the equations 8 x ? = 48, 5 = ? ÷ 3, 6 x 6 = ?.		Finger charts Decanomial	C	Emphasize various ways to consider the unknown quantity being asked using finger charts: Multiplication 8x6=(what number), 8x(what number)=48, (what number)x6=48. Division 48 : 6=(what number), 48 : 8=(what number), (what number) divided by 8=6, and (what number) divided by 6=8.
	Understand properties of multiplication and the relationship between multiplication and division	3.OA.B.5. Apply properties of operations as strategies to multiply and divide. Examples: If 6 x 4 = 24 is known, then 4 x 6 = 24 is also known. (Commutative property of multiplication.) 3 x 5 x 2 can be found by 3 x 5 = 15, then 15 x 2 = 30, or by 5 x 2 = 10, then 3 x 10 = 30. (Associative property of multiplication.) Knowing that 8 x 5 = 40 and 8 x 2 = 16, one can find 8 x 7 as 8 x (5 + 2) = (8 x 5) + (8 x 2) = 40 + 16 = 56. (Distributive property.)	40056 Commutative Law of Addition 40057 Associative Property of Addition 40094 Commutative Law of Multiplication 40096-40104 Distributive Law of Multiplication and Associative Laws	Materials for commutative, distributive and associative properties	C	All three laws are inherent in this objective.
		3.OA.B.6. Understand division as an unknown-factor problem. For example, find 32 ÷ 8 by finding the number that makes 32 when multiplied by 8.			C	Practice inverse number operations
	Multiply and divide within 100	3.OA.C.7. Fluently multiply and divide within 100, using strategies such as the relationship between multiplication and division (e.g., knowing that 8 x 5 = 40, one knows 40 ÷ 5 = 8) or properties of operations. By the end of Grade 3, know from memory all products of two one-digit numbers.	40110 Checkerboard and Bead bars (Multi-Digit Multiplier, some facts.) 40111 Checkerboard (Multi-Digit Multiplier, recording/final product) 40112-400113 Checkerboard	Materials for checkerboard	C	AMI curriculum creates problems in categories of units, tens, hundreds, thousands,to millions. Problems are not confined within 100. Emphasize and practice the concept of fact families, and written and oral story problems to show the relationship of multiplication and division.
	Solve problems involving the four operations, and identify and explain patterns in arithmetic.	3.OA.D.8. Solve two-step word problems using the four operations. Represent these problems using equations with a letter standing for the unknown quantity. Assess the reasonableness of answers using mental computation and estimation strategies including rounding. This standard is limited to problems posed with whole numbers and having whole- number answers; students should know how to perform operations in the conventional order when there are no parentheses to specify a particular order (Order of Operations).	40330 Order of Operations 40331 Solving an Equation for One Unknown Using the Laws of Inverse Operations 40337 Algebraic Word Problems 40056 Commutative Law of Addition	Bead bars Box of operation symbols and number cards Algebra materials	P	Concepts covered in Montessori Math Curriculum can support additional problems. For example: Rounding off using Golden Beads. Stressing concept of estimating while using large bead frame, checkerboard, racks and tubes, stamp game for problems in all four operations. Practice with oral and written word problems. Translate verbal problems into equations.
		3.OA.D.9. Identify arithmetic patterns (including patterns in the addition table or multiplication table) and explain them using properties of operations. For example, observe that 4 times a number is always even, and explain why 4 times a number can be decomposed into two equal addends.		Golden beads	C
	Use the four operations with whole numbers to solve problems.	4.OA.A.1. Interpret a multiplication equation as a comparison, e.g., interpret 35 = 5 x 7 as a statement that 35 is 5 times as many as 7 and 7 times as many as 5. Represent verbal statements of multiplicative comparisons as multiplication equations.	Previously presented Montessori materials are applicable to these concepts.		C	Create oral and written word problems as extensions to the concepts learned with Montessori materials.
		4.OA.A.2. Multiply or divide to solve word problems involving multiplicative comparison, e.g., by using drawings and equations with a symbol for the unknown number to represent the problem, distinguishing multiplicative comparison from additive comparison.	Previously presented Montessori materials are applicable to these concepts.		P	AMI Guide responsible to create extensions to previously presented Montessori materials
		4.OA.A.3. Solve multistep word problems posed with whole numbers and having whole-number answers using the four operations, including problems in which remainders must be interpreted. Represent these problems using equations with a letter standing for the unknown quantity. Assess the reasonableness of answers using mental computation and estimation strategies including rounding.	Previously presented Montessori materials are applicable to these concepts.		P	Help the child to look at various ways to see the operation/missing number/remainder etc. For example: when using racks and tubes, help the child analyze the relationship of the physical remainder left in the bowl(s) with the equation written with the remainder.

AMI guides are aware of and can use the language inherent in the Montessori Math Curriculum and introduce it naturally, so when children encounter it in the CCSS, it is very familiar to them.
	Generate and analyze patterns.	4.OA.C.5. Generate a number or shape pattern that follows a given rule. Identify apparent features of the pattern that were not explicit in the rule itself. For example, given the rule "Add 3" and the starting number 1, generate terms in the resulting sequence and observe that the terms appear to alternate between odd and even numbers. Explain informally why the numbers will continue to alternate in this way.	40148 Further Investigation of Multiples Using Multiples of Numbers Paper 40152 Multiples - Table C 40155 Pegs and Pegboard/Factors 40156 Pegs and Pegboard/Common Factor 40157 Table C 40158 Pegs and Pegboard/Prime Factor 40159 Pegs and Pegboard/Paper LCM 40160 Pegs and Pegboard/ Greatest Common Factor (GCF) or Highest Common Factor (HCF)	Multiples - table C Pegs/pegboard	C	Oral and written word problems.
	Write and interpret numerical expressions.	5.OA.A.1. Stress also the idea of Order of Operations. Become increasingly aware of the Distributive, Commutative, Associative properties that are part of the squaring of binomials, trinomials, quadranomials and polynomials. Extend understanding into the further exploration of Order of Operations found in derived formulas.
		5.OA.A.2. Write simple expressions that record calculations with numbers, and interpret numerical expressions without evaluating them. For example, express the calculation "add 8 and 7, then multiply by 2" as 2 x (8 + 7). Recognize that 3 x (18932 + 921) is three times as large as 18932 + 921, without having to calculate the indicated sum or product.	40056 Bead Bar Material and Pencil and Paper 40337 Algebraic Word Problems	Bead bars Box of numbers and symbols	C	Oral and written word problems.
	Analyze patterns and relationships	5.OA.B.3. Generate two numerical patterns using two given rules. Identify apparent relationships between corresponding terms. Form ordered pairs consisting of corresponding terms from the two patterns, and graph the ordered pairs on a coordinate plane. For example, given the rule "Add 3" and the starting number 0, and given the rule "Add 6" and the starting number 0, generate terms in the resulting sequences, and observe that the terms in one sequence are twice the corresponding terms in the other sequence. Explain informally why this is so.			P	Bringing awareness of this simple concept may be comparatively easy as children already extend lessons on graph paper - for example: children are already familiar with using graph paper when graphing a Checkerboard problem, or when they find the square root of a number and represent that on graph paper. Using the graph paper as a number line would be easy.

		3.NF.A.3. Explain equivalence of fractions in special cases, and compare fractions by reasoning about their size. a. Understand two fractions as equivalent (equal) if they are the same size, or the same point on a number line. b. Recognize and generate simple equivalent fractions, e.g., 1/2 = 2/4, 4/6 = 2/3). Explain why the fractions are equivalent, e.g., by using a visual fraction model. c. Express whole numbers as fractions, and recognize fractions that are equivalent to whole numbers. Examples: Express 3 in the form 3 = 3/1; recognize that 6/1 = 6; locate 4/4 and 1 at the same point of a number line diagram. d. Compare two fractions with the same numerator or the same denominator by reasoning about their size. Recognize that comparisons are valid only when the two fractions refer to the same whole. Recognize a statistical question as one that anticipates variability in the data related to the question and accounts for it in the answers. For example, "How old am I?" is not a statistical question, but "How old are the students in my school?" is a statistical question because one anticipates variability in students' ages.			X

Planning Montessori interventions to meet needs, remove obstacles, and build skills

THE ABSORBENT MIND

And so we discovered that education is not something which the teacher does, but that it is a natural process which develops spontaneously in the human being. It is not acquired by listening to words, but in virtue of experiences in which the child acts on his environment. The teacher's task is not to talk, but to prepare and arrange a series of motives for cultural activity in a special environment made for the child.

– Maria Montessori

CHILD STUDY PROCESS: TIER I STEPS

(Prework) → Family Meeting → Child Study Meeting → Progress Monitoring

TIER I

On the Radar

Who is showing signs of difficulty?
What obstacles are in the way of healthy development?
What modifications can be made to remove obstacles?
How will we monitor progress?

Instructional Teams suggest classroom modifications; Progress is monitored through classroom record-keeping Universal Screens provide baseline data

Child Study Protocol

This is a protocol for fostering robust program level team meetings focused on Child Study. The purpose of this tool is to develop the first phase of an Action Plan for students who are showing difficulties thriving within the Montessori prepared environment.

Prior to the Meeting (At least one family meeting has occurred)

The Presenting Teacher completes the Child Study Student Summary.

Step 1: What's Going on with this Child?   8 Minutes

The Facilitator invites presenting teacher to describe their concerns about a particular child, referring to the Child Study Student Summary. The rest of the team listens silently and takes notes.

Step 2: Clarifying the Situation   5 Minutes

The Facilitator manages clarifying questions from the team. The presenting teacher answers questions as directly as possible.

Step 3: Defining the Problem   10 Minutes

The Facilitator supports an open discussion in which the team offers suggestions and analyses about the cause of the child's difficulty or challenge. The Facilitator helps teachers categorize difficulties through B.A.S.E. with attention to obstacles, lagging skills, unmet needs.

Step 4: Articulating the Goal   10 Minutes

Based on the discussion in Step 3, the Facilitator proposes a "SMART" goal for reducing the difficulty. The presenting teacher responds to the proposal and the Facilitator helps the group refine the goal.

Step 5: Completing the Plan   up to 10 Minutes

The Facilitator invites the entire team to generate as many potential interventions as possible in five minutes. Using sticky notes, the participants write one intervention per note.

After five minutes, the Facilitator invites the team to read their suggestions while one team member groups the sticky notes in categories that emerge. Following the reading and display, the presenting teacher and the team choose three or four strategies as the foundation of an Action Plan. The Convener records the interventions. Having identified goals and strategies, the team agrees on indicators of progress and a date to report back on progress. The Convener records these details in a master record, and is responsible for distributing the Action Plan to the presenting teacher.

The Facilitator

The Facilitator is charged with keeping the meeting running smoothly. This entails:

- Keeping time
- Reminding participants of the goals, when necessary
- Paraphrasing and summarizing during steps 3–5

The Convener

The Convener is charged with maintaining accurate records of all cases brought to the team for discussion. This entails maintaining a comprehensive docket of cases detailing:

- Date the teacher requested a meeting
- Date the meeting was held and plan developed
- Dates progress monitoring occurred

The Convener also manages the schedule of meetings and distributes agendas, detailing the cases to be discussed, prior to each meeting.

SMART Goals

- Specific—must be concrete
- Measureable— progress must be evident in data
- Attainable—must be a goal that is within reach of the student's current capacities
- Relevant— appropriate to the child's developmental stage and level
- Timely— progress must be evident within a period lasting no longer than 4-6 weeks

Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado
Financial Services Scope of Work

WMPSC is seeking to establish a contract with an individual or firm to provide financial services, including: charter-wide bookkeeping, financial reporting, and related operations and coordination with Teacher Leaders on site-level bookkeeping, financial reporting, and related operations.

The below description reflects the scope of work and qualifications that will inform a formal request for quote that will be issued during WMPSC's Year 0.

Our Mission
The mission of Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC) is to provide an authentic Montessori education that bridges academic outcomes and social emotional development across vibrant, one-of-a-kind learning environments deeply rooted in place, community, and a sense of belonging.

Essential Responsibilities
- Develops financial policies and protocols in conjunction with the Board of Directors.
- Serves as the primary staff liaison with the Board of Directors Finance Committee.
- Manages charter-wide State and Federal Funding for WMPSC, including Title Funding, reporting to CSI and CDE and reporting to the federal government.
- Stewards financial management, including coordinating internal financial controls and accounts payable/receivable, leading annual audit, producing financial reports, and reconciliation.
- Facilitates the annual school budget process with WMPSC site Teacher Leaders.
- Serves as the main point of contact on charterwide contracted services such as accounting, food service, maintenance, purchasing and materials, Special Education, MLL, technology, and consultants.
- Serves as an advisor to Teacher Leaders on site-based contract and lease decisions.
- Maintains inventory of school leases and/or property.
- Ensures WMPSC is compliant with all GAAP standards.

Minimum Qualifications
- Bachelor's degree / MBA preferred
- 3-5 years of experience in school administration or other managerial role required; experience in school finance preferred

Preferred Attitude, Knowledge, and Skills

- Financial management – You have experience working in every layer of complexity of school finance management – from directing the work of auditors and accountants, to designing systems and processes, and communicating high-level budgetary decisions to leaders who do not have financial expertise.
- Detail-oriented organization skills – Crossing every "t" and dotting every "i" is your natural disposition – you thrive on creating processes and systems, and engaging others in using those systems to make the everyday work of leading a school easier and more streamlined.
- Leader in Learning – You love supporting peers to engage with financial tools effectively and see yourself as a coach, building financial capacity within your team to make financial decisions in a non-hierarchical organization.
- Legal compliance – You have experience working with state and federal education law, specifically Colorado charter law, data privacy, student data and charter transparency laws and regulations - remaining up to date on new developments.
- Innovative leadership – Your default mode is "yes." You are flexible, open-minded, see opportunity in obstacles, and are energized by using creativity and resourcefulness to create new ways of leading the business of schools.
- A desire to learn and grow – You are eager to stretch beyond your current experience, to develop new skills and expertise and to more deeply explore your purpose and potential.
- Passion for Montessori and Racial Equity – You are eager to increase access to Montessori to families in Aurora, and to support neighborhood nested schools that have been designed with and for the community.

Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado
Teacher Leader, Aurora

Summary

As a Teacher Leader at Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC), you will design and operate a new charter school site in Aurora, in partnership with other Teacher Leaders and in collaboration with the Shared Services Partner and other charter-wide support roles. WMPSC Teacher Leaders lead through direct engagement with their families and report to the Board of Directors.

Our Mission

The mission of Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC) is to provide families with child-centered, authentic Montessori education that bridges academic outcomes and social-emotional development through intimate learning communities deeply rooted in place, equity, and belonging

Essential Responsibilities

- Designs and plans a new WMPSC microsite in Aurora through the Wildflower School Startup Journey.
- Identifies a physical space for a new WMPSC microsite - including identifying, leasing and renovating a community embedded site in co-creation with the Community Design Team.
- Prepares a Montessori learning environment in alignment with your vision, the community's needs, the WMPSC Aurora charter contract, and the regulations in CSI and Colorado Department of Education.
- Aligns practices with charter policies and plans and school site-based practices that center the child and their sense of belonging.
- Builds and maintains a balanced site budget and implements sound financial practices to ensure accountability and fiscal health.
- Leads with cultural humility and actively works to disrupt oppressive systems and practices.
- Co-leads a mixed-age group Montessori classroom.
- Maintains compliance with the school's charter and accountability expectations.
- Co-creates the school design with and for families and children and cultivates a committed community of students, families, and stakeholders rooted in partnership. Develops authentic, enduring relationships with community members to inform ongoing site design and evolution.
- Supports all learners, especially students with special needs by employing inclusive teaching practices, including healing-centered instruction, that meet the needs of every child.

- Collaborates with the Special Education Teacher, Shared Services Partner, Student Services Coordinator and contracted service providers to best anticipate and serve all students' needs.
- Ensures accurate and complete records, collaborating with the Shared Services Partner and CSI to stay in compliance with regulations at all times.
- Operates with sound human resource and legal practices.
- Maintains a healthy, well-functioning facility that meets the needs of students and licensing requirements.
- Supports caregivers of students to adopt aligned practices at home as desired to create a seamless learning environment.
- Utilizes leadership and administrative skills to operate and communicate with transparency to all stakeholders, including WMPSC Board of Directors.

Minimum Qualifications
- Completion of an AMI, AMS or other MACTE accredited primary or elementary Montessori training program and/or commitment to complete training during School Startup Journey
- Bachelor's degree required
- Colorado licensure encouraged but not required

Preferred Attitudes, Knowledge, and Skills
- A deep commitment to authentic Montessori - Your expertise will position you to be a highly effective facilitator of children's learning and to extend the values of Montessori to include the adults within your school community.
- Entrepreneurial leadership - You are flexible, open-minded, see opportunity in obstacles, and are energized by using creativity and resourcefulness to anticipate challenges and create solutions to problems.
- Commitment to serving diverse and multifaceted communities - You are eager to increase access to Montessori to racially and socioeconomically diverse communities and are deeply committed to supporting the development of intersectional communities. You understand the role race, along with ethnicity, gender/gender identity and sexual orientation, play in contributing to persistent inequity. You have engaged in culturally responsive and anti-racist practices with the students and families you serve.
- Generosity of spirit - You build authentic relationships in diverse settings, practice gratitude, and lead with love. You seek advice openly and are comfortable working in a non-hierarchical organization.
- Willingness to work hard - You have the aptitude, stamina, time, and appetite to raise yourself to the challenge of starting and leading your own school. You will not be alone, but you will be busy.
- A desire to learn and grow - You are eager to stretch beyond your current experience, to develop new skills and expertise and to more deeply explore your purpose and potential.

WMPSC Growth and Accountability Cycle & Site Review Process Criteria

The responsibility of the School Accountability Committee is to work closely with Teacher Leaders and the Shared Services Partner to collect, review, report, and evaluate the goals outlined in Section C: Goals, Objective & Pupil Performance Standards and to meet Colorado SB 10-191. The Student Accountability Committee (SAC) stewards the Shared Services Provider and Teacher Leaders to complete the School Leadership Evaluation Cycle and all board members hold a responsibility to be active in the annual cycle. Board training is provided to support charter-wide, site-specific, and Leadership accountabilities.

While our school accountability processes rely on largely the same inputs and have the same aims as traditional systems, the internal mechanics of the WMPSC system are very different. We believe most people are intrinsically motivated to do good work and that they have the deepest insight into their own performance. We see the most important aspect of accountability as being accountable to oneself. Relatedly, we think of the most impacted stakeholders in retention or compensation decisions as being the individuals themselves. For these reasons, all of our accountability processes center on the individual, who coordinates the process to gather input into their own performance (both absolute and relative), considers goals and results, considers context and determines any next steps. The same self-management tools we use for other decisions - the right of stakeholders to object to harmful decisions through the Conflict Resolution Process and Radical Transparency - provide important guardrails to ensure that decisions are made in the service of WMPSC's mission and vision.

Every touchpoint of the Growth and Accountability Cycle includes different stakeholders and we will actively seek family and community voices to be advice givers in decision-making. Below is a summary of the Annual Leadership Growth and Accountability Cycle for Shared Services and Teacher Leaders, explained below and detailed in a Growth and Accountability Toolkit, in development during the Planning Year:

Annual Leadership Growth and Accountability Cycle for Shared Services Partner and Teacher Leaders
Tools to support self-management	Timeline	Stakeholders involved in feedback
Annual Goals and Reflection	Goal advice provided in August; Reflection advice provided in February	Teacher Leader partner, Shared Services Partner; 2 other Montessori/Academic leaders identified by the Teacher Leader; 1 additional Board member

Instructional Coaching / Professional Development	August - May	Montessori Instructional Coach (Teacher Leaders) or Growth and Connectedness Coach (Shared Services Partner)
WMPSC Site Review Process	January - April	Board Officer, Shared Services Partner, Student Services Coordinator or Finance Partner, Community Design Team Member
DEIB Agreement 'Shelf Work' Reflection	February-April	Community Design Team Member, Teacher Leader
Annual Community Site Survey / Net Promoter score	March	Anonymous survey for all stakeholders in the community
Annual Summative Self-reflection	Submitted to Board in May	Teacher Leader partner, Teacher Leader Board Liaison

Growth and Accountability Cycle: Shared Services Partner

The School Accountability Committee will define and steward an annual Growth and Accountability Cycle for the Shared Services Partner. The purpose of this process is to support the year-long cycle, designed to hold school leadership accountable through frequent touchpoints looking at the following elements:
- Charter-wide progress on each element of WMPSC's established charter goals;
- Progress towards mission-related goals, such as:
  - Community engagement in school site neighborhoods;
  - Belonging and identity affirming site culture;
  - Equity approach and modeling;
- Ability to activate the Advice Process and Conflict Resolution Process with staff, Teacher Leaders, and Board;
- Fiscal health of WMPSC;
- Staff satisfaction and retention;
- Student attendance and retention.

Growth and Accountability Cycle: Teacher Leaders

For a Teacher Leader, this would start with the collection of family and peer input and incorporation of student achievement results and other results, all facilitated by processes supported by WMPSC staff. If the Shared Services Partner or board members have direct exposure to the Teacher Leader's work, they may provide input at this stage as well. Once an individual has considered all of the input and integrated it with their own perspectives to form an opinion on whether they should continue in their role, what they should focus on developmentally, and what, if anything, should happen to their compensation, the Shared Services Partner and the School Accountability Committee of the Board have the formal opportunity to offer advice – for example, to suggest that an individual overweighed one aspect of input vs. another or underappreciated the value or consequence of some aspect of the individual's work, or even that they came to the tense decision on whether they should continue in their role. Next, the individual considers advice and may refine their determination and next steps. At this point, the Shared Services Partner and the School Accountability Committee receive the evaluations and can object to any decisions they identify as harmful.

Outside the formal processes described above, school accountability happens on an ongoing basis through the functioning of strong self-management processes and a focus on growth and connectedness. In operating self-management, if one Teacher Leader believes that their partner should leave WMPSC, the Conflict Resolution Process gives clear guidance for what to do with that thought to take action. The process can result in a Teacher Leader's departure. If a Teacher Leader at one site believes that another site in the charter is not meeting charter goals and mission, they would also use the Conflict Resolution Process, which could result in changes to that site. The hallmark of this system is that it gives individuals and the Board access to a tremendous amount of information along the way. These stakeholders can step in when they think things are headed in the wrong direction, but it makes explicit something that good managers do in traditional arrangements: it leaves individuals in charge of the most important decisions that impact their work and career except in the unusual case where an individual demonstrates an inability to handle that responsibility.

Site Review Process
Because our charter is made up of multiple sites, each site is held accountable to charter-wide performance and meeting charter goals. The Site Review Process is the annual process used by WMPSC stakeholders to review every site under the charter (Appendix H_WMPSC Site Review Process Draft). Stakeholders included in this process are the site Teacher Leaders, a Board Officer, Shared Services Partner, Operations or Finance Partner, and parents / guardians. During the Site Review Process, stakeholders use defined criteria to provide Teacher Leaders advice on the site's operation and alignment with the WMPSC mission.

Beyond this annual process as a routine practice, the Teacher Leaders will provide the Board regular updates on site progress and performance, and the Shared Services Partner will report on charter-wide performance. During the Planning Year, we will seek to refine these processes with the advice from stakeholders close to the decision making, including Teacher Leaders, parents, families, Community Design Team, and Shared Services Partner.

WMPSC Site Review Process

The Site Review Process is one of the Growth and Accountability Cycle Tools completed annually and used by WMPSC stakeholders to observe and interview every site under the charter. Stakeholders included in this process include: site Teacher Leaders, Shared Services Partner, Board Officer, Parent/Guardian Board Rep, Site Parent, and 1 staff member.

During the Site Review Process, stakeholders use the WMPSC Criteria to validate the site team's request for realignment and provide them advice on the site's operation. The Matrix is intended to ensure and document that each new site is appropriately aligned with WMPSC's mission and charter-wide accountabilities.

Teacher Leaders set up the Site Review process by December 1 and will usually occur between January and April of each school year; within 30 days after the site visit occurs, the Teacher Leader ; the process is complete by May 1.

In response to the written evidence, advice and visits, the School Accountability Committee of the Board of Directors will provide the Teacher Leader site team with detailed feedback on how the site continues to align with Charter Goals criteria. Validation responses include the following:
- Aligned: the Board has determined that the site aligns with WMPSC Site Review Criteria.

- Aligned with Conditions: the Board believes that the site does not fully align with Site Review Criteria, and must achieve one or more specific conditions or milestones to satisfy such conditions within 45 days.
- Does not Align: Shared Services Partner along with the Board Chair will work with Teacher Leaders to make significant changes within 45 days and the broader charter community will be informed of the shifts.
- Recommendations: Stakeholders and the Board may provide recommendations for any of the above validation responses; recommendations represent the informed suggestions of the Board.

Following the site review feedback, Teacher Leaders will prioritize three primary ways that the Board and Operations staff can help Teacher Leaders sustain their site.

WMPSC Site Review Criteria

Wildflower Network Alignment

Each Teacher Leader has articulated their commitment to Wildflower Values, Norms, and Principles, and any self-management practices.

Each Teacher Leader has consistently acted in alignment with Wildflower Values, Norms, Principles, and any corresponding Practices throughout their experience in the Exploration and Planning phases of the Wildflower School Startup Journey.

Teacher Leader Professional Development

Each Teacher Leader has received, reflected, and implemented advice from coaching and School Accountability Committee feedback cycles

Each Teacher Leader has pursued professional development in areas required for local district and CDE regulation as well as self-growth.

School Culture Goals

Site meets Essential Elements goals

Academic Goals

Site meets Student Progress goals

Site meets Student Achievement and Growth goals

Site Vision and Community

The site identity (i.e. brand, vision statement) aligns with Wildflower's principles and branding guidelines.

The site team has embedded the neighborhood and site community within their continuing planning and events.

The site team has reflected on how to evolve their program to meet neighborhood and community needs.

Equity Lens

DEIB Agreement, Shelf Work

Site teams embody an equity lens and continue to operate with this foundation.

Each Teacher Leader continues on-going work of identity, social justice, and culturally responsive education.

Roles and Responsibilities

Site team has determined roles and corresponding responsibilities for all team members through which at least two Teacher Leaders share a mix of administrative and instructional accountabilities.

Site team has made changes to roles and responsibilities, responding to their own needs and the operation of the site.

Recruitment and Enrollment

Site team has defined a recruitment and enrollment plan that aligns with WMPSC enrollment policies and processes.

Site team has met enrollment projections and if not, has reflected on the obstacles of meeting enrollment.

Budget
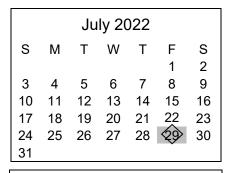

Site team has defined a balanced site budget that is based on research-based assumptions and aligns with WMPSC accounting practices and financial policies.
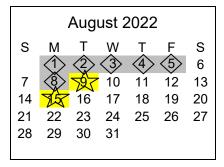

Site team has allocated funds to the charter wide budget and reflected on how their site contributes to charter fiscal health
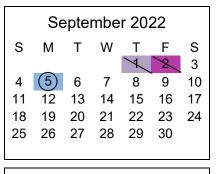

Belonging, Liberation, Growth & Wholeness
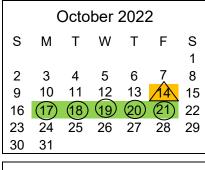

Teacher Leaders have each defined an individual learning plan with learning priorities identified in each of the following areas: developing new skills, equity, and wholeness.

Self Management Ways of Working

Our values and norms lead us to ways of working that are at once collaborative and independent. Each of us has substantial freedom, and there are limits to our freedom shaped by the freedoms of others.

At the heart of our approach to self-management is the idea that decisions get made in the process of doing work, by the person doing the work, without the need for ratification by others. Four systems and processes allow us to work in this way:

- The Roles and Responsibilities Process
- The Advice Process
- The Conflict Resolution Process
- Radical Transparency

Supported by these processes and Wildflower's values and norms, every Wildflower partner is free to act without supervision or management as they work to bring energy to a role.

Roles & Responsibilities Process

Wildflower is an ecosystem of organizations with common purpose and shared values and community norms. Each organization within the Wildflower ecosystem must have a process for assigning roles and responsibilities that aligns with these foundations.

The common components of role and responsibility processes at Wildflower are:

1. A role is a discrete activity or group of activities that has a purpose, one or more responsibilities or accountabilities, and may also have authority to allocate particular resources or make particular decisions. All roles and responsibilities derive their individual purpose from their capacity to contribute to the Wildflower ecosystem's expression of its overall purpose
2. Roles and responsibilities are public. They must be accessible within an organization and across the Wildflower ecosystem
3. An organization's list of roles and responsibilities must cover all of the organization's work, and because roles and responsibilities evolve continuously, there must be clear ownership for as-yet-unspecified roles and responsibilities
4. Every partner can propose new roles and responsibilities within their own organization that they deem necessary to carry out their own roles or express their organization's purpose; and every organization can propose new roles and responsibilities of other organizations within the ecosystem
5. Roles and responsibilities can only be assigned to a partner with their consent
6. The specific processes for creating and assigning roles and responsibilities vary across organizations, but the processes must be clear and publicly accessible for all to see in every organization

The most important organizations within the Wildflower ecosystem are Wildflower schools. Wildflower schools may use any role and responsibility assignment process they choose so long as it meets the tests laid out above, and they are also free to use the sensible default Teacher-Leader Role and Responsibility process. Here are several examples of the ways schools have outlined their Roles and Responsibilities.

The Wildflower Foundation's purpose is to foster the overall success of the Wildflower ecosystem, and as such the foundation is responsible for any role that cuts across multiple organizations that is not explicitly held by some other Wildflower organization. These roles and responsibilities may include providing support to other Wildflower organizations and stewarding shared assets. As the steward of Wildflower's brand, the foundation establishes the processes by which organizations may start to use the brand and thereby join the Wildflower ecosystem, and through which organizations maintain the right to continue to use the brand and participate in the Wildflower ecosystem on an ongoing basis. The Wildflower Foundation has adopted the Holacracy constitution as its framework for creating, amending and assigning roles for the foundation's own work and for all cross-organizational work within the Wildflower ecosystem.

The Wildflower Foundation

1330 Lagoon Ave, 4th Floor, Minneapolis, MN 55408

All people energizing any role in any organization within the Wildflower ecosystem are Partners of The Wildflower Foundation and can participate in the foundation's roles and responsibilities process.

Advice Process

In the process of energizing a role, partners in the Wildflower ecosystem will frequently face choices or consider actions that impact others, within their own organizations and across Wildflower organizations. In a typical organization, decisions impacting multiple stakeholders are made through hierarchy or consensus, neither of which align with our commitment to autonomy with support. At Wildflower, we trust in each of us to make decisions that support the expression of Wildflower's purpose, and we use the advice process to ensure that decision-makers are fully informed about stakeholder perspectives before decisions get made.

When a partner faces a situation of making a choice that impacts others, they must follow the advice process.

The Steps of the Advice Process

1. Confirm that she has the authority to make the decision or take the action in question. This is done by reviewing the public roles and responsibilities lists. If decision-making authority is ambiguous, the partner must clarify authority through the roles and responsibilities process before acting.
2. Determine who else within the Wildflower ecosystem is a stakeholder in the decision – because it impacts that person's ability to carry out her role. If it isn't clear whether a decision impacts other partners' ability to carry out their roles, the decision-maker must publicly post the impending decision to allow other partners the opportunity to let her know about any potential impacts.
3. Ask for advice from other partners impacted by the decision, following the parameters below, and welcome unsolicited advice from other partners even if you did not recognize them as stakeholders or solicit their input.
4. Offer impacted stakeholders the opportunity to object, if the stakeholder disagrees with the decision-maker's authority to make the decision or if a course of action will do harm. (A stakeholder's preference for an alternative course of action is not grounds for objecting.) If a stakeholder objects, the decision-maker must adjust their proposed course of action to resolve the objection, or they may challenge the objection through the conflict resolution process.

5. Once the decision-maker has solicited the advice of the stakeholders and resolved any objections, the decision-maker can go ahead and make their decision, after which she should close the loop with anyone who offered advice and publicly post the decision. This includes explaining her rationale and decision to anyone whose advice she chose not to follow.

The Rules of the Advice Process

1. The overall purpose of this advice process is meant to ensure that decisions are made only after considering the input of stakeholders. This means that, at a minimum, advice must be solicited at the point when a decision is ready to be made, generally by laying out a proposal for the decision. When generating the proposal itself is a time-consuming task, advice may (and generally should) be sought earlier in the process with less formality, but this does not replace the need to seek advice at the decision stage.

2. The advice process is meant to have the adviser assume the perspective of the decision-maker, not to "vote" from their own perspective as a stakeholder. When asking for advice, ask what the stakeholder would do if she were the decision-maker. Don't ask about her personal preferences. When offering advice, though you may make reference to personal preferences, respond in total as if you are being asked to make the decision. As noted in the roles and responsibilities process, the purpose of each role at Wildflower derives from its potential to contribute to the overall ecosystem's expression of Wildflower's purpose, and thus every partner is expected to make decisions and offer advice consistent with the greater good.

3. When asking for advice, you must share your objectives and any relevant context that impacts the decision. When asked for advice, if you do not feel you have enough context to give advice, you may ask for additional context.

4. When you recommend against a course of action, and in particular when you object to a course of action, be as specific as possible about your concerns, and offer a positive alternative if you can, or a path to addressing the objection you raised. When you receive advice that recommends against a course of action, you may ask for additional specificity or a positive alternative.

5. You may choose not to give advice, if you don't have a strong opinion or if you don't have time to give advice. This allows people to ask for advice more freely, knowing that you won't feel an obligation to respond. Generally, no-advice is taken by the decision-maker to mean either that you trust her judgment and don't feel the need to give input, or that you agree with the path that the decision-maker is considering.

6. While you may put out a request for advice in public settings (e.g., through public posting or faculty meetings), you should always invite the advice itself to be offered privately, and when you offer advice, you should usually do so privately (e.g., through a direct conversation or a direct email). Offering advice publicly (e.g., through a reply-all) tends to crowd out divergent thinking.

Solicited vs. Unsolicited Advice

You need not be asked for advice in order to offer it. If you see a decision being considered and believe you are a stakeholder, let the decision-maker know that you'd like to be considered a stakeholder and offer advice. If you discover this after a decision has already been made, let the decision-maker know and offer your advice after the fact. Few decisions are permanent, and everyone can learn from situations like these. If you see a decision not being made, or an action not being taken, and you would be a stakeholder if the decision or action were considered, you may offer unsolicited advice to suggest a course of action as well. If you would like to give advice in a situation where you are not a stakeholder, you may offer to do so, but the decision-maker is not required to consider advice from non-stakeholders and not obligated to explain their rationale if they choose not to take such advice.

As always, if any of us are concerned that a partner has not followed the advice process, we are invited to use the conflict resolution process to resolve our concerns.

Conflict Resolution Process

In a hierarchical system, differences of opinion are addressed by decision-making from above. In Wildflower organizations, absent a hierarchy, we turn to a conflict resolution process that engages our core values of connectedness and growth and seeks to resolve tensions and build our individual and collective capacity for self-management at the same time.

The principal mechanism for this process is direct compassionate conversation between partners - through which we grow our understanding, compassion, and connectedness, and from which we can grow, personally and as a community. It is often the case that a creative and unifying solution is the natural outgrowth of the compassionate conversation approach. In alignment with our commitment to autonomy with support, when direct conversation does not produce a mutually acceptable solution, we offer additional supports and structure to the process, as described below.

Any partner may initiate a conflict resolution process with respect to any decision made by any other Wildflower partner, within an organization or across organizations in the ecosystem, that impacts her ability to carry out one of her roles.

Stages of the Conflict Resolution Process

1. A Direct Compassionate Conversation:

The first step for an individual (or group) who has a tension is to directly request an un-facilitated compassionate conversation with the person (or group) involved. Our hope is that tensions will be addressed and solutions identified through this conversation, but we recognize this may not always be possible. At any point, either party may elect to move to the next stage of the process.

2. A Peer Facilitated Compassionate Conversation:

If the concern is not addressed (and/or some tensions remain) after an un-facilitated conversation, any of the participants may request the support of any mutually-agreeable peer facilitator. Wildflower will provide optional training to individuals interested in facilitating such conversations. Our hope is that tensions will be addressed and solutions identified through this conversation, but we recognize this may not always be possible. At any point, either party may elect to move to the next stage of the process.

3. A Professionally Facilitated Conversation:

If the concern is not resolved through a peer-facilitated compassionate conversation, the parties may turn to a coach/facilitator trained in conflict-resolution. Our hope is that tensions will be addressed and solutions identified through this conversation, but we recognize this may not always be possible. At any point, either party may elect to move to the next stage of the process.

4a. For Conflicts within The Wildflower Foundation or that Cross Organizational Boundaries, The Conflict-Resolution Panel:

If the concern is not resolved through a professionally facilitated compassionate conversation, any participant may choose to bring the concern to the Wildflower Conflict-Resolution Panel, comprised of three to five individuals selected by the Lead Link of the Foundation Administration circle serving one year, renewable terms. To a greater extent than in the prior phases of the process, the Conflict-Resolution Panel may share its perspective on the issues surfaced by the conflict, and unlike in prior phases, they may make binding determinations on topics such as interpreting Wildflower's founding documents. Sometimes, solutions may be generated or tensions resolved directly in this setting, but often the panel will make a suggestion on a narrow aspect of the conflict, with the hope that the parties will then be able to resolve the conflict through direct or facilitated compassionate conversation. In some cases, the panel will decide that the substance of a particular decision is sufficiently consequential or far reaching that they will choose to invite the Lead Link of the Foundation Administration circle to join the panel before making a decision.

Though we leave nearly all decision making in the hands of our Partners using our self-management processes, we reserve two particular decisions that emerge from conflict for the conflict resolution panel inclusive of the CEO of The Wildflower Foundation: involuntary termination of a Partner's employment with The Wildflower Foundation or dissolving the affiliation between an individual Wildflower school or organization and the broader Wildflower community.

4b. For Conflicts within a Single Wildflower Organization Other than the Foundation

When conflicts emerge within a single organization other than the Foundation, that organization's board of directors shall serve as the Conflict Resolution Panel, unless that role has been explicitly delegated to another individual or group of people.

Rules of the Conflict Resolution Process

- Participation is required. All partners must honor the request for a compassionate conversation from another partner, and must engage as an opportunity to cultivate greater clarity, alignment, and good will. If the request for a facilitated conversation is refused, then the requester may bring the matter directly to the Conflict Resolution Panel

- Facilitators are not decision-makers. They may share perspectives with participants to help them observe the situation more clearly or consider alternative framings, but it is up to the participants to incorporate those perspectives as they see fit. Participants are not required to compromise during facilitated conversations, though there is nothing wrong with anyone choosing to compromise of their own volition

Radical Transparency

Transparency across the entire Wildflower ecosystem at all times and on nearly all topics allows us to learn from one another, catch one another's mistakes, and collaborate with each other. By default, all information should be shared across all partners in the Wildflower ecosystem, and with the public as well. In some cases, we place limits on that for the short-term - for example, we ultimately intend to make all compensation information public, but we have not yet decided how we will do that. In some other cases, we treat an information as personal and we leave it up to the discretion of an individual as to whether to share it. Sometimes, we encourage that sharing as a part of our commitment to radical transparency, but we recognize that partners may need time to develop comfort with sharing. Other times, we treat information as private to an individual and leave it entirely up to them about whether they share.

Information that Should Always Be Shared

- Information about what each of us are working on – through to do lists and project status updates
- Information about how we are doing our work - project plans when they exist and budgets including all detail other than salary information (see note below)
- Information about the impact or results of our work – information about aggregate student learning and development, parent satisfaction and fundraising progress

Information that Should Ultimately Be Shared Transparently, but is Not Yet

- Salary information

Personal Information, Shared at the Discretion of the Individual

1. An individual's description of their own evolutionary edge - what areas she's working to grow in. We support and encourage maximum transparency for this
2. Tensions that any of us feel - as a result of a lack of clarity regarding the ownership of a decision or a role, or a disconnect between our expectations for how something would happen and how it actually happened. We support and encourage maximum transparency for this as well, but do not share other people's concerns without their consent
3. Other personal information - we leave it to each person's discretion to bring personal information into the public sphere, and we do not share potentially personal information on behalf of others
4. Details about individual student or family financial or educational situations should remain private unless the student/family explicitly decides to share it

Observing Work Engagement: Primary

This observation rubric helps the observer develop a detailed understanding of the level of engagement in a Primary classroom. It can be as a tool for self-assessment, in coaching, or group reflection.

WMPSC Financial Policies and Procedures

WMPSC will follow all state and federal requirements regarding financial budgeting, accounting and reporting. WMPSC will follow the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) established by the Financial Accounting Standards Board to ensure controls, prevent fraud and use and manage funds appropriately and most effectively. The Board of Directors will approve and, along with staff, implement strict internal systems and financial policies to maintain compliance with all relevant local and federal financial regulations. Management of funds will be as transparent as possible to facilitate straightforward auditing, and the Board of Directors' Finance Committee will work with the Board Treasurer and the Finance Partner to create and maintain an Internal Systems and Financial Policies Handbook to outline the practices that will most effectively ensure legal compliance. During the planning year, WMPSC will contract with an external financial consultant or financial services provider ("Financial Services Provider") to assist with the establishment and initial implementation of financial management. It is expected that in Year 2, finances will begin to be managed in-house with a Finance Partner.

WMPSC will maintain appropriate internal controls to ensure protection of the school's financial resources. This includes separation of duties as much as possible, careful review of all bank statements, credit card transactions, second signature on large checks, and tight processes for accounts payable and receivable.

Financial Policies and Procedures Handbook

In developing the WMPSC Financial Policies Handbook the school will review and implement best practices, and use the following references as resources to ensure compliance: The Financial Policies and Procedures of the District; The Colorado Department of Education Financial Policies and Procedures Handbook; Colorado Revised Statutes (C.R.S.); Colorado Code of Regulations (C.C.R.); Federal laws as contained in the United States Code (U.S.C.); Federal regulations and other guidance as published in the Federal Register; Governmental Accounting and Financial Reporting Standards, published by the Governmental Accounting Standards Board. Codification is updated annually as of June 30th.

Topics that will be covered by the Financial Policies and Procedures Handbook include: Board Powers and Duties; Budgeting Process; Fiscal Accounting, Reporting and Inventories; Audits and Financial Monitoring; Financial Reporting and Transparency; Banking Services Deposit of Funds, Authorized Signatures, Allowable Investments; Check Writing and Card Purchasing; Procurement Procedures; Expenditures; Reimbursements; Contracts; Equipment Control and Disposition; Ethics and Conflicts of Interests (for staff and board members); Loans and Lines of Credit; Financial Records Retention; Payroll; Cash Receipts and Handling; Risk Management; and other relevant financial controls, policies, and procedures.

Financial Services Provider

WMPSC will partner with a Financial Services Provider for support on financial management and controls until the Finance Partner is hired in Year 2. The Financial Services Provider will support charter and site leadership in developing and implementing financial policies and procedures. Ongoing training and guidance provided by APS will be incorporated into the financial policies & internal systems; financial policies & procedures will be reviewed by the Board of Directors, Operations Partner, and Financial Services Provider and/or Finance Partner at least annually to ensure continued compliance.

Bookkeeping

The accounting provider and Financial Services Provider and/or Finance Partner will use an industry standard accounting software program to maintain books and prepare reports to the Board, any external monitors and APS. Revenue and expenditures will be tracked and reported consistent with the Colorado Department of Education's Financial Policies and Procedures Handbook and Chart of Accounts.

Expenditures

Authorization and Processing of Disbursements: The charter will follow established fiscal policies covering charter and site expenditures and specific check signing authority, which will include dollar thresholds that require Board approval. Only the Financial Services Provider and Shared Services Partner will have the authority to sign checks or otherwise authorize payments (for example, via electronic accounts payable system). Dual signatures, including at least one from the Treasurer or Board Chair, will be required on checks over a pre-established dollar threshold.

Depositories and Investments

Banking Arrangements / Reconciliation: WMPSC will maintain its accounts at a federally insured and Colorado Public Depository Protection Act ("PDPA") approved commercial bank. Funds will be deposited in non-speculative accounts including federally insured savings or checking accounts or invested as allowed under C.R.S. 24-75-101, et. seq.. Bank statements will be sent directly to the charter for review and reconciliation. The Financial Services Provider will forward monthly reconciliations to the Board Treasurer as well.

Financial Reporting

Internal Reporting: Upon hire, the Financial Services Provider will provide detailed financial reports to the Board monthly. These reports will include at minimum a revenue and expense statement, a balance sheet and cash projections. Prior to every Board meeting, the Treasurer and the Finance Committee will meet to review these financial statements. The committee will present the report to the Board and discuss financial performance in the context of the school's financial goals. External Reporting: As needed, the Financial Services Provider will develop financial reports for dissemination to all appropriate stakeholders on behalf of WMPSC and its Board of Directors. An auditor that will not be the same firm as the Financial Services Provider, selected by the Finance Committee from APS and OSSE approved auditor list, will prepare audited financial statements on an annual basis and file the Form 990.

WMPSC will comply with all Uniform Guidance and other federal regulations for federally funded purchases.

Financial Transparency

The WMPSC Steering Committee is dedicated to efficient and effective financial oversight and transparency. We will follow the Required Financial Transparency found in the Colorado Public School Financial Transparency Act, Colorado Revised Statutes, 22-44-304.

Annual Audits

The approved auditor list will be used to select an independent CPA to perform annual audits in full compliance with the Colorado laws and APS requirements. The Board's Finance Committee will be accountable for interviewing potential auditors and recommending the top candidates to the Board of Directors for selection. The Board will then decide which auditor to use. The Board and WMPSC Financial Services Provider and Teacher Leaders will provide the auditor with all requested information with transparency and responsiveness. At the end of each audit engagement, the auditor will present their report at a Board of Directors meeting, at which the Financial Services Provider and Teacher Leaders are present, in keeping with practices aligned with self-governance. The Board of Directors will file a copy of the completed audit with APS each year by the deadline specified by the APS.

Annual Budgeting

The annual budget is the financial plan for the operation of the school. The annual operating budget will be based on a fiscal year which shall be from July 1 to June 30. It provides the framework for both expenditures and revenues for the year and future years and translates into financial terms the educational programs and objectives of the school.The budget must be developed and presented in accordance with all applicable state statutes and The Colorado Department of Education Financial Policies and Procedures Handbook. The budget format shall itemize expenditures of the school by fund and show the amount budgeted for the current fiscal year and the amount budgeted for the ensuing fiscal year. The budget also shall disclose planned compliance with spending limitations outlined in Article X, Section 20, of the Colorado constitution, including holding TABOR reserve funds in an unrestricted general fund or in cash funds.

In order to ensure the fiscal health and ongoing financial stability of WMPSC, the following process will be in place:

- The school accountability committee shall make recommendations for the budget and priorities for spending school moneys. The school shall consider the school accountability committee's recommendations regarding spending state, federal, local, or private grants and any other discretionary moneys and take them into account in formulating the proposed budget for presentation to the Board of Directors.
- The Financial Services Provider and/or WMPSC Finance Partner, Shared Services Partner and Teacher Leader(s) with the role of site budgeting will draft individual site budgets annually by each spring. The budget will reflect the mission, values and strategic priorities of each site and WMPSC. It will show a statement of activity, statement of financial position and monthly cash flow projections.
- The Financial Services Provider and/or WMPSC Finance Partner will compile the site budgets into an overall budget for the school and present the budget draft to the Finance Committee. That committee will review the budget to ensure it complies with the WMPSC's long term financial goals and is realistic given the charter's past performance. After incorporating any suggested edits, the Financial Services Provider and the Treasurer will present the draft budget to the Board by May of each year.
- The Board will review the budget to ensure it reflects the charter's mission and strategic priorities and is consistent with WMPSC's long term financial goals. The Board will approve the budget before it is submitted to the APS.

Conflicts of Interest

There will be clear expectations that members of WMPSC's Board of Directors should always act in the collective best interest of the organization and not for individual interests. As such, all Board members and staff persons in decision-making roles will be required to comply with the school's conflicts of interest policies review and Board members will sign a Conflict of Interest Form each year. The purpose of the Conflict of Interest policies and procedures are to protect the overall interests of WMPSC as an organization whenever considering entrance into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit private interests of a member of the Board or staff person in a decision-making role, and the policy will supplement but not replace all applicable state and federal laws governing conflicts of interest. School decision-makers will have a duty to disclose any possible conflicts and a requirement to recuse themselves from involvement in decisions where there exists or may exist a conflict of interest, and clear procedures will be established for the determination of whether a conflict of interest does or does not exist. For Board members, the signed Conflict of Interest Form will lay out the Board's procedures for addressing a conflict of interest, and the consequences of a violation to the conflict of interest policy. Among other safeguards, minutes of the Board will contain the names of individual Board members who disclosed or were found to have a financial interest in connection with a conflict of interest, and the conflicted Board members will be precluded from voting on matters pertaining to the Conflict of Interest.

Wildflower Network Membership in Action

The Wildflower Network Membership Agreement articulates the commitments we all make as part of the Wildflower community to keep the community strong. It describes the limits we have set to maintain cohesion and a common identity, while carefully tending to the freedoms Teacher Leaders and schools have to chart their own path in bringing the Wildflower Beliefs to life.

Below are the commitments schools and the Foundation make when signing the Wildflower Network Membership Agreement.

School Commitments	Foundation Commitments
Wildflower Beliefs: Affirming the school is working toward expressing the Wildflower Purpose and Principles	Network: Cultivating the Wildflower network community
Policies: Following Wildflower Network Policies outlining our Ways of Working	Teacher Leader Voice: Centering Teacher Leader voice in advice processes, tool development, and organizational leadership
Network: Participating in and contributing to the Wildflower network	Resources: Creating and sharing school support tools and resources in an open source manner
Branding: Using Wildflower branding, like the tagline, "Wildflower Schools"	Branding: Allowing use of Wildflower branding and marks, and schools to be identified as, "A Wildflower School"
Nonprofit Status: Operating as a nonprofit organization and remaining in good standing	Funding: Offering opportunities to apply for funding
School Contribution: Contributing financially to shared cost of maintaining the network community	Organizational Transparency: Sharing Foundation financials, operating and governance information, annually and as requested
Organizational Transparency: Sharing school financials, demographics, operating and governance information, annually and as requested	Responsible Data Use: Protecting sensitive data by minimizing use and de-identifying data

We expand on examples of these school and Foundation commitments in action. There are boundless ways we all live into this agreement and support the manifestation of the network. These are some of the most common ways in which these commitments are practiced in action.

School Commitments in Action

Wildflower Beliefs: Affirming the school is working toward expressing the Wildflower Purpose and Principles.

- Cultivating a liberatory Montessori learning environment and committing to related and critical ongoing individual and collective work.
- Developing policies to prioritize enrollment that represents the school's community.
- Maintaining an intentionally small, teacher-led school community.
- Leading in and out of the classroom and operating with a non-hierarchical structure.

Policies: Following Wildflower Network Policies outlining our Ways of Working

- Using self-management practices (i.e. advice process, roles and responsibilities process, conflict resolution process, and radical transparency) in startup and ongoing operations.
- Creating co-leadership structures through Roles and Responsibilities development within the school.
- Using the Advice Process to make all decisions that impact others, during the School Startup Journey and beyond.
- Processing disagreements and objections using the Conflict Resolution Process before moving forward.
- Making information about the school available to the public and Foundation so as to learn from and support wisdom exchange in the network.

Network: Participating in and contributing to the Wildflower network

- Participating and contributing to a local pod community (or an equivalent structure) that regularly convenes and acts as the first source of support for schools."
- Offering advice and input to others across the network.
- Serving on another Wildflower school's board.
- Serving on a Startup Journey advice panel for emerging schools.
- Participating in webinars and other Wildflower gatherings on a regular basis.
- Contributing to the Wildflower knowledge sharing space (i.e. Connected).
- Providing feedback on Wildflower tools and resources on an ongoing basis so the Foundation can continue to improve them over time.

Branding: Using Wildflower branding synonymous with Wildflower Schools

- Following Wildflower branding guidelines
- Choosing a school name that is nature themed and in alignment with the Wildflower name selection process.

- Using, "A Wildflower School" or applicable Wildflower charter tagline in signage, website and marketing materials.

Nonprofit Status: Operating as a nonprofit organization and remaining in good standing
- Remaining in good standing with legal agreements made with the Foundation (e.g. membership agreement, loan agreement).
- Remaining in compliance with federal and local government regulations.
- Building a board of directors that includes community members and at least one Teacher Leader from another Wildflower school

School Contribution: Contributing to the share of costs of maintaining the network community
- Budgeting for a network fee in the school's annual budgeting process.
- Making an annual contribution in accordance with Wildflower guidance to support the development and maintenance of network tools, resources, and events.

Organizational Transparency: Sharing school financials, demographics, operating and governance information, annually and as requested
- Completing the Wildflower Teacher Leader survey.
- Annually providing updated school information about staff, enrollment, programming via survey.
- Providing to the Foundation a copy of the tax form 990 filed with the IRS.
- Providing financial statements, already prepared for school board meetings, upon request.
- Supporting the Foundation's distribution of a survey to families on students' demographic and school experiences.

Foundation Commitments in Action

Network: Cultivating the Wildflower network community
- Gathering the Wildflower community annually for collective growth and learning.
- Guiding Teacher Leaders through the startup journey and as needed, afterward.
- Sharing advice from veteran Wildflower teachers.
- Offering administrative skills advice and coaching (e.g., Human Resources, Finance).
- Connecting Teacher Leaders to vetted coaches (e.g., Montessori, equity).
- Offering virtual spaces for connection and professional development (e.g. webinars, virtual teacher gatherings, affinity spaces, liberatory leadership and restorative justice training).
- Organizing diversity, equity, inclusion, and justice learning opportunities.

Teacher Leader Voice: Centering Teacher Leader voice in advice processes, tool development, and organizational leadership
- Offering a Teacher Leader role on the Foundation's board of directors.
- Seeking Teacher Leader advice when developing supports for schools.
- Offering Foundation roles to Teacher Leaders through Roles Marketplace.

Resources: Creating and sharing school support tools and resources
- Maintaining a school development framework (School Startup Journey) with guidance on how to navigate the startup process.
- Offering customized tools for financial management, admissions, Montessori recordkeeping, operations, board management, and human resources.
- Offering an optional fast and free path to gain 501(c)(3) status.
- Staffing a real-time response virtual help desk for questions big or small.
- Curating a broad spectrum of resources available to you in an online knowledge sharing platform (i.e. Connected) and through regular email distribution.
- Providing guidance and crisis management tools to support schools through major leadership transitions, unforeseeable global crises, financial crises, etc.

Branding: Allowing use of Wildflower branding and marks, and schools to be identified as, "A Wildflower School"
- Offering Teacher Leaders a process to develop a brand-aligned logo and school name.
- Developing marketing tools and templates, including a website template.
- Giving schools permission to use, "A Wildflower School" mark in marketing materials.

Funding: Offering opportunities to apply for funding
- Offering opportunities to apply for startup loans and/or grants, when available.
- From time to time, offering funding to support Montessori or other professional development training opportunities.
- Offering funding application opportunities through periods of crisis.

Organizational Transparency: Sharing Foundation financials, operating and governance information, annually and as requested
- Sharing organizational information like partner demographics and Foundation financial statements, upon request.
- Making organizational decisions, roles, and policy changes transparent via Slack and/or email.

Responsible Data Use: Protecting sensitive data by minimizing use and de-identifying data
- Using data properly by following data privacy policies and best practices such as limiting external sharing to ensure data remain protected.

Wildflower Network Membership Agreement

This Wildflower Network Membership Agreement (the "Agreement" or "Network Membership Agreement") is effective as of _____ ("Effective Date") by and between The Wildflower Foundation, a Minnesota nonprofit corporation ("TWF"), and _____, a _____ [state, location] nonprofit corporation (the "School" or "Member"), and is in consideration of, the following terms and conditions. Often used terminology related to this Agreement are defined in Exhibit A.

WHEREAS, the Wildflower Network of Wildflower Member Schools, TWF, Foundation partners, and community stakeholders ("Wildflower Network") works toward the liberation of every human being, every community, and the human spirit, so that we may all live in harmony with our individual purpose and the world around us, free from oppression and able to follow life's unfolding journey (the "Wildflower Purpose"); and

WHEREAS, TWF exists to support the entire Wildflower Network, and acts on behalf of the Network in areas where the Members of the Network have shared interests, including administering the process by which schools join the Network, remain in the Network, and separate from the Network; and

WHEREAS, the School, by signing this Agreement, becomes a Member of the Wildflower Network. As a Member, the School agrees to primarily perform activities that advance the Wildflower Purpose, to not knowingly partake in activities that inhibit the Wildflower Purpose, and to operate in alignment with the Wildflower Principles ("Wildflower Principles") through its operations. By signing the Teacher Leader Acknowledgment and Commitment Form set forth in Exhibit B, commit to uphold the terms of the Agreement and the Network Policies; and

WHEREAS, the School and its Teacher Leaders commit to uphold the terms of the Agreement and to adhere to TWF's Network Policies (the "Network Policies") available on TWF's website or other designated public social media platform, which include policies outlining the ways the Wildflower Network community agrees to interact with one another through defined Roles and Responsibilities, Advice Process, Conflict Resolution, and Radical Transparency processes. Network Policies are promulgated by TWF, whether before or after the Effective Date, and may be amended from time to time with advice from the Network, it being understood that amendments to the Network Policies may require revision of this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, TWF and the School hereby agree as follows:

1. Grant of Membership into the Wildflower Network. TWF hereby grants the School Membership into the Wildflower Network subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Upon execution of this Agreement, the School shall be entitled to all

Benefits of Membership within the Wildflower Network and acknowledges and agrees to the Expectations of Member Schools. The School acknowledges and agrees that the Benefits of the School may be suspended, revoked, amended, limited or terminated pursuant to this Agreement and the Network Policies.

2. Term.   The term of this Agreement shall commence as of the Effective Date and shall continue unless and until the School's Membership with TWF is dissolved in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or upon amendment.

3. Benefits of Membership: The Benefits offered to Schools in The Wildflower Network, facilitated by the work of TWF and Member Schools ("Benefits"), will evolve over time as the needs of Member Schools evolve. These Benefits include but are not limited to:
   a. Being Part of a Community: Schools can expect that decisions made by other Members and TWF will be made in alignment with Wildflower's Purpose and the Network Policies. Schools will experience a community focused on the Teacher Leader experience and with a shared sense of responsibility for each Member's success. Schools will have opportunities to access the wisdom and support of other Members of the Network through storage and upkeep of the resources and contribute their own wisdom and support for the benefit of other Members. TWF facilitates these available benefits through work such as pod and hub meetings, affinity spaces, ongoing virtual and in-person learning opportunities, and networking opportunities.
   b. Tools and Resources: Members have access to the tools and resources that have been created to help schools express the Wildflower Purpose and Principles and open and operate a thriving Wildflower school at every step of the journey. Tools and resources include, but are not limited to, iterative self-reflection tools and practices; website design; finance, operations, and governance tools; operations advice; marketing resources; and the Wildflower group 501(c)3 exemption.
   c. Common Brand: Members contribute to and benefit from a positive common brand, promulgated by the Wildflower Network (See Section 5).
   d. Funding Opportunities: Members may apply for, from time to time, funding opportunities identified by TWF and partners for startup and operating activities.
   e. Community Organizational Transparency: Members shall have access to TWF financials, operating and governance information, annually and as requested.

4. Expectations of Member Schools: As a Member of the Wildflower Network, the School agrees to the following, and just as Benefits evolve over time, so may the Expectations of Members of The Wildflower Network. Evolution of expectations may require revisions to this Agreement or the Network Policies and will be made following the Network Policies Advice Process. Expectations of Membership include:
   a. Wildflower Purpose and Principles: The School shall use its best efforts to express the Wildflower Purpose and Principles in the design and operation of its program. This includes supporting fellow Members of the decentralized network and strengthening the Network as a whole.

b. Network Policies: The School agrees to comply with, and be bound by, the Network Policies. The School's board of directors shall adopt the Network Policies.

c. Common Brand: The School shall include, "A Wildflower School" on its website and in the School's signage to identify with the Wildflower Marks (See Section 5 and Exhibit C). The school shall use a Wildflower-aligned logo design and name in accordance with the Network Policies.

   i. Wildflower or nature-themed name: The School shall choose a name that is a wildflower or nature-themed and avoid duplication with other Wildflower schools in nearby areas.. The School shall go through the Advice Process with TWF before finalizing its school name.

   ii. Wildflower logo design: The School shall work with a Wildflower-validated designer and use Wildflower branding guidelines when developing its logo. Schools shall go through the Advice Process with TWF before finalizing their logo design.

d. Reputation: The School shall conduct itself in a manner that benefits the good reputation of the other schools in the Wildflower Network and TWF and does not disparage or degrade good will in the community or nationally.

e. Nonprofit Status: The School shall operate as a nonprofit organization and remain in good standing under the laws of the state or territory of its incorporation or formation and shall adopt governance policies consistent with nonprofit best practice and outlined in the Network Policies. The school shall be designated as tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the IRS Code and maintain tax-exempt status for the duration of this agreement.

f. School Contribution: The School shall contribute financially to the shared cost of maintaining the Network community, in accordance with the expectations set by TWF using the Advice Process. The School agrees to pay in a timely manner all fees and dues established by TWF from time to time, beginning the first year the School serves students.

g. Organizational Transparency: The School shall transparently share with TWF school financials, demographics, operating and governance information, annually and as requested through surveys and other means of data request for the purposes of gathering feedback and stewarding the reputation of the overall Wildflower community. The School shall comply with all applicable laws and permit TWF's representatives to inspect the School's books and to interview its employees and volunteers upon request.

h. Ongoing Iterative Self-Reflection: The Schools shall at least annually engage in self-reflection and include in that process an analysis of its progress meeting these Expectations of Network Membership.

5. Wildflower Marks. Schools can be recognized by the broader public as a Member of the Wildflower Network through the use of the Wildflower visual identifiers ("Marks"). See Exihibit C for a list of the Wildflower Marks.

   a. Marks Ownership and Usage: The School acknowledges and agrees that TWF is the owner of the Wildflower Marks. The School recognizes that it has no rights therein except those rights set forth in this Agreement. The School will only use the Marks in service of the Wildflower Purpose and Principles.

b. No challenges to the Marks or its ownership: The School agrees not to contest the ownership or validity of any rights of TWF in the Marks, or any registration or pending registration of any mark of TWF with the United States Patent and Trademark Office or with any state or other governmental authority, domestic or foreign. The School agrees to execute any and all documents and agreements reasonably necessary to the registration and protection of the Marks. The School further agrees that it shall not attempt to register or otherwise gain any right in or to any service mark or trademark that is confusingly similar to any of the Marks or any mark adopted in the future by TWF.

c. Warranties. TWF makes no warranties regarding ownership of any rights in or the validity of the Marks.

6. Termination

a. Voluntary Membership: The School may end its Membership in the Wildflower Network at any time and for any reason, including its own iterative self-reflection process, and all fees due to TWF will be prorated at time of termination.

b. Resolution of Conflict: If the school becomes engaged in Wildflower's Conflict Resolution Process as defined by the Network Policies, and that process results in a decision by a duly-authorized authority to terminate the School's Membership with the Wildflower Network, the School's Membership is immediately terminated.

c. Obligations upon Termination of Membership: If the School's Membership is terminated, for any reason including the voluntary decision of the School, in accordance with the Network Policies, TWF will remove the School from TWF's website and no longer refer to the School as a "A Wildflower School." Upon termination the School shall:

   i. Immediately cease all use of the Wildflower Marks;
   ii. Promptly communicate to its community in a written communication approved in advance by TWF that it is no longer a part of the Wildflower Network of schools; and
   iii. Change its name and logo such that they are, as determined in the sole judgment of TWF, distinctive from and not confusingly similar to the School's current name and logo, any other Wildflower Member School, or Wildflower common branding.

d. Remedies. In the event of any breach or default under any of the terms, conditions, covenants or provisions of this Agreement by one of the parties, the other party shall have, in addition to a claim for damages for that breach or default, and in addition to any right or remedy available at law, in equity or as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the right to demand and have specific performance of this Agreement.

7. Indemnification

a. School: The School hereby agrees to indemnify and hold TWF and any and all Wildflower schools harmless from any and all claims, demands, suits, and liabilities, of any nature whatsoever, arising out of or in any way connected with the School's performance of its Membership Expectations, use of the Marks, or otherwise, except that any liabilities which occur as a result of specific actions taken by the School at the direction of TWF or the School's proper and authorized use of the Marks shall not be subject to this indemnification. In the event that TWF is or becomes a party to any litigation or proceeding arising out of the School's performance of its Membership Expectations, use of the Marks, or otherwise, or is joined as a party to any such litigation or proceeding in which the School is a party, TWF shall have the right to retain its own counsel to represent it. The indemnification provided herein shall remain in effect notwithstanding termination of the School's Membership with TWF as determined by the Network Policies.

b. The Wildflower Foundation: TWF hereby agrees to indemnify and hold the School harmless from any and all claims, demands, suits and liabilities, of any nature whatsoever, arising out of or in any way connected with TWF's performance on its own behalf of the Wildflower Purpose or as a result of the School's proper and authorized use of the Marks. In the event that the School is or becomes a party to any litigation or proceeding arising out of TWF's performance on its own behalf of the Wildflower Purpose or as a result of the School's proper and authorized use of the Marks, or if the School is joined as a party to any such litigation or proceeding in which TWF is a party, the School shall have the right to retain its own counsel to represent it at its own expense. The indemnification provided herein shall remain in effect notwithstanding termination of the School's Membership with TWF as determined by the Network Policies.

8. Miscellaneous
   a. Governing Law: This Agreement shall be governed by, and shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with, the internal laws of the State of Minnesota without the application of any principles of conflicts of law that would require or permit the application of the laws of any other jurisdiction.
   b. Not a Franchise: Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed or constructed as creating a joint venture, partnership, agency relationship or franchise between TWF and the School. Except as provided otherwise in this Agreement, the School has the sole discretion to determine the School's methods of operation, accounting practices, the types and amounts of insurance the School carries, the School's personnel practices, advertising and promotion practices, the people served by the School, and the School's service areas and methods. If any provision of this Agreement is deemed to create a franchise relationship between the parties, then the parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the parties' original intent as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner without creating a franchise agreement.
   c. Disclaim Warranty of Success: The School acknowledges and agrees that neither this Agreement, nor any information or material obtained in connection or as a result of this Agreement, including use of the Marks, guarantees or warrants the success of the School or any venture of the School, financial or otherwise, pre-dating or after the execution of this Agreement. The School's reliance upon material or information obtained as a result of this Agreement is solely at the School's own risk.

d. Conflict Resolution: Except as provided in the Network Policies, neither TWF nor the School will bring any action or proceeding against the other in any court, whether local, state, federal or otherwise, and all disputes arising in connection with this Agreement or otherwise between the School and TWF shall be settled in accordance with Network Policies. In the event either party should commence any action or proceeding including Conflict Resolution with the other to enforce any of the terms, conditions, covenants or provisions of this Agreement, the party prevailing in any such action or proceeding shall be entitled to all reasonable attorneys' fees and costs by the other party.

e. Substitution in Proceedings: The School shall cooperate with and immediately inform TWF of any suits or proceedings in which the School is a party or which have been threatened in writing. In that regard TWF may, at any time, according to TWF's sole discretion, in its name or in the name of the School, be substituted for the School as the real party in interest in any such litigation or proceeding, and prosecute, defend, compromise, or otherwise resolve the litigation or proceeding, at TWF's sole expense.

f. Third Parties: Unless otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, nothing expressed or implied in this Agreement is intended or shall be construed to confer upon or to give any person other than the parties hereto, and their respective successors and assigns, any benefit, right or remedy under or by reason of any term, provision, condition, covenant, undertaking, warranty, representation or agreement contained in this Agreement.

g. Invalidity of Particular Provisions: If any portion of this Agreement shall be deemed to be invalid or unenforceable, then the remaining portions of this Agreement shall be fully effective, valid and enforceable.

h. Entire Agreement: TWF and the School agree that this Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties. This Agreement is intended by the parties to supersede all other agreements, including, without limitation, any agreement, whether written or oral, that previously may have been entered into by TWF and the School, or their predecessors in interest, with respect to the matters set forth in this Agreement.

i. Waiver and Amendment: A waiver of any provision of this Agreement must be agreed to by both parties in writing and cannot be construed as a waiver of any subsequent Agreement. This Agreement may only be amended by written mutual agreement of the parties.

j. Conflicts: To the extent possible, this Agreement and the Network Policies shall be read and interpreted in such manner as shall result in no conflict amongst the same. In the case of an irreconcilable conflict between this Agreement and the Network Policies, this Agreement shall govern.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement upon the date first written above.

Often-Used Membership Agreement Language

The Membership Agreement is a document that defines the relationship between a Wildflower school or charter and the rest of the Wildflower Network, including all other Wildflower schools and The Wildflower Foundation (TWF). Below are some terms that are used in this Membership Agreement. As Schools signing a legal document (i.e. Wildflower Network Membership Agreement) you may decide to seek your own legal counsel for advice and interpretation of terms in the Membership Agreement.

Benefits: Advantages of being part of the Wildflower Network community, facilitated by the work of The Wildflower Foundation and other Member Schools.

Charter School: The legal authority to start and operate a public school that is granted by an authorizer on behalf of a state government. Charter schools receive funding from the government, admit students by lottery, and are tuition-free for all students (starting in kindergarten in some states and as early as PK3 in others). Charter schools are subject to some but not all of the regulations that apply to many district schools. In many states, applying for a charter and staying in compliance with charter regulations requires significant administrative work and so The Wildflower Foundation applies for a charter that will serve multiple sites. When that happens, the multiple sites operate within a single legal entity.

Effective Date: Date of execution and when this agreement becomes binding

Expectations: A Member School's agreed limits to its freedoms that support the common brand and vitality of the Wildflower Network.

Marks: Words, phrases, and styles that the general public identifies with The Wildflower Network and the Wildflower Purpose and Principles. A list of the Marks are available in Exhibit C.

Member / School: A Montessori school, part of the Wildflower Network by virtue of signing a Membership Agreement, led by one or more Teacher Leaders that seeks to express the Wildflower Purpose and Principles. Most Wildflower schools are legally independent nonprofit organizations (with 501(c)3 status and their own Boards of Directors) that are funded through a mix of tuition and government funding and are directly licensed and regulated by a state or territorial government. Member Schools may share a legal entity for the purpose of accessing additional public funding (e.g., to apply for and hold a charter).

Membership Agreement: The document that outlines the terms of membership in the Wildflower Network.

Member School Site (if charter): A single location that is part of a multi-site legal 501c3 charter school organization established by a nonprofit board.

Network Policies: A set of policies maintained by The Wildflower Foundation that include Wildflower's Ways of Working and branding guidelines. The Network Policies are applicable to schools and school sites and accessible through Wildflower Connected.

Teacher Leaders: A person who both serves as a Montessori guide and lead administrator of a Wildflower school.

Wildflower Principles: The nine characteristics present in all Wildflower Member Schools that describe critical ways that our schools bring our purpose, values, and norms to life:

Authentic Montessori	Equity	Beauty
Teacher Led	Innovation	Nature
Shopfront	Home	Network

Wildflower Purpose: At Wildflower, we are committed to the liberation of every human being, every community, and the human spirit, so that we may all live in harmony with our individual purpose and the world around us, free from oppression and able to follow life's unfolding journey.

Teacher Leader Acknowledgement and Commitment

I, _____, do hereby certify that I am a Teacher Leader with respect to _____ [name of School], party to this Wildflower Membership Agreement, located at _____ [street address, if applicable] with an Effective Date of _____ (the "Agreement").

By signing this Acknowledgment, I hereby commit to uphold the terms of the Membership Agreement and the Wildflower Network Policies referenced herein in service of the Wildflower Purpose and Principles.

As the Teacher Leader of _____ [name of School], I acknowledge that _____ [name of School] is subject to the terms under the Membership Agreement.

I certify that I have been provided and given the opportunity to review the Agreement, and that I have read and understand the terms of such Agreement. I further acknowledge that I have read the Network Policies and understand that the School will follow the terms of the Network Policies.

Both parties may terminate participation or modify the Agreement. Such termination or modification may mean that the School shall no longer be entitled to certain privileges named in the Membership Agreement.

Re: Follow-Up to Our Letter of Support for Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC): Loan Funds

Dear CSI Board of Directors,

I am writing today to affirm our support of Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC) and its application to open six charter sites in the community of Aurora, CO.

Sites affiliated with WMPSC and The Wildflower Foundation may request and be issued up to $110,000 in startup loan financing, assuming sites meet eligibility criteria of the Sunlight Loan Fund at the time of issuance. Based upon our preliminary review of WMPSC's student demographics and related criteria, we have a reasonable certainty that WMPSC will be eligible for the loans if they affiliate with the Foundation. We are also aware of the unique requirements regarding Colorado public charter schools and Colorado's "TABOR" requirements and any loans will be in conformance therewith.

The Wildflower Foundation looks forward to working with WMPSC and CSI reinforcing the vision of the APS Blueprint Strategy through WMPSC's model of tiny, community-embedded schools.

Sincerely,

P. Everhart

Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado Bylaws

ARTICLE I
Name and Fiscal Year

Section 1. Name. The name of the organization, which is organized pursuant to the Colorado Nonprofit Corporations Act (the "Act"), shall be Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado ("WMPSC" or "Corporation").

Section 2. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of WMPSC of Colorado shall be from 1 July to 30 June.

ARTICLE II
Board of Directors

Section 1. Number. WMPSC shall have a Board of Directors ("Board") consisting of no less than three (3) and no more than eleven (11) voting members ("Directors") and ex-officio membership on the Board of Directors defined in Section II.3. Membership on the Board of Directors may consist of parents of enrolled children and community members.

Section 2A. Eligibility. The Board shall be composed of both voting and nonvoting members. Voting members of the Board shall be residents of the State of Colorado. All Board members are required to sign the Board Commitments and the Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging Agreement (DEIB Agreement) within 14 days of being seated on the board.

Section 2B. Term. Directors shall hold up to three-year renewable terms. The number of terms is unlimited except that a Director may only serve two consecutive terms. To the extent possible, the Board shall take necessary and appropriate action to set up a cycle that will ensure that terms are staggered in such a way that no more than one-third of Directors' terms expire in any one year. Each Director shall hold office until such Director's term expires and thereafter until such Director's successor shall have been elected and qualified, or until such Director's earlier death, resignation or removal.

Section 2C. Vacancies. Any vacancy of a Director may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining Directors, though less than a quorum. If the Board fails to fill the vacancy by majority vote after sixty (60) days from the date the vacancy occurs the Board Chair shall appoint a new Director to fill the vacancy. A Director appointed to fill a vacancy shall hold the office for the unexpired term of such Director's predecessor in office. Any Directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of Directors shall be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors.

Section 3. Ex Officio Members. The Board will include ex officio non-voting members including but not limited to, Teacher Leader representatives, parents or legal guardians with students at the school, and community members. The number and selection will be by official board action.

Section 4A. Specific Responsibilities and Duties of Directors. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, the Colorado Charter Schools Act, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws, all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors. Without limitation on the role of the Board of Directors, the Directors have the following specific roles and responsibilities: All Directors shall:

1) Meet the responsibilities and duties as outlined in the WMPSC Board of Directors Commitments.
2) Serve WMPSC with the highest degree of confidentiality and undertake no enterprise to profit personally from their position with WMPSC.
3) Ensure WMPSC is faithful to the terms of its charter(s) by holding the organization accountable to financial, academic, and organizational performance goals.
4) Participate in the accountability of organizational leadership.
5) Foster a culture of non-hierarchy by thoughtfully refraining from decisions the Board is not most proximate to, thereby resisting the temptation to substitute the Board's judgment for the wisdom of the community.

Section 4B. General Expectations. Additionally, all members of the Board are expected to:

1) Uphold the mission and vision of WMPSC.
2) Establish trust among the Board and charter communities (Teacher Leaders, staff, parents, and community).
3) Carry out duties or responsibilities in accordance with applicable state and federal law.
4) Support the organization through annual in-kind or direct financial contribution.
5) Enhance the public image of WMPSC.
6) Regularly reflect on the Board's performance.
7) Agree and adhere to the Board Commitment and DEIB Agreement.
8) Evolve processes and practices based on reflections, growth, and development.

Section 5. Freedoms and Limits. To ensure the Board of Directors does not improperly expand its responsibilities and authority, the following limits shall be adhered to:

1) Policies and Regulations. The current WMPSC Board will adopt the policies required by State or Federal law at the time of the adoption of these bylaws.

2) Hiring the Organization's Operational Leadership. The Board shall hire organizational leadership by official board action. The Board shall not write a contract for leadership that runs counter to any part of these bylaws.

3) Removal of Organizational Leadership. The Board shall follow its Conflict Resolution Policy in the event it acts to remove organizational leadership.

4) Budget. The Board validates the total allocated amount by fund of the budget submitted by the Finance Committee through official board action. The Board is not allowed to change any other part of the budget, except as outlined by law.

5) Requests for Information. The Board as a whole may request information from the Teacher Leaders in order to fulfill its responsibilities to follow the Advice Process.

6) Academic Achievement and Performance Goals. The Board validates the academic achievement and performance goals submitted by organizational leadership through official board action.

7) Audits and Investigations. At the direction of the Board, and in accordance with applicable requirements, the Finance Committee will hire an independent financial auditor to audit the school system's finances annually.

8) Interference. Any WMPSC employee may determine that the Board or any Board Director is unduly interfering with a staff member's ability to fulfill their responsibilities or that the Board or any Board Director is unduly involving itself in operational or managerial decisions or actions and may, as a result, engage Board members in Conflict Resolution per the Conflict Resolution Policy.

Section 6A. Resignations. Any Director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein; and the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 6B. Removal. Any or all of the Directors may be removed using the Conflict Resolution process.

ARTICLE III
Meetings of the Board of Directors

Section 1. Meetings. The Board of Directors will meet at least ten (10) times per year to discuss WMPSC operations, to hear reports and updates from the charter community, and to discuss business related to the responsibilities outlined in these bylaws. The Board shall be subject to and hold meetings in accordance with the Colorado Open Meetings Act. The Board shall be subject to and hold meetings in accordance with the Colorado Open Meetings Act.

Directors may meet in-person or electronically (virtually) so long as all Directors participating and the public can all hear each other during the meeting, and technology is in place to ensure such. Directors attending virtually shall be counted as present for all purposes, and virtual attendance shall count toward a quorum. Should any Director plan to attend a board meeting virtually, they will make that known to the Board Secretary at least 24 hours in advance of the scheduled Board meeting. The Board Secretary shall then provide for virtual access to the meeting to Directors and members of the public.

Section 2. Notices. Notice of any meetings of the Board at which the Board takes any action or at which a majority or quorum of the Board is or expected to be in attendance, will be posted at least twenty–four hours in advance. The posting of such a notice shall be one means of providing full and timely notice to the public of such meetings and that the location for the posting of notice shall continue in effect until changed by subsequent official action by the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Agenda. A proposed agenda for all Board of Directors meetings will be posted with the required 24-hour notice if possible.

Section 4. Minutes. Approved minutes of all public board meetings will be on the school's website and will be available for review at any reasonable time.

Section 5. Quorum and Constitution of Majority. Except as otherwise provided by law, a majority of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any specified item of business. Except as otherwise provided by law or these Bylaws, WMPSC shall define in board policy the rule of order which will define what constitutes an official action of the Board. Such policy may be revised by official action of the Board. No Director may vote or act by proxy at any meeting of Directors.

Section 6. Executive Sessions. All regular and special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be open to the public, except that a closed meeting may be held to discuss any matter as permitted under the Colorado Open Meetings Act. The proposal requesting the executive session shall state the nature of the matter to be discussed.. The Board shall not take official board action in an executive session. Matters discussed during executive sessions shall remain confidential among those attending. The Secretary shall maintain topical minutes of all executive session items that then result in public Board action.

Section 7. Special Meetings.   Special meetings of the Board may be called by any Director of the Board. Special meetings must meet posting requirements stated in CRS 22-32-108. The Board may fix any place or time as the place for holding any special meetings. Special meetings of the Board shall follow the rules and regulations of a regular public Board meeting. In addition to the notice provisions of the Colorado Open Meetings Law, notice of any special meeting of the Board of Directors stating the date, time and place of the meeting shall be given to each Director at such Director's business or residential address at least two days prior thereto by the mailing of written notice by first class, certified or registered mail, or at least one day prior thereto by personal delivery or private carrier or by telephone, facsimile, e-mail, electronic transmission or any other form of wire or wireless communication (and the method of notice need not be the same as to each Director). A Director who attends the special meeting is deemed to have received notice.

Section 8. Deemed Assent. A Director of the corporation who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors when corporate action is taken is deemed to have assented to all action taken at the meeting unless (i) the Director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the Director's arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting and does not thereafter vote for or assent to any action taken at the meeting; or (ii) the Director contemporaneously requests the Director's dissent or abstention as to any specific action taken be entered in the minutes of the meeting; or (iii) the Director causes written notice of the Director's dissent or abstention as to any specific action to be received by the presiding officer of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or by the corporation promptly after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right of dissension or abstention is not available to a Director who votes in favor of the action taken.

ARTICLE IV
Officers of the Board

Section 1. Officers. The Officers of the Board of Directors shall consist of Chair, Secretary, and Treasurer. Any Director shall be eligible to hold Board office. Additionally, the Secretary role may be filled by a non-voting member.

Section 2. Election and Term. The Governance committee shall present a slate of Officers to the Board annually. Officers shall be elected by the Directors at their annual meeting and shall hold office for the term of three (3) years. Each Officer shall continue in office until his or her successor shall have been elected and qualified, or until his or her death, resignation, or removal. A Director may serve more than one (1) term in the same office, but no more than two (2) consecutive terms in the same office.

Section 3. Chair. Pursuant to the terms of these bylaws, he or she shall have the power to sign or designate signers in the name of WMPSC all contracts authorized either generally or specifically by the Board and to execute and deliver other documents and instruments. The Chair shall also have such other powers and perform such other duties as the Board may from time to time prescribe. In the event that the office of the Chair becomes vacant, the Secretary shall become Chair for the unexpired portion of the term.

Section 4. Secretary. The Secretary shall be responsible for performing all duties incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board, including, but not limited to, recording and maintaining the minutes of all meetings of the Board and maintaining records (including financial records when the Treasurer provides the Secretary such records) of WMPSC such as the bylaws and the charter. In the event of absence or disability of the Secretary, the Board may elect an interim Secretary to perform the duties of the Secretary during such absence or disability.

Section 5. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall perform all duties incident to the office of Treasurer and shall hold the Chair position of the Finance and Facilities Committee and such other duties as shall from time to time be assigned by the Board. The Treasurer shall keep proper accounting records showing at all times the amount of the funds and other property of WMPSC, all of which records shall be open at all times to the inspection of the Board.

Section 6. Resignations, Vacancy, and Removal.   An Officer may resign by giving written notice of his or her resignation to the Board Chair. Any Officer may be removed, with or without cause, by official action of the Board. A vacancy in any office shall be filled for the unexpired term by official action of the Board.

ARTICLE V
Committees and School System Accountability Committee

Section 1. School System Accountability Committee (SAC). A Board committee will be responsible for the organization and coordination of the School System Accountability Committee. The purpose of the Accountability Committee is to meet state reporting requirements for accountability. The Committee shall be appointed and have the responsibilities designated for School Accountability Committees in C.R.S. 22-7-401.

Section 2. Committees. By official action of the Board, the Board of Directors may designate one or more committees, each of which, to the extent provided in the resolution establishing such committee, shall have and may exercise all of the authority of the Board of Directors, except as prohibited by the Act. The delegation of authority to any committee shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors or any member of the Board from any responsibility or standard of conduct imposed by law or these bylaws. Rules governing procedures for meetings of any committee shall be the same as those set forth in these bylaws or the Act for the Board of Directors unless the Board or the committee itself determines otherwise.

ARTICLE VI
Finances

Section 1. Contracts and Grants. All contracts and procurement matters will be governed by applicable and adopted financial policies of the organization.The Board may accept on behalf of WMPSC any contribution, gift, grant, bequest or device for the general purposes or for any special purpose of WMPSC. WMPSC shall acquire and retain sufficient control over all donated funds (including designated contributions) to assure that such funds will be used exclusively to carry out WMPSC's tax-exempt purposes.

Section 2. Loans. All loans and evidence of indebtedness shall be contracted on behalf of WMPSC and authorized by official action of the Board of Directors. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances. No loan or advance to, or overdraft of funds by an officer or member of the Board of Directors otherwise than in the ordinary and usual course of the business of WMPSC, and on the ordinary and usual course of the business or security, shall be made or permitted. No loans shall be made by the WMPSC to any of its Directors, board members, or officers. Any member who assents to or participates in the making of any such loan shall be liable to WMPSC for the amount of such loan until the repayment thereof.

Section 3. Board Compensation. Directors shall not receive compensation for their services as such; however, by resolution of the Board of Directors, the reasonable expenses of Directors of attendance at Board meetings may be paid or reimbursed by the corporation. Directors shall not be disqualified to receive reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the benefit of the corporation in any other capacity.

Section 4. Conflicts of Interest. A conflict of interest arises when any "responsible person" or any "party related to a responsible person" has an "interest adverse to the corporation." A "responsible person" is any individual in a position to exercise substantial influence over the affairs of the corporation, and specifically includes, without limitation, Directors and officers of the corporation. A "party related to a responsible person" includes his or her extended family (including spouse, parents, children, siblings, and their respective spouses), an estate or trust in which the responsible person or any member of his or her extended family has a beneficial interest or a fiduciary responsibility, or an entity in which the responsible person or any member of his or her extended family is a Director, trustee or officer or has a financial interest. "An interest adverse to the corporation" includes any interest in any contract, transaction or other financial relationship with the corporation, and any interest in an entity whose best interests may be impaired by the best interests of the corporation including, without limitation, an entity providing any goods or services to or receiving any goods or services from the corporation, an entity in which the corporation has any business or financial interest, and an entity providing goods or services or performing activities similar to the goods or services or activities of the corporation.

Disclosure. If a responsible person is aware that the corporation is about to enter into any transaction or make any decision involving a conflict of interest, (a "conflicting interest transaction"), such person shall: (i) immediately inform those charged with decision authority for the conflicting interest transaction on behalf of the corporation of the interest or position of such person or any party related to such person; (ii) aid the persons charged with making the decision by disclosing any material facts within the responsible person's knowledge that bear on the advisability of the corporation entering into the conflicting interest transaction; and (iii) not be entitled to vote on the decision to enter into such transaction.

Approval of Conflicting Interest Transactions. The corporation may enter into a conflicting interest transaction provided either:
(i)   The material facts as to the responsible person's relationship or interest and as to the conflicting interest transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or to a committee of the Board of Directors that authorizes, approves or ratifies the conflicting interest transaction, and the Board or committee in good faith authorizes, approves or ratifies the conflicting interest transaction by the affirmative vote of a majority of the disinterested Directors on the Board or committee, even though the disinterested Directors are less than a quorum; and
(ii)   The conflicting interest transaction is fair as to the corporation.

Conflict of Interest Certification. All Board of Directors will annually complete a Conflict of Interest form and certify in writing that there are no undisclosed conflicts of interest or any conflicts of interest that would disqualify the Director from service on the Board.

Liability to Corporation. A Director who votes for or assents to a distribution made in violation of the Act or the articles of incorporation of the corporation shall be personally liable to the corporation for the amount of the distribution that exceeds what could have been distributed without violating the Act or the articles of incorporation.

Contribution. A Director who is liable for an unlawful distribution is entitled to contribution: (i) from every other Director who could be liable for the unlawful distribution; and (ii) from each person who accepted the distribution knowing the distribution was made in violation of the Act or the articles of incorporation, to the extent the distribution to that person exceeds what could have been distributed to that person without violating the Act or the articles of incorporation.

ARTICLE VII
Books and Records

WMPSC shall keep current records and shall also keep minutes of the proceedings of its Board of Directors. All validated records of WMPSC are considered public documents and may be inspected at any reasonable time. However, student records, personnel records and any other record protected under privacy laws are excluded.

ARTICLE VIII
Indemnification

WMPSC may, to the fullest extent now or hereinafter permitted by law, indemnify against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement, and reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, any person made, or threatened to be made, a party to any action or proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she, his or her testator or intestate was a Director, Officer, employee, or agent of WMPSC. There shall be no indemnification in relation to matters as to which the Board finds that the employee, Officer, Director, or agent acted in bad faith or engaged in willful misconduct in the performance of a duty to WMPSC.

ARTICLE IX
Insurance

By action of the Board of Directors, notwithstanding any interest of the Directors in this action, WMPSC may purchase and maintain insurance, as the Board of Directors deems appropriate, on behalf of any person who is or was a Board Director, officer, employee, fiduciary, or agent of WMPSC, or who, while a Board member, officer, employee, fiduciary or agent of WMPSC, is or was serving at the request of WMPSC as a Board member, officer, partner, Director, employee, fiduciary or agent of any other foreign or domestic corporation or of any partnership, joint venture, trust, other enterprise, or employee benefit plan, against any liability asserted against, or incurred by, that person in any such capacity or arising out of their status, whether or not WMPSC would have the power to indemnify that person against such liability under the provisions of Article VIII of these bylaws or applicable law.

ARTICLE X
Miscellaneous

Dissolution. WMPSC will dissolve if the schools' charter(s): (1) Have been revoked by the authorizing entity; (2) Have not been renewed by the authorizing entity; or (3) Have voluntarily been relinquished by the charter school(s).

Conveyances and Encumbrances. Property of WMPSC may be assigned, conveyed or encumbered by such officers of the corporation as may be authorized to do so by the Board of Directors, and such authorized persons shall have power to execute and deliver any and all instruments of assignment, conveyance and encumbrance; however, the sale, exchange, lease or other disposition of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation shall be authorized only in the manner prescribed by applicable statute.

References to Internal Revenue Code. All references in these bylaws to provisions of the Internal Revenue Code are to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and to the corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

Severability. The invalidity of any provision of these bylaws shall not affect the other provisions hereof, and in such event these bylaws shall be construed in all respects as if such invalid provision were omitted.

ARTICLE XVI
Procedure to Amend These Bylaws

These bylaws will be reviewed at least once every two (2) years and shall be documented as to the date of such review. These bylaws may be amended at any meeting of the Board by official action.

WMPSC Board of Directors Commitments

Purpose
- Name board member contributions to the work of governing WMPSC and supporting the school community.
- Create an effective board by making transparent commitments towards our collective goals.
- Annually affirm board member commitments.

Board Member Commitments

- Principles:
  - Uphold Wildflower Beliefs by leading with an anti-bias anti-racist and equity lens that governs in alignment with our values.
  - Practice self-management in board governance.
  - Recognize the positional power of board members, practicing restraint to uphold Teacher Leader autonomy.
  - Elevate equitable and inclusive practices, per the Board Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging Agreement, such as adherence to ADA regulations.
- Attendance:
  - Attend at least 80 percent of board meetings per year which include bi-annual planning meetings lasting 5-8 hours each. Your presence is valued and your active participation is a critical component of the board community.
  - Attend 3 community engagement and/or charter site events annually. By experiencing the liberatory learning environment firsthand, members become better informed advocates for WMPSC.
- Active Participation and Compliance:
  - Serve on a minimum of one committee (e.g. finance, fundraising, school performance, community engagement). The work of the board is most often accomplished through its committees, and your partnership will help WMPSC achieve its purpose.
  - Read and be familiar with the materials sent to you 3-5 days in advance of board and committee meetings.
  - Respond to emergencies within 72 hours; nonemergency within one week or sooner.
  - Operate in compliance with WMPSC Bylaws, Colorado Open Meetings Law (C.R.S. 24-6-401), Public Record Act (C.R.S. 24-72-204), and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (20 U.S.C. Sect. 1232).
  - Participate in WMPSC - organized training to remain informed of board compliance requirements and obligations.

- ○ Disclose any potential conflicts of interest with WMSPC board service as they arise, and follow board policies regarding conflicts and background checks, if applicable.

- ● Advocacy
  - ○ Contribute in-kind or direct financial support to WMPSC. Board members make a personally meaningful contribution (with no minimum requirement). Your support, regardless of amount or structure, tells other potential contributors that our Board of Trustees is tangibly committed as donors.
  - ○ After parents, students, and Teacher Leaders, board members are the very best ambassadors. We encourage board members to advocate on behalf of the school and use social media and personal networks to promote and build a strong WMPSC presence.

WMPSC Community Commitments

WMPSC recognizes the interdependence of our work and commits to supporting board work in the following ways:
- ● Effective use of time
  - ○ Use board member time wisely.
  - ○ Distribute information in a timely manner including meeting agendas, minutes, financial reports, committee updates, and reports requiring action per WMPSC bylaws.
  - ○ Inform board members of critical events or concerns that may arise between meetings.
- ● Commitment to growth and learning
  - ○ Onboard board to WMPSC and orient board members to charter school sites.
  - ○ Create opportunities for board members to connect with the community through events like school observations and events.
  - ○ Provide ongoing training and education to help board members maximize their effectiveness, including learning and practicing the evolving Wildflower Ways of Working.
- ● Safeguarding board member role
  - ○ Provide directors-and-officers liability insurance to indemnify actions.
- ● Conflict resolution
  - ○ WMPSC believes conflicts will arise and that it is important to create spaces to resolve conflicts both safely and civilly, while also protecting the needs of individuals. WMPSC will follow Wildflower's Conflict Resolution Process and will follow its own Code of Ethics and Whistleblower policies.
  - ○ In the event of any dissatisfaction or internal dispute, the Conflict Resolution Process must be initiated and resolved prior to any public discussion.
  - ○ At all times, the Conflict Resolution process upholds confidentiality of those involved in dispute.

WMPSC Conflict of Interest Policy

Definition

A conflict of interest arises when any "responsible person" or any "party related to a responsible person" has an "interest adverse to the corporation." A "responsible person" is any individual in a position to exercise substantial influence over the affairs of the corporation, and specifically includes, without limitation, Trustees, Council members and officers of the corporation. A "party related to a responsible person" includes his or her family (including spouses, parents, children, grandchildren, or siblings, or the spouse of any of the foregoing), an estate or trust in which the responsible person or any member of his or her family has a beneficial interest or a fiduciary responsibility, or an entity in which the responsible person or any member of his or her family is a director, trustee or officer or has a financial interest. "An interest adverse to the corporation" includes any interest in any contract, transaction or other financial relationship with the corporation, and any interest in an entity whose best interests may be impaired by the best interests of the corporation including, without limitation, an entity providing any goods or services to or receiving any goods or services from the corporation, an entity in which the corporation has any business or financial interest, and an entity providing goods or services or performing activities similar to the goods or services or activities of the corporation.

Disclosure and Recusal

If a responsible person is aware that the corporation is about to enter into any transaction or make any decision involving a conflict of interest, (a "conflicting interest transaction"), such person shall: (i) immediately inform those charged with approving the conflicting interest transaction on behalf of the corporation of the interest or position of such person or any party related to such person; (ii) aid the persons charged with making the decision by disclosing any material facts within the responsible person's knowledge that bear on the advisability of the corporation entering into the conflicting interest transaction; and (iii) recuse from any deliberations on the vote to approve or not the conflicting interest transaction, and the responsible party shall not be entitled to vote on the decision to enter into such transaction or not.

Approving a Conflict of Interest

The corporation may enter into a conflicting interest transaction provided either: (i) The material facts as to the responsible person's relationship or interest and as to the conflicting interest transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Trustees or to a committee of the Board of Trustees that validates the conflicting interest transaction, and the Board or committee in good faith validates the conflicting interest transaction by official action of the disinterested Trustees on the Board or committee, even though the disinterested Trustees are less than a quorum; or (ii) The conflicting interest transaction is fair as to the corporation.

Definition

A conflict of interest arises when any "responsible person" or any "party related to a responsible person" has an "interest adverse to the corporation." A "responsible person" is any individual in a position to exercise substantial influence over the affairs of the corporation, and specifically includes, without limitation, Trustees, Council members and officers of the corporation. A "party related to a responsible person" includes his or her family (including spouses, parents, children, grandchildren, or siblings, or the spouse of any of the foregoing), an estate or trust in which the responsible person or any member of his or her family has a beneficial interest or a fiduciary responsibility, or an entity in which the responsible person or any member of his or her family is a director, trustee or officer or has a financial interest. "An interest adverse to the corporation" includes any interest in any contract, transaction or other financial relationship with the corporation, and any interest in an entity whose best interests may be impaired by the best interests of the corporation including, without limitation, an entity providing any goods or services to or receiving any goods or services from the corporation, an entity in which the corporation has any business or financial interest, and an entity providing goods or services or performing activities similar to the goods or services or activities of the corporation.

Disclosure and Recusal

If a responsible person is aware that the corporation is about to enter into any transaction or make any decision involving a conflict of interest, (a "conflicting interest transaction"), such person shall: (i) immediately inform those charged with approving the conflicting interest transaction on behalf of the corporation of the interest or position of such person or any party related to such person; (ii) aid the persons charged with making the decision by disclosing any material facts within the responsible person's knowledge that bear on the advisability of the corporation entering into the conflicting interest transaction; and (iii) recuse from any deliberations on the vote to approve or not the conflicting interest transaction, and the responsible party shall not be entitled to vote on the decision to enter into such transaction or not.

Approving a Conflict of Interest

The corporation may enter into a conflicting interest transaction provided either: (i) The material facts as to the responsible person's relationship or interest and as to the conflicting interest transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Trustees or to a committee of the Board of Trustees that validates the conflicting interest transaction, and the Board or committee in good faith validates the conflicting interest transaction by official action of the disinterested Trustees on the Board or committee, even though the disinterested Trustees are less than a quorum; or (ii) The conflicting interest transaction is fair as to the corporation.

WMPSC Conflict of Interest Policy

Definition

A conflict of interest arises when any "responsible person" or any "party related to a responsible person" has an "interest adverse to the corporation." A "responsible person" is any individual in a position to exercise substantial influence over the affairs of the corporation, and specifically includes, without limitation, Trustees, Council members and officers of the corporation. A "party related to a responsible person" includes his or her family (including spouses, parents, children, grandchildren, or siblings, or the spouse of any of the foregoing), an estate or trust in which the responsible person or any member of his or her family has a beneficial interest or a fiduciary responsibility, or an entity in which the responsible person or any member of his or her family is a director, trustee or officer or has a financial interest. "An interest adverse to the corporation" includes any interest in any contract, transaction or other financial relationship with the corporation, and any interest in an entity whose best interests may be impaired by the best interests of the corporation including, without limitation, an entity providing any goods or services to or receiving any goods or services from the corporation, an entity in which the corporation has any business or financial interest, and an entity providing goods or services or performing activities similar to the goods or services or activities of the corporation.

Disclosure and Recusal

If a responsible person is aware that the corporation is about to enter into any transaction or make any decision involving a conflict of interest, (a "conflicting interest transaction"), such person shall: (i) immediately inform those charged with approving the conflicting interest transaction on behalf of the corporation of the interest or position of such person or any party related to such person; (ii) aid the persons charged with making the decision by disclosing any material facts within the responsible person's knowledge that bear on the advisability of the corporation entering into the conflicting interest transaction; and (iii) recuse from any deliberations on the vote to approve or not the conflicting interest transaction, and the responsible party shall not be entitled to vote on the decision to enter into such transaction or not.

Approving a Conflict of Interest

The corporation may enter into a conflicting interest transaction provided either: (i) The material facts as to the responsible person's relationship or interest and as to the conflicting interest transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Trustees or to a committee of the Board of Trustees that validates the conflicting interest transaction, and the Board or committee in good faith validates the conflicting interest transaction by official action of the disinterested Trustees on the Board or committee, even though the disinterested Trustees are less than a quorum; or (ii) The conflicting interest transaction is fair as to the corporation.

WMPSC Board of Directors Commitments

Purpose

- Name board member contributions to the work of governing WMPSC and supporting the school community.
- Create an effective board by making transparent commitments towards our collective goals.
- Annually affirm board member commitments.

Board Member Commitments

- Principles:
  - Uphold Wildflower Beliefs by leading with an anti-bias anti-racist and equity lens that governs in alignment with our values.
  - Practice self-management in board governance.
  - Recognize the positional power of board members, practicing restraint to uphold Teacher Leader autonomy.
  - Elevate equitable and inclusive practices, per the Board Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging Agreement, such as adherence to ADA regulations.
- Attendance:
  - Attend at least 80 percent of board meetings per year which include bi-annual planning meetings lasting 5-8 hours each. Your presence is valued and your active participation is a critical component of the board community.
  - Attend 3 community engagement and/or charter site events annually. By experiencing the liberatory learning environment firsthand, members become better informed advocates for WMPSC.
- Active Participation and Compliance:
  - Serve on a minimum of one committee (e.g. finance, fundraising, school performance, community engagement). The work of the board is most often accomplished through its committees, and your partnership will help WMPSC achieve its purpose.
  - Read and be familiar with the materials sent to you 3-5 days in advance of board and committee meetings.
  - Respond to emergencies within 72 hours; nonemergency within one week or sooner.
  - Operate in compliance with WMPSC Bylaws, Colorado Open Meetings Law (C.R.S. 24-6-401), Public Record Act (C.R.S. 24-72-204), and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (20 U.S.C. Sect. 1232).
  - Participate in WMPSC - organized training to remain informed of board compliance requirements and obligations.

- Disclose any potential conflicts of interest with WMSPC board service as they arise, and follow board policies regarding conflicts and background checks, if applicable.

- Advocacy
  - Contribute in-kind or direct financial support to WMPSC. Board members make a personally meaningful contribution (with no minimum requirement). Your support, regardless of amount or structure, tells other potential contributors that our Board of Trustees is tangibly committed as donors.
  - After parents, students, and Teacher Leaders, board members are the very best ambassadors. We encourage board members to advocate on behalf of the school and use social media and personal networks to promote and build a strong WMPSC presence.

WMPSC Community Commitments

WMPSC recognizes the interdependence of our work and commits to supporting board work in the following ways:
- Effective use of time
  - Use board member time wisely.
  - Distribute information in a timely manner including meeting agendas, minutes, financial reports, committee updates, and reports requiring action per WMPSC bylaws.
  - Inform board members of critical events or concerns that may arise between meetings.
- Commitment to growth and learning
  - Onboard board to WMPSC and orient board members to charter school sites.
  - Create opportunities for board members to connect with the community through events like school observations and events.
  - Provide ongoing training and education to help board members maximize their effectiveness, including learning and practicing the evolving Wildflower Ways of Working.
- Safeguarding board member role
  - Provide directors-and-officers liability insurance to indemnify actions.
- Conflict resolution
  - WMPSC believes conflicts will arise and that it is important to create spaces to resolve conflicts both safely and civilly, while also protecting the needs of individuals. WMPSC will follow Wildflower's Conflict Resolution Process and will follow its own Code of Ethics and Whistleblower policies.
  - In the event of any dissatisfaction or internal dispute, the Conflict Resolution Process must be initiated and resolved prior to any public discussion.
  - At all times, the Conflict Resolution process upholds confidentiality of those involved in dispute.

Name	Expertise	Bio
Latia Henderson	Nonprofit, Communications and Marketing, Fundraising, Partnerships, Engagement and Talent Development	Latia is an Aurora mom, community member and Colorado native. Latia serves as the Director of Communications and Engagement for RootED Denver, a local education funder that invests in autonomous school models and community-led organizations. Latia brings more than 12 years of experience in nonprofit leadership and management and has extensive experience as a community volunteer and community advocate. Latia also served as a board member of an Aurora Montessori elementary school from 2017-2021. In large part due to the financial support of the Daniels Fund and sisterhood of Delta Sigma Theta, Latia is a graduate of Arizona State University, where she earned a degree in Nonprofit Leadership and Management with a minor in Business Administration.
Morgan Beidleman	Neurodiversity, Special Education Law, Tiered Behavioral Supports, Mental Health, Student Discipline	Morgan is a former teacher, coach, and school administrator. Morgan was a member of the founding team of one charter network in Denver and one in Aurora. She served on a collaborative for Montessori school leaders working in the public sector for several years. Morgan now runs an integrated practice specializing in the intersection of academic learning and social-emotional health for neurodiverse people aged 6-22 and their families. She also consults with public schools in several states helping school teams create connected, productive communities by establishing strong systems of support. Morgan holds a Masters degree in Special Education and Ph.D in School Psychology. Her research has largely focused on engagement in non-traditional learning environments.
Kaycee Gerhart	Budget and Finance, Legislative Advocacy and	Kaycee currently serves as the Director of Government Affairs at MSU Denver. She came to this role after working in the nonprofit and public sectors for the past 10 years. During that time, she served as a Policy Director in the Colorado State Senate, advancing and advising on

	Lobbying, K-12 Education	hundreds of bills in the areas of education, finance, economic development, and more. In addition to her work within the legislature, she oversaw all stakeholder engagement and constituent services across the northeast Denver senate district she staffed. Her experience in policymaking has led Kaycee to build and activate successful coalitions of advocates at local, state, and national levels for a variety of public-interest initiatives and projects. Most recently, she supported nonprofit executive teams in healthcare and education to attract and manage the resources and community support needed to advance their organizations' missions. With her strong financial background, Kaycee has also provided budget development and fiscal strategy services to several education nonprofits in consultant and volunteer capacities. Kaycee is a first-generation college graduate and earned a B.S. in Finance and minor in English Literature from San Diego State University. She started her career as a high school math teacher in Denver Public Schools and enjoys staying connected to K-12 education through her role as a mentor with the Challenge Foundation.
Jose Chavez	Community Organizing, Equity, Diversity, Inclusion, and Belonging, Leadership Development	Jose Luis Chavez grew up in the Grand Valley and graduated from Mesa College. He is the Founder and Chairperson of Cesar Chavez Celebration of Mesa County and spent over thirty years working in the criminal justice system supporting juveniles and their families as a parole officer and client manager. A passionate advocate for education equity, he has participated on many committees, including the Minority Action Committee in Mesa County Valley School District 51 and the Cultural Advisory Board at Colorado Mesa University. He remains active in community organizing, particularly in fostering trusting relationships between the community and law enforcement and collaborating with community organizations to address inequities in access to green space, culturally affirming resources, and quality childcare.
Butterfly White	Student, Parent of Montessori	Butterfly is a fifth generation Colorado native and member of the Aurora community who graduated from Manual High and Charter School, Community Liaison, Strategist and Consulting, Special Needs Student Advocate and Tutor	School with an academic scholarship to MSU from the Rocky Mountain News. She studied both print and broadcast journalism and has been a staff writer for the Rocky Mount News, APME Gazette, the Capitol Reporter, and NARAL. After leaving the newspaper industry, she focused on helping others by managing medical practices specializing in mental health care, dentistry, orthopedics, cardiology and neurology. She owns a consulting firm that specializes in political strategy, public relations and brand consulting. As a recent graduate of Ecobio Medical Institute in Daejeon South Korea, Butterfly earned her white coat as a Trichologist and a cranial acupressure masseuse and is also a licensed practicing alopecia specialist. A member of the Delta Epsilon Chapter of Alpha Sigma Lambda, Butterfly describes herself as a professional student with the world as her classroom. She has spent her life traveling the world and is dedicated to various roles in community service. Ms. White has an affinity for tutoring special needs students and is the mother of three boys who attended Montessori ECE. She is the proud parent of four graduates of Aurora's first public charter school: Aurora Academy. Butterfly believes education is a lifelong journey and the gateway to every opportunity, and she knows that every child needs an environment where they are celebrated, can learn, flourish and grow into their best unique selves.

Emma Reicks	Montessori Education, Education Leadership	Emma Reicks has spent her entire career in public education as a teacher, instructional coach, adjunct professor, and school administrator, most recently with KIPP Texas Public Schools. She has an M.Ed. in Elementary Education from Arizona State University and AMI credentials in Primary 3-6 and Elementary 6-12 from Southwest Institute of Montessori Studies. She returned to her hometown of Grand Junction, CO in 2020 with her husband and daughter and welcomed a son in October of 2022.
Martha Briggs	Montessori Education, Bilingual Community Liaison, Aurora	Martha Briggs is a bilingual Montessori educator who holds a Montessori certificate at the 3-6 level from Montessori Education Center of the Rockies and is currently pursuing a Bachelor's degree in Early Childhood Education from Metropolitan State University of Denver. Originally born in Mexico, Martha immigrated to the United States with her

	Resident and Parent	family when she was 11 years old. Upon arriving in the U.S., Martha spoke very little English and was immediately immersed in exclusively English-speaking educational environments where she received no ESL support and experienced significant culture shock. Now, a parent of two Montessori children, Martha is dedicated to ensuring that no child in her community experiences the challenges she did and is committed to supporting the development of schools in which children are safe to be themselves, celebrated for their individual and cultural differences, and encouraged to pursue their own passions throughout their education.
Hannah Ewert-Krocker	Montessori Education, School Leadership, Instructional Coaching	Hannah was a Founding Teacher and Program Director at Denver Montessori Junior/Senior High School, an innovation school serving grades 7-12 in Denver Public Schools. She earned her AMI Montessori credential in early childhood (0-3 years) through The Montessori Institute of Denver and in adolescence (12-18 years) through the International Montessori Training Institute of Ohio. Hannah also holds a Masters in Montessori Education from Loyola University Maryland and previously sat on the Board of Directors at Compass Montessori School, a pre-K through 12th grade charter school in Jefferson County. She now works as a consultant and coach for school leadership teams and specializes in supporting public adolescent programs to implement Montessori pedagogy with fidelity and ingenuity.

WMPSC Board of Directors Succession Plan

Vision Statement

We envision a diverse network of community-embedded schools that are led by Teacher Leaders, co-created with families and partners, and enable all children to cultivate their unique identities and gifts in pursuit of their fullest potential as individuals and contributors to a more just world.

Mission Statement

The mission of Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC) is to provide families with child-centered, authentic Montessori education that bridges academic outcomes and social-emotional development through intimate learning communities deeply rooted in place, equity, and belonging.

Purpose

The purpose of this document is to communicate the Succession Plan (the "Plan") of the Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC) Board of Members (the "Board") with respect to the orderly succession of Members of the Board. This Plan is subject to the WMPSC Bylaws.

Section 1. Organizational Structure of the Board

A full term for a Board Member is three (3) years and is defined in the Bylaws. An individual who has been appointed to fill a term shortened by the resignation or removal of a Member pursuant to the Bylaws shall hold office until the end of the term of the Member whose vacancy they are filling. In the Succession timeline below, each Member is identified by the seat in which the Director serves and the end of that Director's current term and term limit. Candidates shall be eligible for either election in accordance with the requirements of the Bylaws.

All Members will serve staggered three-year terms from the date of their appointments [or elections] or until their successors are seated and their term begins. Any and all board members shall be limited to two consecutive three-year terms and then be eligible to serve again after a one-year respite.

WMPSC Bylaws referenced as of August 2022

Article II Section 2B. Term.   Directors shall hold up to three-year renewable terms. The number of terms is unlimited except that a Director may only serve two consecutive terms. To the extent possible, the Board shall take necessary and appropriate action to set up a cycle that will ensure that terms are staggered in such a way that no more than one-third of Directors' terms expire in any one year. Each Director shall hold office until such Director's term expires and thereafter until such Director's successor shall have been elected and qualified, or until such Director's earlier death, resignation or removal.

Article IV Section 2. Election and Term.

The Governance Committee shall present a slate of Officers to the Board annually. Officers shall be elected by the Directors at their annual meeting and shall hold office for the term of three (3) years. Each Officer shall continue in office until his or her successor shall have been elected and qualified, or until his or her death, resignation, or removal. A Director may serve more than one (1) term in the same office, but no more than two (2) consecutive terms in the same office.

Succession Schedule

The office of one (or two) Director(s) shall be filled by election to a three-year term of office commencing at the annual board meeting each year (typically held in November).

Term Notification

Prior to the January Board meeting, the Governance Committee shall review with each Director when their term is expiring and determine if they plan to run for another term, if eligible. Should a Director not be able to complete their current term, he/she is required to deliver written notification to the Board President as soon as possible.

Growth and Accountability Cycle

The Members, including outgoing Members, who served during that school year will be part of the Growth of Accountability Cycle of Teacher Leaders and the Shared Services Partner. Members must have served at least six (6) months to have their evaluations included in the review. New incoming Members shall participate in the evaluation process as a learning/training experience.

Officer Succession

If serving a consecutive term, Members may be re-appointed to serve as Officers by the Board.

President & Treasurer

As a best practice, the Chair of the Board of WMPSC shall not be a first-year Member. At the February Board meeting, the next year President and the next Treasurer should be identified and confirmed by Board vote. This will allow sufficient time for the Chair Elect and Treasurer Elect to shadow the current officers and be prepared to take on leadership duties at the end of the May meeting.

Vice President & Secretary

These offices shall be filled at the May meeting and may be filled by a new Director. It is considered the responsibility of the outgoing Director to take the time to review all needed details with the new Officer.

Section 2: Strategic Plan

During the annual Board Retreat, the current Board will evaluate Board structure, talents and expertise, will compare future strategic goals with potential talent needs, and will determine needs for the Governance Committee to consider in recruitment of new Board Members.

Section 3: Governance Committee

The Governance Committee is a group of WMPSC leaders and parents who will work to develop a platform of candidates to be elected or appointed for WMPSC Board positions. In addition, qualified individuals can also self-nominate through an open call for nominations.

It is recommended that the committee consist of a mix of individuals such as current Board members who will not be up for election/appointment in the next election, Community Design Team members, WMPSC staff and parents. These members will be identified by the current Board after the annual election and before the Board Retreat. The Nomination Committee works within the parameters established by the Board and is guided by the characteristics identified by the Director skills matrix and director eligibility requirements.

Governance Committee Accountabilities:
- Review and update the Skills Matrix periodically
- Craft recruitment process and supporting materials (e.g. recruitment intake form)

- Interview potential candidates
- Lead board succession planning processes

When recruiting new Members, it is important to be clear what competencies, skills, and experiences are needed on the Board and which ones, if any, are missing. To assist in clarifying this information, the Board should ensure that there is an up-to-date Skills Matrix. The process of developing the matrix should describe the competencies, skills, and experiences of the current Members and the key ones required for new Members. The key steps in the competency matrix development process are likely to be as follows:

1. Assess what competencies the Board needs given the challenges faced by WMPSC and taking into account the strengths and weaknesses of the leadership team. The roles and responsibilities of each need to be complementary.
2. Assess what competencies each current Director possesses. This is done by asking current Members to assess themselves and their colleagues relative to the matrix. Those assessments should be reviewed by the Nominating Committee for additional feedback.
3. Evaluate the extent of any competency gaps resulting from a comparison between steps 1 and 2.
4. Define a recruitment needs for the competencies a new Director would need to bring to the Board to fill defined competency gaps.
5. Confirm the candidate agrees with and will adhere to the WMPSC mission, vision, Board Commitments and DEIB Agreement.

Section 3: Emergency Succession Plan

Should a current Director unexpectedly be unable to complete his/her term, the Governance Committee will convene to determine potential candidates for appointment by majority Board vote. In addition, a notice will go out to ask for additional candidates to submit an application for Director consideration. All candidates will be expected to follow the Governance Committee's process and submit a personal biography to be published and reviewed by the Board. All candidates will be expected to observe a board meeting and provide an opportunity for the Board to learn more about the candidate(s).

Section 4: Communication Plan

Communication with the WMPSC community is an essential element in maintaining not just a healthy community but also allowing for the highest positive relationship between the Board and the community. Both the Board and the Governance Committee shall consider the appropriate communication throughout the entire process.

Section 5: Onboarding

In order to prepare potential leaders, the gap between what they are ready for now and what preparation they need to be ready for the job when it is available needs to be determined. This information can help determine what training, experience, and mentoring is needed. By considering their past performance as a volunteer, past professional and personal experience, fit with the organizational culture, and other Members' acceptance of them as a potential leader, the best fit can be determined. It is critical to ensure that the potential leaders are willing to carry out WMPSC's mission and vision and to continue WMPSC's strategic plan, philosophy, and culture. Mentoring

Once Members have been elected/appointed, they should be assigned a Director mentor. This mentor should be the Director whom they may replace or another existing Director. The Board shall allow the potential leaders time to "shadow" the leaders and encourage them to attend Board meetings and participate in discussion. This is a great way to see how they problem solve and interact.

Section 6: Evaluation Process

Finally, evaluate the succession planning efforts. What went well? What went wrong? What could be done differently? The Board, after consultation with the Nomination Committee and key stakeholders, should make suggestions and recommendations for improving the process so that it runs more smoothly next time. Key to this evaluation is the input of the new Members. If all goes as planned, the succession planning process will ensure a smooth transition and a new Director who is prepared for his or her role in WMPSC.

WMPSC Conflict of Interest Policy

Definition

A conflict of interest arises when any "responsible person" or any "party related to a responsible person" has an "interest adverse to the corporation." A "responsible person" is any individual in a position to exercise substantial influence over the affairs of the corporation, and specifically includes, without limitation, Trustees, Council members and officers of the corporation. A "party related to a responsible person" includes his or her family (including spouses, parents, children, grandchildren, or siblings, or the spouse of any of the foregoing), an estate or trust in which the responsible person or any member of his or her family has a beneficial interest or a fiduciary responsibility, or an entity in which the responsible person or any member of his or her family is a director, trustee or officer or has a financial interest. "An interest adverse to the corporation" includes any interest in any contract, transaction or other financial relationship with the corporation, and any interest in an entity whose best interests may be impaired by the best interests of the corporation including, without limitation, an entity providing any goods or services to or receiving any goods or services from the corporation, an entity in which the corporation has any business or financial interest, and an entity providing goods or services or performing activities similar to the goods or services or activities of the corporation.

Disclosure and Recusal

If a responsible person is aware that the corporation is about to enter into any transaction or make any decision involving a conflict of interest, (a "conflicting interest transaction"), such person shall: (i) immediately inform those charged with approving the conflicting interest transaction on behalf of the corporation of the interest or position of such person or any party related to such person; (ii) aid the persons charged with making the decision by disclosing any material facts within the responsible person's knowledge that bear on the advisability of the corporation entering into the conflicting interest transaction; and (iii) recuse from any deliberations on the vote to approve or not the conflicting interest transaction, and the responsible party shall not be entitled to vote on the decision to enter into such transaction or not.

Approving a Conflict of Interest

The corporation may enter into a conflicting interest transaction provided either: (i) The material facts as to the responsible person's relationship or interest and as to the conflicting interest transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Trustees or to a committee of the Board of Trustees that validates the conflicting interest transaction, and the Board or committee in good faith validates the conflicting interest transaction by official action of the disinterested Trustees on the Board or committee, even though the disinterested Trustees are less than a quorum; or (ii) The conflicting interest transaction is fair as to the corporation.

Additional Provisions of Articles of Incorporation Of Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado

The following additional provisions of the Articles of Incorporation of Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado are adopted for the purpose of organizing under the provisions of the Colorado Revised Nonprofit Corporation Act, Colorado Revised Statutes, Title 7, Articles 121 to 137:

PURPOSES AND POWERS

This corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes within the meaning of Sections 170(c)(2), 501(c) (3), 2055(a) and 2522(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). Within the framework and limitations of the foregoing, the specific primary purpose of this corporation is to operate a Montessori public charter school consistent with the design principles of The Wildflower Foundation, a Minnesota nonprofit corporation described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code dedicated to the liberation of every human being, every community, and the human spirit, so that we may all live in harmony with our individual purpose and the world around us, free from oppression and able to follow life's unfolding journey.

For such purposes, and not otherwise, this corporation shall have and may exercise all powers that are afforded to this corporation by the Colorado Revised Nonprofit CorporationAct, Colorado Revised Statutes, Title 7, Articles 121 to 137, and by any future laws amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto; provided, however, that this corporation shall not carry on any activity not permitted to be carried on by a corporation that is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(a) of the Code as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or by a corporation that is described in, and contributions to which are deductible for federal income and estate tax purposes under, Sections 170(c) and 2055(a) of the Code.

All references in these Articles of Incorporation to a particular section of the Code shall include the corresponding provisions of any future federal tax law.

ARTICLE II

PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES

No part of the net income or earnings of this corporation shall, directly or indirectly, inure to the benefit of any person having a personal and private interest in the activities of this corporation, but this corporation may pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to this corporation in furtherance of its purposes set forth in Article I hereof. No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, except pursuant to an election under, and as permitted by, Section 501(h) of the Code, and this corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office. Except as permitted by applicable law, this corporation shall not lend money to, or guarantee the obligation of, any director or officer of this corporation.

ARTICLE III

NONDISCRIMINATION POLICY

This corporation shall not discriminate, on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, creed, religion, sex or gender, disability, age, marital status, sexual orientation, or status with regard to public assistance. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, this corporation shall admit students of any race, color, national and ethnic origin to the school and to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. Further, this corporation shall not discriminate, on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origin in administration of its educational policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other programs administered by this corporation.

NO MEMBERS

This corporation shall not have members.

ARTICLE V

DIRECTORS

The management and direction of the business and affairs of this corporation shall be vested in a Board of Directors. The number, qualifications, terms of office, method of selection or election, powers, authority, and duties of the directors of this corporation, the time, place and manner of their meetings, and such other provisions with respect to them as are not inconsistent with the express provisions of these Articles of Incorporation shall be as specified in or prescribed pursuant to the Bylaws of this corporation. The initial bylaws of the corporation shall be as adopted by the board of directors. Except to the extent limited by the Colorado Revised Nonprofit Corporation Act, the board of directors shall have power to alter, amend or repeal the bylaws from time to time in force and adopt new bylaws

NO LIABILITY

\None of the directors, officers, committee members, employees or agents of this corporation shall be personally liable for the payment of any debts or obligations of this corporation of any nature whatsoever, nor shall any of the property of any of the directors, officers, committee members, employees or agents be subject to the payment of the debts or obligations of this corporation to any extent whatsoever.

ARTICLE VII

DISSOLUTION

Upon dissolution of the corporation, all of the corporation's assets remaining after payment of or provision for all of its liabilities shall be paid over or transferred to and among one or more exempt organizations described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code. The organizations to receive such property, and their respective shares and interests, shall be designated by the board of directors.

ARTICLE VIII

AMENDMENTS

The board of directors shall have the exclusive power and authority at any time and from time to time to amend these articles of incorporation by the vote of a majority of the directors then in office.

Enrollment Policy

In alignment with CCSP Grant Criteria

DRAFT 7.30.22

Wildflower Montessori
Public Schools of Colorado

Enrollment Policy for K-6

Purpose and Scope: The Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC) Enrollment Policy is intended to provide documented procedures for the allocation of available seats at the school. The purpose of this policy is to outline the enrollment process for all ages at Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC). The policy also provides for a lottery process when the number of student applications exceeds the number of available seats. In an effort to provide a student population that reflects the diversity of the district, WMPSC's lottery is weighted as described below. This policy was drafted by the WMPSC Charter Development Team and will be validated by the Board of Directors by December 1, 2022.

Distribution: This policy shall be available on the school's website, at information sessions, and in its offices for public viewing and acknowledgement of such viewing shall be made part of the enrollment process when submitting an Intent to Enroll form to WMPSC.

Declaration: By applying for enrollment at WMPSC, all persons involved in the enrollment process declare that they have read and understand the enrollment policy of WMPSC, will abide by this policy, and will provide the most up-to-date and accurate information available. All persons declare that they understand enrollment fraud as defined in the policy and that enrollment fraud will result in forfeiture of application/enrollment status.

Definitions

Enrollment Priority: Defines the order of priority, by category in which students are selected for available seats based on residency and sibling status. These priority categories are defined in the WMPSC charter contract. As defined in the charter contract, the enrollment priorities are:

1. Currently enrolled students (after the inaugural year).
2. Children of WMPSC employees
3. Children in the household of certified Founding Families
4. Sibling Status 4A and 4B (defined below)
5. Students who reside in the School District
6. Students who reside outside of School District

Founding families and employee child(ren) will not exceed 20% of the total enrollment in the lottery.

Currently enrolled WMPSC students (Priority 1): Following the inaugural year, all currently enrolled WMPSC students do not have to re-enroll and are guaranteed a spot the next school year, unless and until they formally disenroll. Any remaining seats available will be filled by a lottery in the order of priority categories described above.

Children of WMPSC employees (Priority 2): Any student who is the legal dependent of a current WMPSC employee.

Children in the household of certified Founding Families (Priority 3): Founding families are defined as families who provided 50 or more hours of approved volunteer services toward the development, formation, and startup of WMPSC prior to the inaugural lottery. The child(ren) of these founding families, when they are eligible for kindergarten enrollment and above, will be given Priority 3 enrollment status in the WMPSC lottery.

Sibling Status 4A and 4B (Priority 4):

- 4A Sibling Status is the status given to a new applicant if their sibling is currently attending WMPSC. In the summer, a student who is re-enrolled is treated as currently attending.
- 4B Sibling Status is the status given to a new applicant if their sibling is offered enrollment and has accepted the enrollment offer.

Students who reside in the School District (Priority 5): These are students that live in the school district where the school is located.

Students who reside outside of the School District (Priority 6): These are students that live in a school district other than the district where the school is located.

Enrollment Lottery (or Lottery): The process of randomly selecting names of applicants when there are more applicants than seats available.

Enrollment Fraud: All enrollments are subject to verification upon acceptance of an offer of enrollment. If any portion of the verification process reveals fraudulent enrollment activity (i.e. fraudulent priority status, residency, or age) the enrollment is deemed fraudulent, and the student(s) enrollment will be treated as void. If a misrepresentation is determined, then the student will be treated as no longer enrolled. If residency is established between the enrollment date and the discovery of the misrepresentation, then the student will forfeit their enrolled status for the next school year and will be given status based upon the most up-to-date residency information at the time of the next enrollment period.

Teacher Leader: The WMPSC Teacher Leader is responsible for overseeing the enrollment and lottery process as described.

Enrollment Assistant: The WMPSC Enrollment Assistant is responsible for carrying out the enrollment and lottery process as described.

Lottery Official: The person in charge of verifying the accuracy of the lottery process. The lottery official is a community member selected by the school. The individual shall not have a student in the school or an otherwise vested interest in the school.

Lottery eligibility for 5 years old and older: If a child completes a valid Intent to Enroll Form then that child is deemed to be eligible for participation in the WMPSC enrollment lottery.

Lottery eligibility for 3 and 4 years olds for Kindergarten spots: In accordance with the January 2014 Charter School Program Nonregulatory Guidance of Title V, Part B, If a family of a 3 or 4 year old completes a valid Intent to Enroll Form during the open enrollment period and is offered a spot in the lottery, that family can defer acceptance of that spot until the student is 5 years old and ready to enter as a kindergartener. In accordance with the non-regulatory guidance, WMPSC would "inform prospective applicants that winning the lottery does not require them to enroll in the private preschool. Thus, any child selected through the lottery would be guaranteed a slot in kindergarten a few years later, whether or not he or she enrolls in the preschool program."

Site-Based Information Sessions: Throughout the school year, Teacher Leaders at a given site may host one or more Information Sessions specifically designed for prospective families. The intent of these sessions is to inform families of the Mission, Vision, Culture, and Programming of the school prior to submitting an Intent to Enroll Form. The WMPSC wants to ensure that all families are broadly educated in what the school is about prior to enrolling their student(s). As such, it is strongly encouraged that all interested applicants attend one of these Information Sessions.

Change in Status: If at any point during the enrollment process where any portion of an applicant's priority status would change, such as a sibling's recent enrollment into WMPSC prior to the enrollment lottery taking place (grants sibling/Priority 4B enrollment status) or change of residency (Purchase/Rental of a residence being made or falling through, depends on actual activity), then notification must be made to the WMPSC regarding the change in status so that the enrollment application can be updated. Failure to update the enrollment application for a field that would change the student's priority status to their detriment is considered an intentional act of enrollment fraud.

Sibling: An applicant, or current student, who is a biological brother, sister, or half- sibling of another student or a brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister of another student through marriage or adoption.

Waitlist: The waitlist is the ordered list of applicant students without enrollment offers. The waitlist for each school year is initiated through the lottery process. Once all available enrollment opportunities are offered, the remaining applicant students will be placed on the waitlist in the order drawn. The waitlist remains active through the academic year. The waitlist for a given year is not carried over to the next school year. A new enrollment application is required for each school year for which a student is seeking a new enrollment.

Withdrawn Students: If the student(s) were withdrawn from WMPSC for any reason, including adverse conditions (such as disagreements with the Teacher Leaders, Board, or withdrawal in lieu of suspension or greater disciplinary action), or transferring to another school, the student must receive approval to file an application for re-enrollment by the site's Teacher Leaders prior to the closing of the open enrollment process. The student's priority status is reset so that eligibility and priority status will be that of a new applicant.

Grade Level Capacity: The WMPSC Board recognizes that situations may arise when the building capacity has not been reached but a particular grade level enrollment may reach a level which is not conducive to high academic achievement or manageable by staff. As such the Board will, after considering the recommendations of the Administrative Leader(s), set a maximum grade level capacity annually based on academic achievement goals, operations manageability, and other financial considerations. This grade level capacity may vary from grade level to grade level and the number of enrolled students will vary accordingly and not exclude students enrolled the previous year who wish to return to The WMPSC School. The grade level capacity for the next academic year must receive approval from the Board of Directors and may only be modified during the year with approval from the Board of Directors. WMPSC will only accept students in the highest grade level served under special circumstances due to the nature of the curriculum and time constraints for meeting WMPSC curriculum requirements.

Established Enrollment Number: The school's total available enrollment as approved by the Board, from time to time and in alignment with fiduciary responsibilities.

Weighted Lottery:

In order to serve a diverse student body, cultivate respect for and interest in human diversity among students, and have a student population which reflects the geographic region, WMPSC will utilize a weighted lottery.

Categories and sets/subsets of students to receive weights in lottery: WMPSC will conduct a weighted lottery following CDE's Category B identifying students that are "a subset of educationally disadvantaged students that are described under section 1115(b)(2) of the ESEA, which includes economically disadvantaged students (eg. free or reduced priced lunch eligible students), students with disabilities (eg. identified with an IEP), migrant students, Multilingual Learners, neglected or delinquent students, and homeless students."

Justification for Weighted Lottery:

In alignment with our mission and vision to provide families with child-centered, authentic Montessori education that bridges academic outcomes and social-emotional development through intimate learning communities deeply rooted in place, equity and belonging and our commitment to re-center Montessori to its founding roots in equity and social justice, we strive to mirror the average demographics of educationally disadvantaged students in the other diverse district schools. In addition, we are adopting the weighted lottery to mitigate potential risks stemming from the fact that, historically, Montessori has not been accessible to families furthest from opportunity and therefore is largely an unfamiliar pedagogy to a broader and more diverse segment of the population.

Plan for outreach and recruitment of students whose race, gender and ethnicity reflect the demographics of the community that the school intends to serve: WMPSC will started, and will continue, an extensive community engagement process to include tabling and canvassing at local public events, partnering with community organizations that serve the school's target population, and translating all enrollment recruitment materials into Spanish in order to recruit students who race, gender, and ethnicity reflect the demographics of WMPSC's target population.

Weighted information will be provided during the intent to enroll process through a voluntary self-identification of educationally disadvantaged only (sub-category not specified) for a weighted chance in the event of a lottery.

Formula for Weighted Lottery:

WMPSC is still collecting interest forms and information regarding the appropriate weight to apply to our lottery. Below, in the shaded gray area, is a sample draft of where we are in the process. Please note that this is a draft, but we anticipate a weight of either two or three for students who self-identify as educationally disadvantaged. We will be adjusting the formula for this weight as we gather more information.

District
Free & Reduced Lunch	IEP	ELL	Homeless	Migrant	Total
%TBD	%TBD	%TBD	%TBD	%TBD
%TBD	%TBD	%TBD	%TBD	%TBD	%TBD

Using these percentages, out of our total enrolled students at full buildout, we are able to estimate the actual number of students in each of these demographics, assuming there is no crossover (ie. a FRL student on an IEP). %TBD of the WMPSC district population should be considered educationally disadvantaged in consideration of a weighted lottery (X total educationally disadvantaged students / total population of student body at full growth).

x= # of educationally disadvantaged students estimated

y= # of expected total applicants a= # of additional chances (weight minus one)

b= revised % chance in lottery x+(ax) _____ = b y+(ax)

Explanation and justification of how weight is decided/justified: The justification for the WMPSC School's weighted lottery is to address specific targets to meet or exceed the geographic district's or geographic area's percentage of students in a set or subset of educationally disadvantaged students.

Amount of weights to be applied to each category/set/subset: All student applicants that self-identify as educationally disadvantaged on the WMPSC School's Intent to Enroll form will be counted two or three times in WMPSC's lottery as determined by the above formula based on district data, meaning they shall receive three entries in the lottery. Documentation in support of educationally disadvantaged status will be collected by The WMPSC School only after an enrollment offer has been accepted by the applicant.

Using the formula then, we can see that using a weight for all such students will exceed this target percentage of the overall population.

Description of mechanism and/or process that will be utilized to carry out weighted lottery, including district oversight of process, sign-off from district and school certifying description provided adequately captures mechanisms that will be used to carry out the weighted lottery:

The WMPSC School will utilize best practices for implementing a weighted lottery in alignment and in partnership with The WMPSC School's district and authorizer. The Charter Liaison will provide oversight of The WMPSC School's weighted lottery in partnership with WMPSC Teacher Leader. The WMPSC School's enrollment policy and description of The WMPSC School's lottery process have been noted in The WMPSC School's Charter application.

Enrollment Period: The WMPSC first round open enrollment period will align with the dates as outlined in the Enrollment Process.

Intent to Enroll: The necessary paperwork to be filed by an interested student and parent/guardian for placement in the lottery for enrollment in WMPSC.

Prior to the opening of the school, Intent to Enroll forms will be available on The WMPSC School website, once the website is created, and available in hard copy at public meetings or mailed via the United States Postal Service to requesting families. After school opening, this form will be available at the school for prospective families. Submitting an Intent to Enroll form in no way guarantees enrollment in WMPSC, nor does it obligate the family to enroll their child(ren) should they receive an invitation.

Intent to Return Forms: Existing students will be asked to complete an "Intent to Return" form, prior to the running of the lottery or offers of enrollment for the following year. The receipt of this form will constitute a guaranteed spot for the upcoming academic year.

Proof of Residency Requirements (To establish enrollment and enrollment priority):

Post Office boxes do not meet residency requirements. Only street addresses are accepted. All proofs of residency for priority 5 applicants must demonstrate residence in the School District:

1. ONE of the following official parent/guardian's picture ID from the following list:
   a. Current State-Issued Driver's License
   b. Current State-Issued Identification Card
   c. Valid Passport or Valid Consulate Issued Picture ID of any country
   d. Current Foreign Driver's License

AND

1. ONE of the following ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS with the parent/guardian's name and address:
   a. A current Property Tax Bill with parent/guardian's name and property address located in the School District, dated within the past 30 days.
   b. A current utility bill (electric, gas, water, cable or trash bill) with parent/guardian's name and property address located in the School District, dated within the last 30 days.
   c. A fully executed contract to build or purchase a home in the School District with the parent/guardian's name and property address. This will be used as a placeholder only and will need to be updated with a utilities bill at least one week prior to the first day of classes to retain the students Priority 5 status and any resulting seat offer.
   d. A current Rental or Lease agreement, fully executed within the last 30 days, with parent/guardian's name, student name, and address in the School District, as well as a property manager or owner's name and phone number. This will be used as a placeholder only and will need to be updated with a utilities bill at least one week prior to the first day of classes to retain the students Priority 5 status and any resulting seat offer.

General

The Board recognizes that the Teacher Leader is best suited to determine ideal and maximum enrollment availability based upon academic achievement and operations manageability.

Non-Discrimination Policy:

WMPSC will comply with the CDE Non-Discrimination Policy for charter schools, and all other applicable state and federal laws prohibiting discrimination.. All enrollment policies, processes, and decisions relating to enrollment at WMPSC shall not discriminate on the basis of disability, race, creed, color, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, religion, ancestry, socioeconomic status, language, academic ability, or need for special education services. The Governing Board and the Teacher Leaders are responsible for ensuring that the policy is upheld.

Enrollment Process and Timeline of Events:

1. Interested families should attend a WMPSC School Information session before submitting an Intent to Enroll.
2. A completed Intent to Enroll form shall be initiated by the parent or legal guardian of an interested student by completing and submitting the school's student Intent to Enroll form. The Intent to Enroll form may be accessed online on the WMPSC School website in both English and Spanish. Families without internet access can contact The WMPSC School via phone at 440.313.5882 or in person at 5167 Clay St. Denver, CO 80221.
3. Families who apply for enrollment after the open enrollment window will be placed at the end of the grade level's respective priority waitlist in the order the application is received.
4. Intent to Enroll forms submitted up to the announced end of the Open Enrollment round will be reviewed by the Enrollment Assistant or designee for completeness, legal residence, and age/grade of student. Incomplete enrollment forms will not be considered regardless of potential priority status. Completed Intent to Enroll forms will be sorted by entering grade level and enrollment priority 2 through 6.
5. If there are more Intent to Enroll forms for any grade for the next school year than there are available seats, then an enrollment lottery for such grade is required, and the following guidelines will apply:
   a. Applicants will receive written confirmation (which may be by email) of being in the lottery, and the date, time, and place of the lottery. The WMPSC lottery will take place on the first Monday two weeks after the close of the Open Enrollment period annually. These dates will change only if the designated day is not a school day, in which case the next regular school day will be the commencement, closing day, or lottery day, respectively.
   b. The lottery will be conducted by the Enrollment Assistant and be overseen by the Lottery Official and Teacher Leader. To ensure authenticity and integrity of the lottery process, no less than two Board members, the Teacher Leader and a Lottery Official will oversee the randomization of computer generated Lottery ID assignments; the final sort will be printed and signed by all witnesses.
   c. Other WMPSC Board members may be present during the lottery process. Notification of the lottery will serve as public notice of an official Board meeting, even if no action(s) are anticipated to be taken by members of the WMPSC Governing Board at the time of the lottery. WMPSC Governing Board members are primarily present to observe and assist the Teacher Leader or designee should such need(s) arise.

    d. On the day of the lottery, the Lottery Official will check to assure all applicant student names are appropriately included in the random selection process.

    e. The lottery will begin by selecting applicants at the lowest grade level, beginning with Priority 2 level applicants. If all names from that level are drawn, and there are still available seats for that grade there will be a random drawing of the next priority level applicants to fill the remaining seats, and so on for each priority category until the available seats for that grade are filled. The process will continue to work upwards through grade levels until enrollment is complete.

    f. Once an applicant is selected, enrollment of that student is assumed for the remainder of the lottery process in order to inform any potential priority changes for other students remaining in the lottery.

    g. The Teacher Leader and Enrollment Assistant will monitor selections to ensure grade levels are not overenrolled.

    h. Any applicant who is not offered enrollment will be placed on the waitlist using the process listed above.

6. Once the lottery is complete, applicants will be notified by the Registrar, or designee, of their status resulting from the lottery either with an enrollment offer or indicating their place on the waitlist for such grade.

7. Applicants who received enrollment offers in the lottery process will be informed via email and phone and will have 48 hours to accept or decline an offer for enrollment. If no verbal or written enrollment acceptance is received by the school within 48 hours from the time the student was extended an invitation to enroll, the school will assume the parent(s) or legal guardian(s) of the student have declined the offer to enroll in WMPSC.

8. Upon acceptance of an offer of enrollment, digital registration will be made accessible to applicants, and families will have one week from the date of the initial offer to complete the registration accurately and thoroughly. Registrations that are not completed in that time, or applicants that cannot produce appropriate priority information, will forfeit enrollment offers. Upon request of an applicant or parent/guardian, the Enrollment Assistant shall provide a paper application.

    a. Upon acceptance of an offer of enrollment for an incoming student at the highest grade level served

        i. The Enrollment Assistant will request receipt of the incoming student's current academic transcripts within a timely manner. If transcripts are not received within a timely manner the student's offer of enrollment will become void. If transcripts are received within a timely manner, the Enrollment Assistant and Teacher Leader will review the transcripts and determine if the student will be able to meet all WMPSC academic requirements within the scope of a regularly scheduled amount of time between the date of enrollment and graduation from the program. If it is determined that the student will be able to complete the required WMPSC coursework in time for a regularly scheduled course content period, the student's offer of enrollment will stand. If it is determined that the student will not be able to complete the required WMPSC coursework in time for a regularly scheduled curriculum completion, the student's offer of enrollment will be withdrawn and the student and parent/guardian shall be informed in writing.

 b. Upon acceptance of an offer of enrollment for a student in need of special education services

  i. The Enrollment Assistant shall request all education records from the student's prior school, and will promptly request from the parent/guardian(s) evidence of any formal special education service requirements or accommodations for the incoming student within a reasonable time. This includes, but is not limited to, copies of Individual Education Plans (IEPs) and 504s. If documentation of special education service requirements are not received from the parent/guardian(s) within a reasonable time, not to exceed two weeks, the student's offer of enrollment will become void. Once documentation of special education service requirements is received, the WMPSC Teacher Leaders, Special Education team, and district specialist (as necessary) will review the documents and determine if the WMPSC Special Education team is able to provide the services to the student with full fidelity and ensure that the student will have full access to the WMPSC curriculum. If it is determined that the Special Education team will be able to meet the needs of the student and that the student will have full access to the WMPSC curriculum, the offer of enrollment will stand. The WMPSC School aims to meet the needs of all students through accommodations and differentiated offerings and, under very unusual circumstances, if it is determined that the Special Education team will not be able to meet the needs of the student and/or that the student will not be able to fully access the WMPSC curriculum, the offer of enrollment will become void.

9. Grade placement determinations are made following receipt of the completed registration. After students are officially enrolled in the school, WMPSC reserves the right to test to determine a student's academic knowledge using diagnostic or placement exams in accordance with Section §22-30.5-104 (3) of the Colorado Charter Schools Act. If a student tests below grade level during diagnostic testing, the WMPSC school aims to honor the student's grade level as designated by their previous school and meet the student where they are at academically.

10. As openings occur post lottery, applicants on the grade level waitlist will be contacted in the established order and an offer made and registration process access will be provided. Completion of the registration process is expected in three (3) business days in order for prompt seat placement determination.
11. WMPSC will continue to enroll students using this process until the established enrollment number is met and maintained for the school year; however, WMPSC reserves the right not to enroll any additional students or transfers after October 1 of any school year.
12. The WMPSC School is committed to a class size that promotes high academic achievement and is manageable by the operations staff. Enrollment priorities are not guaranteed enrollment and will not be allowed to influence the academic achievement goals or the operational manageability of the school.

Transfer Policy

Families transferring to WMPSC mid-year will submit and sign transfer paperwork and meet with the Teacher Leaders before the student begins at the WMPSC site. The Teacher Leaders will collaborate with the parents to determine the most appropriate start date. WMPSC will request academic records, including IEPs or 504s, from the student's previous school and families will sign a Release of Information to ensure the school is able to obtain all records. All students who transfer into WMPSC will be observed by Teacher Leaders. In following the Montessori pedagogy, Teacher Leaders will develop a Student Learning Plan within two weeks of the day the student starts at WMPSC. For those transferring out of WMPSC at the end of the academic year, WMPSC will provide all students with their final academic report upon transferring from the charter to ensure that the receiving school has the most up-to-date and accurate assessment of the student's academic performance. The receiving school and parents will also receive a progress report and suggestions on how to continue to support academic progress for the student. A Teacher Leader and the Enrollment Assistant will oversee this process and prepare the proper release of information, procuring and providing relevant data from and to schools, and ensuring compliance with HIPAA and FOIA.

Matriculation

Students in grades k-6 will be granted automatic matriculation between charter school locations during the natural transitions that occur between Montessori levels (for example, lower elementary to upper elementary).

CDE Weighted Lottery Policy

Enrollment Policy for 3 and 4 year olds

Applicants for preschool positions at WMPSC must be at least 3 years old upon enrollment. Applicants are strongly encouraged to be potty-trained, with the ability to go to the restroom independently. Children should be able to express their needs and ideas to adults, as well as take directions from adults.

The enrollment process for the Primary program is outlined below:

1. Families interested in the Primary program for 3 and 4 year olds are strongly encouraged to attend a WMPSC School Information session before submitting an Intent to Enroll form.
2. A completed Intent to Enroll form shall be initiated by the parent or legal guardian of an interested student by completing and submitting the school's student Intent to Enroll form.
3. Families who apply for enrollment after the open enrollment window will be offered spaces as available after the completion of the lottery. In the event of a lottery, seats will be offered based on availability and the following priority status:
   a. Currently enrolled students (after the inaugural year).
   b. Children of WMPSC employees
   c. Children in the household of certified Founding Families
   d. Sibling Status 4A and 4B (defined above)

Founding families and employee child(ren) will not exceed 20% of the total enrollment in the lottery.

There is no automatic matriculation from preschool to kindergarten. Families must enter the kindergarten lottery for the year following their child's last year of preschool unless they have already received a spot through a deferral.

Table of Contents

Introduction

Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC) is a member of the Wildflower Network of Schools, an innovative, open-source approach to Montessori learning. As part of this network, WMPSC is developing an ecosystem of Montessori micro-schools that support a diverse mix of children, teachers, and parents on the unfolding journey toward fulfilling their potential. Our aim is to be an experiment in a new learning environment that is accessible to all families, that prioritizes and emphasizes deep parent engagement, and blurs the boundaries between scientists and teachers, between schools and the neighborhoods around them.

WMPSC is an affiliate of the Wildflower Foundation and authorized by Aurora Public Schools (APS). As such, each of the WMPSC School Sites must minimally be accountable to the Wildflower Foundation affiliation process and the authorizer contract, including all applicable Colorado laws and APS regulations.

Employee Handbook Purpose

This Employee Handbook serves as a foundational document communicating our shared personnel policies and practices. The WMPSC Board of Directors has legal accountabilities related to employment practices; therefore, the responsibility for the creation and evolution of this handbook lives with the Human Resources role in the Leadership Circle. Each Site is also welcome and encouraged to bring tensions to the Human Resources role as needed related to this handbook and to explore additional site-specific personnel policies within the Site Appendix. WMPSC follows Teal Practices as described below, including the Advice Process. In alignment with our Principle of Teacher Led Schools, site-based personnel policies are created and maintained by the Site Teacher Leaders and recorded in each Site's Employee Handbook Appendix.

The guidelines in this handbook are a combination of state- and federally-mandated laws and a set of policies that WMPSC has developed. Living into teal practice, you are welcome to provide advice on these policies to this handbook's decision-maker, currently held by the Human Resources role. In line with our norms and values, we expect that our school's purpose and policies will evolve over time. This handbook is a living document that will reflect policy evolution, while also retaining mandated content that is required to meet state/federal law and licensing requirements.

Partners

Our school uses the term "partner" to refer to salaried, exempt employees that hold roles within the WMPSC Holacracy system. The word "partner" is often used in addition to the word "employee" in this handbook. In our way of working, organizations don't control their employees, and people don't control organizations - both are alive and they live symbiotically, in partnership with each other. Partners' responsibilities involve listening to our organization's purpose and energizing roles within the WMPSC holacracy system. We use the title "partner" to draw our attention to our special role in this relationship.

Our Principles, Values, and Norms

The success of WMPSC depends upon the ethical conduct of everyone affiliated with our school.

Partners and team members set an example for each other by their pursuit of excellence and their high standards of performance, professionalism and ethical conduct. All of the Sites that are part of WMPSC are affiliated with the Wildflower Schools Network. We are committed to a common set of Principles, Values, and Norms, that guide our approach and serve as our Code of Ethics.

Professional Development & Growth

One of our core values is Growth. This inspires us to engage in ongoing learning and professional development along our personal and organizational evolutionary paths. This allows Partners to effectively lead their school sites and the School successfully in both instructional and administrative activities. Moreover, it enables us to align with Colorado Department of Education's Educator Professional Development Requirements, outlined in the Colorado Revised Statutes Title 22.

WMPSC Leadership Circle designates shared school site Professional Development Days, annually. These days are a time for our school staff to come together - often with others in the Wildflower network - to further our personal and professional growth. Moreover, Sites are encouraged to establish time during the school day and school year for peer coaching and teacher collaboration.

WMPSC is accountable to developing and reporting on a World's Best Workforce plan, which is complementary to the following process for employee evaluation and professional development planning. The World's Best Workforce plan strives to marry student outcome data with teacher-led professional growth strategies that are based in professional teaching standards established in rule.

Employee Evaluation and Continuous Improvement

At least annually, all WMPSC employees are encouraged to reflect and plan for growth using the WMPSC Wildflower Growth Worksheet (in process). This worksheet will be used as a portion of the required documentation to meet statutorily required summative evaluation for all employees at least once every three years.

WMPSC is non-hierarchical. Instead of supervisor-driven evaluation, Partners at WMPSC rely on peer observation, outside expert/mentor observation, and self-reflection to improve and develop practice.

- Peer Observation: Staff at WMPSC observe one another, assessing strengths, areas for improvement, and general takeaways/feedback.
- Expert/Mentor Observation: WMPSC invites outside Montessori experts to observe teacher-leaders twice a year and share takeaways/feedback.
- Reflective Practice: All teacher-leaders record student progress using the Montessori observation and record-keeping system, which allows them to reflect on their own teaching practice as it relates to student progress.

With radical transparency in mind, Partners are encouraged to share their areas for growth (or "evolutionary edge") with colleagues. Teachers are welcome and encouraged to develop a portfolio demonstrating evidence of reflection and professional growth, including a teacher's own performance assessment based on evidence of student mastery of Montessori materials as demonstrated using Montessori observation and record-keeping practices.

Teal Practices

Our School strives to live into teal practices, as outlined in Frederic Laloux's book Reinventing Organizations. Partners at WMPSC are committed to the following self-management practices:
- The Roles & Responsibilities Process
- The Advice Process
- The Conflict Resolution Process
- Radical Transparency

Charter-Wide Policies

Charter-Wide Policies

WMPSC posts board-validated policies on our website as required by law. All employees should orient themselves with all current policies as part of their initial onboarding process.The WMPSC Board is expected to adopt Holacracy as its governance structure tool to document decisions while meeting its governance obligations.

Equal Opportunity Employer

It is WMPSC's policy, consistent with state and federal laws and regulations, to provide equal employment opportunities to all applicants for employment. WMPSC does not discriminate based on an individual's race, religion, color, national origin, ancestry, citizenship, disability, genetic information, marital status, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, sex, or on any other classification protected by law.

This policy governs all aspects of employment at WMPSC, including hiring, assignments, training, promotions, compensation, employee benefits, leaves of absence, discipline, discharge, and all other terms and conditions of employment.

Fair and Open Hiring

WMPSC follows a fair and open hiring process, whereby roles may be filled internally with a qualified candidate or by posting the position publically. Partners may hire and fire as authorized in the Partner's Role(s) and pursuant to following any applicable policies. Partners must use prudent judgment and follow the Advice Process and Conflict Resolution Process as applicable. Partners are encouraged to follow WMPSC Hiring Guidance.

Background Check and Fingerprinting

All offers of employment and continued employment are subject to successful completion of any required background checks in accordance with applicable state and city laws and regulations. Volunteers and contractors may also be subject to fingerprinting and a criminal background check, particularly if the nature of the work they will perform places them near students. Any individual who will be left unsupervised with students at any time is subject to background check requirements.

Supervision of Non-Partner Team Members

Partners may determine if and when a supervisory relationship is best with team members hired at each Site. It is the responsibility of each Site to onboard site-based non-partner team members, track qualifications, professional development, and performance. The Site is responsible for ensuring compliance with all required training and onboarding based on the ages served and funding sources used.

Employee Status

Full-time Employee - an employee normally scheduled to work at least 40 hours per week. Full-time employees are currently eligible for WMPSC benefits.

Part-time Benefit-Eligible Employee - an employee normally scheduled to work at least 30 hours per week. Part-time employees working at least 30 hours are currently eligible for WMPSC benefits.

Part-time Employee - an employee normally scheduled to work 29 hours or less per week. Part-time employees working 29 hours or less are currently ineligible, except as required by law, for WMPSC benefits.

Temporary Employee - an employee who is hired in a job established for a temporary period or for a specific assignment. This includes teacher positions that are only offered for a specific period of time (such as through the end of the school year, or only for the summer program). Temporary Employees that are regularly scheduled for at least 30 hours per week and are offered a position for more than 30 days are currently eligible for the WMPSC benefits.

Exempt Employee - an employee who is not eligible for overtime pay.

Non-exempt Employee - Non-exempt employees are eligible for paid overtime at one and one-half times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of 40 hours per workweek. All overtime must be approved in advanced by the employee's direct supervisor. The work week is Saturday through Friday for purposes of calculating overtime.

Employee versus Independent Contractor - In the process of filling roles, Teacher Leaders and other partners will follow the WMPSC Hiring Guidance to determine if the role should be considered an employee or independent contractor and should take care in determining the employee status and benefit-eligibility.

At-Will Employment

Employment with WMPSC is voluntary and subject to termination by the employee or WMPSC at will, with or without cause, and with or without notice, at any time. Nothing in this policy shall be interpreted to conflict with or to eliminate or modify in any way the employment-at-will status of WMPSC employees.

Discipline/Discharge

Occasionally performance or other behavior falls short of our principles, values, and norms. In general, the Conflict Resolution Process should be followed so that employees can resolve issues on their own through self-management. However, there are times when the Lead Link of the Leadership Circle, at his/her own discretion, may take action, which in his/her opinion, seems appropriate.

Disciplinary actions can range from a direct compassionate conversation with the employee about the matter (first step in Conflict Resolution) to immediate discharge per the Lead Link's accountability to uphold the core purpose of the circle, including the viability of the charter. Action taken by the Lead Link of the Leadership Circle in an individual case does not establish a precedent in other circumstances.

Separation of Employment

We request that employees who wish to resign their positions notify the School of their anticipated departure date and go over a check out process at separation (conversion of insurance, return of property, delivery of final paycheck, etc.) with the Human Resource role or other partner.

Employees may be considered for re-employment provided they qualify for the position of interest.

Reference Requests

Employees who are approached either formally or informally and asked to provide information about former employees of WMPSC should first seek advice from the Human Resources role or refer such inquiries to the Human Resources role. This restriction includes recommendations on social media sites.

WMPSC does not furnish open letters of recommendation addressed "To Whom It May Concern."

Disabilities

It is WMPSC policy to comply with all federal and state laws concerning the employment of persons with disabilities and to act in accordance with regulations and guidance issued by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). Furthermore, it is WMPSC's policy not to discriminate against qualified individuals with disabilities regarding application procedures, hiring, advancement, discharge, compensation, training or other terms, conditions and privileges of employment.

WMPSC will provide reasonable accommodations to a qualified individual with a disability, as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act, who has made WMPSC aware of his or her disability in writing.

Confidentiality

Employees who handle student data, employee data, and medical data as part of their duties must treat the information as strictly confidential and only share data on a need to know basis or for bonafide educational purposes as defined in the WMPSC FERPA Annual Notice and the WMPSC Data Practices Policy. Staff members who handle student information shall maintain confidentiality of student data in accordance with federal and state law.

Electronic Communication Systems

WMPSC provides its employees with access to certain information technology resources and communication systems, some of which are provided by the Wildflower Foundation through our affiliation agreement. These resources include, but are not limited to, computers, networks, servers, hardware and software, peripheral devices, mobile devices and cell phones, removable storage media (e.g., USB hard drives), Internet, printers, scanners, and communication systems such as e-mail, text messages, instant messaging (IM) communications, telephone, and voicemail ("IT Resources") to facilitate business-related work and communications. The WMPSC IT Resources, and all information, data, or communications accessed, created, downloaded, received, stored, and/or transmitted by WMPSC IT Resources, or personally-owned mobile devices connected to WMPSC IT Resources, are WMPSC property.

The WMPSC does not prohibit employees from incidental personal use of WMPSC IT Resources, provided such use is not excessive, does not interfere or present a conflict of interest with the employee's job responsibilities, and is consistent with applicable laws, regulations, and established WMPSC guidelines, including but not limited to, the WMPSC's guidelines governing inappropriate conduct.

You are expressly advised, however, that in order to: (i) implement configuration and security measures; (ii) prevent misuse; (iii) protect WMPSC and client proprietary, confidential, and trade secret information; (iii) protect protected health information and/or confidential employee data; (iv) comply with litigation holds and discovery requests; and (v) conduct investigations into suspected or alleged inappropriate conduct, the WMPSC reserves the right, where permitted by applicable federal, state, and local law to monitor, intercept, preserve, collect, review, and record, without further notice, every employee's activities using the WMPSC'ss IT Resources. Such activities may include, but are not limited to, voice communications, whether conducted over traditional telephone or cellular telephones, mobile devices, Internet-based communications, or otherwise, facsimiles, Internet and social media posts and activities (including a record of the web pages visited, information reviewed, and duration of use), and all information, data, or communications accessed, created, used, stored, downloaded, uploaded, received, or transmitted by WMPSC IT Resources ("Activities").

WMPSC also may store copies of any data or communications for a period of time after they are accessed, created, downloaded, received, stored, and/or transmitted by WMPSC IT Resources. Even when a document or communication is erased, the WMPSC may be able to retrieve the information, including from back-up systems.

Accordingly, employees have no expectation of privacy whatsoever in any Activities conducted on, or facilitated by, WMPSC IT Resources. Do not use WMPSC's IT Resources for any matter that you desire to be kept private or confidential from WMPSC, including personal communications, communications protected by the attorney-client privilege, and/or protected communications with regulatory agencies. This Policy cannot be modified by verbal representations of WMPSC personnel, nor does the WMPSC'ss failure to enforce this Policy constitute a waiver of its right to monitor employee Activities conducted on or facilitated by WMPSC IT Resources.

Drug-Free Workplace

Employees are prohibited from engaging in the unlawful use, possession, sale or transfer of drugs or narcotics in any manner or from taking a substance that may impair their ability to perform assigned duties or otherwise adversely impact the WMPSC' business. Further, employees are prohibited from possessing alcoholic beverages in the workplace or consuming alcoholic beverages on WMPSC premises or during work time.

Anti-Violence, Discrimination, and Harassment

WMPSC believes that every employee has the right to work in an environment free from violence discrimination, and harassment.

Employees must not engage in intimidation, threats or hostile behaviors, physical abuse, vandalism, arson, sabotage, use of weapons, carrying weapons on to the WMPSC property, or any other act, which in management's opinion is inappropriate to the workplace. In addition, employees must refrain from making bizarre or offensive comments regarding violent events and/or behavior. Employees are expected to report any prohibited conduct to management. Employees should directly contact proper law enforcement authorities if they believe there is a serious threat to the safety and health of themselves or others.

School Weapons Policy

No student or non-student, including adults and visitors, can possess, use or distribute a weapon when in a School location or engaged in School related activities. The School will act to enforce this policy and to discipline or take appropriate action against any student, teacher-leader, employee, volunteer, or member of the public who violates this policy. WMPSC prohibits firearms on or around the WMPSC property and displays the appropriate signage as designated by law.

Reporting Procedures

Any possible violations of this policy must be reported immediately to a Teacher Leader, Partner, or board member. Reports may be made anonymously, and all reported incidents will be investigated. Reports or incidents   warranting confidentiality will be handled appropriately and information will be disclosed to others only on a need-to-know basis or as otherwise required by law. All parties involved in a situation will be counseled and/or disciplined as warranted by the facts of the situation. The School will intervene at any indication of a possibly hostile or violent situation.

Individual Situations

While the School does not expect employees to be skilled at identifying potentially dangerous persons, employees are expected to exercise good judgment and inform a team member when employees observe colleagues exhibiting behavior which could be a sign of a potentially dangerous situation. Such behavior includes, but is not limited to:

- Discussing weapons or bringing them to the workplace;
- Displaying overt signs of extreme stress, resentment, hostility, or anger;
- Making threatening remarks;
- Sudden or significant deterioration of performance; or
- Displaying irrational or inappropriate behavior.

Additional details are included in site-based Crisis Management Policies, which are linked in each School Site Appendix below.

Enforcement

Threats, threatening conduct, or any other acts of aggression or violence in the workplace will not be tolerated. Employees who violate this policy are subject to discipline including termination. Safety concerns should be immediately reported. Non-employees engaged in violent acts on the School's premises will be reported to their employer and the proper authorities. It is important that all employees be aware of the personal responsibility for maintaining a safe and healthful work environment.

Child Neglect or Physical or Sexual Abuse and Mandated Reporting

WMPSC prohibits all employees from neglecting, physically or sexually abusing or otherwise maltreating students or minors pursuant to the terms of the Colorado Revised Statutes Title 19. Children's Code § 19-3-304. Persons required to report child abuse or neglect.

Communication Tools

The Wildflower Network uses a few online communication and knowledge-sharing systems:

- Slack: Slack is used for network-wide communication, announcements, and advice-gathering. WMPSC Lead Circle is our sensible default for charter-wide advice requests and advice to be shared.
- Connected: Connected is Wildflower's knowledge-sharing intranet. It is a good place to search for Wildflower Collection essays and school operations tools/templates.
- HolaSpirit: HolaSpirit is the software Wildflower uses to outline roles, responsibilities, and organizational structure. It also houses the network's People Directory.

Use of Social Media

WMPSC takes no position on employees' decision to participate in the use of social media networks (including personal Web sites, Web logs (blogs), wikis, social networks, online forums, virtual worlds, and any other social media) for personal use on personal time.

Employees must avoid posting any information or engaging in communications that violate state or federal laws or WMPSC policies. The line between professional and personal relationships is blurred within a social media context. When employees choose to join or engage with students, families or colleagues in a social media context, they are advised to maintain their professionalism as employees of WMPSC and have responsibility for addressing inappropriate behavior or activity on these networks, including requirements for mandated reporting.

Student Travel & Staff Transportation of Students

No employee is permitted to take students off of school grounds without signed consent from the student's parent or guardian. For the safety of all employees and students, employees are prohibited from transporting students in their personal vehicles. Transportation of students to school or other related school events is permissible only by the School's contracted transportation services provider or if the child's parent is present in the vehicle.

Benefits

Summary of Benefits

WMPSC offers Health, Dental, Short-term disability, and Life insurance to benefit-eligible employees. WMPSC will provide a summary of benefits annually that will include a notice regarding the proportion of benefit premiums paid by WMPSC.

General Eligibility: Unless otherwise stated, to be eligible to receive employment benefits, employees must meet the following criteria:
- The employee must be regularly scheduled to work at least 30 hours per week. Employees whose hours are increased temporarily to cover for another employee are not eligible for benefits.
- Benefits coverage for new employees will begin on the first day of the month following the date of hire.

Retirement Account Eligibility: As a public charter school, all employees meeting the eligibility requirements of either the Teacher Retirement Account (TRA) or Public Employees Retirement Account (PERA) must participate in the plan. A notice will be sent annually regarding the percentage contributions.

Use of Personal Cell Phone for School Business

Partners are expected to be available in the event of a crisis and often use their personal cell phone for school purposes. In an effort to save costs and reduce administrative burden WMPSC has determined that a cell phone stipend of up to $30 will be provided to any partner that requests it via the Cell Phone Stipend & Data Privacy Form, so long as the expense has been included in the Site's budget. All employees that may use their personal cell phone for school business must agree to the Data Privacy requirements within the form.

Workers' Compensation

WMPSC carries workers' compensation insurance at no cost to its employees. This program covers injuries or illnesses sustained during employment that require medical, surgical or hospital treatment. Employees that sustain work-related injuries or illness should inform their colleagues immediately. Injured employees need to complete an injury report and see a doctor of the School's choice.

Enrollment Preference and Discount for WMPSC Employees

In accordance with WMPSC Enrollment Policy, WMPSC shall give enrollment preference to an WMPSC employee's child in the order shown in the Enrollment Preference section of the policy. In the event that an WMPSC Site operates a fee-based preschool, all WMPSC employees that enroll a preschool-aged child will pay a minimum of $600 per month of enrollment unless the employee otherwise qualifies for tuition assistance. Sites may determine if they would like to offer WMPSC employees a discount on preschool tuition available to the public. K-8 enrollment is tuition-free for all.

Paid Time Off

Holidays All benefit-eligible employees receive paid time off for Holidays as marked on the Site calendar. Teacher Leader(s) at each Site can determine if part-time employees receive paid Holiday time based on their regular work schedule.

Recordkeeping and Professional Development Recordkeeping and Professional Development days are generally considered work days for all employees that are regularly scheduled to work those days, however the Teacher Leader(s) at each Site can determine on a case-by-case basis if hourly employees are required to report to work on those days. If an employee is not required to report to work, Recordkeeping and Professional Development days are not paid for hourly employees.

Partners' Universal Leave Partners may take paid vacation time so long as the Advice Process is followed, proper coverage for roles and responsibilities is arranged, as needed, and the time off is posted on the Partner's work calendar.

Safe & Sick Leave WMPSC follows Minneapolis Safe & Sick Leave guidelines and provides a minimum of 1 hour of safe and sick leave for every 30 hours worked. Sites will be responsible for tracking sick leave usage, which will be reflected in the WMPSC payroll system.

Leaves of Absence

Domestic Abuse Leave Employees subject to domestic abuse may be eligible for a leave of absence. Please see the Lead Link or delegated role for more information.

Bereavement Leave Benefit-eligible employees are currently eligible for paid leave of up to three days (prorated for part-time benefit-eligible employees) to attend the funeral of an immediate family member. Immediate family is defined as the employee's spouse/partner, parents, children, sisters, brothers, grandparents, grandchildren, mother-in-law and father-in-law.

In the event of a death of a near relative, benefit-eligible employees are currently granted up to one paid day to attend a funeral. Near relatives include the employee's aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and their spouse/partner's grandparents, brothers, sisters, and other close relatives. If more time off is needed than provided above, other leave may be granted upon the approval of the Lead Link or delegated role.

Jury Duty Leave WMPSC encourages all employees to fulfill their civic responsibilities and to respond to jury service summons or subpoenas, attend court for prospective jury service or serve as a juror. Under no circumstances will employees be deprived of any benefits of employment, terminated, threatened, harassed or coerced because they request or take leave in accordance with this policy.

Employees will receive their regular compensation during the first three days of jury service. This includes part-time, casual and temporary employees, so long as their employment hours can be determined by a schedule, custom or practice established during the three-month period preceding jury service. For jury duty in excess of three days, employees receive the difference between jury duty pay and their regular pay up to a maximum of ten days (80 hours). Jury duty leave beyond this time is without pay. Exempt employees will not incur any reduction in pay for a partial week absence due to jury duty.

Employees seeking compensation for jury duty leave must provide a juror service certificate from the court as soon as practical. WMPSC will compensate the employee in accordance with this policy within 30 days of receiving the service certificate. Employees should provide their supervisor or other partner with notice of any jury summons or subpoena within a reasonable amount of time after receipt and before their appearance is required.

Medical Leave WMPSC provides up to 12 weeks of unpaid, medical leave for eligible full-time and part-time benefit eligible employees for the following reasons:
- Pregnancy, prenatal medical care, or child birth.
- To care for the employee's child after birth, or placement for adoption, or foster care.
- To care for the employee's spouse, son or daughter, or parent, who has a serious health condition.
- Serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee's job.
- For a medical leave to be granted, the following conditions must be met:
- The employee has completed ninety (90) days of employment with the Council.
- Lead Link or designee is notified by the employee as soon as possible of the need for medical leave.
- The employee submits to the supervisor or partner a written statement from the attending physician outlining the reason for leave and the estimated time needed.
- Approvals are obtained from the Lead Link or designee prior to the leave.
- When the estimated period of leave is less than 12 weeks, and an employee needs to extend the leave, another medical provider's statement is required indicating the new estimated length of leave.

Employees must continue to pay their portion of any insurance premium while on leave. If the employee is able but does not return to work after the expiration of the leave, the employee will be required to reimburse the WMPSC for payment of insurance premiums during leave. Upon return from medical leave, most employees are restored to their original or equivalent positions with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms. Certain highly compensated employees (key employees) may have limited reinstatement rights. Use of a medical leave will not result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of an employee's leave. As with other types of unpaid leaves, paid leave will not accrue during the unpaid leave. Holidays, funeral leave, or employer's jury duty pay are not granted on unpaid leave. Employees who fail to return at the expiration of their authorized leave may be terminated. If the employee's failure to return is due to a disability under the Americans with Disabilities Act or other law, additional accommodations may be provided. Employees must supply sufficient information from their medical provider indicating that they have a covered disability and when they can return to work with or without reasonable accommodation. Accommodations must not cause undue hardship to the employer.

Potential accommodations will be determined in an interactive process between the employee and the WMPSC.

Part-time, non-benefit eligible employees are not eligible for medical leave except as required for a disability.

Employees may be required to provide a certification and periodic recertification supporting the need for leave. WMPSC may require second and third medical opinions at WMPSC's expense. Documentation confirming family relationship, adoption, or foster care may be required. If notification and appropriate certification are not provided in a timely manner, approval for leave may be denied. Continued absence after denial of leave may result in disciplinary action in accordance with the WMPSC's attendance guideline. Employees on leave must contact the Lead Link or designee at least two days before their first day of return.

Military Leave Employees granted a military leave of absence are reinstated and paid in accordance with the laws governing veterans' reemployment rights.

Personal Leave Normally, personal leaves of absence are not granted. If, on rare occasions, management deems the circumstances warrant approval, an unpaid leave for non-medical reasons can be granted at the discretion of the Lead Link or delegated role.

Voting Under most circumstances, it is possible for employees to vote either before or after work. If it is necessary for employees to arrive late or leave work early to vote in any election, employees should arrange with their direct supervisor or other partner no later than the day prior to Election Day.

Other Statutory Leaves WMPSC will also provide employees with all other statutory leaves as allowed by law and for which the employee is eligible including, but not, limited to School Conference Leave, Bone Marrow and Organ Donor Leave and Civil Air Patrol leave.

Grievance Policy and Procedures

Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC) (the "School") strives to be proactive in promoting a positive culture between all of our community members. The following policy applies to grievances, including complaints, concerns, or conflicts. The WMPSC Teacher Leaders, Staff, and Board of Directors are committed to addressing and resolving grievances in a timely and efficient manner.

The Board of Directors places great trust in its faculty and administrators to manage the affairs of the School and to serve our School community. This grievance process should be used only for genuine complaints, concerns, or conflicts that require the attention of the Shared Services Partner or the Board, not simple disagreements that can be managed informally. The Board of Directors will not typically review grievances based on the discretionary day-to-day decision-making or good faith judgment calls made by faculty or administrators, unless there is clear evidence of misconduct or a need to address a substantial issue.

Employees may also utilize this process to dispute work related decisions by administration, like non-renewals or other work related concerns, complaints or conflicts.

Please follow these steps before filing a formal grievance:

Address issues with those directly involved – Bring your complaint, concern, or conflict first to the person best positioned to address it. Make efforts to sincerely resolve the issue with those who are directly involved. For example, if you are a parent and it is a specific classroom or academic issue, this will most likely be an attempt to resolve the issue with your child's teacher. If it is a broader,charter-wide issue, this will most likely be an attempt to resolve the issue with a School administrator. If you are an employee this will most likely be an attempt to resolve the issue with the co-worker with whom you have the issue, or your supervisor if it is a broader, charter-wide issue.

If your attempts to resolve the complaint, concern, or conflict informally does not produce a satisfactory result, or you find the individual(s) involved to be non-responsive, you may file a formal grievance by following these steps:

    1. Complete a Grievance Form (available on the WMPSC website) – This includes providing a brief summary of the issue; informal steps that were taken to resolve it, including discussions with those directly involved; the outcome of those attempts; the reasons why you were not satisfied with the outcome; a citation to any laws and/or policies that you believe were violated; and what you are requesting be reviewed and/or changed about the outcome.

2. Submit the Grievance Form to the Shared Services Partner– The form may be submitted to the School's front office or emailed directly to the Shared Services Partner or his/her secretary. If the Grievance is an issue in which the Shared Services Partner is the alleged offender then this form may be submitted directly to the Chair of the Board of Directors for consideration under Step 5.

3. Shared Services Partner Review – The Shared Services Partner will, within three working days, review the Grievance and either reply in writing to the grievant or request a meeting. Others involved may be consulted on the issue and/or invited to any meetings scheduled to discuss the issue.

4. Shared Services Partner Decision – Within ten working days of the date the Grievance Form is submitted, the Shared Services Partner will provide a written decision or planned course of action regarding the Grievance to the grievant.

5. School Board Review – If the grievant is not satisfied with the Shared Services Partner's decision or planned course of action, the grievant may, no later than five working days after the Shared Services Partner's decision, request that the Grievance be submitted by the Shared Services Partner for review to the Board. If the grievant requests Board review, the Shared Services Partner will forward all documentation, including the original Grievance Form, any notes or summaries of meetings or actions taken, the Shared Services Partner's final written decision or planned course of action, and any other relevant information to the Board of Directors. Board Members may request an additional statement from the grievant, as well as any other information they deem relevant to research or request. The Board Chair may appoint a mediator, as appropriate, to attempt to resolve the concern. The Board Chair will determine whether or not to include the request on the agenda of the School Board's next meeting. An individual Board Member can make a motion to have it added to agenda during the Board's next meeting, and it will be added with a requisite vote of the majority, following regular procedures. At all stages of this process Board members will take care to preserve expectations of privacy, including avoidance of public references to specific individuals or incidents, and may call an executive session to discuss any Grievances, if it is a topic for which an executive session is allowed. If the Grievance is not reviewed at the next regular meeting following receipt of the request to review, or if a special meeting is not called to resolve it within 30 days, it will be deemed resolved and the decision or planned course of action articulated by the Shared Services Partner will be final, unless or until there is a change in circumstances.

6. School Board's Decision – Any decision by the Board at the conclusion of considering a Grievance, or a decision not to review a Grievance, will be final and the matter will be considered resolved. Any future consideration of the matter will require a change in circumstances and the grievant will be required to initiate the process from the beginning. If there is not a change in circumstances, any Grievance Form filed on a matter that is resolved may be ignored or simply disposed of with a response from the Shared Services Partner that the matter is deemed resolved.

At each stage of the grievance process both sides of a concern should be given an equal opportunity to provide information, evidence, and a response to any concerns or allegations. Those in the position of making a decision should reserve judgment until all of the information has been reviewed and considered. Any timelines provided herein may be extended by the Shared Services Partner or Board of Directors as needed, or by mutual agreement of those involved.

School Grievance Form

Please complete each section of this form and submit to the School's front office in an envelope with "Grievance" written on the outside; or email a copy to the Shared Services Partneror his/her secretary with the term "Grievance" and the date in the Subject line.

Pursuant to the Charter Schools Act, Wildflower Montessori Public Schools of Colorado (WMPSC) requests the following waivers to be applied, as listed below, and is committed to complying with all laws and policies that are not waived in this Section or not named as State automatic waivers. Each of the statutes are labeled and described with an adequate replacement plan to follow that WMPSC will adhere to. Each of the waivers listed below will be crucial to the operation of WMPSC and help maintain the mission, vision, and objectives of our program. Although a replacement plan is identified with each waiver requested, additional replacement policies and refinement of the noted plans will occur prior to the start of the charter's operations, with input from the Teacher Leaders and Board of Directors. We do not foresee any of our waivers to have a financial impact on the State or CO CSI.

Automatic Waivers

The following table outlines the Automatic Waivers granted to charter schools in Colorado to which we will accept. We will accept all of the automatic CSI Waivers.

Below are the Non-Automatic State Waivers that WMPSC is requesting. Please note this list is not exhaustive, as it needs to be reviewed with the school's legal counsel prior to finalizing the charter contract.

State and District Non-Automatic Waivers

Non-Automatic Waivers: Statute Description and Rationale and Replacement Plan
C.R.S. § 22-9-106: Local Board Duties Concerning Performance Evaluations C.R.S. §22-9-108 Evaluator Training – Universities and Colleges – Duties
Rationale: WMPSC must have its own evaluation system and will be responsible for these matters, including training personnel on evaluation practices, rather than the school district.
Replacement Plan: WMPSC will implement its own evaluation system as outlined in this charter application. The evaluation system will meet the intentions of SB 10-191. Our evaluation system, referred to as the Growth and Accountability Cycle, will align with shared values of Connectedness and Growth and will support reflection of accountability to self and the charter community. Results will support both the assessment of performance as well as growth and development of staff.
Duration of Waivers: The waiver will extend for the duration of the contract.
Financial Impact: WMPSC foresees no financial impact for the charter or the Authorizer.
How the Impact of the Waivers Will be Evaluated: This waiver will be evaluated by the overall performance of the charter, as school performance is connected to the effectiveness of Teacher Leaders.
Expected Outcome: Implementing this waiver, WMPSC will live into the Wildflower values of Growth and Connectedness as a strategy for achieving its mission of an authentic Montessori education model focused on academic outcomes and social emotional learning.

Non-Automatic Waivers: Statute Description and Rationale and Replacement Plan
C.R.S. § 22-2-112(1)(q)(I) Commissioner-Duties - Reporting Performance Evaluation Ratings

Rationale: WMPSC will be exempt from also having to report performance ratings through their authorizer to CDE and has established its own measures of performance.

Replacement Plan: WMPSC will send data to CDE directly.

Duration of Waivers: The waiver will extend for the duration of the contract.

Financial Impact: WMPSC foresees no financial impact for the charter or the Authorizer.

How the Impact of the Waivers Will be Evaluated: WMPSC will have its own reporting system and will be able to send data directly to CDE, including its accountability data outlined in its charter application.

Expected Outcome: WMPSC will be able to monitor its own performance and progress.

Non-Automatic Waivers: Statute Description and Rationale and Replacement Plan

C.R.S. §22-32-109(1)(n)(I) Board of Education – Specific Duties – School Calendar

C.R.S. §22-32-109(1)(n)(II)(A) Board of Education - Specific Duties - Teacher Pupil Contact Hours

C.R.S. §22-32-109(1)(n)(II)(B) Board of Education-Specific Duties – District Calendar

Rationale: WMPSC will have autonomy to create its own school calendar and will reference the Aurora District Calendar (Appendix D_School Calendar ENG and Appendix D_School Calendar SPA) in this process. Instructional days will exceed state statute requirements. The academic school day will be determined by the sites and will be longer than the traditional district school day. To meet community needs, wherever possible we will align our calendars with national holidays and the district calendar.

Replacement Plan: WMPSC has created a sample daily schedule in Section E and the calendar will be created by the Shared Services Partner and Teacher Leaders, in coordination with community input during Fall 2022. The annual calendar and schedule will be published no later than the application deadline each year, prior to the annual lottery.

Duration of Waivers: The waiver will extend for the duration of the contract.

Financial Impact: WMPSC foresees no financial impact for the charter or the Authorizer. We may require additional meals for students and will work with local vendors or Food Bank of the Rockies to cater meals.

How the Impact of the Waivers Will be Evaluated: Implementation will allow for students to have more uninterrupted work periods in class - a cornerstone of Montessori pedagogy.

Expected Outcome: Implementation of this strategy will lead to stronger academic gains, social-emotional learning, and a stronger sense of community.

Non-Automatic Waivers: Statute Description and Rationale and Replacement Plan
C.R.S. § 22-63-201 Teacher Employment Act - Compensation & Dismissal Act - Requirement to hold a certificate C.R.S. § 22-63-202 Teacher Employment Act - Contracts in writing, damage provision C.R.S. § 22-63-203 Teacher Employment Act - Requirements for probationary teacher, renewal & nonrenewal C.R.S. §22-32-109.7 Selection of Personnel C.R.S. §22-63-205 Teacher Employment Act-Exchange of teachers out of state or foreign C.R.S. §22-63-204 Teacher Employment Act- End Receiving Monies from Sale of Goods
Rationale: WMPSC will hire and dismiss teachers and staff in accordance with statute when applicable. Grounds for dismissal will be outlined in the employee handbook staff evaluation process (Appendix H_WMPSC Draft Staff Handbook and Appendix D_Staff Evaluation Process). WMPSC is an at-will employer. Teachers hired within the District will not retain their employment rights within the District and will be treated as at-will employees. WMPSC students may sell goods made on site to raise money for the charter. WMPSC will hire its own staff.
Replacement Plan: WMPSC will hire, as appropriate, certified teachers and staff. As a Montessori program, we will prioritize training in AMI / AMS Montessori pedagogy and hire highly qualified teachers and/or administrators without certification but who possess the unique skills and competencies necessary to fulfill the mission of WMPSC. All WMPSC Teacher Leaders will complete the Wildflower School Startup Journey, and all staff will be held accountable through our Growth and Accountability Cycles. The self-management approaches will be used in addition to State and federally mandated processes, including Conflict Resolution.
Duration of Waivers: The waiver will extend for the duration of the contract.
Financial Impact: WMPSC foresees no financial impact for the charter or the Authorizer.
How the Impact of the Waivers Will be Evaluated: WMPSC will implement a reflection and growth evaluation process for teacher leaders and staff, speaking to the effectiveness of our model.

Expected Outcome: WMPSC will be able to hire the best fit staff for our program with Montessori training that is responsive to our community's needs and best serves the mission of our charter.

Non-Automatic Waivers: Statute Description and Rationale and Replacement Plan

C.R.S. § 22-63-206 Teacher Employment, Compensation and Dismissal Act

Rationale: WMPSC has authority to select its own teachers. WMPSC uses the School Startup Journey as a process for every Teacher Leader to envision and co-create a community-embedded charter site. No other entity, including CSI, should have permissions to transfer teachers to WMPSC or to transfer students from WMPSC to CSI-authorized schools.

Replacement Plan: WMPSC will own full authority to hire its staff in alignment with organizational priorities and the charter's mission.

Duration of Waivers: The waiver will extend for the duration of the contract.

Financial Impact: WMPSC foresees no financial impact for the charter or the Authorizer.

How the Impact of the Waivers Will be Evaluated: This waiver will be evaluated by the effectiveness of the Teacher Leaders hired by WMPSC.

Expected Outcome: Teacher Leaders will be hired based on progress moving through the Wildflower School Startup Journey and that are a best fit for supporting the mission and culture building of the school community.

Non-Automatic Waivers: Statute Description and Rationale and Replacement Plan

C.R.S. §22-32-110(1)(y) Accepting Gifts, Donations, and Grants
C.R.S. §22-32-109(1)(b) Local Board Duties

Rationale: While WMPSC will operate with PPR funding, they will need to be able to manage their own finances and access school startup grants and will establish expense reimbursement policies and procedures. The board must be able to accept these gifts and utilize them to support WMPSC operations in support of its mission.

Replacement Plan: WMPSC is in the process of securing grants to support its startup and initial operations in the earlier years. Section G: Budget and Finance outlines the grants we are currently working to secure upon approval of the charter application. WMPSC is in the best position to know what goods and services it will procure and which vendors are able to support the WMPSC mission. WMPSC will establish its own financial procedures to manage its competitive bid process.

Duration of Waivers: The waiver will extend for the duration of the contract.

Financial Impact: WMPSC foresees no financial impact for the charter or the Authorizer.

How the Impact of the Waivers Will be Evaluated: The effectiveness of this waiver will be the financial solvency of the organization and WMPSC's effective use of its resources.

Expected Outcome: WMPSC will establish its own financial policies and procedures allowing it to effectively manage its financials. This additional philanthropic funding will allow WMPSC to implement its model with fidelity and adequate resources that support organizational optimal effectiveness.

Non-Automatic Waivers: Statute Description and Rationale and Replacement Plan

C.R.S. §22-7-1014(2)(a) Preschool individualized readiness plans - school readiness - assessments

Rationale: WMPSC uses methods of evaluation in alignment with Montessori pedagogy and given the preschool program will have comprehensive data and evaluation methods established.

Replacement Plan: WMPSC will evaluate student preparedness based on Montessori assessment and observation methods and reputable assessments outlined in Sections F: Goals, Objective, Pupil Performance, D: Educational Programming, and the PreK Addendum. Assessments planned to inform Kindergarten readiness are Ages and Stages, and Pals. Assessments and school readiness will be named and evaluated through authorizer performance expectations.

Duration of Waivers: The waiver will extend for the duration of the contract.

Financial Impact: WMPSC foresees no financial impact for the charter or the Authorizer.

How the Impact of the Waivers Will be Evaluated: Teacher Leaders will have deep awareness of student performance and readiness for Kindergarten using Montessori methodologies of evaluation and relevant assessments administered per our authorizer performance expectations.

Expected Outcome: Teacher Leaders will be well informed of student readiness for Kindergarten and will adjust programs and individual student plans based on assessment, and Montessori methodologies of observations and evaluation.

Non-Automatic Waivers: Statute Description and Rationale and Replacement Plan

C.R.S. § 22-33-105(7)(b) Process for Disciplinary Appeals

Rationale: As a CSI charter school, the school's governing board must have the ability to hear disciplinary and related appeals under C.R.S. § 22-33-105(2)(c).

Replacement Plan: The charter contract delegates the authority to implement the School Attendance Law of 1963 to the school administration, which is consistent with state law; however, as opposed to CSI carrying out the functions, the governing board of the school will carry out those functions. To ensure that the school is meeting the intent of the law, the school will involve its legal counsel and CSI in any appeals to the governing board to ensure that students are being afforded appropriate due process. The school will develop a policy for carrying out the requirements of C.R.S. § 22-33-105 for review and approval by CSI. In addition, the school will report expulsion data pursuant to C.R.S. § 22-33-105(2.5).

Duration of Waivers: The waiver will extend for the duration of the contract.

Financial Impact: The school anticipates that the requested Waiver will have minimal financial impact on the school and no financial impact on CSI.

How the Impact of the Waivers Will be Evaluated: The school will be required to record all data involving suspensions and expulsions with access for review by both CSI and the school's governing board. In addition, the school's governing board will develop policies and procedures for suspensions, expulsions, and denial of admission for review and approval by CSI.

Expected Outcome: The outcome will be a fair and supportive process for the school to make appropriate determinations regarding the School Attendance Law of 1963 at the local level, with administrative oversight by CSI.

Non-Automatic Waivers: Statute Description and Rationale and Replacement Plan

C.R.S. § 22-32-109(1)(c) Adopt Dress Code Policy

Rationale: WMPSC recognizes that dress code has a role in establishing culture and will establish its own dress code in alignment with WMPSC's culture of inclusivity.

Replacement Plan: WMPSC will implement its own dress code policy

Duration of Waivers: The waiver will extend for the duration of the contract.
Financial Impact: WMPSC foresees no financial impact for the charter or the Authorizer.
How the Impact of the Waivers Will be Evaluated: This waiver will be evaluated by outcomes based on the dress code policy.
Expected Outcome: Community members will be feel free to express themselves and feel included.

WMPSC requests that CSI exercise good faith when adopting future policies, procedures, rules and regulations and gives WMPSC proper notice of policies, procedures, or regulations that may materially conflict with WMPSC's mission and educational program.

BROKERAGE DISCLOSURE TO TENANT

DEFINITIONS OF WORKING RELATIONSHIPS

For purposes of this document, landlord includes sublandlord and tenant includes subtenant.

Landlord's Agent: A landlord's agent works solely on behalf of the landlord to promote the interests of the landlord with the utmost good faith, loyalty and fidelity. The agent negotiates on behalf of and acts as an advocate for the landlord. The landlord's agent must disclose to potential tenants all adverse material facts actually known by the landlord's agent about the property. A separate written listing agreement is required which sets forth the duties and obligations of the broker and the landlord.

Tenant's Agent: A tenant's agent works solely on behalf of the tenant to promote the interests of the tenant with the utmost good faith, loyalty and fidelity. The agent negotiates on behalf of and acts as an advocate for the tenant. The tenant's agent must disclose to potential landlords all adverse material facts actually known by the tenant's agent, including the tenant's financial ability to perform the terms of the transaction and, if a residential property, whether the tenant intends to occupy the property. A separate written tenant agency agreement is required which sets forth the duties and obligations of the broker and the tenant.

Transaction-Broker: A transaction-broker assists the tenant or landlord or both throughout a real estate transaction by performing terms of any written or oral agreement, fully informing the parties, presenting all offers and assisting the parties with any contracts, including the closing of the transaction, without being an agent or advocate for any of the parties. A transaction-broker must use reasonable skill and care in the performance of any oral or written agreement, and must make the same disclosures as agents about all adverse material facts actually known by the transaction-broker concerning a property or a tenant's financial ability to perform the terms of a transaction and, if a residential property, whether the tenant intends to occupy the property. No written agreement is required.

Customer: A customer is a party to a real estate transaction with whom the broker has no brokerage relationship because such party has not engaged or employed the broker, either as the party's agent or as the party's transaction-broker.

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN BROKER AND TENANT

Broker and Tenant referenced below have NOT entered into a tenant agency agreement. The working relationship specified below is for a specific property described as:

East Iliff Plaza
or real estate which substantially meets the following requirements:

_____.

Tenant understands that Tenant is not liable for Broker's acts or omissions that have not been approved, directed, or ratified by Tenant.

CHECK ONE BOX ONLY:

⊙ Multiple-Person Firm. Broker, referenced below, is designated by Brokerage Firm to serve as Broker. If more than one individual is so designated, then references in this document to Broker shall include all persons so designated, including substitute or additional brokers. The brokerage relationship exists only with Broker and does not extend to the employing broker, Brokerage Firm or to any other brokers employed or engaged by Brokerage Firm who are not so designated.

○ One-Person Firm. If Broker is a real estate brokerage firm with only one licensed natural person, then any references to Broker or Brokerage Firm mean both the licensed natural person and brokerage firm who shall serve as Broker.

CHECK ONE BOX ONLY:

⊙   Customer. Broker is the ☑ landlord's agent ☐ landlord's transaction-broker and Tenant is a customer. Broker intends to perform the following list of tasks: ☑ Show the premises ☑ Prepare and Convey written offers, counteroffers and agreements to amend or extend the contract. Broker is not the agent or transaction-broker of Tenant.

◯   Customer for Broker's Listings – Transaction-Brokerage for Other Properties. When Broker is the landlord's agent or landlord's transaction-broker, Tenant is a customer. When Broker is not the landlord's agent or landlord's transaction-broker, Broker is a transaction-broker assisting Tenant in the transaction. Broker is not the agent of Tenant.

◯   Transaction-Brokerage Only. Broker is a transaction-broker assisting the Tenant in the transaction. Broker is not the agent of Tenant.

If Broker is acting as a transaction-broker, Tenant consents to Broker's disclosure of Tenant's confidential information to the supervising broker or designee for the purpose of proper supervision, provided such supervising broker or designee shall not further disclose such information without consent of Tenant, or use such information to the detriment of Tenant.

THIS IS NOT A CONTRACT.

If this is a residential transaction, the following provision applies:

MEGAN'S LAW. If the presence of a registered sex offender is a matter of concern to Tenant, Tenant understands that Tenant must contact local law enforcement officials regarding obtaining such information.

WMPSC Aurora Insurance and Liability

WMPSC will engage Epic Brokers and Philadelphia Insurance Companies to provide all our required insurance coverage, including directors and officers, comprehensive general liability, building and contents, errors and omissions (including Teacher Leaders), blanket occupational accident, and excess workers' compensation insurance. We will obtain coverage for each charter site, its employees, and its activities, as well as for the Board of Directors.

We have included all these insurance policies in our budget based on actual or best-guess estimates. We have budgeted for comprehensive general liability coverage at $2,000,000 per occurrence to include bodily injury, property damage, abuse and molestation, employee benefits, and employment practices, as well as an additional $1,000,000 in coverage for errors and omissions. Once we have secured our facilities, we will obtain building and contents insurance. We have also budgeted for workers' compensation per state law and will ensure this is in place before employees are hired.

WMPSC agrees that it will not extend the faith and credit of CSI, its authorizer, to any third party or entity. WMPSC acknowledges and agrees that it has no authority to enter into a contract that would bind the authorizer, and that WMPSC's authority to contract is limited by the same provisions in law or authorizer policy that apply to CSI itself, unless specific exemptions have been obtained. WMPSC is limited in its authority to contract by the amount of funds obtained from CSI, as provided hereunder, or from other independent sources. The WMPSC Board of Directors shall have the authority to approve contracts to which the charter is a party, subject to the requirements and limitations of the Colorado Constitution, state law, authorizer policies, the provisions of the contract, and the Charter Agreement.

To the extent not covered by insurance or otherwise barred by the Colorado Governmental Immunity Act, WMPSC agrees to indemnify and hold the Authorizer and its agents and employees harmless from all liability, claims, and demands on account of injury, loss, or damage, including, without limitation, claims arising from bodily injury, personal injury, sickness, disease, death, property loss, or damage or any other losses of any kind whatsoever that arise out of or are in any manner connected with the charter's operations. The foregoing provision shall not be deemed a relinquishment or waiver of any kind of applicable limitations of liability provided by the Colorado Governmental Immunity Act.
